QUEENSLAND SOCCER SAYS 'THANK-YOU'

The Queensland Soccer Federation wishes to acknowledge the many organisations that supported Queensland soccer during 1988, including: Bond Brewing (Qld.); Ampol Petroleum (Qld.) Pty. Ltd.; Qantas Airways Ltd.; ANZ Banking Group Ltd.; Sabre Sportswear; Pat Goddard Jewellers; Attack Sports Pty. Ltd.; The Gold Coast International; Bain Clarkson Insurance Pty. Ltd.; Rothmans of Pall Mall (Aust.) Ltd.; Australian Airlines; Coca-Cola Bottlers (Qld.) Pty. Ltd.; A.B.C. Printing; The Queensland Soccer Club; E. K. Williams Printers.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ...

It is with a sense of excitement and sadness that I look forward to Queensland Soccer Federation Grand Final Day: 1988.

Australian sport is all about grand finals and Queensland Soccer is no exception when it comes to creating interest in the most important game of the year.

Teams have battled throughout the season for premiership superiority and those honors have been claimed. Still, the Grand Final always remains as the one match every team wants to win. I am sure that desire will be evident throughout the three matches on this season's Grand Final program.

While this weekend will be a fitting climax to a wonderful year for Australian Soccer, it will be the last time I will attend QSF Grand Final day as the Federation President. I would hope in my new role as Australian Soccer Federation Chairman, I will still get the opportunity in the future to attend Grand Finals at Perry Park as a guest rather than a host.

The events of recent months have given Australian soccer much to look forward to in 1989 and I am sure that enthusiasm will be reflected in Queensland and result in growth for the code. The efforts of the Socceroos in the Gold Cup and more recently their admirable performance in reaching the Quarter-finals of the Olympic Games, losing only to the eventual finalists, has helped sparked new interest in soccer. The achievements of the national team can be a catalyst for all soccer to have a bumper year in 1989.

The structure within the Queensland Soccer Federation is in place for the code to continue to develop throughout the state. But for that growth to take place, the code must work as one. I urge everyone within the game to support the new administrators who will head the QSF next year and help them the help soccer.

Grand Final day is about winning and standing alone above the rest. Long term success is about unifying and working together.

IT'S A CASTLEMAINE PERKINS XXXX DAY

Winning the XXXX League Grand Final has become the most envied victory in Queensland Soccer, and little wonder thanks to the backing of Bond Brewing's Castlemaine Perkins Brewery.

The XXXX sponsorship of Queensland soccer provides $10,000 to the winner of the grand final. The winner-take-all incentive is the richest single prize in Queensland soccer and is an unrivalled reward to add to the prestige and satisfaction of winning the season climax.

The earlier matches on grand final day also carry rich cash prizes. The winner of division two grand final will get $2000 while the victor in the division three clash will receive $1000. Medallions have been struck for players participating in grand finals. Winning clubs receive grand final shields while the XXXX League victors will be presented with the Brusasco Champion's Cup at the end of the match.

The Pat Goddard award, which has become a tradition on grand final day, will be presented to the player judged by the media as man of the match in the XXXX League grand final.

Today's XXXX League grand final will be broadcast live on 4EB (1053 on the AM dial), sponsored by Pin Constructions and the Queensland Soccer Federation.

GRAND FINAL

DAY: 1988

This season's representative program again provided many of the highlights of the year.

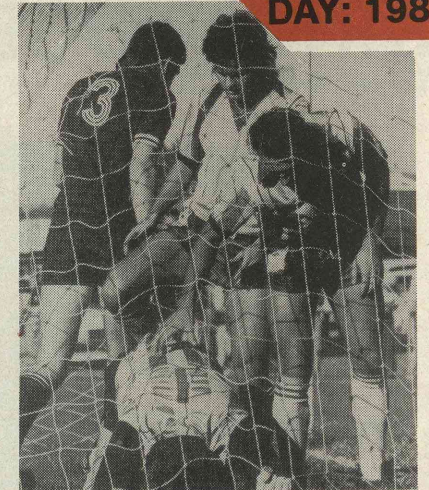

Queensland toured Fiji for a three-match series in May and played New South Wales in the annual interstate clash in June. The intercity series between Ipswich & Brisbane was extended to include the Gold Coast, although poor weather thwarted the completion of the entire series.

The Maroons tour of Fiji comprised of players selected from the XXXX League and intercity matches. The two opening scoreless draws in the series stretched Queensland's undefeated run to 11 games. The run was finally broken in the final game of the series under extremely controversial refereeing.

A full-strength Queensland team was put on the park against New South Wales, which contained nine players with international experience and five Socceroos who later went to the Olympics. The 1-0 win, a shot from Nick Meredith deflected in off Charlie Yankos was a tribute to the Queensland players and the tactical mastery of coach Bruce Stowell.

Goalkeeper Jason Kearton won the George Roberts Memorial Award as the best Queensland player in the interstate clash.

Brisbane won the intercity series after a hard-fought win over Gold Coast and a comfortable victory over Ipswich.

Queensland striker Peter Vogler (No. 3) walks away as NSW players Wally Savor and John Paul de Marigny help injured keeper Tony Franken after another determined Maroons attack.

At the nationals, the Under 13's finished third, the Under 14's were placed fourth while the Under 15's were runners-up.

Pine Rivers were the hosts of a highly successful Under 12 Harry Linning Carnival which was won by Brisbane North, coached by Bob Tollenaere. Brisbane North and Brisbane South and Districts Junior Soccer Associations again expertly coped with the mammoth task of providing football for thousands of youngsters. North's Julie Sullivan and South's Adri Paunovic efficiently collated competition tables throughout the season.

The annual 4BC-QSF Holiday Coaching Clinic was held in the June school holidays and again proved a success with a capacity of 180 youngsters being tutored by six leading Brisbane coaches.

The final state championships tables and the Queensland squads were:

A further feather in the cap of Queensland junior soccer was the selection of Brisbane South product, Troy Cranney, to receive a scholarship at the Australian Institute of Sport.

Queensland soccer this season lost two devoted fans and longtime supporters of the code.

Brisbane City founding member, Mrs. Irma Brusasco, the mother of QSF president Ian Brusasco, sadly passed away. Soccer also lost popular identity Sam McGregor.

North Star's Shane Haddow, now based at the Australian Institute of Sport, was the inaugural winner of the award last year.

This year's winner has been selected from a vast selection of talent from around the State. The award, which carries a trophy and $1,000, was available to budding young players aged 19 years or younger at January 1 this year.

Queensland soccer thanks the ANZ Banking Group for its backing of young talent in the code.
