Coalstars striker Mark Brusasco is on line to win his second Rothman's medal if the Go Soccer XXXX Report ratings are a guide.

The 1981, medal winner, who starred in the Bundamba team's Ampol Cup victory last weekend, has the highest average rating for the 14 rounds of the XXXX League played so far. Brusasco, an ever-present in the Coalstars side, has returned an average of 7.93 points — an amazing consistency over the season. But hot on his heels is Mount Gravatt midfielder Martin Kirsopp, who has been among the leading placegetters in the Rothman's count for the past three years. Kirsopp's XXXX Report average rating is 7.86 points.

But what could go against the pair winning the prized gold medal is that several other players in their sides have also maintained a high level of performance this season — as indicated in our ratings averages. — And under the referees' voting system in the Rothman's, they could take valuable points off each other.

In our review of the XXXX Report ratings, League leaders Coalstars had five players who averaged 7.27 or better. In addition to Brusasco, the Mr. Consistency's in the Bundamba side have been Kevin Caldwell (7.50), Dave Wheeler (7.38), Bruce Penman (7.36) and Brent Diflo (7.27). Those who have matched Kirsopp's sustained form in the Hawks side have included

Mount Gravatt's Martin Kirsopp . . . Man of the Match six times and a leading Rothman's medal contender.

Domenic Tonel (7.38) and Craig Dickson (7.36).

Competition darkhorses Olympic United could also prove to be a surprise packet in the Rothman's count, and supply the winner for the second consecutive year. Craig Low, now at Lions, was last season's Rothman's medal winner. In the XXXX Report ratings averages Olympic's Mick Cernaka (7.64), Mike Milovanovic (7.64) and Paul Barry (7.50) have all maintained a high level of consistency this season.

Eastons and North Star were the early competition leaders and their players could be expected to poll well on Rothman's night, this season to be held for the first time at the Mayfair Crest Hotel. North Star's Billy Williamson has averaged 7.50 points in the XXXX report to marginally lead a host of consistent team-mates. The Tigers' best in our weekly ratings have been Phil Redmond (7.62) and Jim McDonagh (7.21).

Some say it is easier to win the prized best and fairest medal from a mid-table or lower placed team and if that's the case, "bolters" could include Taringa's Andrew Lapa, who has averaged 7.50 points, while Thistle's best has been Jason Burr (7.43), Lions most consistent is Richard Van Win (7.36) while Wynnum's Pat Leathan has returned 7.12 in his limited appearances.

Although our ratings are an indication of consistency rather than the best and fairest, and are affected by the number of games played, they undoubtedly prove a handy indicator to the Rothman's count.

In fact, using our ratings average as a guide, the Rothman's leader board could read . . .

Brusasco, Kirsopp, Milovanovic, Penman, Redmond, Cernaka, Williamson, Lapa, Tonel, Wheeler. But then again, there have been surprises in the past.

Looking further at the ratings, it is interesting to note the number of players used by each League club.

POINTS TO PONDER . . .

Our Irish friend has only "fuzzy" recollections of the night, but apparently after one binge during a recent overseas trip, he went to bed but woke up in the morning next to someone else's wife!

One senior QSF official is seeking feedback on his thoughts that next year's semi-professional leagues should be two divisions of eight teams. No doubt a few clubs, already struggling under the present system, would have a few choice replies.

Last weekend's Cup final was a great promotion and all concerned deserve credit. But one extra detail which someone might attend to next year . . . why not tie ribbons in the colours of the winning team onto the Cup as is done for the FA Cup presentation?

The Cup Final also was a big day for the Brusascos. Not only did Mark score the equaliser which put Coalstars back into the game, Ian had the 3-2 double.

Coalstars' Cup win was all too much for one journo, who has waited a long time for "his" team to get up. While his media colleagues were waiting for interviews, our man was in the thick of it enjoying the celebrations. And to cap the day — his wife also won the double!

It was interesting to note the "rival publication" being distributed by one Cup final club at Perry Park. One would have thought the official program would have sufficed. Still, the "other" program had its lighter sections like the editorial referring to the Ampol Cup and soccer being like "fish and chips, rum and coke and Lennon and McCarthy". Surely "McCartney" rings a more familiar tune?

FRONT COVER: Action from last weekend thrilling Ampol Cup final between Coalstars' Andy Ogden (left) and North Star's Mick Tripp. Ogden scored in the closing stages to give the Bundamba side a 3-2 victory and the Cup for the first time in 21 years.

Olympic United's Mick Cernaka . . . one of the darkhorses for this year's best and fairest gold medal.

As expected Lions, due to the club's NSL needs, heads the list with 30 players so far making XXXX League appearances. But not far behind are Wynnum and Grange Thistle, which have used 23 players each and Taringa who have fielded 25 different faces.

As may have been expected, Coalstars have had the most settled squad with coach Brian Styles calling on only 17 players in 14 rounds. North Star have used on 18 while Eastons, Ipswich United and Mt. Gravatt have restricted themselves to 19 players.

In the Man of the Match awards, Kirsopp has been the best afield on an amazing six times in 14 rounds. The next best efforts are those of Brusasco, Wheeler, Redmond and Peter Vogler who have been named Man of the Match on three occasions.

GO SOCCER EDITORIAL

By Editor, GEOFF STEAD

Queensland Soccer Federation president, Ald. Ian Brusasco, is to be commended for his action this week in reassuring local soccer officials that our game has not become football's poor relation.

Although on the surface it seems strange that Queensland soccer is becoming divorced from the national competition when local rugby league and Australian Rules are trying every means to be part of national league, Brusasco has high confidence for the future. He has long campaigned for a Lions and Brisbane City to return to the XXXX League and now it seems that will be the case next season.

For the first time in a decade, Brusasco will be able to implement all his plans to build a strong soccer following in Queensland. This week's meeting was the first step. By streamlining administration, Brusasco believes that our game can quickly go from strength to strength while the other codes fast experience the lessons we have already learned from 10 years in a national league.

But confidence and positive action are the keys to Queensland soccer making the most from the latest changes. Our competition and our co-will be seen by others as being successful if our clubs begin to draw back lost supporters and start to develop their facilities to cater for the new spectators.

As painful as our NSL axing may be at the moment, it could prove to be a blessing in disguise. To be realistic, Queensland soccer has plateaued in recent seasons. We now have the opportunity to clamber back to a high standard or plummet to new depths.

Brusasco's enthusiasm and ideas for the future is the way to go. If we consider ourselves inferior to the other codes then there is only one way we will be headed. If we convince ourselves that we are doing the right thing, and attempt to make it work, then the battle will be half won.

