Queensland Director of Coaching Bruce Stowell has called for a State Soccer Academy to be established as a matter of priority to a bid to retain and properly develop our vast depths of youth talent.

Stowell's recommendation is the focus of his report submitted this week to the QSF Management Committee following the National youth championships, at which the Stowell-coached Young Maroons finished an admirable fifth.

Queensland was one of only three State sides at the Championships that had not been training and working together for months at State Federation-run Academies. The others on the outer were Northern New South Wales and Tasmania.

"It was very obvious from the outset that we were under-prepared at the Nationals compared to those sides which had been together for months," Stowell said. "Considering the progress our boys made in the few weeks we had together, it really left me wondering just how good we could be at this level with the backing of an academy."

Stowell has recommended that the State Soccer Academy be set-up along similar lines as the Australian Institute of Sport, but working in conjunction with the Canberra facility rather than in opposition.

His plan is to bring in promising young players from all parts of Queensland into a soccer school-type arrangement. The players would still continue their formal education, but at the same time as they receive intensive coaching and sport instruction.

"While the ideal situation is to have a complex of our own such as the A.I.S. or NSW's Parklea, that is not necessary initially," Stowell said. "There are any number of soccer training facilities we could use within Brisbane and those attending the academy could be placed in specially chosen local schools.

"I envisage we could also use existing sporting and medical facilities at places like the Queensland University, QEII and the A.I.S. clinic at Mount Gravatt."

Stowell said the introduction of a soccer academy was vital if Queensland hoped to maintain pace with southern states in the development of youngsters.

"I have no doubts that already some players in Queensland have been unable to fully develop their potential, or have gone interstate to do it because we do not have a fulltime coaching facility," he said.

"Our players are naturally and technically as good as anything else interstate, but they are not developing in their education of the game because many of them are going back to club or country situations where they are not tested or made to fight for their places."

Stowell envisages that players eligible for the next national youth team intake would be targeted for the academy and would be recruited on 12-month scholarships. "But really, the academy would be open to any quality players," he said.

Once the Academy was formed, Stowell would like to see a team from the facility playing in the local competition. "The way this year's youth team were playing at the end of the national titles, I have no doubts they could handle Division Two standard very easily," he said.

And unlike the A.I.S. where players are poached by Sydney and Melbourne National League Clubs, Stowell said players coming to a State Academy would remain tied to their club.

"The registration of every player would be maintained by his club and at the end of his time at the academy he would be bound to return to that club and his future decided from there," Stowell said.

A BUMPER EDITION:

This week's Go Soccer is a bumper edition for the Ampol Cup semi-final doubleheader at Perry Park on Saturday.

Full previews of the two games and the team line-ups, plus the popular Who's Hot — and Who's Not, are on Page 21. On page 22, there are previews of the two XXXX League catch-up fixtures on Sunday.

There is another chance to win tickets to the State of Origin game at soccer headquarters on August 19, simply by picking your Queensland team. Another entry form is on Page 6, along with the interesting news that one of our overseas based Maroons could be on his way back for the match.

A novel suggestion for a State of Origin curtain-raiser is featured in a special spread on Page 23.

As usual, our regular columns and club news, along with the senior, junior and women's tables are contained in this week's bumper edition.

The development of a soccer academy in Queensland is a project which should gain the support of all sections of the code as the benefits of such an institution will undoubtedly flow through the entire sport.

In a number of areas, Queensland soccer is struggling to keep pace with other states. To be grouped with Tasmania and Northern NSW at the recent youth nationals as the only federations without an academy underlined that the creation of our own fulltime training facility must be initiated as a matter of urgency.

Queensland Director of Coaching, Bruce Stowell, has taken the right step in recommending the establishment of a soccer academy in Brisbane as the main point of his post-nationals report to the QSF Management Committee. The ball now is very much in their court.

While the ideal set-up would be facilities akin to those offered to players in the soccer section of the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra, obviously that cannot be achieved in the short term. But Brisbane is a sporting City and the legacy of international events like the 1982 Commonwealth Games, the 1987 Pan Pacific swim meet and the recent Konica Gymnastics Grand Prix has been a host of sporting facilities and expertise. They include indoor and outdoor stadiums at Chandler, QEII and Boondall and world class medical back-ups at the Queensland University and the A.I.S. clinic at Mount Gravatt.

A soccer academy could make full use of these facilities along with those which our code has developed itself, such as fine stadiums at Perry Park, Spencer Park and Richlands.

Obviously, the level to which the academy can operate in its fledgling years will hinge on the finances available. But perhaps some of the quit sponsorship funds allocated to Queensland could be channelled in this direction.

The creation of a youth development facility would have appeal to many companies and moves to gain sponsorship also should be initiated.

The drain of talent from Queensland soccer to the south has been constant in recent seasons and there appears no sign it will stop, particularly while we have no NSL representation. If we hope to retain at least a few of our latest crop of youngsters, we must give them some kind of incentive to stay.

