EDITORIAL:

The final outcome of the Bradley Report will not be known until September.

This is when the final vote to implement it in total or to throw it out the door is taken.

For the sake of the sport and its future it must be a positive vote for change.

A lot has been written regarding Queensland having a team in the NSL for the 1990/91 season.

In the Bradley Report it has been recommended that Queensland be allocated two teams for the 1991/92 season.

This surely is above any Queensland supporter's wildest expectations.

However for teams to gain entry into the 1991/92 competition, stringent guidelines will be enforced.

Items such as ground lighting for television are high on the priority list.

This will mean teams nominating won't get much change out of a half a million dollars for the conversion of current lights to lights suitable for the silver screen.

The whole Queensland assault on the NSL Championship will be around the cool million dollar mark for one season, per team.

In the past the press have had a field day criticising the lack of a Queensland team in the NSL competition.

It is very obvious not many of the press members have done their mathematics and homework on what it all costs.

The same press have criticised the admission charge to major matches at Perry Park this year.

It takes a lot of $10 to make a million dollars. Think about that?

And the illustrious members of the press would be wise to take the calculator in hand to find out the real facts of NSL.

When the National President was asked about sponsorship currently enjoyed by NSL clubs he answered "purely traditional support only. Even Marconi lacks a major sponsor."

The media coverage for the World Cup has been excellent. World Class sport deserves that type of exposure.

That is the sort of media exposure we need all the time - positive.

Soccer supporters also must promote their own sport - you rarely hear followers of basketball, rugby union, rugby league or Australian rules bag their own sport.

If you want soccer to succeed then you must think positively about it.

In spite of the big dollars needed for the NSL campaign, Queensland will have a team in the competition.

Sure it may be 1991/92, but we will achieve that ambition.

And if all the administrators, coaches, players, supporters and soccer journalists work hard, we stand to take our sport to the top of the pile.

After all that's where it really belongs!

Champions 1986, 1987; Grand Finalists 1986 and Preliminary Finalists 1987.

North Star Sports Club was formed in 1959 as a multi sporting Club in the Northern suburbs area and to cater for both junior and senior sportsmen and women. Prior to the forming of N.S.S.C. Soccer was played under the name Zillmere Stars.

At present North Star caters for soccer, cricket, baseball and softball. The largest, of course, being soccer and this year have 24 junior and 5 senior teams.

Senior soccer has risen to great heights since the early days. In 1980 North Star won promotion from 3rd to 2nd division and again in 1981 promotion to first Division. Since our introduction to top class soccer we have achieved:

Achievements

- 1988 Grand Final Winners,
- Ampol Cup Finalists,

Over the years many players have represented Queensland and Brisbane teams to mention Gerry Lindsay, Dave Gallagher, Billy Williamson, Gordon Buchanan, Ken Swann, Jim McDonagh, Shane Haddow, Lee Scriggins, Mike Mulvey and Cameron Pearce.

Our rep. players list does not end with our seniors as almost every year we have around 20 BN & DJSA and Queensland junior players.

Another highlight in 1990 was a testimonial match for Gerry Lindsay. This match included former Queensland and Club players. It was very well supported and a fitting send off for a dedicated Club player.

REFEREEING INTO THE 90's ————— with DES MILES

SELF MANAGEMENT FOR THE REFEREE

PART 1.

In my full-time job, running training courses, I'm coming into contact with more and more ideas for self and people management which seem to have uses on the football pitch.

I'd like to share some of these in the hope they will be of use to you.

The first area is in self-management - getting yourself right. As well as the preparation in terms of getting gear packed etc., there's much you can do inside your own head to approach any match in the best possible frame of mind.

Firstly, do you truly know where you are going? The old phrase "those going nowhere tend to get there" can be applied to the football pitch.

Before you start a match, have you set your own standards? Have you decided the attitude you are going to display, how you are going to attempt to control the players?

Have you thought about positioning for the situations which always arise?