The two clubs staged an entertaining presentation that climaxed with a thrilling match. In one day, they probably ensured Ampol's continued backing for many years to come.

And the efforts of the two clubs should be an inspiration to all. There is no reason why similar types of promotions should not be carried out at suburban grounds every weekend. Entertainment is the key to getting spectators to return, and last weekend Coalstars and North Star gave more than value for money.

Congratulations are in order not only for Ampol Cup winners Coalstars, but also fellow finalists North Star.

ACROSS MY DESK . . .

By QSF Secretary, ALAN VESSEY

The questions which are most frequently asked of QSF officials at this time of the season are those which pertain to the eligibility of players for the finals.

The rules are quite clear and have remained unchanged for several seasons now. Quite simply, for a player to be eligible to play in the finals series for a particular team, he must not have played more than, and I repeat more than, three out of the last five fixtures in a higher division than that in which his team participates.

The emphasis is on fixtures matches. Ampol or Qantas Cup games are not taken into consideration when considering the eligibility or otherwise of a player for the finals.

It should also be pointed out that a player is regarded as "having played" if he is deemed by the referee as having taken the park at some stage of the match. A player listed on the team-sheet but not taking the park is considered not to have played in that match.

Clubs should determine the eligibility of all their players before the finals series begins. The QSF conducts regular spotchecks and acts on any complaints and it would be a foolhardy side that risked fielding an ineligible player in a finals match.

A BIG DAY AHEAD FOR THE ROVERS

"Taringa Fest" will be the theme of a gala reunion day when Taringa Rovers host XXXX League leaders Coalstars at Jack Speare Park on Sunday.

Taringa, who refuse to give up the fight for a semi-finals berth, have organised a bonanza day of festivities for soccer followers. Festivities are set to commence at the kickoff of the XXXX League Colts who will be hoping to maintain their recent run of success and stay on target for the Colts premiership.

The Ran Tan Bush Band will provide a 'carnival-like' atmosphere by entertaining the crowd with their special brand of music until the main game kickoff at 3 p.m. It's understood the band has put in some long hours practising the now famous "Taringa Rovers Are Magic" theme song. The Taringa theme song will be one of a variety of songs and ballads soccer followers will hear while the hungry and thirsty will be catered for at a massive marquee set up alongside the playing field.

A B-B-Q in a beer garden setting under the marquee will be the order of the day for those who wish to enjoy a beer while being entertained by the band. And for those who prefer to indulge in something not normally associated with football, another marquee will be erected for a gala wine tasting exhibition for the adventurous throughout the day. As well the club will conduct several raffles with fantastic prizes to help offset the costs. Taringa officials expect a bumper crowd from both clubs to be on hand on the day to enjoy the festivities.

The main game kicks off at 3 p.m., 15 minutes later than normal, to accommodate a gala "Oldies" event between the main and reserve matches. Some notable oldies from previous Taringa sides will be taking part in the game for veterans but the club is keeping their names a closely guarded secret.

A GOOD COURSE OF ACTION

Queensland soccer's Director of Coaching, Bruce Stowell, has organised two end of season courses which are a must for anyone keen to further their knowledge of the game.

Stowell, in conjunction with the Queensland Soccer Coaches Association, will stage a Level Two Coaching Course from October 11. Later in the month, a Fitness for Soccer course will be held on the weekend of October 25 and 26. Both courses will be at soccer headquarters, Perry Park.

Applications are now being taken for both courses. The Level Two coaching course is the first major step for anyone hoping to become a successful and knowledgeable soccer coach. It is open to men and women, of a reasonable fitness and having a basic understanding of the game. The course will run over two weekends, and three mid-week nights.

The Fitness for Soccer course will feature Human Movements lecturer Derek Colquhoun, who will outline basic training methods and programs for all stages of the season and off-season.

The cost for the two-day course is $35, which includes lunch of both days.

For further details or to book for either course, contact Bruce Stowell at Perry Park on 52 5327.

ROCHEDALE REPORT . . .

With the Ampol Cup Final taking centre stage over the weekend no Intermediate League fixtures were played. This left most teams pondering the outcome of their respective seasons, which draw to a, hopefully, exciting conclusion in just four weeks time.

With only three points separating the first and fifth placed teams, it is with a guarded respect that Rovers approach these last games as teams become more desperate in their chase for points — ours for promotion and others for survival.

SIXTH DIVISION:

Rochedale 0 v Ipswich U. 1

An unfortunate penalty conceded late in the second half was enough to give the home team both points in this very important top-of-the-table clash. The first half saw honours to Rochedale with some good football being produced. A few untaken chances could have seen a result our way.

An occasional series looking at our soccer past, by Queensland's most authoritative soccer statistician, ALAN FOUCHÉ.

SPOT-ON STATS

In today's jet-setting world of National League football, it is hard to imagine an era when players were strictly amateurs, Sunday soccer was unheard of and floodlit matches were reserved for big occasions.

In Queensland, the South Africans also beat Brisbane 9-1, Ipswich 5-0 and Australia 4-2, this match drawing 14,106 spectators who paid £2,445 at the Brisbane Cricket Ground turnstiles.

The NSW dominance of Australian soccer was reflected in the five internationals against South Africa. Queensland's Lex Gibb, who played in all five, was the only player from outside NSW to gain selection.

Queensland's coach in 1947 was Jock Cumberland, a former Thistle forward who was chosen with his brother Dave in the first Australian team to tour New Zealand in 1922.

But even if the year was a disappointment at State level, 1947 provided plenty of goal action in club matches. The 90 premierships games produced 444 goals at an average of almost five a match.

The top four in 1947 looked like this:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts.
St. Helens	18	15	2	1	79	27	32
YMCA	18	12	2	4	52	26	26
Corinthians	18	12	2	4	46	32	26
B'dmba Rang.	18	8	4	6	50	39	20

Yet that was the Queensland scene only 40 years ago as the code began the struggle to regroup after World War II.

Premiers that year were YMCA, later to become one of the first casualties of the modern move towards semi-professionalism.

In an exciting premiers race, they beat off the strong Ipswich challenge from Blackstone Rovers on goal average, with St. Helens one point behind this pair.

But Ipswich supremacy was emphasised in what was then the State's top knock-out competition, the Tristram Shield. In the final, Bundamba Rangers hammered Latrobe 6-0.

Interstate football also resumed in 1946 with a visit by NSW which showed how far Queensland soccer had to go in rebuilding.

