GO SOCCER EDITORIAL

By Go Soccer Editor

GEOFF STEAD

Once again Queenslanders have been overlooked by Frank Arok in the selection of his national train-on squad for the Socceroos' world tour in November.

Mr. Arok chose 34 players in the squad. To rank the players from Brisbane City and Lions as no better than 35th in the country is beyond comprehension.

The statistics suggest it is an injustice.

The week that Mr. Arok named his squad, City and Lions were fourth on points and just outside the top five on places in their conference.

City's defensive record was among the best in the League while Lions had scored as many goals as any other team (Sydney City, Olympic and Marconi aside).

Someone has to be doing something, somewhere. And Joe Gilroy and Gordon Arrowsmith will be the first to agree that the good form of their teams is due to other players' commitment and ability.

The fact is, Brisbane players are more than competing with their southern counterparts and deserved recognition.

How can Mr. Arok name six keepers as under consideration for the tour, yet not include City custodian Kim Wishart?

That smacks of blatant discrimination.

How too can the masterly Frank Pimblett be overlooked when others that he has totally dominated in matches this season are included in the national squad?

Steve Jackson, Alan Niven and John Stewart are others who have shown national team potential throughout the season.

Everyone in Queensland knows we have players capable of performing well in the green and gold, and our officials are prepared to shout about it.

But sadly, the people who make the decisions stopped listening long ago.

Points to ponder

Congratulations must go out to Annerley Soccer Club which this week can boast all four senior teams at the top of their divisions. It must be some time since another club has achieved the feat. The club's Colts 'A' won their premierships last weekend while the Division 'One' Reserves secured theirs some weeks ago. That leaves the Division Five and First teams to see out the remaining few weeks to complete a unique quadrella.

A National League player was given the opportunity to rate his side for a southern soccer paper recently after the team's surprise 1-0 victory. The player gave a number of his team-mates "6's", then turned around and gave himself an "8".

Who was the referee who said, after seeing Alan Kibbler hit in the head with the ball during the Ampol Cup final: "It would never happen to me. I never get that close to the game."

And who was the Premier League vice-president who ended up in the watchhouse one recent Friday. He had been to a "lunch" which started at 2 p.m. and finished at 10 p.m. and was later caught by the constabulary "watering" a building in Adelaide Street.

There must be a question mark over the big game ability of one or two Lions Intermediate League players after their disappointing showing in the Ampol Cup final. They were the same players who didn't produce their talents in last year's Premier League grand final.

Although it may not have appeared in print, quite a few people heard national coach Frank Arok say at Perry Park earlier this year that he could not really consider players from either Brisbane City or Lions because the two teams had finished so low on the NSL table in 1982. How does that leave the St. George players now that their side is struggling at the foot of the Australian Conference and staring relegation in the face?

Big Lions striker Phil Redmond is looking forward to having a game or two in one of the local competitions before the season is out. Despite the injury setbacks of this season, Phil and his wife have hardly missed a Lions home game and the big man will hear nothing of his career being over. He certainly deserves another chance for his professional approach to the game alone.

WE MISS OUT AGAIN...

Former Mareeba United State League player Frank Farina is the lone carrier of Queensland colours in the Australian train-on squad for the Socceroos' world tour later this year.

Although now claimed by Canberra, Farina still calls himself a Queensland and calls Cairns "home".

Farina was one of 34 players selected by Frank Arok for the train-on squad.

As expected Sydney City dominated the squad with six players, although St. George (Arok's club team) has five selected.

The make-up of the squad did little to please QSF president and ASF senior-vice president Ald. Ian Brusasco, who said: "I think it is typical of the treatment handed out to Queensland that out of 34 players, not one Queensland was considered good enough to make the squad."

The squad will be pruned to 22 after a training camp in Melbourne on October 10 and 11, which will include a trial match against Tasmania in Hobart. All players have until October 5 to prove their fitness.