A successful general always has a battle plan to work to. The confidence you can obtain from simply having this worked out in your mind beforehand is considerable.

Secondly, and a field which produces amazing results, is in the field of self-visualisation.

Before a match, take time to imagine the game going without a hitch.

Let's assume every player accepts every decision as being correct. Penalty awards are applauded by the defending team, and not a word of dissent is spoken throughout this 90 minute encounter.

At the conclusion, both teams, including the one who lost the game from a last minute penalty which hit a post before flying into the net off your leg, award you 10 out of 10.

Okay, you're laughing by now - and that's exactly the point!

If you blew a whistle to start a match at this moment you'd be feeling relaxed, calm and ready.

The idea of self visualisation is to put you into a positive and calm frame of mind.

Of course, it won't be like that in the match, but simply by your positive attitude you're giving yourself a better chance of controlling what does arise in a praiseworthy manner.

Self-visualisation really works on another level too and I'll tell you about that next week. Gorden Venlard

FRANKLY SPEAKING

with Frank Cuddell

This year's Ampol Cup is now down to the last eight and looks to be a very close competition with all the teams coming from the XXXX Soccer League.

The first double header at Perry Park on Saturday will see North Star and Mt Gravatt battle out the early game with Brisbane Lions and Pine Rivers clashing in the late match.

Then on Wednesday week Acacia Ridge will take on Eastern Suburbs while Brisbane City will try to account for Olympic.

The league form goes out the window in these Cup ties as there are a few teams battling to keep their honours for the season alive.

With that in mind there should be four very good games to look forward to for supporters.

The Australian Soccer Federation finally ended speculation when they named Eddie Thomson as their new National Coach.

And what a decision that was!

It seems the job was between Thomson and Venglos, the Czechoslovakian National Coach.

But with Eddie's vast experience of Australian football and his involvement as Frank Arok's assistant there was really only one man for the job.

I would like to wish "Big" Eddie all the best in his new job and if he is true to his word we might just see some Queensland players in his plans.

With Eddie's departure the National Director of Coaching job is now up for grabs and Bruce Stowell looks like the man most people want.

It would be good for Bruce to get this opportunity, but Queensland Soccer would suffer as a result.

Perhaps the Queensland Soccer Federation should give him an offer he can't refuse.

Finally we now know there will be no Brisbane team in the National League next year.

So why don't we look at some sort of a franchise deal to set up the team who wins the XXXX League this year?

This year's Premiers still have the chance to regain NSL status by playing off against the South Australian and Victorian champions.

If some of the clubs got together with the QSF and looked at some sponsorship deals we might still be able to stop our top players from leaving Brisbane.

There is some possibilities, but one has to take the bull by the horns first.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

ATLANTA CUP FINAL

The long awaited clash between Eastern Suburbs and Redlands in the Atlanta Cup Final took place last Sunday at Geebung.

The game was played at a furious pace with some good football from both sides. The half-time scoreline was nil-nil, both teams playing a good defensive game. Easts seemed to get the better of Redlands in the second half and began to press home this advantage. Leanne Priestley and Maree Grant both scored to give Easts the Cup 2-0.

Kingaroy v Nanango

Kingaroy were no match for Nanango women last weekend going down 3-0 after a 1-0 half-time scoreline.

Nanango made the running for most of the match with their "Caltex stars and starlets" full of confidence against anything but settled Kingaroy 11.

New signing Robin Woods returning to South Burnett soccer after a number of years was one of their few to show up in a lacklustre performance that Nanango capitalised on.

Woods handed Amanda Steinhardt Nanango's first goal with a perfect across goal defensive pass for Steinhardt to put away at the 12th min.

Paulette Trace tried for an equaliser at the 15th min with a shot to the near post but Keeper Sue Steinhardt was equal to the task despite the fast finishing Shelly Woods.

Nanango went on with the pressure after the resumption and a Kingaroy side reluctant to tackle allowed Nanango to apply unpressured attack.