The Blues won both matches, 3-0 at Langlands Park and 10-0 at Bundamba. The match programme for the first game listed the home side as: A. Wiseman; A. Duncan and R. Hill; H. Bool, L. Gibb and P. Regan; H. Ridler, R. Hudson, G. Nunn, W. Nelson and A. Woolley.

The premiers top four (finals play-off were not introduced until 1959) was:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts.
YMCA	18	12	4	2	70	27	28
Blackstone	18	13	2	3	60	32	28
St. Helens	18	13	1	4	67	38	27
Corinthians	18	9	3	6	57	42	21

Ipswich clubs ruled the roost even more firmly the following year. Not only did St. Helens take the premiership, but two Ipswich clubs fought out the Shield final, with Saints completing a double by beating Bundamba Rangers 4-3.

International tours resumed in 1947 for the first time since a visit by a Chinese team in 1941—and again underlined the State's slip in playing standards.

In 1937 Queensland had lost only 2-1 to England Amateurs, but 10 years later South Africa handed out a 10-1 hiding at the Brisbane Cricket Ground.

The Queensland side was: W. Mitchell (Thistle); A. Duncan (Easts) and R. Hill (St. Helens); L. Gibb (St. Helens, capt.), W. Dearlove (YMCA) and G. Allen (St. Helens); M. Dawes (Bush Rats), R. Hudson (YMCA), G. Nunn (St. Helens), H. Bool (Thistle) and A. Woolley (Blackstone Rovers).

UNDER 16 SQUAD

Queensland State Under 16, initial squad of 26, is:

Bundaberg: Andrew Hobbs, Mark Geritz, Shane Haddow, Shaun Aslett. Rockhampton: Guy Rigby, Glen Sheppard. Mackay: John McGill, Troy Kurtz. Townsville: Darren Freiberg, Craig Collins, Robert Hilton, Alan Hilton. Newmarket S. C.: David Duncan. Bris. Lions S.C.: Jeff Haspels, Brendan Eastwell. G. Thistle S.C.: David King, Andrew Stillman, Steven Kluss. Nth. Star S.C.: Tony English. Rochedale S. C.: Michael Clarkson, Scott Playle. P. Rivers S. C.: Clayton Koch, John Preston. Wynnum S. C.: Ross McGravie. Eastern Sub. S. C.: David Kane. Olympic S. C.: John Figliano.

The squad will be trimmed to 18 before the national championships.

IT'S COALSTARS' CUP

Coalstars won the first part of Queensland's soccer treble with a thrilling 3-2 win over North Star in the Ampol Cup final at Perry Park.

It was 21 years since the Bundamba club last won the statewide knockout trophy. Coalstar's win thwarted North Star's hopes of a third consecutive cup victory. Despite the wet weather, a huge crowd turned out for the match which turned into a classic final.

North Star lead 1-0 at halftime after a good goal from Billy Williamson, but a Mark Brusasco chip five minutes after the break levelled terms. Another chip, this time from Murray Kitching put Coalstars ahead but North Star showed their character to comeback through a well worked goal involving Alan Marley and finally Ross Swan.

The winner came when Dave Wheeler played a fine ball for Andy Ogden to fire a low shot under North Star keeper Noel Lord.

In the earlier Ampol challenge match, Taringa Rovers beat Lions 2-1. Rovers' goalscorers were Marty Ratcliffe and Rob Kirby while Jarrod Austin netted Lions' effort.

Coalstars' Murray Kitching (left) and North Star's David Currie contest a high ball during last Sunday's Ampol Cup final.

IT'S THOMMO TALKING

Amid all this talk about relocating teams from Melbourne to Brisbane and the like, there's been a local switch that largely has gone unnoticed.

When they inscribe the Ampol Cup I think they should engrave "Mayne Coalstars" under 1936. Just how many times have they played at Perry Park this season? Nearly as many as at Bundamba I would guess.

It was therefore no surprise to me when they won the Cup, as they had the home ground advantage. It will be interesting to see how Coalstars go in two weeks when they play Mount Gravatt at Bundamba. The club will probably put on a bus to make sure all the players find their way to the right ground.

Full credit though to Brian Styles and his team. They had to fight through a difficult Cup program.

I think the federation has to admit its qualifying round formula didn't quite work this year and changes have to be implemented next season. I would still like to see the Cup open to more clubs with the Amateurs given the opportunity to "try their luck". I think the early rounds too have to be mid-week as there are still too many breaks to the season.

Someone asked me to tip a Rothman's medal winner the other day, and the remark was made that to make a successful guess you had "to think like a referee".

What a contradiction in terms! I won't stick my neck out just yet other than to repeat my earlier prediction that the winner will have more years than votes.

What I am looking forward to at this year's dinner is Ian Brusasco's speech. What can he say? the axe has fallen on our two NSL sides at a time when others are going national, the national coach snub our interstate game then include Russell Stewart in the Socceroo squad seemingly just for the ride and then only 500 people turned out for a match involving Australia at Perry Park.

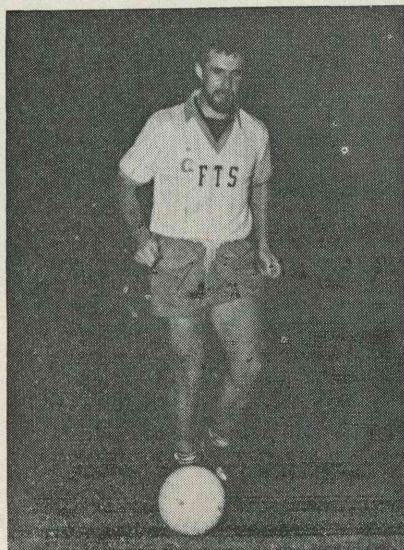

It's been some year . . .

FROM THE EASTERN SUBURBS

East's this weekend are at home to XXXX League "darkhorses" Olympic United. Under the guidance of Juan Cutillas, Olympic have edged into the top four, and in the process, forced East's down the table. John Sime will have his Tigers fired to score a big win this weekend and reverse the current table positions. The East's team is looking for a big home turnout to cheer them on to success. The Tigers thank their major sponsor, Fork Truck Services, along with Hans Continental Smallgoods, the Red Brick Hotel, the Morrison Hotel and Eagle Wrecking.

ALL THE CLUB NEWS . . .

A thrilling end of the season is in store for budding Western Suburbs club, Kenmore Rangers.

KENMORE R.

Kenmore have been locked with North Brisbane in third spot in Division Three for some weeks. With North Brisbane holding a slight upper hand because of their nine-goal better goal difference, Rangers hoped for a good result against bottom placed Logan City. Despite winning the game 3-0, the scoreline could have been a lot better for Kenmore. Poor finishing and excellent desperate defence by Logan, denied a possible double figures scoreline.

