EDITORIAL:

We have received many favourable comments from Soccer 90 readers regarding the women's soccer photo featured on the cover of last week's magazine.

Many of these readers have called it a breakthrough in Queensland soccer.

But realistically it's all part of 'equal opportunity' which is very much a part of modern society - even in soccer.

We will not shirk our responsibility to cover soccer - be it men's, women's or juniors - in this State.

After all the ladies are certainly doing a great job developing their side of the sport by providing excellent content for the magazine each week.

Responsibility

Can you think why we should not have pictures of women players on the cover of Queensland soccer's magazine?

This week's cover is the Under-15 Queensland squad who will be doing battle for our State at the National Championships beginning this weekend.

Soccer 90 also does not walk away from its responsibility of promoting juniors in our sport.

They are the future of our code and are vitally important for its longevity.

In some cases certain young players in the age groups from 15 to 17 are being called upon to play First Division soccer for their club.

Unfortunately some senior administrators and members of the media still live under the impression young players just evolve from nowhere and appear by some magic formula onto the soccer pitch.

If junior soccer is not fostered, soccer administrators of the future will be able to sit quietly at home because they will not have a game to administrate.

We can start by thanking the parents, the often unrecognised backbone of the sport, for laying the solid foundations for the code.

Generation after generation of them have provided the transport, the money and support for their offspring to play soccer.

We must be truly grateful to them.

To the Queensland Under-15 team and the Under-16 team, who depart soon for their National Championships - best of luck in your quest for glory as Queensland representatives.

But remember there should be a goal in mind for every one of these young players.

In 1993 the Youth World Cup will be played in Australia.

This is your opportunity to display your skills and move a step closer to representing Australia for this most prestigious of tournaments.

There is no doubt some of these Queensland players will be wearing the "Green and Gold" when the Youth World Cup rolls around.

GOODNA DISTRICTS SOCCER CLUB

In 1972 two gentlemen, Manny Chianeeys and Gordon Gentle, saw the need for a junior soccer club in the Goodna area. Thus began the birth of the Goodna and Districts Soccer and Sports Club Ltd.

With the help of the local police sergeant, a committee was formed and an initial bank account was opened with the aid of a $5 loan from each of the committee members.

Training for an under-14 team started at St Francis Xavier Catholic School and very shortly further boys turned up enabling a second team to be formed.

With such an influx of boys, further training facilities had to be found.

Fortunately the club obtained permission from the Wacol Migrant Centre to train at their facilities.

It was felt at this time that it would be necessary to provide the facility for the junior players to continue playing after they had advanced from the junior stage. This began a desire to have a senior team comprised of former junior players from the Goodna Soccer Club.

In 1973 some fathers and friends decided to form a senior team and play friendly matches.

Such was their success that they went into the Brisbane Commercial League in 1974 and applied for and were admitted into the 7th Division of the Queensland Soccer Federation in 1975.

Seeking an alternative playing venue, the club approached the Wolston Park Authorities and were given permission to cut a playing field in a small setting adjacent to the Riverside Ballroom.

The club was fortunate in obtaining the services of some experienced players around this time including Terry Madden, Doug How, Kevin Wagstaff, John Toner, Ken O'Flaherey, Matt McGough, Wally Wally Banks, Gary Maclot and Andy Thompson.

The integrity of these players and others forced the club to adopt the nickname "The Gamecocks".

The club was still looking for a more permanent home when the then president Wally Banks spotted 14.5 acres of virgin land for sale almost in the centre of Goodna.

With $50 in the bank, the club decided to approach the owners with an offer of $1000 per acre on a $1 holding deposit subject to council approval for a sporting complex to be formed there.

The club's offer was accepted and sufficient funds were raised to obtain a bank loan for the purchase of the land.

The grounds were quickly levelled and pitches established followed in record time by the building of dressing rooms and a canteen.

The grounds were named Kippen Park in recognition of the generous vendors of the land, Mr and Mrs Kippen.

The club had advanced to the then First Division by 1982. This was a remarkable feat made easier by Goodna's favourite son, Jim McCabe, who had joined the club from Southside Eagles two or three years earlier.

Other players of note during this period include Paul Youll, Ron Hartley, Ray Lemon, Terry Madden, Johnny Tower, Gary Maclot and the Spruce brothers.

Through the years 1982-1984 the club played in the First Division and Intermediate League, but were also relegated to the Amateur Division One.

Then in 1988, after a further re-naming of the division, the club found themselves in Division Three.

They finished fourth that year and progressed to the grand final where they were beaten by Kingsridge.

In 1989 the club went one better when they finished second and then went on to win the Grand final 1-0 against St Albans.

1990 has seen promotion to Division Two and the determination to stay there.

The advent of an enthusiastic committee has seen dramatic ground improvements particularly in the area of lighting and external seating and bar facilities.