Brown ran unopposed from deep to latch onto a poor clearance at the 48th min to grab goal No. 2 and one min. later Madonna Hay with all the time in the world hoisted a high ball from the right for a spectacular third goal.

Wondai v Murgon

Wondai women with only nine players were still too good for Murgon as school holidays caused havoc with lineups.

Wondai ran out convincing winners by three goals to nil in a one sided affair.

Wondai midfielder Alison Rutledge, recovered from a knee injury suffered in the State Titles, wasted no time in taking her first goal early in the match.

Lena Cutler played well in a beaten side which held Wondai to one goal until the second half when Karen Cavanaugh slotted her team's second and Rutledge put away a handball penalty for a final 3-0 scoreline.

The win keeps the premiers five points clear of Nanango at the top of the table with the season almost at the halfway point.

JUNIORS IN THE LIMELIGHT

BRISBANE SOUTH

Dinmore Soccer Club is celebrating its centenary this year and plans are underway for a celebration weekend during the month of August.

A junior carnival, a home game for Dinmore seniors and a fun day are all part of plans for this exciting day.

Club workers are still in need of further information about the club in the past.

There must be past players and members out there somewhere who could be able to furnish valuable information to the present committee.

If you can help please phone Gerry Noble Ph: 288 2373 as soon as possible.

Sincere thanks goes to Radio 4BC and Cobbity Farm Bakeries for this year's Soccer clinic at Perry Park from June 18-22.

These reasonable priced clinics give players instruction on the skills of the game and a lot can be learnt from the clinic.

One point to remember however, is that the players attending still need to practice the skills learnt during the week at home.

Once confident at performing these skills, the use of them in matches will prove a great asset.

So remember all you promising Socceros, continue to practice at home.

On my visits to the clinic however I noticed some participants not wearing shinpads.

Obviously a few players are still not in the habit of making sure soccer boots only go on once the shinpads are there.

An unexpected visitor to the 4BC Soccer Clinic on Friday morning was newly appointed Australian Soccer Coach, Eric Thompson.

Great to see him drop in to see our young players. We congratulate him on his recent appointment and wish him every success.

Q.S.S.S. FEDERATION

Things will be a little quiet for the next two weeks due to the School Holidays.

Last week I was presented with a chaotic situation by the coach of the South Coast Regional Schoolboys Soccer team.

He discovered that apart from losing five of his squad to the State Under 15's, he is now threatened with the loss of a further six players to the State Under 16's.

As a result, he tells me that the team he could now select would be uncompetitive.

Several phone calls around the town later and I have provided him with six Brisbane-based players willing to go in a combined President's side.

The major problem at the coast seems to be the Australian Rules invasion.

Ron Barassi may have slated the Bears as the worst team in the competition but the code is pumping money into the game at the coast and luring boys away with all sorts of goodies. Rugby has done the same thing for years too and lured boys away from Soccer at school and club level.

Free jerseys, goal posts, match balls and coaching by players in the top sides are all on offer for the schoolboy Australian Rules player.

Rules and Rugby combined do not have the same numbers we do in Soccer and yet they have greater appeal and better media coverage.

This year the Commonwealth Bank has withdrawn its sponsorship from the National Championships for Secondary School Soccer. This has meant that each player is going to be hit for an extra $40.00 for the team levy which has been set at $640.00 team.

On the subject of State team costs I must apologise for any misunderstanding I may have caused in an earlier article, the actual costs at this stage come to just under $700.00 and I am trying to whittle this down through sponsorship and other means.

The $1300.00 I quoted was the total amount many of the boys travelling to Cairns and the girls travelling from country Regions to Brisbane will be up for just to represent Queensland in the Nationals.

Anyone selected to represent Australia will need to find a further $3000.00 for the South-East Asia trip in December. (I am going on the 1989 costing here).

The Commonwealth Bank Bill Turner Cup is still moving along slowly with the following results now to hand.

Redeemer Lutheran 3 d Wavell 0, so they now go on to play Nambour after the Holidays.