Our "German Bomber" Helge Holzel got us under way with a fine goal early in the first half. Later, before halftime, Reg Athman scored a cracking goal from 20 yards out. After that the game went almost non-stop in Logan City's half of the field. It wasn't until the end of the game that we scored the final goal. Alvin Athman finished a fine move from the right flank. Full credit should go however to Logan City's keeper and defenders. Despite being somewhat shaky at times, they stopped many opportunities North Brisbane's win over Industrial keeps us on level points and both teams now chase Annerley, who have lost a couple of games recently.

One of the most important backroom boys right at this moment — as the Valley Trident team licks its wounds and attempts to recover from a threatening spate of injuries — is John Hickman, the team's physio.

VALLEY TRIDENT

John (Sen.), not to be confused with son John who has just established a first team role for himself as a hard-tackling left back, has brought a ton of expertise, good sense and enthusiasm to the club. Poised, as the club is, on the brink of the XXXX League, the next four matches will be the most vital in the club's history. And none so more than this weekend's clash with Sunny-side.

Playing ability alone, however, will not ensure Valleys success. So it was gratifying when the extent of the club's support was revealed on Saturday when the final of the Miss Valley Trident contest was decided, the clubhouse was packed with an enthusiastic good-natured crowd of supporters as the QSF's assistant secretary, the debonair Jimmy Gilbert, with his customary charm, pronounced the winner. Tonia Desiati was crowned Miss Valley Trident while Valeris Didio was named as Miss Charity. Tonia of course will represent the club at the Miss Queensland Soccer function on August 30 and then be forced to enjoy her prize, a weekend for two at the Pacific Village motel at Coolangatta.

Successful functions however, as successful teams, are not conjured out of the air. Such things require a dedicated board of workers and Valleys are lucky to have, along with those mentioned in a previous article, a band of hard-working women which included Marie Goriup, Helen Lavelle, Brigid Musumeci and Gloria Robertiello as well as the ever active Lawrie Goriup and Mr. Smooth himself, Phil Watford.

The Valley Trident combination therefore is composed of such willing workers as these, just as much as the players, who are determinedly preparing for that extra effort which will enable the club to take that giant stride at the end of the season.

The Toowong Division Four side were again held to a draw in their last match against Griffith University.

TOOWONG

It was a good end to end game with both sides having shots well saved. Eddie Collins had two particularly good efforts blocked. The referee summed it up when he said: "Both keepers play very well". So Alex Micallef and the Griffith keeper, take a bow.

The Toowong Division Seven side also played Griffith and were two up at halftime, thanks to two good goals by coach Gary Bray — once again showing the lads how it should be done! with an injury to Mick Peters, who had to have X-Rays at halftime, Griffith managed to pull one back in the second half to give Toowong a 2-1 victory.

BRISBANE NORTH JUNIOR TABLES

Each fortnight Go Soccer magazine will provide points tables for the competition in the Brisbane Northern Districts Junior Soccer Association. The tables are current up to the fixtures prior to last weekend. The tables are unofficial, and contact should be made with the BNDJSA for confirmation of any points. Follow your junior team, and its rivals, every fortnight in Go Soccer.

THE XXXX REPORT

Here are the Go Soccer XXXX Report ratings for all players for the first 14 rounds. Scores are out of 10 and the last column represents an average for the 14 games. Ratings in bold type are Man of the Match performances. An x after a rating indicates the player came on as a substitute while a * indicates the player was subbed. All ratings are unofficial and published only as a guide. Some averages have been rounded off and the Editor accepts no responsibility for any inaccuracies.

BRISBANE CITY v STH. MELBOURNE

Spencer Park, Sunday, 3 p.m.

Referee: KEN ADRIAANSEN

Brisbane City are yet to record an NSL win at home this season and this match looms as their second last chance to break that dubious record.

And the opponents could not be more difficult. South Melbourne have a fine record in the national competition and are certain to be among the top 14 when the final cut is made. But surprisingly, their efforts in Brisbane — and at Spencer Park in particular — have not matched their southern performances. That could give City heart and provide the incentive to score a victory. City coach Billy Wilkinson has started to blood youngsters in recent weeks and is looking for some solid home support to make their task against the Melbourne giants a little easier.

XXXX LEAGUE — ROUND 15 GRANGE T. v MT. GRAVATT

Lanham Park, Saturday, 7 p.m.

Referee: GORDON NICHOLSON

There is no love lost between these two sides and irrespective of their current league positions it is certain to be a hard fought match.

Thistle are still smarting over comments from Hawks coach Eric Thompson earlier this season branding the Lanham Park side as relegation candidates. Thompson now comes to Lanham Park and will either prove his point with a resounding win or could walk away with egg on his face.

The corresponding first round match ended in a 1-1 draw, possibly a disappointing result at Dittmer Park for the Hawks.

Eut Mount Gravatt have really hit their straps in recent weeks while Thistle's form has been slipping. It won't be easy, but the Hawks should have too much allround power and experience.

By Ipswich United's high standards, this has been a disappointing season.

The Ebbw Vale team, which lost key players during the off-season has been left in the shadow of their successful neighbours. Yet United could still make the semi-finals and should not be written off just yet.

But Matt Carson's side needs to win all of its remaining games. With Wynnnum now all but relegated, the big danger could be taking this match too lightly.

Wynnnum were last round winners of the much-improved Taringa and only lost this corresponding first round match by one goal.

The Wolves are battlers and are determined to go down fighting, but at home Ipswich United should prove too tough.

XXXX LEAGUE — ROUND 15 EASTS v OLYMPIC U.

Heath Park, Sunday, 2.45 p.m.

Referee: BILL MONTEVERDE

East's whole season is currently in the balance.

After leading the League for the first round, the side has faltered badly in the last month and has crashed to four defeats in as many games. The Tigers have now slipped out of the four and a loss here could end their semi-final hopes.

At the same time Olympic United quietly slipped into semi-final reckoning, but their cover has now been blown. No third placed side can afford to be taken lightly and if current form is the guide, Easts are indeed the underdogs in this clash.

The home park advantage should help the Tigers but there also will be the memory that it was Olympic which inflicted Easts only first round loss.

XXXX LEAGUE — ROUND 15 TARINGA R. v COALSTARS

Speare Park, Sunday, 3 p.m.

Referee: DAVE NUGENT

This could be the acid test as to whether last weekend's Cup victory has gone to the Coalstars players' heads.