The future also looks rosy for the club with 30 former juniors playing with the club.

Perhaps the club's greatest on field success belongs to a junior team who as under-13s in 1987 were Brisbane Champions and won the Ron Proud and Frank Clarke Memorial trophies.

In 1988 this team was again Brisbane Champions and won the Len James Trophy and in 1989 were runners-up to Mt Gravatt as Brisbane Champions.

These boys now form the basis of the club's third team and the future.

REFEREEING INTO THE 90's ————— with DES MILES

SELF MANAGEMENT FOR REFEREES PART 2

BY GORDEN VENIARD

After a bad match, you tend to dwell on what went wrong. After a good match, off we go for a drink in a good mood – the game is often the furthest from our thoughts.

Yet we should spend time before games sub-consciously building up the internal success record.

Our sub-conscious mind is a weird thing. It finds it difficult to distinguish between real and imagined feelings.

Therefore, if you tell it something often enough, it believes it to be true.

Documented cases of this exist concerning prisoners of war in Vietnam.

To stop them going mad, American POWs learned to play the guitar or touch-type.

They practised every day using broom handles and string or cut-out boards.

When released, several picked up guitars for the first time in their lives, in front of witnesses and played classical melodies, or touch-typed at 6-WPM on typewriters they had never used before. The simple answer to these bizarre acts lay in the sub-conscious. As the soldiers had practised day after day for hours on end, the sub-conscious built up an expectancy of this ability – and when the occasion came, simply did what it had been told to do!

Smiling

The third way you can help yourself is by regular, honest, self assessment.

Do you complete a form after every game? Assessors watch from time to time and this helps – but you can't be untrue to yourself on a regular basis!

You can pick up the trends of faults to work on by this simple process.

In terms of managing players, I wonder if all referees use the most potent weapon in their armoury on a regular enough basis.

It's a smile! Used at the right time it can defuse tension, even at situations like penalty claims.

The key is to smile with the players, not at them.

So in summing up, it's the attitude which a referee displays which often if not always decides how successful he is on the pitch.

If a positive determined attitude to picture and be successful can work for someone like golf's Nick Faldo who visualised what he wanted through two very poor years to produce one of the most successful swings in the game, how about you?

FRANKLY SPEAKING

with Frank Liddell

This weekend's game of the round will be the top-of-the-table clash between Brisbane Lions and Brisbane City.

Lions lost their unbeaten run to Pine Rivers in their last match and will be looking to get back into the winner's circle.

City, who presently are in second place on the premier-ship ladder, will be wanting to continue their good run in the second round of the competition.

This game is the only one scheduled for Sunday and it should be a ripper.

We should also see a very good crowd in attendance to watch these two great rivals do battle.

The race for Second Division is really heating up now with the Gold Coast side Nerang overtaking pre-season favourites Brisbane Croatia at the top of the table.

These two teams are being pushed all the way by St Albans and Inala.

Nerang have taken the initiative, but Croatia have a lot of experience in their ranks and I am sure they will come back and push Nerang to create what should be a very exciting finish to the season.

The World Cup over the last two weeks has served up an absolutely fantastic show of skill for soccer fans.

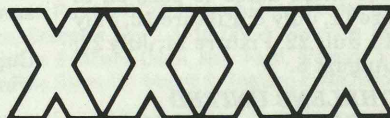

The "Greatest show on Earth" as it has been described comes to a close this Monday morning when the World Cup final is played.

But no matter who wins the game this World Cup will be remembered for the teams and players who have delighted fans around the globe.

From the graceful Italians playing on home turf to the fairy-tale run of Cameroon who made the final eight.

And then there were the players - Maradona of Argentina, Gullit of Holland and Vialli of Italy were all tipped before the 1990 World Cup began to be named best player of series.

But they have been overshadowed by players like Schillaci, Italy's scoring machine, Miller, Cameroon's 38-year-old sensation, Mathaeus, the West German all-rounder and Sweden's Brolin, who at 19 and in his World Cup debut, looks set to join the highly paid professional ranks.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

NATIONAL JUNIOR TITLES

Last Friday saw the completion of a very successful National Junior Women's Titles at Atlanta Field, Geebung.

The Titles started last Sunday week, June 24, with the opening performed by local member for Nudgee, Mr Ken Vaughan.

The opening game between South Qld and N.S.W. saw the "blues" put their stamp on the competition with 3-2 win.

A penalty to N.S.W. in the second half sealed the game after South Qld had come back to equalize with two strong goals from Kylie Franklin and Michelle Bentick.

The second game on day one went to the ACT who defeated S.A. 2-1.

Day two saw N.S.W. come out with all guns blazing scoring six times to N.N.S.W. once. South Qld fought out a very evenly matched game against ACT which ended in a scoreless draw.