A Queensland soccer academy will at least show them that Queensland soccer is interested in their development.

ACROSS MY DESK

The recent publicity surrounding the abnormally high number of cases before the QSF Disciplinary Committee should have prompted a serious look at the problem by those in all section of our code.

But after having watched a number of matches at the weekend, it seems there are still some who are continuing to act irresponsibly. Unfortunately, some of the offenders include those who should be setting an example.

A team's disciplinary record is a reflection of the coach and his attitude towards the game and the rules. Players on the park can be easily incited to break the rules if they are being encouraged to do so from the bench.

Coaches must realise their role in helping to stamp out unruly behaviour and set the example from the sidelines, and take action where necessary against persistently offending players.

The Disciplinary Committee recently dealt with 41 cases. The minutes of their last meeting will show the situation has not improved. It cannot continue, action must be taken now and coaches must lead the way.

POINTS TO PONDER

Two well-meaning adults got into quite a tangle attempting to put up some nets to enable a schoolboy game to go ahead the other day at Marist Brothers Rosalie. In the end, the pair's unsuccessful and at times for the schoolboys, amusing efforts prompted the attention of the school groundsman who whipped up the nets in no time. One wonders if the groundsman knew he was coming to the aid of Easts XXXX League coach John Sime and State soccer coach, Bruce Stowell?

The commitment to the code of one referee at The Gap last Sunday has to be questioned. Assigned to the Reserves game, the uniformed official was quite content to watch the entire Third grade game, less the opening five minutes, which was being controlled by a well-meaning but unqualified spectator who volunteered when no ref fronted and it looked like the game might not go ahead. Despite pleas from the spectator for the ref to take the whistle, he sat perched in a chair watching. Perhaps the spectator showed the referee what a real love of the game is all about.

Thankfully, another referee restored some faith in the whistlers last Sunday. He caught a train from Cleveland to the city, then a bus along Samford Road before walking the last few kilometres to referee a Third Grade game at Mitchelton.

Still on referees. One had a real nightmare doing a XXXX League match last Sunday. When a club official went to check the bookings after the game, it was discovered a reserve who never got on the park had been credited with a three point offence while another sub, who played just five minutes and was not booked, was recorded as getting a three-pointer.

Which defender with a leading XXXX League club appears to have dyed his hair to hide some pre-mature greys?

Two XXXX League players, with different clubs, took to the park last weekend with incorrect socks. One, a former international, also played the entire game with his shirt out. Surely the time has come for a crackdown on these sloppy dressers.

Rochedale keeper Brett Beves certainly gives value for money. At Heath Park last Sunday he held a running commentary with the crowd during the first half, spent much of the second half abusing his defenders then made a brilliant save off Bill McDermott in the final seconds.

THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE LAWS

How well do you know the laws of the game? Test yourself on the following questions then check your answers below. Questions and answers courtesy of the Queensland Soccer Referees Federation.

1. What is the minimum distance from the inside of the goalpost to the corner flag?
2. What instructions are there in the laws about the referee's whistle?
3. When should the referee compare watches with his linesmen?
4. How can a player put himself onside from an offside position?
5. Do all the players except the goalkeeper have to be behind the ball at the taking of a penalty kick?
6. In a match you hear a trainer giving instructions from the bench. As referee do you take any action?
7. A spectator stops the ball from entering the goal after a penalty kick has been taken during ordinary playing time. what should the referee do?
8. Two members of a team come out barefooted. Is this allowable?

1. 21 yards
2. None. It is not mentioned.
3. Before the start of the game and at halftime.
4. He cannot.
5. No. But they must be outside the penalty area, and on the field of play.
6. Warn the trainer as to his future conduct.
7. Have the spectator removed. Have the penalty kick re-taken (Law 10, International Board decision 2).
8. No. It is in order for all the team to play barefoot, but not individuals.

ANSWERS

KEARTON MAY RETURN TO STOP THE ORIGIN BLUES

Former Queensland and Brisbane Lions goalkeeper Jason Kearton, now with Everton, could be available to play for the Maroons in the inaugural State of Origin clash with NSW at Perry Park on Saturday, August 19.

Kearton, currently holidaying in Australia, has told Queensland coach Bruce Stowell he would assess the possibility of getting a release for the match once he returned to Goodison Park for pre-season training.

"Jason has indicated that if he returns to Everton and, Neville Southall and Mike Stowell are still there and, he is playing in the A team (third side), he would think about approaching the club to come back to Australia for the origin match," Stowell said. "But I have stressed to him not to place his future at the club in any jeopardy."

You could win tickets to see Queensland take on the blues in the first origin match by entering our contest. Go Soccer wants you to pick your Queensland team.

To be eligible, a player must have played his first senior football in Australia in Queensland, or played for Queensland after he turned 15 and before he registered as a senior in another State.

The entry form allows for traditional 4-4-3 line-up and three reserves, including a goalkeeper. Every entry received will go into a draw to determine the lucky winner of two tickets to the Origin clash.