With so much talk around of a treble win, it will be hard for Brian Styles to keep his players' feet on the ground after last weekend's success. But the Bundamba side cannot afford to take things easily against Taringa at Taringa.

The Rovers proved their point that they were unlucky not to be in last weekend's final when they beat Lions 2-1 in the Ampol Challenge. And their recent scalps at Speare Park include former leaders Easts.

It's always a difficult park to play on and if Coalstars repeat their first half performance of last weekend, they could be penalised. A few goals would not surprise and maybe even a draw.

Despite being located on opposite sides of town, these two clubs have a lot in common.

The Lions team could include former North Star players in Jarrod Austin and Lindsay Dines while Nth. Star's former Lions include Iain Fagan, David Currie, Gerry Lindsay and Billy Williamson. Players playing against their old club always tend to raise their game and that should make for some good football here.

It will be interesting to see how North Star react after last weekend's Cup loss. If they hope to make a late premiership challenge, they have to get back into winning in this match.

Lions were also losers in the Ampol Challenge last weekend and the team cannot afford to lose too many more games or it could find itself closer to last than what was originally hoped.

Coalstars are hot favorites to win the Ampol Cup Final against North Star at Perry Park on Sunday.

That's if the opinions of Go Soccer's panel of experts are any indication. Local soccer journalists Myles McIvor (Courier-Mail), Bruce Waddell (Daily Sun), Mark Brigden (4EB) and Geoff Stead (Telegraph) are unanimous in their assessment that the Bundamba side will end North Star's hopes of winning a third consecutive Cup Final.

The experts were influenced by a number of factors, but none so more than the current XXXX League table and the past results between the two clubs. Brian Styles' Coalstars hold a commanding three-point lead over North Star at the top of the table. And furthermore, Iain Fagan's North Star have never beaten Coalstars since the two clubs came back into the state's premier division.

Both sides are bristling with experience and a touch of youth, and our experts agreed there was every likelihood the match could feature more than a single goal.

With players like Mark Brusasco and Dave Wheeler being fed by the likes of Ian Lawrie and Bruce Penman, Coalstars look formidable. Similarly, with Alan Marley and Billy Williamson being served by the experienced Gerry Lindsay and Mick Tripp, North Star also should get among the goals.

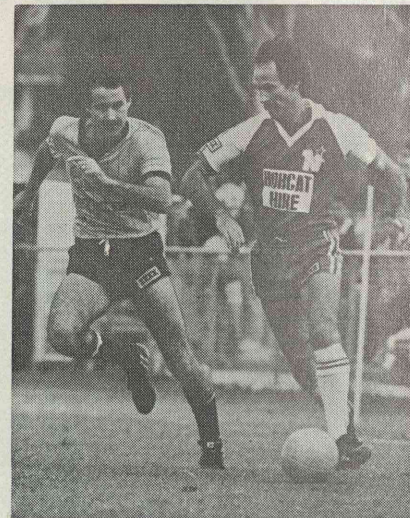

Whichever way the final goes, it is certain to be a fitting climax to yet another successful Cup competition. The Ampol Cup, now in its 28th year, is one of the longest running knockout competitions of any sport within Queensland. And the association between Queensland soccer and Ampol Petroleum Ltd (Qld) looks set to continue.

"We are delighted to be associated with a company like Ampol and through their backing of our state-wide knockout competition over the years we have developed a competition with a real tradition. Tradition is something which is often lacking in many areas of Australian soccer, but Ampol has given Queensland soccer something to be proud of and envied by others," QSF president Ald. Ian Brusasco said.

The early rounds of this year's competition took on a new format to give clubs more games and the QSF will look to improve the Cup competition further next year.

BIG VALUE IN CUP FAMILY TICKET BUY

A special family ticket admission price will be available for the Ampol Cup Final at Perry Park on Sunday.

Two adults and two children, aged under 14 years, entering the ground together will be charged only $5. That's great value for nearly five hours of entertainment.

Normal admission prices will apply for all others. An adult ticket will be $3, pensioners $1, and children (under 14) free.

"Ampol Cup Final Day is always an entertaining family event and we are looking forward to a lot of soccer families taking advantage of the special ticket offer," a QSF spokesman said.

POINTS TO PONDER

The round of XXXX League fixtures after the Ampol Cup semi-finals saw a replay of the two ties — and believe it or not, next week's round of matches sees the four sides in action at Perry Park on Sunday meet again in the opposite combination.

Our recent item about the glamour Intermediate League club supporters allegedly drinking "spiked" cans of Coke was not entirely correct. The fans did not bring their own alcohol to the game and the warming "drinks to go" were being supplied over the bar by the host club. That practice, and the carrying of the pepped up soft drinks outside of the booth area, could land all parties in trouble if it continues.

The rules were stretched a little too when two bayside rivals met for an annual challenge last week. Much of the winning cash went straight on the bar and lasted a few stayers until the wee hours of the morning. One well-known character was seen attempting to gnaw his way through a steel security grid put into place when weary bar staff finally called stumps.

A belated report tells of Dave Nugent's fine game in the rain when he controlled the Intermediate League match between Sunnyside and Mitchelton. "Call him Johnny Walker," said the caller. "Like a good spirit, he goes well in water."

A nice backhander last week from the ASF for our Bruce Stowell, the joint national Under 16 coach. The ASF's program for the Youth International at Perry Park featured a pic of the national coaching panel — Frank Arok (full team), Les Scheinflug (Youth) and Vic Dalglish (Under 16's) — but no Bruce Stowell.

Lower division club advised last week that no refs were available for its game, but were rescued at halftime of the first match of their home double-header when an official turned up after going to another ground, and finding four men in black had been allocated to the match.

GO SOCCER EDITORIAL

By Editor, GEOFF STEAD

Those who attended last Wednesday night's youth international between Czechoslovakia and Australia are Queensland soccer's lucky ones.

Not only did they see a fine game of football, they could well have witnessed the last international here for some time. Despite the face-saving comments from several officials afterwards, the simple truth of the matter was that the match was attended by little more than 500 paying customers. That is nothing more than a disgrace!

Hobart and Newcastle, both with smaller populations than Brisbane, more than doubled our pitiful attendance. Queensland soccer should be in shame. And on this occasion the finger in no way can be pointed at our administrators. They did their job in getting a match here, and considerable money was spent on advertising. The blame rests squarely on the shoulders of those within the code who stayed away. It should be a long, long time before they should dare stand up and complain about anything.