Harristown 1 d St Mary's Toowoomba 0, Redbank Plains 2 d Bremer 0, so Redbank Plains will play Harristown after the holidays.

Merrimac 3 d Alexandra Hills 2, Coombabah 2 d Somerset College Nerang 0, so Coombabah will play Merrimac after the Holidays, and the winner will play Sunnybank who defeated Shailer 5-4 on penalties after the scores were locked at 2-2.

Once these games are out of the way we will have two area winners who will play in the quarter final to decide the Queensland winner to travel to NSW for a semi-final.

Roger Holcroft.

National Junior Titles

The opening of the National Women's Junior Titles was held at Geebung on Sunday.

Members for Nudgee, Mr Ken Vaughan, officially opened the titles, remembering that he was present when the fields were opened in 1981. It was good to have the A.W.S.A. President, Dennis O'Brien, National Executive Director, Heather Reed, and two members of the A.W.S.A. Board, Elaine Watson and Betty Hoar also present.

National Junior Coach, Mick Hoar, was also present to cast his eye over players for selection in the Junior Talent Identification squad, who will have a training camp at the A.I.S. later this year.

South Queensland and New South Wales played the opening game. New South Wales were 2-0 up at half-time but Queensland came back in the second half with a 2 magic goals.

N.S.W. were awarded a penalty midway in the second half and were the victors 3-2.

The second game between A.C.T. and S.A. were also hotly contested. S.A. full deserved to finish on an equal score but it was not to be. A.C.T. won 2-1.

Inter-City Series

(Re-scheduled Matches)

Coach's Comment:

Enid Street, Goodna

Coach's Comment:

Jim Selby - In this match we will be giving some young players an opportunity to gain some experience in a higher level of football, so they have nothing to loose and everything to gain for their soccer future.

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

The Far North was not only blessed with the State Under-14 Titles this week but with Frank Farina's presence.

Farina who confirmed that several Italian clubs, Bari, Bologna, Pisa and Genoa had displayed interest in him after a top season with Belgian club Brugges.

If he signs for one of these, he will undoubtedly, given the incredible current World transfer fees, become the most expensive Australian player ever.

I asked him if he had gone beyond his wildest dreams and he said that he still had ambition.

If his dreams were realized then it would be time to pack up his boots and give the game away.

Although I haven't seen him play recently, I am told that he has tempered much of the lightning speed to become a ball player and not chaser.

I interviewed Farina once before on the back of a truck at Endeavour Park, our local soccer centre about six years ago when he was playing in Sydney and the major difference I notice now is his extreme care in answering any question. No doubt a legacy of living in a country where publicity officers don't battle to get the merest snippet of information in the media as we do here.

Farina went along to watch some senior soccer games but unfortunately none of the week-end's fixtures rose to their best standard.

The top three teams all dropped points. Joint second placed Edge Hill and Leichhardt shared a nil-all draw and Dimbulah were surprisingly defeated at home by local rivals Mareeba, the only goal coming from their captain/coach Colin Junna.

But the chasers, Stratford and Marlin Coast Rangers made up ground at the heavy expense of the bottom of the table teams Mossman and Innisfail.

Both teams capitulated and were easily beaten with four second half goals.

Stratford destroyed Innisfail 5-0 and Marlin Coast annihilated Mossman 6-1. Red McLellan.

NORTH QUEENSLAND

If Racing Stewards controlled soccer in North Queensland, they would want to introduce swabbing after some of the recent results in the Premiership competition.

Bookmakers would be laughing and the spectators demanding an enquiry.

Last weekend, Aitkenvale P.Y.C., the premiership leaders in the First Division, lost their first game of the Premiership. This can happen to any team, but they lost 4-0 to Estates who the week before went down 2-3 to Heatley Warriors (seventh on the table.)

In their previous game, Estates lost to bottom of the ladder, Polonia, 0-1.

Another team that has their coach, former English profession, Tony Dickinson, pulling his hair out, is Brothers.

After recruiting some worthwhile players locally to boost the team and importing a couple more, the Bretheren looked to be the team to beat this year.