On Day three South Qld had a Bye and sat back to watch the other four teams fight it out. N.S.W. had another strong game against ACT to finish 3-0 and claim the top of the ladder. S.A. had an improved game and were victors over N.N.S.W. 3-1.

On day four South Qld convincingly beat N.N.S.W. 4-0 with Kim Nevell and Kylie Claridge scoring two goals a piece. N.S.W. had slowed down and had to pull out all their reserve strength to defeat S.A. 1-0.

On the final day South Qld finished on a strong note beating a strong S.A. 2-0. Kim Nevell and Louise McMurtrie made sure of the win with goals. The final game of the Championships was a tough battle between N.N.S.W. who were determined to get points on the board and ACT who were fighting for second place. N.N.S.W. won 2-1.

All in all everybody seemed to enjoy a great week's soccer. The weather was kind except for a bit of wind on Thursday.

Abig thank-you must go to the workers of S.Q.W.S.A. who made the week possible from the preparation of the grounds to the final sale of the last hot dog in the canteen.

The Australian Talent Identification Squad was chosen at the Presentation Dinner. The squad comprises of the following players:

Jacqui Page (Kingsridge), Helen Pothercary, Louise McMurtrie (Annerley), Trena Youngblutt (Kingscliffe), Kim Revell (Deception Bay), Katie Smith (Coomera), M Bridgen, H Gible, M Cotton, M Clayton, J Hadden, E Cotten, D Benetis (NSW), S Read (ACT), R Taylor (NNSW), K. Moore, C Chicco, K Swaffer (SA).

These players will travel to Canberra later in the year for a week's camp at the Australian Institute of Sport. This selected squad played a challenge match on Saturday against Sth Qld Under-19 team.

If the competitiveness and talent shown during last week's titles are any indication, the future of women's soccer in Australia is certainly looking good.

SOUTH BURNETT

A much improved Kingaroy Womens' performance produced a 1-1 result over Nanango last Saturday. Kingaroy were badly beaten 3-0 by Nanango last weekend in a lacklustre performance against a free-running Blues outfit, but showed flashes of the ability to come back from a 1-0 half-time deficit in this game.

The depth in Kingaroys player strength was again put to the test with Paulette Trace and Shelly Woods having transferred to Nanango, Under-19 State team member Bronwen Hart in Brisbane for a trial game until the second half and four other players out with injury and school holidays.

The return of Bente Petersen at Central midfield stiffened the defense and added good distribution. Nanango on the other hand at full strength and on a winning streak brought out the best in the rearranged Kingaroy lineup.

Play swung from end to end with alternating corners for the first 20 mins until Kingaroy keeper Maxine Tessman dropped a take on the near post which was pushed to Karen Jacobsen in space on the far post for a simple goal and half time lead to Nanango.

With Hart taking the field for the second half, the Kingaroy attack was strengthened and started to receive good service through better build ups from the back and midfield.

Hart found the side net two mins into the half from one such build-up and six mins from fulltime made no mistake to equalise.

Scores: Kingaroy 1 (Hart) Drew Nanango 1 (Brown).

ST HELENS UNITED JUNIOR SOCCER - IPSWICH

St Helens United Junior Soccer Club advise that they shall again play host to Bankstown District Soccer Club's Under-12 and Under-14 teams.

The teams arrive at the club on this weekend for the 28th annual reciprocal visit.

Their week will consist of daily sight-seeing trips of the local district and also the North and South Coasts, and friendly games against local clubs.

After a welcoming lunch at St Helens, the boys will be billeted with families for their duration of their stay.

This tradition commenced back in 1962 and many life-long friendships have been built over this period of time, with many of today's coaches and fathers once having made the trip to Bankstown as juniors.

Obviously both clubs enjoy the trip and it is pleasing to see the social involvement in the sport.

We all welcome the Bankstown District

Soccer Club to our area and wish them all a pleasant visit.

On another enjoyable note we thank North Star Soccer Club for the way in which they welcomed our Under-12 south representative team last weekend.

After arriving back from representative commitments the lads decided they would like to visit their coach (Mike Mulvey, North Star) and lend him and his team some moral support in their weekend game.

Being able to form a guard of honour for their coaches team and visit the dressing room to talk with players delighted the lads. Thanks Mike and North Star club members for making this day a treat for the lads from Brisbane South, and we extend a special thanks to Mike from the parents of the players of the Under-12 South team.

Q.S.S.S. FEDERATION

There is very little happening this week as we are still on holidays.

The Commonwealth Bank Bill Turner Cup has reached a point where two area winners will soon be decided.

In Area 1, Nambour will play Redeemer Lutheran from Rochedale and Shalom College from Bundaberg will play Kingaroy on July 6.

The winners of these two games will meet in the area final.

In Area 2, Harristown from Toowoomba will play Redbank Plains, while Sunnybank play the winner of the Round 3 game between Merrimac and Coombabah.