Go Soccer will collate all entries and publish the most popular State of Origin squad at the end of next month. Send all entries to Go Soccer, 26 Cornubia Street, Loganholme, 4129. Photocopies and hand-written entries will be accepted for those not wishing to cut their magazine.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

Recently we attended the Grange Thistle 70th anniversary celebration dinner. Although thoroughly enjoying the occasion, it was disappointing to see the lack of support from former players and there have been hundreds since I last played at the club 20 years ago.

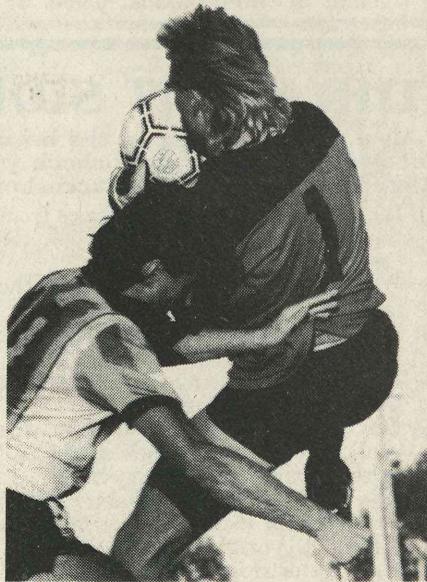

Anyway, whoever missed the event, missed the soccer memories speech of the century.

There were numerous speakers including Ian Brusasco, Jim Gilbert, Wallace Dann, Ron Millman and an in-depth historical facts report by Thistle President Barrie Allison. But to top them all was a person who did not need a script or wear glasses, was aged 92 and was celebrating his 64th wedding anniversary. He was none other than Jimmy Perotti.

Jimmy's talk brought the house down and all who missed it missed something special. Thanks Jimmy,

J and M Bell,
Brisbane.

DIVISION THREE:

Goodna 1 v Toowong 0:

Goodna could have finished with their best scoreline of the season had it not been for some desperate keeping, bad luck and poor finishing.

The first 10 minutes of the game saw Goodna crowding themselves in the middle of a very uneven pitch. In the 15th minute, Rod Heuser should have done better than hit the crossbar from close range and a minute later bad finishing again let us down when Lee Kool failed to bury a ball crossed from the right.

Goodna attacked constantly, and had no trouble breaking the Toowong defence, especially down the right. But once they got into the box they couldn't convert the pressure into goals.

Goodna finally got the breakthrough when man of the match, Steve Hart, climbed high to finish a good ball by Heuser from the right. In the dying seconds of the half, Denzil Coalter was denied a chance to make it two by the Toowong keeper who trapped the ball between his legs.

The second half deteriorated in terms of the quality of football. The Goodna defence had no problems handling the lack-lustre attack from Toowong with Ray Lemon and Terry New playing well. However Goodna's demise in attack was caused by the commitment of the Toowong keeper. He was constantly left to his own resources after his defence failed to provide any support. Toowong's problems were compounded further when they had a player sent off for abusive language. Best chances of the half came from a New whot which scraped the crossbar and a left foot shot by Coalter which forced a good save by the keeper.

In short, Goodna totally dominated in attack and defence with Toowong providing little or no resistance. However, Goodna should be disappointed with the scoreline as they provided 95 percent of the attack, with only the solitary goal to show for their efforts.

RESERVES:

Goodna 3 v Toowong 1:

Goodna applied the pressure immediately and were rewarded in the third minute when Mick Aust had an easy tap in from a good ball from Ray Barkmeyer.

Toowong's defence had the offside trap working well which caused plenty of problems for the Goodna attack. This enables Toowong to attack and find the equaliser in the 13th minute.

GOODNA

To Goodna's credit, they overcame the offside trap enabling them to make many fine attacking moves. David Mann and Jason Brown went close with their efforts in the 28th and 31st minutes. With just three minutes left to halftime, Brian Dowse drove the ball with his left foot which the keeper could only manage to palm down for Aust to pick up his second.

It was obvious that Aust was eager to get his hat-trick when he had two chances within the first minute of the second half. Only minutes later he applied good pressure to win the ball from a defender and his left foot shot floated across the goal and into the top left corner.

Goodna had many more opportunities to increase their lead but were unable to do so despite fine efforts from Barkmeyer, Mann and Dowse.

Goodna finished the game well on top of the opposition and the League ladder as a loss by Darra enabled them to grab first place, something they have been threatening to do for weeks.

A special mention this week for Andy Padgham after his encounter with the stray second match ball, which kept the sideline crowd entertained.

This week's games were held at Latrobe Valley.

The first team played exceptionally well together thus resulting in a 3-1 win to Croatia. The first goal was scored by Latrobe Valley in the first 20 minutes. It did not take long for Croatia to equalise with a goal scored by Kirk Lilley.