With a record of three wins and one draw from the first eight games this season, Dickinson is not very happy with his team. One of the three wins strangely enough was against one of the top teams, Mundingburra Olympic.

The 10 team First Division is as many anticipated, quickly sorting it's self into two groups.

After the first seven Premiership games, three points separated the top five teams.

One team was only another three points away on 10 points, and then came the gap, two on six points and two on three.

Just a few years ago, the N.Q.S.F. had two major Divisions, First and Second, with lower Divisions associated with each of these.

Each Division consisted of eight clubs, with promotion and relegation applying each year.

With amalgamation of clubs and drop-outs the Federation eventually formed a 10 club organisation with three grades.

Unfortunately, the better players are still inclined to drift towards the traditionally fashionable clubs, invariably causing an imbalance, resulting in the points table being in two sections.

Possibly with the continued growth of the City and adjoining areas, outlying Junior clubs may develop Seniors and the Senior competition restricted again.

North Queensland is not unknown for having players of rare vintage, and one in particular will be celebrating his 47th birthday on the June 26.

Richard (Spider) Mannering-Samwell, Burdekin Parkside Club official, and regular member of the club's Third Division side, will no doubt receive many happy birthday wishes from club members and friends amongst the soccer fraternity in N.Q.

Bill Martin.

ROCKHAMPTON

Bluebirds remain on top of the Power's Bitter Premier League despite sharing the points with Frenchville last week in a spirited nil-all draw at Norbridge Park.

At the same time on the other field Berserker hung on to second place although losing 2-5 to Nerimbera.

Three sides are now locked together on nine points but Berserker's 8-1 thrashing of Southside gives them a much superior goal difference.

The Bluebirds/Frenchville clash was the typical tight no-holds-barred affair spectators have come to expect over the past two seasons.

It's reminiscent of the old Brisbane Lions/Brisbane City games where there wasn't much soccer played but a lot of tension because of the tough tackling and a lack of respect for each other.

Four players were booked and if the referee had been as severe as in the World Cup a lot more would have been.

It was expected that the clash of Jason Wyer and whatever Bluebirds defender marked him would produce fireworks and that's exactly what happened.

A clash between Mark Doe and Wyer just outside the penalty area saw the yellow card shown to Doe.

The struggle in the middle of the field was intense with Craig Green and Graham Wilson getting on top.

Wilson was taking up much more forward positions for Frenchville making it very difficult for the Bluebirds defence who were content to pump long balls down the middle.

Darren Jeffries was the only player showing out for Bluebirds in the mid-field.

The only real chance of a goal came to Bluebirds right on the final whistle.

An interchange between Gary Banks and substitute Darren Anderson saw Anderson's shot hit the post with Frenchville goalkeeper Chris Gordon caught flatfooted.

Berserker had the nine players back who missed the previous week's thrashing of Southside due to representative commitments, but it wasn't enough to overcome Nerimbera.

Lance Laphorne opened the scoring for Nerimbera and quickly got another before Adrian Smith also netted twice to put Nerimbera 4-0 up.

Berserker's replies came from Jim Gough and Glen Sheppard before Daley scored Nerimbera's fifth.

SOUTH BURNETT

Nanango firsts fought back from a two-goal deficit to salvage a two-all draw against South Burnett soccer league ladder leaders Easts last week.

The game opened at a furious pace with a close shave for Easts when Nanango midfielder David Trace drilling a flat cross into the penalty box.

Easts then started to play as they have in recent weeks - good possession football.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE

From previous page

They fed a long ball forward at the 11th min for speedster Wayne Broderick. His pressure on Nanango keeper Lee Strack and defender Charlie Schloss caused a complete misunderstanding and left no one at home.

Nanango took time to recover from the set-back, but were again caught at the back by a through ball to Mark Halliday who beat the offside trap for the second goal.

East's game then deteriorated. The midfield defense of East's became almost nonexistent with Russell Thompson roaming at will for the rest of the match.