Again, the winners will meet in the area final.

I am hoping to negotiate the Queensland final which is the competition quarter-final, to be played at Perry Park during the South Pacific Cup week in early August.

We are already hoping to run some of our metropolitan semi-finals at this time at Perry Park.

The teams which play in the area finals will be presented with medallions (for the winners) and certificates of achievement (for the losers).

The Queensland Grand Finalist will receive a winners cup, currently held by Alexandra Hills.

These prizes are provided by the Commonwealth Bank.

Last year State Co-ordinator Tim Wilson approached the QSSSF for a Queensland Cup, and we agreed to provide one.

Bill Turner informed the bank of this and they promptly turned around and reimbursed us the cost for which we thank them.

Hopefully we will be able to persuade local branch managers to come along and make the presentations.

Roger Holcroft.

State Secondary School-Girls Titles

The third State Secondary Schoolgirls Titles are to be held at Dittmer Park, Mt Gravatt from July 12-15.

A total of eight regions from as far away as Central Queensland and Wide Bay will contest the carnival.

Current holders, South Coast must again be considered favourites because of their strong representation in the Queensland Under-16 and Under-19 sides.

Their strong junior base also adds to the favouritism because the majority of girls have far more playing experience than girls in other regions.

At the conclusion of the titles a State team, to compete in the National titles in Melbourne in September, will be announced.

Action will commence on 10.45am on Thursday morning and will conclude with the presentations on Sunday at 1pm.

For more information contact Lyn Spencer at (H)3993491 or (W) 3452054.

NATIONAL UNDER-15 CHAMPIONSHIPS

The National Under-15 Championships will be played at Cambletown in Sydney from July 7 to July 15.

We at Soccer 90, Q.S.F and all of Queensland wish the team all the best, and play your hearts out fellers.

NATIONAL UNDER-16 TALENT IDENTIFICATION CHAMPIONSHIPS

The National Under-16 Championships will be played at Parklea, Sydney from July 9 - 14.

The team: Jamie Irwin, Kerry Whear (Southport), Kieren Galloway (Grange Thistle), Wayne Murray (Rochedale), Brenley Jefford (Coalstars), Daniel Stowers, Brett Wass (Mt. Gravatt), Sean Cranney (Taranga Rovers), Jason Poggi (Brisbane City), Tod Strike (Cairns), David Stallan, Steven Brewington (Wulguru, Townsville), Mark Anderson (Aitkenvale- Townsville), Andrew King (Wests-Maryborough), Craig Hodgetts (Bundaberg), Bradley Dutton (Toowoomba).

Coach's Comment: Frank Liddell - This is a big and hard game for us. We have lost our last two matches and must pick ourselves up and get back into the winner's circle. We are creating chances, but not turning pressure into goals, which has to change.	Coach's Comment: Juan Cutillas - We are looking forward to this game. The last time we played Lions was at Spencer Park and we did not play well. This game will be different because we are fired up. It will come down to luck and the bounce of the ball.

Coach's Comment: Billy Williamson - This will be a hard game. We have had mixed success against Taringa in the past. But we are playing consistent football and are looking for a victory. We will be using the same starting team as in last week's Ampol Cup.	Coach's Comment: Glenn Davis - Our biggest problem will be to get our best team on the park following the spate of injuries plaguing the squad. THROUGHOUT THE STATE

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

Interest in the Far North turned to the junior representative sides who were enjoying success in their various carnivals across the State.

The Under-14 team won their championships on home turf at Cairns while the Under-12 were performing a similar feat at Proserpine for the Gino Paris trophy.

The Under-13 side finished a creditable third in their titles at Buderim.

It was the first taste of champagne for Tom Booy's Under-14 side and only the second time the Gino Paris Trophy, which is likened to a regional championship for Northern Queensland representative sides.

On the senior front, the top versus bottom of the table clashes did not produce the same shocks as the first round.

Top team Dimbulah had a narrow 3-2 home win over Stratford who, once again, did not convert their dominance into goals.

The same could be said of joint-second place Leichhardt in their 1-0 win against Marlin Coast Rangers.

Their win came courtesy of a sliding first-touch by substitute Jim Skinner.

Edge Hill continued their build up to their confrontation with Dimbulah by disposing of Mossman 4-0.

Prolific goal-scorer Mark Waddingham pushed himself to the top of the scorers' list with two goals before half-time.

In the other game, Mareeba were able to salvage a point at Innisfail when captain-coach Colin Junna cancelled a Robert Gueini strike.

Innisfail are so typical of a small town team.

Away from home they capitulate and never look like taking any points, but at Goondi Bend they play with commitment and tenacity which troubles all the major premiership contenders.

Red McLellan.

FAR NORTH JUNIORS

Junior Soccer in Far North Queensland has borne the fruits of many a coaches hard labour over the last couple of weeks. Our representative teams were successful in U/12, bringing home the Gino Paris Cup, only the second time it has come to Cairns, the first time being in 1987.