The squad is:

T. Pezzano, S. O'Connor, A. Robertson, J. Watson, J. Kosmina (Syd City), T. Greedy, D. Ratcliffe, M. O'Shea (St. Geo), G. Jennings, P. Raskopoulos, J. Patikas, M. Soper (Syd Oly), T. McCulloch, R. Brown (M'con), A. Franken (C'berra), I. Gray (L'hardt), W. Savor, G. Arnold (Syd Croatia), P. O'Connor (B'town), J. Olver, C. Yankos (H'berg), K. Murphy, C. Egan, S. Blair, A. Davidson (S Melb), T. Cumming, T. Curcio (Melb. Croatia), P. Lewis (Melb Croatia), V. Belic (F'cray), D. Skeen, J. O'Shea (St Geo), A. Bertogna (L'hardt), J. Cant (Syd. City), F. Farina (C'berra).

A BIG SEASON FOR AMATEURS

By GREG RUSSELL

The spotlight of attention this season has firmly focussed on the tightly-packed Premier League, where prior to last weekend, eight teams were a chance of a semi-final berth.

And although the top competition has always grabbed the headlines, some equally interesting tussles and at times some comparable football has been seen in the lower amateur divisions.

In fact, there have been some real success stories, some unbelievable upsets and some surprising disappointments.

As the season draws to a close, Go Soccer this week takes some time out to pay tribute to the lower divisions and its legions of dedicated amateurs.

Division One undoubtedly has been dominated by Kingsridge. Although Salisbury raced to an early lead in the competition, Kingsridge pegged them back by the seventh round and have not been headed since.

At times they have gone on goalscoring sprees, like their 7-1 win over Darra in May and their 5-2 victory over Nerang in July, but at the same time they have kept a tight defence.

But special mention must also go to Annerley, who have kept Kingsridge honest in the run into the finals.

Bob Scanlan's boys began the season disastrously, taking only one point from their first six, but they soon rapidly began climbing the table and in recent weeks have begun to whittle away Kingsridge lead. But the time may run out for the Elder Park boys.

The Annerley Reserves must also rate a mention, maintaining an incredible undefeated run and amassing one of the highest goal tallies in the federation.

Division Two has been all Brighton. The Bulldogs have fought off the challenges of Oxley and University to never be far away from the top of the table throughout the year.

The three teams have opened a comfortable lead at the top of the table and their clashes in the finals will be matches worth catching. The championships is still an open race and it could come down to the last round when Brighton tackle the determined Inal City, who are still bidding for a semi spot, while University and Oxley have the seemingly easier ties against Booval and North Brisbane respectively.

The Reserves is a battle between Brighton, Inala and Uni, all who have scored more than 60 goals this season.

Division Three saw an early charge from Greenbank die as Beenleigh and Ipswich City emerged as the teams to beat. But the division has had its share of upsets, like the weekend where Industrial beat Logan City 5-0. As the semis

SOCCERWORLD

The Sun newspaper says Johnston is refusing to return to the club from Australia until his wife gives birth to their first child. The baby is not due until October 15.

Johnston's refusal to return to Liverpool has been referred to the Professional Footballers Association, the Sun says. Liverpool chief executive Peter Robinson said: "It is an unsatisfactory situation for him and us. "It must be sorted out."

Johnston, a 650,000 stg (about $A1 million) signing from Middlesbrough three years ago, asked for a transfer last season and has refused to sign a new contract.

Liverpool, who will be paying Johnston wages until the end of this month, are likely to ask the Football League to intervene if the PFA is unable to solve the problem.

Italian club A.C. Milan have agreed to transfer England striker Luther Blissett back to his former club Watford.

A spokesman for Milan confirmed that terms for the deal were agreed following a meeting of representatives of the clubs at London airport.

The spokesman said Milan, who were represented by Director General Antonio Cardillo, had agreed a fee of 1.4 million lire, about $A800,000, with Watford.

The English club's chief executive Eddie

Plumley said he expected the deal to be completed before the weekend.

Blissett, who joined Milan last year in a ($A1.6 million deal, had a dismal first season in Italian soccer and failed to live up to expectations.