He created the best goal of the day at the 29th min when he set up Roy Trace for a fine finish under the diving Prendegast.

East's came out after half-time determined to put early goals on the board. At the 55th min East's defender Peter Divison succeeded in providing Thompson with the opportunity to take a free kick just outside the box through a clumsy tackle.

The ball flew true from Thompson to Aemonne Evans whose header glanced off East's back Steve Harts head and wide of Prendegast for an own goal equaliser.

Both sides then resorted to long balls for their speedmen up front rather than to work the ball, resulting in a scrappy and at times spiteful last 20 mins. By saving one point in this draw East's remain on top over fast improving clubmates West's.

* * * *

Premiers West's clicked to demolish a depleted Murgon First Division side 6-1 last week. Ravaged by their teaching connection being on Holidays, Murgon dug deep into their seconds to meet an almost full-strength West's outfit.

West's created heaps of opportunities and finished clinically despite big efforts from Bevan Rattey and Justin Barford in trying to protect Murgon keeper Ken Hendrie.

Midfielder Guy Hand played a decisive part, taking a hattrick of goals, two of them coming in the first half. Brendan Moore took the third for the first half when he put away an attempted clearance by Hendrie.

Hand grabbed his third after the resumption while second half substitute and coach Willy Burns took two. Burn's first was a spectacular hit from on the goal line which he approached from off the field to curl the ball into the roof of the net.

Murgon striker Joe Watt was starved at the front but salvaged some pride for his team with a 70th min. header over West's keeper Bruce Hodges.

SUNSHINE COAST

Brian Decourcy's top-of-the-table Wanderers did not have the medicine to down third-placed arch rivals Caloundra United in the Sunshine Coast Soccer Association match of the day last weekend.

Caloundra's hex on the Buderim side continued as the two teams played out a 1-1 draw.

United's Danny Dent kept his reputation as a regular goal scorer in tact goaling in the first half to give the home side a 1-nil lead. However, Wanderers dominated the play after the break culminating to a goal from Jamie Neil in the 60th minute.

Strife-ridden hosts Woombye produced a mammoth effort to hold second placed Beegees to a 1-0 win in their fixture.

Beegees Scott Fullerton's 70th minute goal again locks Buderim and Beegees together at the top of the table setting the stage for this week's match between the two high-flyers.

In other results last week, Noosa defeated Maroochydore 3-1 and Kawana downed Nambour 4-1.

Two Sunshine Coast youngsters have been named in the Queensland Under-16 Women's soccer squad to contest the National Titles in Brisbane.

Clubmates Kylie Claridge, 15 and Christelle Adam, 13, earned their selection following top performances at the State Titles held recently. The girls, who both play for the Kawana Soccer Club, were members of the Sunshine Coast team which notched up a win, a loss and a draw at the titles held in Kingaroy.

PLAYING THE GAME RIGHT

BRUCE STOWELL

Most teams are very poorly organised for set pieces, free-kicks, corner-kicks, throw-in and the like.

This is understandable because set pieces need a fairly large area and many clubs train in small places.

Traditionally set pieces involve a small number of players, leaving many others standing around uninvolved.

Often the absence from training of key players is an excuse for the practice of a set piece to be postponed or abandoned.

Coaches generally consider set pieces to be the least important part of a team's preparations.

However, you only have to watch a number of televised games to see that a remarkably high percentage of goals come from set pieces at top level.

The point has frequently been made that these teams have all week to practice them.

But then the other teams have all week to learn how to stop them. None the less they still get results.

There is no doubt that the spadework for set pieces is best done in pre-season training when they is daylight and more space available.

After that, the moves can be touched up from time to time even in the smallest training area.

Psychologically, a team which has a few well-planned set pieces is at an advantage.

Whether goals result from them or not, they still cause a feeling of respect, even fear in the opposition.

Players need not be the usual band of stars. Let everyone have the chance to practice the skills needed.

Surprising talent is often unearthed in this way, and it is fun for everyone to be included.