The U/14 representative team created history when they won the U/14 State Championship Ampol trophy to cap off a week of excellent soccer and friendships held at Endeavour Park in Cairns.

The stage was set with teams from nine zones of the State lining up before local dignitaries and special guest, who officially opened the titles, Australian Soccerroo, Frank Farina.

The games during the week were of high standard, providing many headaches for State Coach, Garry Johnson. The Championship final saw a very different scene to what many soccer followers have witnessed before, two country teams, North Queensland and Far North Queensland, featuring in the main game, with the more fancied teams from Brisbane already having played off for the minor placings.

In a dream come true for coach Tom Booy, his team had to work hard into extra time to prove a point to their northern counterparts, winning the game two goals to one.

At the end of the Championship, the State Squad was named by the Queensland Junior Soccer Council President, Mr Bill Firth. After three days of extra training, the final State team was announced. The boys privileged to hear their names called by Frank Farina were Jeremy Harris, Neil Tidbury from Central Queensland, Stuart Hodges, Anthony Lampton, John Mara from North Queensland, Stuart Collins, Brett Jones, Clint Bolton from Wide Bay, Kiely Calleja from Brisbane North, Ty Bannister, Darren Stackowicz, Roy Huth from Brisbane South, Mark Glew from Southern North Queensland, and Darryl Gorogo and Michael Beer from Far North Queensland.

The remainder of the squad included Paul Lederhose Brisbane South, Mathew Raub, South West Queensland, Greg Jones, Central Queensland, Craig Paulett, Mathew Jones from Wide Bay, Clint del Santo from Far North Queensland, Daniel Duke, Brisbane North and Jamie Stewart, North West Queensland.

We are confident all players, coaches, managers and supporters travelled home to their various centres have enjoyed their U/14 State Championships, both on and off the field, and we look forward to HOSTING THE U/13 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS in our "Special piece of Paradise" in 1991.

Meanwhile, in Proserpine, the F.N.Q. Marlins, under the guidance of coach, Sil Cancellier, were making a determined march on the Gino Paris Cup. They proved too strong in their competition, and the Cup is now "on the shelf" to prove their success.

* * * * *

In Buderim, the U/13 F.N.Q. team was continuing to show the strength of junior Soccer in the Zone, winning three games, drawing two, and losing only to Brisbane North, the eventual winners. They were placed a very creditable third for their age group.

Three boys, Craig Hawkins, Gary Favier, and Tony Cronin were named in the squad with Gary and Craig being named in the final sixteen.

Our successes at this level of soccer is due to the dedication of coaches and managers, and support of the parents who are prepared to drive their boys hundreds of kilometres week after week to training sessions, sometimes asking themselves "why am I doing this?" I'm sure your question is now answered.

Continuing on their merry way, the U/12's travelled to Mackay as the Cairns representative team to play in a marathon 14 game Carnival.

This team came through the competition undefeated to win the Clifton Nubrik Shield, proving they are a team of little champions. These boys only allowed one goal to be scored against them, while they slotted home 32 goals in their carnival winning effort.

ROCKHAMPTON

A goal from Gavin Whitehead five minutes from half time was enough to give league leaders Bluebirds the points over Berserker in last Sunday's Power's Bitter Premier League match.

It was probably one of the season's better games as both teams concentrated on using all sections of the field and playing the ball around.

This resulted in both sides being able to get behind defenders to create a number of chances that should have been taken.

Todd De Courcy had a quiet game for Bluebirds last week but on Sunday the Rockhampton youth representative was back to his best, making many probing runs down the right hand flank.

In fact team mate Darren Jeffries and he complimented one another as they controlled both sides of the field.

Bluebirds created their best chances by bypassing Stuart either over the top or down the flanks.

Whitehead's goal came from a good piece of play when Bluebirds took a quick free kick that had Berserker wrong footed.

They had won it out on the right and quickly crossed to the other side where Whitehead coming in on the blind side simply had to chest the ball down before slipping the ball past the advancing Barry Caird.

Berserker looked to be missing the height up front of Brad Smith who was out injured.

The result was that they lost cohesion as Ross Smart and Warren Jarvis weren't able to match Bluebirds last line in the air.

Berserker's best chance of equalising came when Bluebirds off side trap slipped up.

Ross Smart deceived them all but pushed his shot wide of the mark.

In the other Premier League match of the round Nerimbera had little trouble accounting for Southside 3-0 keeping the pressure on league leaders Bluebirds.

The goals came from Grant Beavers, Lance Laphorne and Warren Daley.

There could have been a couple of red faced Bluebirds players if Cameroon had beaten England and Argentina lost to Yugoslavia in the World Cup quarter finals.