The team scored again just before halftime with a freekick being awarded to Croatia. Redomir Vidovic was able to hit a driving kick 15m out to score. The third goal came in the second half from a corner. It was knocked in by Tom Novack.

The second team had an excellent game which resulted in a 1-1 draw. The Third team were able to secure a 3-0 win.

Over the last few weeks there have been reports in the press about barracking by supporters. I am sure that Croatia have one of the largest bands of supporters who follow their team religiously. It is because of this band of supporters that people from other clubs state that we are rough in our barracking.

Unfortunately, everyone, no matter whether they are ethnic or Australian, sometimes yell out things in the heat of the moment. I am sure all clubs that Croatia have visited would be happy with their gate takings and bar sales so far this year.

If people wish for soccer to have the following that other codes of sport have, do not continue to rubbish clubs who have the supporters as this could damage soccer all together.

We are proud people and proud of our heritage. We can only offer soccer our support. Good on Ya, Croatia!

ERIC THOMPSON TALKING

Soccer's strength is its number of participants, yet when anything occurs in relation to players they are left to be a lone voice.

Episodes involving two players at Brisbane City recently, highlighted this problem yet again. John Figliano managed to beat the system and get the council of clubs to overturn a decision and moved onto Easts.

Kieran Cooper found that getting away can be difficult, if not impossible. I am happy that Kieran has decided to stay at City and once again is playing. To have him on the sidelines for whatever reason would have been a tragic waste.

But the incidents highlighted that the time is right for players to be represented by their own combined voice.

I am not advocating a hard-line union or any situation where players hold clubs and federations to ransom as has occurred in soccer and other codes overseas. But a player who has been dealt unfairly by his club should be advised of his rights and have some kind of organisation, with clout, go in to bat for him.

An individual will rarely be heard. A reputable organisation putting forward the player's point of view will at least ensure a fair hearing.

A players' organisation could extend its involvement far in excess of being involved in transfer disputes.

The injury to Redlands player Paul Hull last Sunday highlighted one of the sadder sides of our code and I am sure all players wish him a speedy recovery.

A players' organisation could ensure that their members who were seriously injured received the best possible medical treatment and were not left out of pocket.

Doubling up among players is not uncommon at this stage of the season where suspensions and injuries deplete the depth at many club.

Why then can't referees do the same? I fully understand that referees are stretched to the limit, but it was distressing to watch a situation last Sunday where a qualified official stood on the sideline and watched a well-meaning father trying his best to control a match.

If players are doubling up in Third Grade and Reserves, then referees should do their part, and do the same.

Obviously there should be a fresh referee for the main matches, but there is no reason why those assigned to the lines cannot turn up earlier and do a match in the middle.

Whatever anyone thinks, having someone in black and white on the field adds a whole new complexion to a game.

When something has failed, those with the future in mind, step in and make changes.

Queensland soccer has had a restructuring that hasn't worked. While some clubs given the opportunity to play in the top division have done their part, there are just as many who haven't.

The Division Two clubs have shown repeatedly in the Ampol Cup that they can compete with XXXX League sides and in playing standards alone there is little between the Two Divisions.

Somebody has not got to step in and introduce two-up, two-down promotion and relegation between the two top leagues.

To sidestep the issue is only to prolong the agony which will be the final rounds of this year's XXXX League.

The rivalry in Division Two reminds me of the old Brisbane First Division.

Club supporters not only follow their team, but turn out in droves to see other matches which affect their side's position. I am sure that will happen in coming weeks with games like Acacia Ridge against Croatia at Proud Field on Saturday week.

I have no doubts the crowd will include Croatia, Inala and Wynnum supporters and probably a lot of enviables XXXX League people who wish their competition was as interesting.

Finally, regards to Angie. I know you are an avid reader of this column and special thanks for all your information on State of Origin.

DIVISION FOUR:Pine Hills 4 v Kenmore 3:

Pine Hills found themselves 3-0 up at halftime, with goals from Peter Tong, Kevin Boan and Kevin Beeley. Surprisingly it was a half we never dominated, spending much of the time camped in our own half. It was perhaps only lack of fight from the Kenmore forwards and little imagination from their midfield that prevented them from capitalising on their territorial advantage.

Pine Hills started confidently in the second half. A long clearance from Stewart Stephenson was collected by Tong, who went on to net his second goal. In the last 25 minutes, Pine Hills made the mistake of sitting back and allowed Kenmore back into the game, who to their credit, played like a team more befitting a higher place on the league table.

Both Kenmore fullbacks consistently overlapped on the attack, drawing the Hills central midfielders wide and literally opened up the game. Pine Hills had little reply to this play and uncharacteristically were left to argue and bicker between themselves rather than finish the job they had started.

Once again we came away with the three points, but were abruptly reminded that there is a long way to go as far as our position in the league is concerned. Our young players did us proud once again, with another strong game from Corrie Popplewell and a fine goal from Beeley, which was taken with maturity far in excess of his 17 years.