You can even make it competitive and award points for quality.

Get into the habit of doing a little on set pieces every sessions, it is sure to pay dividends.

SET PIECE DRILL:

PREPARATION:

Mark out the end of a pitch as shown. Divide the players into four groups.

PROCEDURE:

Group 1 practices corner kicks both inswing and outswing from the right hand corner.

Group 2 practices corner kicks both inswing and outswing from the left hand corner.

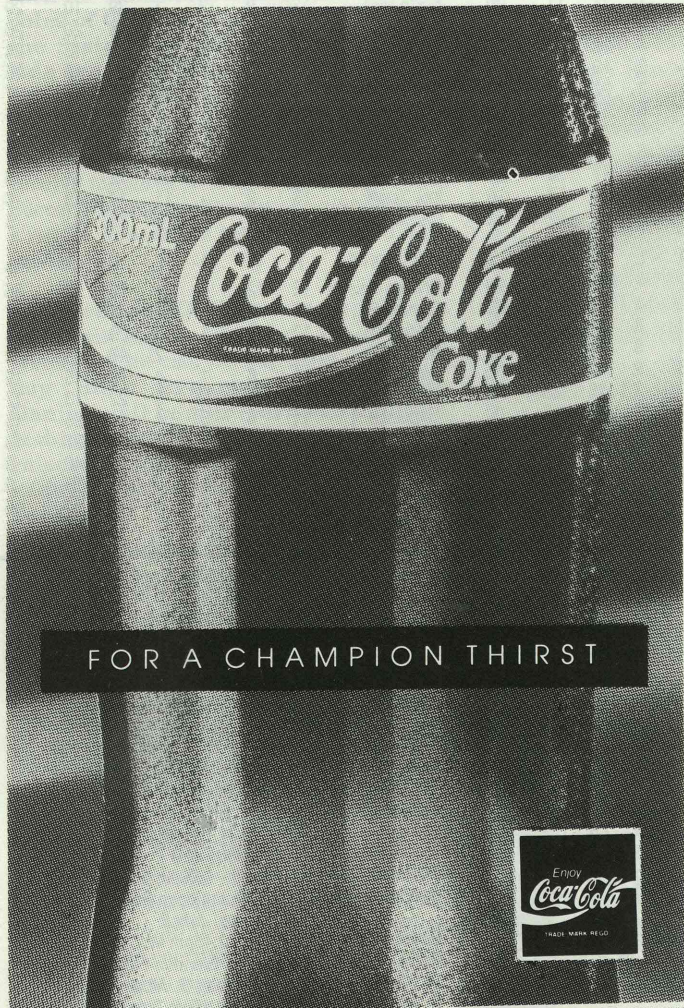

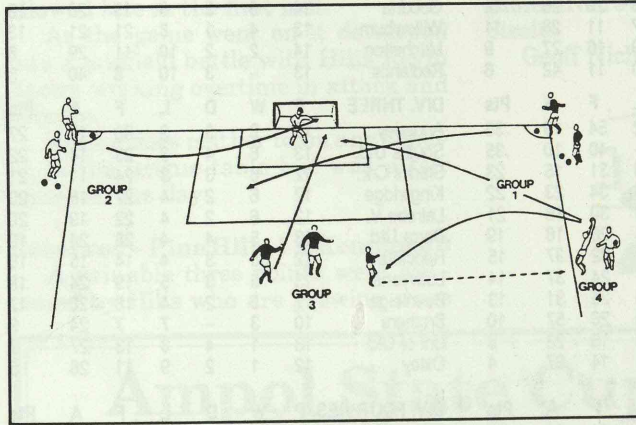

Group 3 practices free-kicks from outside the box, chipping onto the cross bar.

Group 4 practices long throw-ins for the goalkeeper to catch or for players in Group 3 to volley back to the corner.

NOTES:

1) This creates chaos in the penalty area. The goalkeeper doesn't stand a chance but gets some practice and also redistributes some balls to the four groups. Get interested parties, injured players to retrieve the balls from behind the goal. This makes an excellent pre-season warm-up.