And those who take a flippant attitude that too much is being made from one game or offer token excuses that the weather was too cold are completely missing the point. Queensland's image at a national level already is suffering from the disappointing form of our NSL sides. At ASF level, our standing as a strong soccer state probably has hit rock bottom.

What chance has Ian Brusasco got of going south and demanding a fair deal for Queensland when Queenslanders cannot even support the game at home?

This weekend we have a chance to partially redeem ourselves. The Ampol Cup final is one of the highlights of our season. In recognising that fact, the QSF has ensured there are no fixtures in opposition, in any division.

Everyone within the code should not see this as a "weekend off". It is an opportunity to attend what could be a classic match. Nothing less than a huge turnout at Perry Park this Sunday should be expected after last week's night of shame. Soccer has to start putting it up when it counts, or shut up all together.

ACROSS MY DESK . . .

By QSF Secretary, ALAN VESSEY

From an administrative point of view, while there was a great deal of satisfaction in watching Australia play Czechoslovakia at Perry Park last Wednesday, there was also a great deal of embarrassment at the number which turned up.

Three youth internationals were allocated around Australia in centres which normally do not get full internationals. Of the three, Queensland produced the worst attendance figures. Hobart attracted a crowd in excess of 2000 while more than 1000 watched the young socceros in Newcastle.

In Brisbane, there were just over 500 paying customers.

The task of any administrators associated with soccer will now be that much harder. While the QSF always strives to get overseas teams and Australian sides to Perry Park, it will be a difficult job indeed to convince the Australian Soccer Federation to schedule further internationals here.

Everyone had a responsibility to attend and support last week's match, and sadly that responsibility appeared to be lacking.

WHAT A GREAT TEAM!

All 13 players plus manager and strapper will meet at Coalstars' Bundamba ground and bus it to Perry Park in a "re-enactment" of their cup success.

The clock will be turned back 21 years when Coalstars' 1965 Ampol Cup winning side re-assembles this weekend.

Coalstars won the match 2-1, defeating Bardon Latrobe, to record their only success to date in the Ampol Cup. The Coalstars goal-scorers were Ian Davis, who hit the equaliser to Bardon's effort and Barry Payne, who scored the winner. At the time of the game, the Coalstars team were bristling with youngsters. The line-up included one 17-year-old, two 18-year-olds and five 19-year-olds.

Although many of the players still live in Ipswich, some will travel for the reunion, and none as much as right midfielder, Stu Dedman. Stu now lives in Dubbo, and still plays. He has organised for his local semi-final to be deferred to allow him to be a starter at Perry Park this weekend. The 1965 Coalstars team will be escorted onto the field by Miss Coalstars Lisa Yates and will be introduced to the crowd prior to this Sunday's final.

The members of that great Coalstars side are: Ross Kelly, Graham "Charlie" Hughes, John Roderick, Stu Dedman, Graham Kathage (captain-coach), Bruce Parkes, Ian Davis, Barry "Skinny" Payne, Trevor "Fatty" Payne, Ian Johnston, Noel Paut. Reserves: Ruuss Daunt, Glen Lawrie. Manager: Kev Maker. Strapper: Dave Coleman.

Some of the old Coalstars stalwarts at last year's XXXX League derby with Ipswich United.

IT'S THOMMO TALKING

I don't make it a practice of going into the referee's room after a game — but I had to make an exception with Dave Nugent last Sunday.

Quite simply, the reason was that Dave gave an exceptional performance. It was a pleasure to watch. The game flowed, there was no rubbish and his decisions were spot on. I know we won and some may say that was my motivating force. But I can honestly say, I would have done the same thing irrespective of the result. I shook his hand with genuine admiration and appreciation.

This man can referee and how his association restricts his involvement in the game simply because of his age is one of soccer's tragedies.

Keep up the good work Dave.

As disappointed as he must feel, Russell Stewart should walk around with his head held high despite not getting a run with the Socceros against Czechoslovakia.

Frank Arok's actions and comments only highlighted how amateurish things are run sometimes in Australian soccer. There is no excuse for Russell not being trilled at some stage of the three-match series. To leave a budding youngster on the bench, yet play a past team member for just four minutes as a farewell gesture, is social football stuff. Russell is good enough to play for Australia and should not let this latest episode get him down. At the moment it seems ability is not good enough to get someone into the national side and that is a sad reflection on our game.

I don't like to harp on the same subject but I am still not happy with the response I am getting in my calls for Queensland soccer to act as a unit to save our representation in the national competition.

People are still not grasping the repercussions if City and Lions are axed. Who read what Jason Polak said last week? Every other youngster will think the same in future. Let's get it together, get a big sponsor, put the NSL in a position where it can't ignore us. Let's not sit back and let the axe fall.

Ted Jefferies

THE WORLD REPORT

Going to the football in Britain is not like I remember, and things could be on the change for the better if this latest report is an indication . . .

Having a police escort into an English first division match is a vastly different kettle of fish than being escorted out of the ground by the boys in blue.

So too is being dropped off at a private entrance rather than elbowing through a seething gate crowd. A leisurely champagne reception and a three-course sit-down lunch before settling into a VIP seat beats a quick bag of chips and a hamburger while standing throughout the match and drinking nothing harder than tea.

It is the latest tourist's way to indulge in a live English football match.

Thoughts of football thuggery and the televised scenes of bottle-hurling, brawling hooligans have ensured the attendance figures for most major clubs are declining — even for those with a peaceful record. Compared with the hair-raising run of riots and violence dogging the game last year, this season the clubs and police are going to work in unison to begin rebuilding the tarnished image.

Many overseas and local tourists ask to see a first division match, but up until now have had to go through the same crowd-battling system as the general public. That is until hotels and football clubs hit on the idea of doing each a favour — the club gets a guaranteed block booking and the hotel draws clientele through a top sporting package.

However, the VIP way of going to the footy is proving so popular with the locals, that the organisers haven't even thought of selling it overseas. Manchester United is one club involved in the scheme and for most Saturday games this new season, the package could be sold three times over.

Organised by that city's Portland Hotel, it has become the in-way for businesses to entertain clients staying for a weekend, on the 'must' list for visiting soccer-mad Europeans or a comfortable and hassle-free way for English fans to indulge their passion.

But it is not for the cost-conscious.

For those not staying at the hotel, the cost of the day package is £109 ($A230).

That provides coffee and cake before boarding a luxury bus to the Old Trafford ground and a mounted police escort for the vehicle through the crowd to the VIP entrance.

Guests are taken on a tour of the players' tunnel and the ground before a champagne reception and three-course lunch.