PINE HILLS

RESERVES:Pine Hills 1 v Kenmore 1:

Once again Pine Hills proved they were a team not to be taken lightly. After the defeat at the hands of Logan, there was much to prove. They have to redeem themselves for their inconsistency and lack of preparation. For most of the match they did just that.

The first half saw a vigorous Kenmore often make penetrating moves, only to be swamped by an aggressive backline. In contrast there was some fine play by Hills through the right flank.

Some good teamwork kept the pressure on Kenmore and at halftime the scoresheet was blank. The second half saw Pine Hills relax, allowing Kenmore to dominate. Eventually they took the lead in the 70th minute with a well-struck shot. Finally, Pine Hills awoke playing desperation football.

Play swung from goalmouth to goalmouth with both teams almost scoring. It was only in the dying minutes that Pine Hills equalised, courtesy of new signing Stewart Harding.

PINE RIVERSXXXX LEAGUE:*Pine Rivers 0 v Taringa Rovers 0:

Rivers were outplayed by Taringa in the first half and were lucky not to be a few goals down. Rivers' best chance in the first half came when a great drive by Sammy Dean was pushed onto the post. Taringa hit the bar twice and should have scored with a bit more composure in front of the goal.

The second half was a great struggle with one goal always going to be enough. Lindsay Dines missed a header and John Preston had several chances but couldn't convert.

Rivers' best chance came 10 minutes from the end when Tony Scanlan missed a Clayton Koch cross and interfered with Preston in the box, but Rivers were denied a penalty. Koch could have won the game in the last few minutes, but his turning left foot shot was pushed wide by the keeper. Taringa had plenty of chances and deserved at least a draw.

Bobby Hamilton wasn't happy with the team's performance with the backline caught out too many times and the forwards not making enough runs out wide. Peter Underhill was the best with Sammy Dean and Graham Eden working hard.

GET IN EARLY FOR COACHING CLINICS

Applications can now be made to attend two coaching courses to be held during the off-season.

The popular level two course will again be staged at Perry Park in October. The course is open to men and women, who have passed the level one course or have a basic understanding of the code and an ability to demonstrate it.

The course will be held over two weekends and three mid-week night sessions from Saturday, October 7. The cost is $75, which includes the comprehensive BHP Manual.

A live-in level three course (Part "A") will be held at the Mount Gravatt CAE from January 14 to 19, at an all inclusive cost of $180. The course is open to those who have successfully completed their level two.

For further information on both courses and application forms, contact the QSF on 252 5327 or Reg Dyer on 372 3239.

RESERVES:Pine Rivers 2 v Taringa Rovers 3:

Rivers' lack of discipline and two vital mistakes by consistent Johnny Drynan gave Taringa a 3-2 win. Rivers' first goal was scored by Irishman Gary Donaghy who scored a top goal after Mark Temperley's 30m drive hit the crossbar.

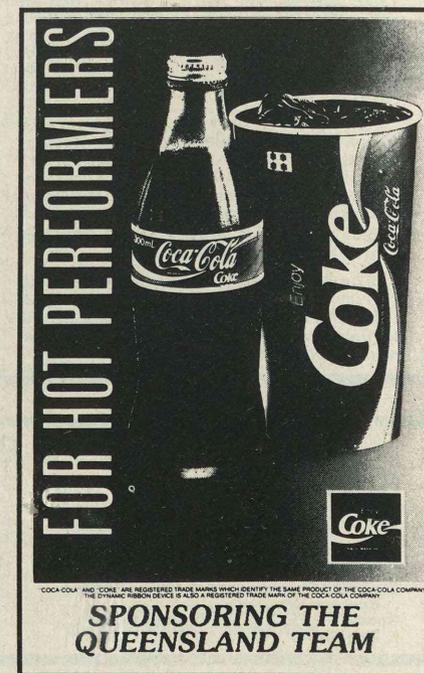

Rivers other goal was scored by big Al Crowdy with a great header off a Lennie Manikus freekick. Rivers played with 10 men when Crowdy was sent-off and keeper Aston Bell saved a penalty.

Very indecisive refereeing contributed towards to a very frustrating game.

COLTS:Pine Rivers 3 v Taringa Rovers 3:

The Colts improved on their last few games but threw a 3-1 lead away in the second half to draw. Taringa drew first blood but Rivers fought back with Jeff Scott converting a penalty to make the halftime score 1-1.

Rivers took the lead with two good goals from John Goodall and Richard Forster, but Taringa fought back well.

MITCHELTON

DIVISION TWO: Mitchelton 2 v Inala City 2:

For the third time this day, we scored the first goal but we wanted to win, so I was not as concerned about the outcome. This goal came from good pressure and a well-placed header from Greg Tucker which gave their keeper no chance.

Inala failed with a powerful drive (over the bar) in the 17th minute and an elaborate scissors-kick in the 23rd minute, but both were covered by our keeper. We missed in the 30th minute when good build up put Paul Wrigley through, but he lacked support.