In the close season, Milan signed two other England stars, midfielder Ray Wilkins from Manchester United and striker Mark Hateley from Portsmouth, to take the two places for foreigners in Italian teams.

approach the top three are clearcut but Willowburn must fight off a charge of three for the fourth spot. — and the Toowoomba side is yet to play Beenleigh in the second round.

In Division Four, new clubs Brothers and Pine Hills have been among the successes, although North Pine threw away their early lead. Grange Thistle though has always been up with the leaders and seems to have hit form at the right time.

The most unbelievable results though have come from the Wacol Prison team.

The side has one of the best attacking records of any team in the lower half of a division and seem to specialise in high-scoring losses. Spare a thought too for Bayside who have plugged along all year to turn in some fighting efforts against the odds.

Division Five has been Annerley's competition, although Capalaba have always kept them on their toes. Special mention must also be made of the Kenmore team which joined the competition mid-season and have hung in there in search of their first win. The side snared its first point with a draw against Capalaba three weeks ago, a week after crashing 10-2 to a "re-shuffled" Logan City.

Division Six was a battle in five until recently when North Star seemed to fall off the back of the pack.

Rochedale were undisputed leaders for much of the season until defeats by Acacia Ridge (who beat them in both rounds) and Mitchelton brought them back to the pack.

The top four are closely packed coming into the final rounds with the crunch matches yet to play including Taringa hosting Acacia Ridge and Mitchy play Rovers in the last round.

Colts A was unfortunate in that the competition had to be redrawn after several teams withdrew. And another team pulled out only recently. But the tiny competition has featured some good football, particularly from Annerley, Moggill and Mitchelton.

TED JEFFERIES

— TALKING TOUGH SOCCER —

I am absolutely stunned that neither Frank Pimblett nor Kim Wishart were named in the train-on squad for the Socceroos' world tour.

Pimblett has been outstanding over the past two months and while Wishart's form has not been as good as earlier in the season, there can be no question of him not being among the top half dozen in the country.

But Mr. Arok seemingly does not agree. But then, how would he know?

My understanding is that he has spent the past month or so in Europe seeking medical treatment. Who has advised him of the form of his national team candidates during that time?

I can understand him sticking with the players who served him well during the international series, but who told him Wally Savor, Graham Arnold, Tony Crucio, Vlatko Belic and Tommy Cumming were playing well?

Obviously other coaches. So why wasn't Joe Gilroy and Gordon Arrowsmith contacted for their opinions?

It seems Mr. Arok does not feel threatened by Queensland, as he is by the pressure of club supporters in Sydney and Melbourne and therefore can choose to ignore us.

TED JEFFERIES is an independent contributor. His views are not necessarily those of Go Soccer nor of the Queensland Soccer Federation and its officials.

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

I must congratulate Iain Fagan for his "Dad's Army" win in the Ampol Cup final. It seemed "strange" (maybe that's the wrong word) all our so-called "top coaches" reckoned North Star would be beaten, including our tough talking soccer expert, Ted Jefferies. The exception was Wynnum's coach Brian Lampitt, although he didn't expect Stars to score.

I confess, I too fancied Lions, after their win over Ipswich. But it was unfortunate Shane Plazibatt could not play in the final. I know some people will say one man doesn't make a team, but to me he can make an impact.

To me, North Star's "old man", Jim Hermiston was their winner. In the second half I thought Lions were the better side, but they had nothing up front and unfortunately one of their best men was injured and had to go off.

Luck counts in any sport and as I said to a young Stars supporter I thought the goalkeepers would make the difference. No harm to the young Lions keeper, he just made a few mistakes and that's the way it goes.

Prior to going to the match I usually try and listen to our soccer TV expert and I think I heard him pass a remark when a young Preston player was kicked in the head. Unfortunately I believe he said: "a kick on the head doesn't do them any harm." To me the whole thing which involved Jim McDonagh, I think, looked a complete accident.

But I would like to know if this was the remark stated and whether it was said as a joke.

We all make mistakes in things we sometimes say, but to me a soccer personality making a remark like that to me is definitely wrong. It brought back memories of the remark he made a few months ago about the young Lions keeper needing Araldite on his gloves.

I thought he was there to report on matches and encourage players on the game.