2) Rotate the groups (apart from the goal keeper) to allow everyone the chance to practice and the coach to observe all the skills.

INTO THE NET

Congratulations to Eddie Thompson on his appointment as the National coach. The appointment of the Australian coach is of the utmost importance, and the Australian Soccer Federation has a duty to ensure they select the best man for the position. Only time will tell if Eddie Thompson is that man.

Unlike his predecessor Frank Arok, Eddie will have only the national job to handle (Frank also looked after an NSL side). Therefore there can be no excuses for the new coach to OVERLOOK Queensland talent, irrespective of whether we have a side in the forthcoming summer National Soccer League competition or not!

Eddie's boss, ASF President John Constantine, during a visit to Brisbane last week, made a telling point on the rush for inclusion of a team from Queensland in the 1990/91 NSL competition. He pointed out that the acceptance of the Bradley Report will see the end of the NSL set-up as it is now and teams in the 1991/92 National competition will be there by invitation and this will definitely include a team from Brisbane. Thus any team coming in THIS YEAR runs a very grave risk of spending buckets of their supporters cash while taking a very real chance that they will not meet the criteria and dip out in 1991/92. And has been said said ad nauseam, under the current rules of the NSL - no team other than the State's top premiership-winning side are eligible to go into this year's NSL play-offs.

John Constantine also gave an unequivocal guarantee that Brisbane would receive matches in the 1993 World Youth Soccer Tournament and was surprised that a recent local press report suggested otherwise.

If referee Bill Monteverde seems to have his mind on other things this weekend, he can be excused. On Sunday Bill's five-year-old daughter Daniela will be star-turn at a hair and fashion parade organised to help her raise money as an entrant in the State-wide Endeavour Foundation Miss Tiny Tot Quest.

Talking about Quests, please send in your entry forms for the 1990 MISS SOCCER QUEST. Make sure your club is represented, because the prizes are FANTASTIC.

No friend, your eyes weren't deceiving you! That was KIM WISHART in goals for Coalstars XXXX League Colts last Sunday at Perry Park. Coalstars, missing a few players in the first half, asked Kim who was more than happy to oblige.

If you want to sign a player, talk to Angelo Pennisi - left his Redcliffe home at 3.45pm, arrived at Perry Park at 4.00pm and had new recruit Frank Cole (formerly Brisbane Lions) signed and sealed for Brisbane City by 4.58pm. Not Bad eh?

MATCH REPORTS

Pine Hills 0 dr Kenmore 0.

The goalless scoreline doesn't reflect the fast open game that entertained the loyal spectators from both clubs.

Chances were created at both ends but woodwork and both goalkeepers prevented the advancement of either team.

Hills keeper Brett Lougheld who had only recently signed from Kenmore had a lot to prove and pulled off several fine saves from Kenmore's midfield who in their frustration in trying to break the Hills backline were forced into long range shots.

Hills forwards had several half chances and Peter Tong had a goal disallowed late in the first half.

As the game went on it developed into a midfield battle with Hills Kevin Beeley working overtime in attack and defence.

A draw does neither team any benefit in the league table but was a fair result on the day.

Reserves - Pine Hills 1 d Kenmore 0

A valuable three points were welcomed by Hills who are growing more and more confident as the season progresses.

Brad Rawlingson was in the right spot again to give Hills the early lead almost against the run of play.

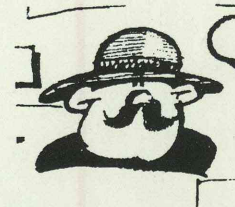

This goal spurred Hills on and lifted them through the next period of play when they moved the ball around with ease.

The second half was a different story with Kenmore pushing forward in search of the equaliser.

Fine games by Hills keeper Jeff Noonan and Tim Boag deprived them of their task.

It was a strong team effort all round that won the day for Hills with spirited games from John Henderson and Gavin Steele.

Geoff Nicholson.