One minute after the break, they went down the left beat our defence and keeper and were equal at 1-1. Though we came back strongly from the restart, it was 16 minutes later before Garth Moloney went up the right, round their defence and centred for Craig Mills to put away an easy one.

As so often happens, we let them in from the restart for the equaliser. Ten minutes later, Michael Black sent Moloney away down the left and he was unlucky to beat their keeper only to see his shot deflected off the crossbar. He was unlucky yet again in the 80th minute when he put a good cross from Mills just wide of the post. Their last chance was denied by good cover defence by Lee Grice with our keeper beaten.

SAMFORD RANGERS

DIVISION FOUR: Samford Rangers 1 v Brothers 6:

Little to be said about this game. We gave away two early goals to be immediately behind the eight ball.

Lyndsay Wills scored from the spot to give us hope, however almost straight away we botched a goalkick to give them another gift.

Early in the second half saw Brothers running riot as they added three quick goals to make the score an unbelievable 6-1 with half an hour to go. Best for Samford Tim Baartz and keeper Maurice Pardey who made a fine first team debut.

RESERVES: Samford Rangers 3 v Brothers 2:

A much improved display by this team despite still not capitalising on a number of chances.

Paul Tier gave Samford an early lead when he nodded in a Graham Friend cross. Despite a Brothers' equaliser, Samford remained in control until Dean Smareglia rose above the pack to slam home a fine header.

Just after half time Bob Hambly scored from this spot to clinch the points. Brothers scored again but couldn't bridge the gap because of strong defence. Best for Samford: Graham Friend, Chris Tanzer and Hambly.

RESERVES: Mitchelton 1 v Inala City 5:

When the third-placed team meets the fourth last, you could be forgiven for expecting a walkover. However, the first goal was our's only 10 minutes into the game and it took them nearly 20 minutes to get the equaliser.

After the break, we seemed to suffer a rash of lapses in concentration and let them off the hook. How else do you explain goals in the 50th, 65th, 70th and 89th minutes when we already had shown we were capable of holding our opposition?

THIRD GRADE: Mitchelton 2 v Inala City 3:

Apart from one good save from our keeper in the 34th minute, the first half comprised manily of creative chances and poor finishing. Then in the last two minutes a throw-in on our right was centred for a first timer by well positioned Ross Cox, which was balanced by an easy goal for them before the break.

Two minutes after lemons, after good build-up on the left, a through ball found Wayne Marstella, who walked through the defence to put it away. A good save by each keeper with just under 20 minutes to go was followed in the 75th minute by a mix-up, over which argument is still going on, and an open goal gave them the equaliser. Three minutes later, a questionable refereeing decision resulted in a quickly taken freekick and they had put away the winner.

LATROBE VALLEY

DIVISION TWO:

Latrobe Valley 1 v Brisbane Croatia 3:

This game opened with both sides committed to attacking football. In the 17th minute a cross from the left side found Mick Jones' head. He passed to the unmarked Jamie Finlayson whose hard and low shot found the net, past the unsighted Croatia keeper Robert Harrison.

In the 28th minute, through some very scrappy defence by Latrobe Valley, Croatia received a penalty when a player handled the ball with keeper Jon Atterton stranded. Kirk Lilley took the spot kick and although Atterton got a hand to the ball, the power of the shot sent it into the net.

In the 33rd minute Croatia almost went further ahead when Atterton was beaten, but his brother Bruce cleared and the ball missed the goalmouth by inches.

In the 42nd minute Latrobe Valley should have gone ahead from a freekick which struck the lefthand upright. The ball fell for Tony Iovvenitt, whose shot went over the bar. In the next minute Croatia received a freekick well outside the area, which was hit by Rado Vidosic whose shot gave the keeper no chance.

In the next passage of play, Gerry Kay took the defence on and his shot appeared to cross the line and came out, but the referee would have none of it.

In the 55th minute, a Kay freekick after Peter Tyson was fouled, was saved well by keeper Harrison. In the 65th minute, Croatia went further ahead when they had our defence at sixes and sevens and non-existent.

Croatia maintained the pressure but keeper Atterton made some great saves. Latrobe Valley counter-attack but could not get into good shooting positions.

RESERVES:

Latrobe Valley 1 v Brisbane Croatia 1:

It was almost 30 minutes before a clear chance fell for Croatia. The shot beat Kevin Milne who was off his line, but failed to find the goalmouth. The ball moved from end to end for the remainder of the first half, but both keepers had little difficulty handling the respective forwards.

In the 55th minute Dean Biron beat a defender on the left side and slipped the ball to the unmarked Andrew McClymont, who had little trouble slotting his shot into the net. In the 57th minute, Milne made a top save to keep us ahead, but four minutes later Steve Perkovic was allowed to waltz through our defence and his hard, low shot was unstoppable.

For the remainder of the game both sets of forwards had opportunities to win the game but their finishing lacked accuracy.

THIRD GRADE:

Latrobe Valley 0 v Brisbane Croatia 3:

This team although comprehensively beaten is showing some improvement from previous weeks and should start winning their games in the not too distant future.