The atmosphere at the Cup final was to me quite good, especially the set-up with the North Star juniors before the match.

But I was disgusted with one item in the match when Alan Kibbler gave young Paul Burns a yellow card. It may be in the rule book but he could have overlooked the occasion. If it had been in the penalty box I wonder whether he would have given a penalty?

Overall though, I think the referee didn't do too bad a job,

Mr. S. McGregor, Inala

A.S.P.A. PONTOON "OWNERS"

There were three joint winners of the Australian Soccer Press Association (Qld) Soccer Pontoon No. 3. "Team Owners" Mark Hairsine (Ipswich Utd. Premier League), Brian Hockey (Oxley United Division Two Reserves) and Ian Dalzell (RAAF Division Two Reserves) will share the first prize after their teams reached exactly 11 goals in the last full round of fixtures.

Below is a list of the teams and their new "Owners" for the ASPA Soccer Pontoon No. 4, the last for the season. The Pontoon will start this weekend. If Pontoon is not reached by the last round of fixtures the winner will be the team closest to 11 goals. Tallies can be followed in our weekly points tables.

IT'S FITNESS FOR SOCCER!

A "Fitness for Soccer" course will be held at Perry Park on October 27 and 28.

The course, which will feature Human Movement Studies lecturer Mr. Peter Abernathy, will involve practical and theory sessions on fitness components, the designing of training programmes and the assessment of fitness.

Exercises for fitness, with and without the ball, will be demonstrated.

"The course is designed at showing players and coaches how to make better use of the limited time available to get fit," state director of coaching Bruce Stowell said.

Although those attending the course will be required to complete certain exercises, the emphasis will be on taking part at your own pace.

"We are more concerned with people understanding what they are doing and why, rather than excelling at an exercise," Stowell said.

The cost of the course will be $20, which will include four sessions over the two days and lunch each day.

Applications close on October 19. Further details and bookings can be made by telephoning Bruce Stowell on 52 5328 or Reg Dyer on 372 3239.

ANOTHER TOP SEASON FOR OUR GIRLS

The women's soccer season just completed will be one not forgotten for many years by the Redlands United Second Division side, (pictured above).

The team came from "nowhere" to nearly snatch the grand final in a "rags to near-riches" run.

The side finished fourth in the premiership then produced a series of upset results before finally meeting their match in the grand final against North Star.

In the knockout semi-final they beat University 2-0, after losing 6-1 and 2-1 in earlier clashes. In the preliminary final they played a 1-1 draw after extra time with soccerettes. The replay finished in the same score before Redlands took the penalty decider 2-1.

In earlier clashes with Soccerettes Redlands had failed to score a goal and had conceded six.

In the final, North Star triumphed 2-0, but that was an improvement for the Redlands girls who had lost to Stars 3-0, 5-1 and 4-0 in earlier clashes.

The girls are now looking forward to next season when they hope to take the "double".

This season was once again another big year for women's soccer as the section of the code continues to advance in leaps and bounds.

Twenty-eight teams took part in this year's competitions while seven teams played in the fast-growing under 12's competition.

Riverside dominated the First Division and in addition to winning the Premiership and Grand Final, they took out the Watson Shield and the Referees' Cup.

Grange Thistle won the Knockout trophy.

North Star was the dominant team in Second Division and won the Grand Final and the Premiership.

Eastern Suburbs midfielder Kerry Millman was named Queensland Player of the year at the annual awards night.

Queensland gained four players in the Australian team to go to China in October. They are Kerry Millman, Joanne Millman, Sue Monteath and Julie Dolan.

Sue Monteath was named as state captain for the championships in Canberra this week. State coach was again Fred Robins. Robins is also a national selector for the Australian tour to Taiwan later this year.

The Queensland team is: S. Monteath, K. O'Sullivan, J. Millman, K. Millman, M. Sawyers, V. Clayton, S. McMahon, K. Dunlop, J. Dolan, T. Smith, L. Spencer, L. Geddes, L. Thorne, L. Hadley, J. Cummings, K. Stacey, S. Bubeck.