Both had made bold Richard type statements that if that had happened they would have both trained with the club's women's team wearing only their brief underwear (UMM!)

The story goes that the player who predicted the Argentinean win rang his team mate at 4.45am when he knew he was off the hook so to speak.

Equally when the Cameroon/England went to extra time the other player was equally nervous and couldn't watch the second penalty being taken.

As one quick wit said with all this cold weather around it wouldn't have mattered anyway.

SOUTH BURNETT

First Division South Burnett Soccer League premiers Wests went to the top of the league ladder for the first time this season with a slick display of possession football to beat Nanango 4-0 last weekend.

Wests hit their straps in their last game against Murgon and went on with the job, despite the absence of goal-scoring midfielder Guy Hand.

Nanango really had no answer to Wests drive for goals. Their back rowers Charlie Schloss and Geoff Walters matched Wests front running speedmen but the depth in defense wasn't enough when Wests attacked in numbers.

In the 27th min. left back Steve Bowers took the ball up from half way fed Chris Baartz from a turn and blind hit into the top of the net.

Nanango's best player was constructive midfielder Eamonne Evans who beat defenders, made space and created chances but lacked support.

The turning point for Nanango occurred 37 mins into the game when Russell Thompson was taken off injured.

This allowed Wests to score their second goal through Rex Parsons.

Peter Maher had a rock solid game at sweeper for Wests despite determined efforts from Nanango's Steve and Roy Trace. Wests Wide Bay schoolboy players Scott Tucker and Paul Stronge showed they are at their peak for the State Championships which begin in a fortnight.

Tucker scored in the 49th min with Stronge finishing off a classy Wests move for his team's final goal.

Scores: Wests 4 (Baartz, Parsons, Tucker, Stronge) def Nanango 0.

Murgon firsts got out of jail on a Wondai own goal in their South Burnett Soccer League match last Saturday which ended in a 2-2 draw.

Both teams played attractive and constructive football matched by tight defense.

Wondai newcomer Lance Ryan was Wondai's man of the match with frequent penetrating runs from defense to fire dangerous crosses.

Adrain McKay was brought down in the box in the 33rd min and scored from the resulting penalty.

Four mins later Wondai put four passes together for a Clinton Davidson first time shot for goal number two.

Wondai was firmly in charge up to half time despite a strong Murgon reply.

Murgon forced a series of corners in the middle of the second half, the third of which produced a Wondai own goal from a goal mouth scramble.

Wondai fell away allowing Murgon to pile on the pressure which Joe Watt capitalised on with a break and chip over Doessel for the equaliser.

Scores: Murgon 2 (Watt, own goal) Drew Wondai 2 (McKay, Davidson).

WONDAI WOMEN

Nine Wondai women were again too much for Murgon at Murgon on Saturday running out 3-0 winners after a 1-0 half-time score.

Murgon defended valiantly for most of the game with keeper Therese Bolger decisive, ably supported by Ros Barford.

Conversely Wondai keeper Chrissy Geary had little to trouble her despite the efforts of Danielle Cutler.

Wondai got on the scoresheet in the first half when striker Jodie Fraser ran onto a pass and put it away. However, Wondai were forced to wait until the last ten minutes to clinch the match when Lynn Smith beat three defenders with a solo run into the box for a spectacular shot curled from wide on the goal line into the net.

Within minutes she had her second goal from a direct free kick 5 metres outside the box which gave her team a 3-0 scoreline over Murgon for the second week in a row.

Scores: Wondai 3 (Smith 2, Fraser) def Murgon 0.

SUNSHINE COAST

Beegees went to the top of the table last week after their convincing 3-1 win over arch rivals Buderim in the Sunshine Coast Soccer Association match of the round.

Brian Decourcy's Wanderers had the better of the home side for the first half drawing blood through striker Jason Dunn.

However a strong offensive push by the home side allowed Jeffery Breaves to equalise before halftime.

Beegees came out with all the guns blazing in the second half and managed to turn the tables on Wanderers through a more determined game.

Beegee striker Wayne Edwards powered home a 25 metre goal at the 15th minute mark of the term and Scott Fullerton sealed Buderim's fate soon after.