TOOWONG

DIVISION THREE:

Toowong 0 v Goodna 1:

To be perfectly honest, Goodna deserved to win this match.

Toowong are in a position where they cannot afford to throw matches away and that is what they did in this game. Toowong started with a lot of confidence with the ball being pushed and played around well.

When Goodna scored midway through the first half, through a mistake in our midfield, it seems to knock the stuffing out of Toowong.

Looking at the match, Goodna wanted to win the ball, never giving Toowong time. They were first to the ball and their first touch was better than ours.

Not taking anything away from Goodna's win, but the person in black in charge of the game, or supposed to be in charge, was absolutely disgusting.

RESERVES:

Toowong 1 v Goodna 3:

Goodna were down to the bare 11 players but put up a good show.

Goodna scored first and 10 minutes later the ball came out of the Goodna penalty area where Tony Green hit a brilliant shot on the volley where the goalkeeper never saw it until it hit the roof of the net.

In the second half Goodna came out with more fight to score two more goals.

REDCLIFFE

DIVISION THREE:

Redcliffe 2 v Lutwyche 0:

This was Redcliffe's fourth win in a row and probably the hardest so far, against a defensively-orientated Lutwyche side.

Neil Parkins palmed a Lutwyche drive round the far post after 12 minutes, and except for two bad backpasses, had nothing else much to save bar collecting a couple of crosses. Not much happened in the Lutwyche goal area in the first half either.

We started the second half with the wind behind us and kept Lutwyche in their own half for 90 percent of the remainder, with Ricky Callaghan doing a lot of running off the ball. The continued pressure paid off after 65 minutes when Mike McEvoy got behind the defence to put a lovely downward header past the Lutwyche keeper from a Callaghan freekick to make the score 1-0. Four minutes later a series of one-tuos from Campbell, Llew Revesby and Callaghan left Campbell with a clear shot which he buried with great gusto. Once again a very good team performance with the will to win firmly instilled in Redcliffe.

Best for Redcliffe, Callaghan, Parkins, Revesby and McEvoy, and special mention for a fine refereeing performance.

RESERVES:

Redcliffe 1 v Lutwyche 1:

City's first chance of the game fell for Derek Graham whose 20-yarder was tipped over the bar by the Lutwyche keeper. Fifteen minutes into the game, City were awarded a penalty but failed to convert. Five minutes later, Lutwyche scored from a corner kick.

A CHANCE TO GET SOME BASIC TIPS

Brisbane Director of Coaching Mal Bland will stage two more of his popular level one coaching clinics this month.

The clinics offer a basic insight into coaching and are highly recommended for all junior coaches, players of all levels and anyone interested in gaining a better knowledge of the game or taking their first step into coaching.

The next course will be held at Kingsridge on July 17 and Southside Eagles on July 20. Both courses start at 6.30 pm.

Anyone wishing to book a place on the course, or enquire about courses at other grounds later in the season should contact Bland on 849 4537.

A more determined City started the second half and most of the game was played in the Lutwyche half of the field. With 15 minutes left Luchetta rose above the Lutwyche defence to score a well-deserved equaliser. The last 15 minutes was all Redcliffe as we pressed for the winner but to no avail.

Best for City were Steve Jones, Brad Aspen and Graham.

KINGSRIDGE

DIVISION TWO:

Kingsridge 0 v Wynnum 2:

After last week's fine performance, Kings were after a home win and started soundly. They had the majority of play for the first half but slowly let Wynnum back into the game towards the break.

Kings continued playing good open football in the second half, however, Wynnum scored first against the run of play. For the next 15 minutes, Kings applied pressure and had a number of chances to equalise, Mick Preston particularly being unlucky twice.

Kings kept pushing extra players forward, searching for the equaliser and the pressure finally told against them when Wynnum scored their second goal in the last minute. Again, all players gave 110 percent effort, Paul McHiggins was Man of the Match.

RESERVES:

Kingsridge 0 v Wynnum 0:

It was a good result for Kings against fourth-placed Wynnum. The home side played very well and pushed the ball around confidently. Jared Williams and Dale Nicholls again had strong games. Kings were unlucky not to score two goals in the first half. John Cariola was Man of the Match.

THIRD GRADE:

Kingsridge 0 v Wynnum 3:

It was all Wynnum, the league leaders, in the first half and they played well scoring goals in the fifth, 15th and 42nd minutes.

A more determined Kings held Wynnum scoreless in the second half and were encouraged when replacement keeper Vic Neverov saved a penalty in the 78th minute. Two minutes later, Kings were unlucky not to register a goal when Reg English crossed a great ball for Barry Rhodes, whose shot went inches wide. James Swanson had another strong game for Man of the Match.

This week's guest tipster is Rochedale Rovers' midfielder John Fox. Last week's guest, Brisbane City's Kieran Cooper set a record high success rate of 57%, bettering Chris Slater's 54%, which had stood for 15 weeks. The record low is held by Stein Grodum (25%). The success rate, including that in the guests' column, is a progressive average.