PREMIER LEAGUE — ROUND 17 GRANGE THISTLE v TARINGA R.

Lanham Park, Saturday, 7 p.m.

Referee: DIETER KLOSE

TEAMS

Grange Thistle owe something to their fans after their performance under lights at Lanham Park.

That night the Tangerines were woeful as Ipswich United ran out comfortable 3-1 winners, with Garth Moloney netting for the home side in the dying minutes.

On paper, Taringa are nowhere near the classy side Ipswich are, but that does not mean they will fight any less.

Rovers have built their game on commitment and determination and Thistle will have to work hard if they want the two points.

Time is running out for Tony Bailey to catch Ron Millman in the leading scorer competition, but against the Taringa defence, he might find some extra space.

Whether Steve Dolan will be back in the Thistle side remains to be seen, but he is a big player for the Grange club and they are a different team when he is on the sidelines.

Without Dolan, this might end in a draw, but at full strength, Thistle should take the full points.

Wynnum coach Brian Lampitt is no stranger to Mount Gravatt after being their star striker for several seasons some years ago.

But the skilful Englishman would like nothing better than to score a victory over the Hawks, particularly at this stage of the season.

Mount Gravatt struggled to beat Wynnum in the first round at Dittmer Park and it was only a Cameron Bell goal which gave the Hawks both points.

But that has been the story all along this season for Wynnum. They have competed in every department only to lose concentration fractionally and throw away the points.

This is really a vital game for both sides as neither can afford to drop points, although their reasons are somewhat different.

It's a typical end of season crunch match. The form says Mt Gravatt should win, but we'll gamble on a draw.

PREMIER LEAGUE — ROUND 17
EASTS v NORTH STAR

Heath Park, Sunday, 2.45 p.m.

To be advised

TEAMS

There will be some clever heads and some enthusiastic youngsters on the park for this clash.

If anyone can match the experience and silken midfield touches of Jim Hermiston it would be Easts' Phil Thompson at his best, while Ray Pocock is just as experienced as Jim Cameron, Billy Wilkinson or George Potter.

North Star should have their exciting youngsters Jarrod Austin and Lindsay Dines back from state team duty. But their flair and raw enthusiasm is keenly matched by Easts' youngsters Chris Fegan and Rich Chamberlain.

Easts rampaging striker Mark Brusasco will be pitted against former Brisbane City team-mates Potter and Wilkinson and that should be an interesting tussle.

The two sides are the form teams of the second round and this clash looms as possibly the match of the round. At home, Easts to win in a goal feast.

Ron Millman skinned the Ridge defence in this corresponding first round clash to finish with a hat-trick as Ipswich ran out 3-2 winners.

No doubt the Ridge learned their lesson that day and will be much more alert to the speedy striker's abilities this time around.

But Millman is a hard man to stop at the best of times and Acacia Ridge will have to be on the ball.

If they hit form, the Ridge can match it with anyone. But such displays have been few and far between this season.

Coach Bob Butchard has already begun bleeding youngsters for next year and Ipswich could have too much experience allround.

But Ridge keeper Brett Beves has been in fine form this season and he could take some beating if given the right protection.

Ipswich still haven't given up hope of winning the title and they will want, and probably get, two points from this clash.

PREMIER LEAGUE — ROUND 17
COALSTARS v OLYMPIC UTD.

Bundamba, Sunday, 2.45 p.m.

Referee: To be advised

TEAMS

Former Olympic player Peter Tyson will be keen to score a win over his former club in Coalstars' final home game of the season.

This time last year Tyson was helping guide Olympic towards their successful run to the Grand Final and hardly would have imagined he would be playing in Ipswich in 12 months time.

But he has been a valuable sign- ing for Coalstars.

Although he has not been among the goals too many times this sea- son, Coalstars supporters will be hoping that changes when Tyson meets his old club.

But he faces formidable midfield opposition in the likes of Billy Williamson and possibly Graham Wilson.

Both teams have a bit of pace in their attacks, which should make for some fast action. But both de- fences also boast some tough tack- lers so strikers can expect no favors. It will be tough but a pro- bable Olympic win.