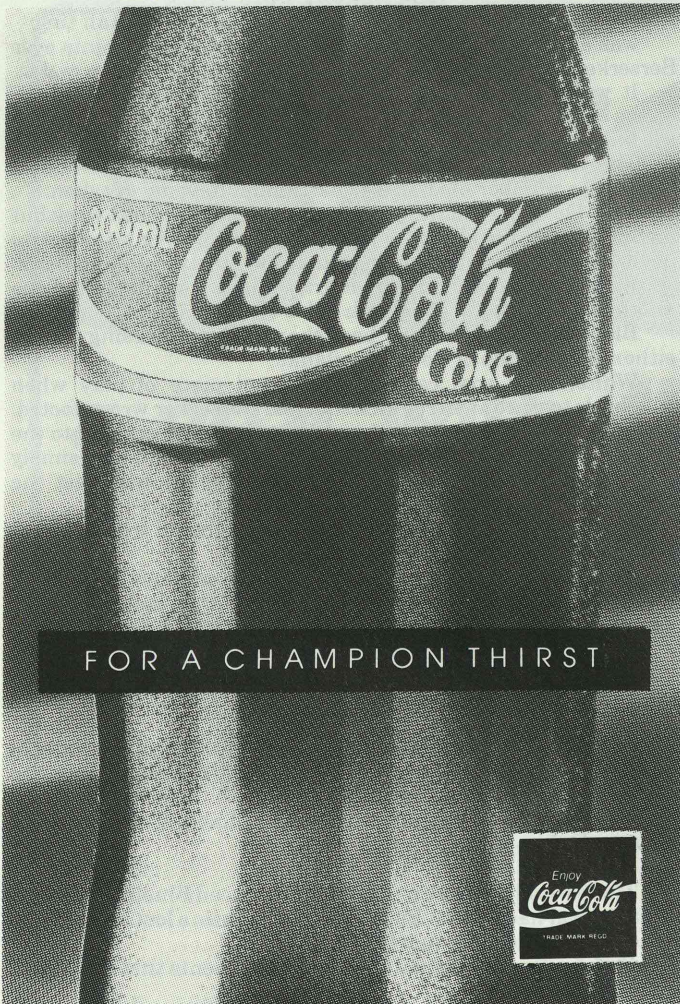

In other matches Caloundra defeated Kawana 2-0, in the battle for third place, with Robbie Hedges and Paul Clancy goaling for the home side.

Despite a two goal performance from Nambour's Pete Cochran, Noosa were too strong running out 4-2 winners.

Kawana soccer club will be moving to the Kawana Sports Club in time for the last fixture of the season - the Morey Tonen Memorial carnival on August 26.

The concept of the sport's club is unique in Queensland, where all four winter codes have combined to play under the one umbrella.

In today's harsh economic climate, no individual club can afford to build its own complex with its associated overheads.

BRUCE STOWELL

This week we continue our series on set pieces with another drill for you to try.

SET-PIECE GAME

When it comes to practising actual moves I find this game overcomes the problem of having bored players standing around.

PLAYERS

10 or more.

PREPARATION

Mark out a normal pitch. Divide the players into two teams playing a normal game.

PROCEDURE

Allow sufficient time for the players to become absorbed in the game (five to ten minutes) then stop the game and explain that you are going to blow the whistle at intervals to award free-kicks, corner kicks and throw-ins regardless of the state of the game in order to practice dead ball situations.

NOTES

1) You will have to remind players from time to time why you are blowing the whistle.

2) Do not attempt too much direction at first. Allow players to experiment with their own ideas. If they are successful work on them making whatever improvements or adaptations are necessary. Don't be afraid to call them back to repeat moves that are unsatisfactory.

3) Be wary of having too many alternatives. Try one simple idea for each set piece and try and perfect it. Then work on another in the same way and gradually build up a repertoire.

4) Watch top teams on television. New ideas are constantly on view and many of them are quite simple in content and easy to copy.

DEAD BALL SITUATIONS

- A) Attacking free-kicks around the box.
- B) attacking throw-ins around the box.
- C) Throw-ins with the emphasis on retaining possession.
- D) Mid-field free-kicks. Try to build up attacks from short free-kicks.
- E) Corner kicks, inswing and outswing.

CHECKLIST

- * Do not put off practising set pieces by lack of numbers or space.
 - * Aim to work on one set piece and one alternative as you build up your repertoire. Don't try too many at once as this only leads to confusion.
 - * Watch top class games on television or live. New and interesting variations are constantly on view.
 - * Keep everyone interested in work on set pieces.

DR. BRADLEY AND THE JUNIORS

The Bradley Report should warm the hearts of any junior soccer player or supporter.

The report, commissioned by the Australian Soccer Federation, was a study on the restructuring of the code in Australia and what direction it should take in the future.

Part Four under heading "Recommendations on Specific Issues" has this to say under the sub-heading "Planning for the National Teams".

"For Australia to succeed in international competitions, and overcome the problems of a small player base and limited resources, more forethought and planning needs to be undertaken to ensure that our talented players are identified at an early age and developed to the required skills and standards to compete effectively.

"I recommend that the ASF develop a 12-year plan, linked into three World Cup campaigns, with the first four years being in-depth.

"The longer team plan is aimed at overcoming any deficiencies Australia has in player skills as well as coaching deficiencies.

"For example, it is often claimed that Australian players lack the ball skills to compete successfully, on a regular basis, against the top South American and European countries.

"To overcome this type of deficiency is not possible with the existing senior players who will be competing in Australia's next World Cup campaign.