A star host, usually an ex-Manchester United player, hosts the gathering and answers any questions. There is also a guest speaker. After lunch, guests have immediate access from the VIP lounge to their reserved VIP stand seats for the match.

Following the match, they can relax in the lounge over coffee and view videos of the finer points replayed while the rest of the crowd fights for the exits.

The man of the match receives his award in the lounge and other players mingle and talk to the guests. They are then taken back to the hotel.

Manchester United Commercial Manager Danny McGregor says it is a way for outsiders to effectively become executive members of the club for the day. Such a privilege would normally cost £500 (A$1056) for a season and the club currently has a long waiting list.

Organiser Jill Kimber said the concept of a top level sports package for tourists and locals had long applied to tennis and cricket clubs, but was just beginning to catch on with football clubs.

"Some games are absolute sell-outs and we are inundated with requests, but when matches are rescheduled or played through the week there are generally places available," she said.

FROM THE EASTERN SUBURBS

Although the Tigers have had a slight loss of form in the XXXX League of late, spirit within the club is still high, and coach John Sime is looking forward to a strong finish to the season from his team. With the Grand Final being this season's ultimate prize, Sime is hoping to bring his team to its peak at the right time. Easts' next fixture is at Heath Park on Sunday, August 24, against Olympic United. The Tigers thank their major sponsor, Fork Truck Services, along with Hans Continental Smallgoods, the Red Brick Hotel, the Morrison Hotel and Eagle Wrecking.

TARINGA R. v BRISBANE LIONS

Sunday, Perry Park, 12 noon

Referee: PETER MURRAY

This inaugural challenge match came about after Taringa unluckily crashed out of the Cup competition on an own goal against North Star at the semi-final stage.

The Rovers thought this would be their year, and now are looking to secure the "unofficial" third place in the competition. Lions, who were beaten by Coalstars in the semis, eagerly accepted the challenge and the two clubs have pooled their losing semi-finalists prize-money.

But there is more riding on this game than just cash. Both clubs are located in the Western Suburbs and this match could signify supremacy in their area. It also is a chance for Taringa to avenge a 4-1 hiding at Richlands earlier this season.

Calvin Daunt and Frank Byrne will be playing against their old club and also will be keen to prove something. Both sides were last round losers in the XXXX League and the match represents the opportunity to get back to winning form for the run in to the end of the season.

Lions' Richard Van Win and Taringa's Frank Byrne clash during a past Perry Park encounter. The pair are among the host of promising youngsters in both teams.

Cup holders North Star narrowly pip Coalstars in the goal-scoring stakes on the way to this weekend's final at Perry Park.

In the qualifying rounds, quarter-finals and semi-finals, North Star have scored 18 goals plus two own goals. Coalstars have scored 14 times on their way to the Cup final.

While both sides have recognised goal-scoring duos — Alan Marley and Billy Williamson at North Star and Coalstars' Dave Wheeler and Mark Brusasco — the breakdown of the Cup goalscorers suggests anyone could knock in a winner this weekend.

Six players in the Coalstars side have found the back of the net, while no fewer than nine North Star team members have contributed to their side's tally.

Marley and Wheeler, with four goals apiece, are the most successful Cup scorers from the two sides, but Gordon Buchanan and Paul Fagan (North Star) and Brad Kearton and Brusasco (Coalstars) have three each to their credit.

While North Star will go into the match attempting to emulate the great Hellenic side of the early 1960's in winning the Ampol Cup three times in succession, Coalstars have the psychological edge.

They have never lost to North Star since the two clubs became part of the state's top division three years ago. But the Ipswich club has not won the trophy for 21 years.

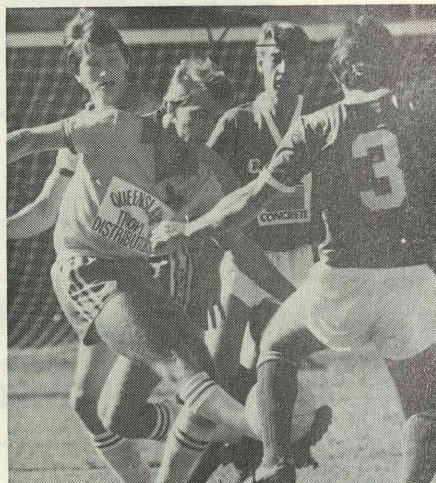

Everything points towards a Classic Cup Final and undoubtedly it will be a matter of he who dares — wins.

KIDS GET INTO THE ACTION

Part of the Cup Final Day program will be the completion of an Under 8 mini-carnival.

The early rounds of the mini-carnival were played on Cup semi-final day. The results of those matches have pitted Coalstars against Lions in one semi-final and Taringa and North Star in the other. The semi-finals will be played at 2 p.m. with the winners advancing to the Final at halftime of the main game.

Those players involved include:

BRISBANE NORTH TABLES NEXT WEEK

OLYMPIC AIRWAYS
NATIONAL SOCCER LEAGUE OF AUSTRALIA

BRISBANE LIONS v WEST ADELAIDE

Richlands, Sunday, 1 p.m.

Referee: ALAN KIBBLER

Lions officials have worked out that their side can still finish seventh if it wins all its remaining matches.

That's a tall order but the corner could have been turned last week with the 1-0 derby win over Brisbane City. It was Lions' first win in two months. West Adelaide are equally threatened as Lions and a draw will do neither side any good. That could make for some entertaining play. And with full and youth internationals on display like Charlie Yankos, Robbie Dunn, Lou Hristodoulou, Russell Stewart and Danny Wright, this could be quite a match.

MITCHELTON STABLETALK

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE: Mitchelton 0 v Brisbane City 1

A well contested game which could have gone either way with us, to my mind, with a slight edge in the first 25 minutes or so.

Then it happened. A corner to them on the right, and in the scramble in the box, the ball hit one of our defenders on the arm. The linesman considered it a handball and flagged (which he is supposed to do) and the referee gave it. The resultant goal altered the complexion of the game. In the 35th minute, they had possibly their only real chance, when their left wing beat our defence and sent a top ball across the goalmouth. But Ross Gallagher's valiant dive with outstretched hands deflected it past their runners for our defence to clear. It probably could be summed up by saying the difference was the penalty.

RESERVES:

Mitchelton 2 v Bris. C. 1

Not the strongest team we have put on the park this year by any means, but enough skill and determination between them to pull it off if given half a chance. It took only 10 minutes or so for a Graeme Anderson cross to find Richie Puttock on the right of the box and the header inside the post put us 1-0 up. Another 25 minutes found them with the equaliser for a halftime score of 1-1. In the second half we applied the pressure and again in the 10th minute, Graeme beat two defenders with a well-timed chip and then took on the keeper for an opportunist effort to make it 2-1.