AMPOL CUP — SEMI-FINALS

EASTS v BRISBANE LIONS

Perry Park, Saturday, 5 pm

Referee: TONY SLATER

East's form in the League has been far from impressive of late and the Cup may be their only chance of collecting silverware this season.

For the first time in this year's Cup, the Tigers will go into a match as the underdogs and probably will relish the tag. Easts played Lions in a fixture on May 7 and lost 1-0, the winner coming from super-sub Stuart MacLeod in a closely-fought match.

Lions' form also has been indifferent of late, although the side got some goalscoring practice with a 4-0 win over Redlands last weekend. If Lions hope to stop North Star winning another trophy, they have at least got to win this game.

WHO'S HOT . . .

Lions' new signing Angus Smith showed he can put the ball away when he netted a hat-trick against Redlands last Sunday. Another bagful this weekend would not go astray.

WHO'S NOT . . .

East's striker Wayne Corbett is a casual player who has the ability to go past defenders but of late has been content only to do the minimum. He needs to take on more attacking responsibility.

Are Rochedale a bogey team for North Star or is that just a popular myth at Underwood Park? The Rovers did score a draw with North Star at Perry Park recently, and could very nearly have won and have tested their O'Callaghan Park rivals on a number of occasions in recent years.

North Star coasted last week against Olympic United and didn't do enough to deserve a win. But this game will be entirely different. A place in the Cup Final is on the line and North Star have shown many times in the past that they rise to the occasion.

Next Games: Lions v North Star
Rochedale v Brisbane City

WHO'S HOT . . .

Rochedale defender Steve Donald had an outstanding match last Sunday at Heath Park and has to be one of the most under-rated defenders in the XXXX League.

WHO'S NOT . . .

After scoring at will for weeks, the goals finally dried up for the McDonagh-Scriggins combination last Saturday night. In Cup football you don't get second chances and the North Star strikers will want to be at their sharpest for this one.

Scorers:

This match looms as Redlands' final real chance of escaping relegation.

With Grange Thistle, the only side they can now realistically catch, not playing this weekend, the Baysiders must take three points to close the gap and give them some hope.

City looks destined to finish as solid third but can't afford to lose this match for the damage it would do to team pride. City battled away for a draw against Mount Gravatt last weekend and will find this one just as tough, although the injury to Paul Hull last week was a huge blow to the battling Baysiders.

Next Games: Mount Gravatt v Redlands
Rochedale v Brisbane City

WHO'S HOT . . .

Wayne Evans has battled back to his best form after a run of outs and it seems a little unfair that his status as the best keeper in the League won't be rewarded with representative honours this season.

WHO'S NOT . . .

Kieran Cooper must really have been unsettled at City for his vow not to play with the club to last a whole week. It really makes his claims that he wasn't upset over being dropped look a little shallow.

OLYMPIC UNITED v PINE RIVERS

Goodwin Park, Sunday, 2.45 pm

Referee: BARRY POWER

The Olympic United players decided to scrap the picnic last weekend and nearly inflicted the first defeat on leaders North Star.

A revived Olympic showed frustrated coach Juan Cutillas just what they could do when they put their minds to it and some better finishing could have seen the lowly-placed Goodwin Parkers get more than a draw last Saturday night.

Pine Rivers, after showing so much against Grange Thistle a week ago, looked an ordinary team against Taringa last Sunday and missed a golden opportunity to consolidate a top five place. Three points here could see them cap an impressive debut season by being in the box-seat for the fifth spot.

Next Games: Olympic Utd. v Grange T.
Pine Rivers v Easts (Perry Park)

WHO'S HOT . . .

The Olympic picnic-players were basketed last weekend and the rest gave an impressive display. They now have to prove it was no fluke and do it again in front of their faithful home supporters.

WHO'S NOT . . .

Olympic United striker Harry Makridakis had a dream opportunity to be a hero last weekend but seemed to freeze in a breakaway. He has the speed and skill to get goals, he only needs to gain some confidence.

GIVE YOUTH A CHANCE!

Popular Pine Rivers supporter and Go Soccer correspondent, Fred Koch, this week offers a suggestion to the Queensland Soccer Federation management committee for a curtain-raiser to the inaugural State of Origin match at Perry Park on August 19.

While the management committee already has organised a match between the Bundaberg and Gold Coast Ampol Cup teams as the main curtain-raiser, Koch believes there would be considerable interest in also programming an Under 21 match selected on City and Country origins.

"There is certainly enough Under 21 City players in the XXXX League to assemble a very competitive outfit," Koch said. "And there are many boys with XXXX Clubs that have been recruited from the country."

"While the parameters of the country team may have to be extended to say Division Two and XXXX Reserves players, as well may be the nearby affiliates like Gold Coast and Bundaberg, I am sure Country could assemble a team which would give the City boys a run for their money."