FOURTH DIVISION:

Mitchelton 1 v Centenary 1

After a run of outs, we seemed to approach this game with considerably more interest and desire to play. Consequently quite a good opening to the game. As they say, they all count, and we were awarded a freekick under the new goalkeeper handling rules. A good ball by Scott Campbell found Graeme Anderson who didn't waste the opportunity. In the second half we gave them no more chances than before but they seemed to make their way into the 18-yard box a few times. On one of these excursions, they were awarded a penalty and beat our keeper to equalise.

A Letter to the Editor . .

Dear Sir,

I refer to the comments on Page 2 of last week's Go Soccer attributed to Taringa coach Iain Kesson.

Unfortunately, the difference in standard is such that performances in the XXXX League are no guide whatsoever to the success of a player at NSL level. All three players mentioned in the article have been tried in the National League extensively and found wanting.

The only truly independent assessor of ability in Queensland is our well-respected State Director of Coaching, Bruce Stowell. His assessment was that none of these players were considered to be worthy of selection in the Queensland squad, much less the actual team.

This is not to say that our new players are performing any better at present. We do however have to keep searching for players with the required ability to be a successful team in the NSL.

And while it seems fashionable to criticise all that ourselves and Brisbane City attempt to do, I suggest a few take a good look at the number of players in Brisbane who have passed through either club. In 10 years of National League football, it seems clubs like Taringa and Easts have been winners in being able to pick up players with the experience and polish of having played in the nation's No. 1 competition.

I ask them, who will provide them with quality players in the future?

Lawrence Oudendyk,

Secretary, Brisbane Lions S.C.

ROCHEDALE REPORT

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE: Rochedale 0 v Newmarket 0

Rochedale Rovers were surprisingly held to a goalless draw at Newmarket's McCook Park last Saturday.

After 15 minutes of the first half, spectators could have been forgiven for thinking that Rovers were about to embark on a goal-scoring spree. A goal-line clearance, some handy-work from the Newmarket keeper and the "woodwork" all stood firm in preventing the ball from finding the back of the net. The game then took a backward step as Rochedale seemed to stop and ponder its lack of fortune.

Into the second half, Newmarket obviously sniffed a point and proceeded to close the door with six men back in defence and on a few occasions too many, pulled eight back in a bid to make whatever space was left as cramped as possible. The boys certainly tried but the break would not come. Even our backline started to come forward to pressure, leaving us vulnerable to a counter attack. Inside the last 10 minutes this is exactly what happened. All was nearly lost when the home team sent their shot round our keeper and towards the open net. If ever Gerry

McMahon was to be somewhere then this was it . . . Gerry's clearance off the line saved the valuable point we were to finish with. Other results favourable to us within the League will help relieve the frustration of this match.

RESERVES:

Newmarket 2 v Rochedale 0

Despite the constant chopping and changing which is a Reserve team's life in senior football, this side continues to battle on. But the young nucleus of this side cannot get an even break on the field this season. They do enough in their matches to gain at least a point but often find themselves without luck when it matters most.

FOURTH DIVISION:

Rochedale 1 v Acacia Ridge 3

Our unbeaten run ended in this match but both sides knew that until near the end of this tough encounter, a draw was a distinct possibility.

Although Valley Trident went to the top of the table by a clear point over Redlands, their 1-all draw with Annerley was a very disappointing affair.

VALLEY TRIDENT

With the prospect of a comfortable lead in front of them, Valleys failed to respond to the challenge and only a great save from Brett Beves late in the game prevented them from blowing it completely. The game started well enough with Valleys looking lively in attack, despite the absence of Peter Carey. And when Shane Rideout made a forceful run into the box, the keeper could only parry his blistering shot and Enzo Cupo was on hand to put the ball away.

Then for some reason, Valleys' impetus died and a Tommy Pike-inspired Annerley started to take control. The game degenerated into a rather scrappy contest, partly due to the unevenness of the ground and the failure of the league leaders to find any rhythm or pattern to their game. Beside Beves, who had a very commanding game, Cupo and Peter Tyson deserve mention as they at least tried very hard to inject some purpose into Valley's flagging efforts.

If Valleys are to finish worthy intermediate champions, they cannot afford many such games as coach John Lavelle was quick to point out.

The Reserve team took their points tally to 10 out of the last possible 12, but could only draw nil-all with an Annerley team to which they were superior in most departments.

The defence was always on top while the midfield played some attractive soccer. Unfortunately, too many clear chances went begging and ultimately that's what it's all about. Team confidence is still high however and captain Robert Monteverde is confident that his side can finish well.

This Saturday, August 16, the final of the Miss Valleys Quest will be held at the club. This should be a great evening and as many people as possible are implored to be there for a guaranteed fun occasion.

IT'S LADIES DAY . . .

The Brisbane women's soccer season reaches its climax with Grand Final Day at Atlanta Field, Delaware Road, Geebung, this Sunday.

The Division One final sees a clash between old rivals Easts and Coalstars. These two sides boast the bulk of the state's representative players and the standard of football should be high. Coalstars, who have not been in a Grand Final for more than five years, have six Maroons. Easts, last year's runners-up and a Grand Final regular in recent seasons, has four state squad members.

Internationals Jo-anne Millman, Leanne Priestley and Kerry Millman (Easts) and Coalstars Terri McQueen also will be in action.

Easts will start favourites on the strength of winning the premiership by two points. But Coalstars are thriving on their underdogs tag and cannot be written off.

In the Second Division final, North Star will meet the impressive Queensland Under 15 side while the Fourth Division clash will be between Moggill and Toowong. Toowong have been real giantkillers. The inner-city side won a play-off for fourth to gain a finals start and have taken scalp after scalp, including that of premiers Wynnum, in reaching Sunday's Grand Final. The Third Division Grand final will be between Souths and Capalaba while Inala City and Souths will meet in the Under 12 Grand Final.

The timetable is: 9.30 a.m. Third Division Grand Final (Souths v Capalaba); 11.15 a.m. Fourth Division Grand Final (Moggill v Toowong); 12.30 p.m. Under 12 Grand Final (Inala C. v Souths); 1 p.m. Second Division Grand Final (North Star v Under 15 rep. team); 2.30 p.m. First Division Grand Final (Easts v Coalstars).

Meanwhile, the Queensland squad is in training under Fred Robins for the national titles in Adelaide from September 3-13. Queensland have won the national crown twice and been runners-up twice in the past four years.