"This can only be achieved by ensuuing Australia's current youth players, the U12's, U13s and U14s are receiving the type of training and coaching which will, in 10 to 15 years time, allow Australia to have available players with the required skills."

Under this particular sub-heading Dr Graham Bradley has made a number of other recommendations, but the one above coupled with other references to junior players shows the very real concerns he has for juniors.

INTO THE NET

Did you hear about the young Coaching Clinic player about to be introduced to new National Coach Eddie Thomson? "This is Eddie Thomson, do you know who he is?" "Yes. He's the man who sells carpet on television." Quack Quack!

Some food for thought for those teams facing relegation. "In grave difficulties and with little hope, the boldest measures are the safest." In other words, GO FOR BROKE, YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE!

Ouch! Some biting wit noticed in Punch magazine. "After ruling that football clubs must show consideration for their fans, Chelsea have installed seating facing away from the pitch."

The rumours that QSF Secretary, Jim Gilbert, nearly gave himself a hernia lifting the IEA Inter-city Shield are not true. But isn't the trophy a beauty? Final matches in this year's series will be played at Perry Park on Wednesday July 18 with Brisbane versus Ipswich at 6.30pm and the Gold Coast versus Toowoomba at 8.30pm.

QSF promotion's co-ordinator Pat McErlean has been brushing up on his schoolboy French as he talks to New Caledonia, one of the participants in this year's South Pacific Tournament that kicks off next month.

And the same Pat McErlean, wearing another hat in his role with the Sun Newspapers Junior Sport Liftout, stirred up a hornet's nest with his editorial chiding Sports Administrators for lack of copy for the press while complaining about poor media support. As the saying goes - "if the cap fits, wear it!"

Taringa Rovers are up with the pros in acknowledging their sponsors with a very professional promo tape for playing home games. Maybe next year clubs with such tapes (Grange Thistle is another) should be allowed to play them at half time when they play at Perry Park. Hopefully this will encourage clubs to look after their sponsors.

A few players in higher divisions could have learnt the meaning of "tenacious" just by watching Mark Goodman's efforts for Oxley against Lutwyche in the 3rd Division last week. Mark has two good rules - if you lose the ball, you get it back and if you make a mistake, you do your best to rectify it. Back with the club of his junior days Mark, along with the rest of Alby's boys deserves a change of fortune.

Great to see one of the XXXX League's stars, Brisbane City's Kieran Cooper, taking an interest in the lower divisions as he took in last week's 2-1 win by Lutwyche over Oxley. Hope other top division players are doing likewise.

Hazel Pickup, long-time supporter of soccer generally, but juniors in particular, is in need of your prayers and good wishes. Hazel is in Ward CC6 at the Princess Alexandra Hospital and visits and cards would be very welcome.

MATCH REPORTS

REDLANDS V WYNNUM

The renowned fighting spirit of local derbies was epitomised by Wynnum during their Division Two clash with Redlands last week.

After trailing 3-0, the Wolves stormed back to equal the score in the last minute and clinch a point.

Redlands took the lead in the 40th minute after striker Atilla Marta cleverly lifted the ball over goalkeeper Julian Bowden.

Two goals in quick succession after the break saw the Devils take a commanding 3-0 lead which many thought would give them their first win of the season.

However, the Wolves players had different thoughts.

A tactical move by Wynnum coach Allan Collins switching Tony McKinless and Malcolm Van Basten revived their flagging fortunes. It paid immediate dividends with Mc Kinless converting two goals, one a penalty.

The remaining 20 minutes was a continual assault on the Redlands goal during which keeper Brendan Dansma made several superb saves. Midfielder Harry Muir ensured both sides came away with a point when he scored a simple tap-in in the dying seconds.

As a result, Redlands have a glimmer of hope for their future while Wynnum are retaining their final-five aspirations.

Final Score: Redlands 3 (A Marta 2, A Morris) Wynnum 3 (T McKinless 2, H Muir)

PINE HILLS 1 V SOUTHSIDE EAGLES 1

With both teams in desperate need of points there was plenty of action at both ends.

Hills new keeper Brett Lougheed proved his worth once again with several miraculous reflex saves while at the other end chances were created, but Hills forwards failed to find the target.

Eagles took the lead by way of a penalty soon after the break and seemed content to hang on to their slender advantage.

Hills continued to push the ball around and attack with purpose. We had to wait until the final minutes when substitute Peter Tong pounded a ball spilled by the Eagles keeper and made no mistake.

Reserves: Pine Hills 5 d Southside Eagles 1.

After loosing 3-1 in the first found, Hills were keen to make amends but were shocked into action when Eagles took the lead against the run of play after 25 minutes.

John Henderson made it 1-1 minutes later, then John Easley gave Hills the lead from the penalty spot before half time.

Eagles had no answer to Hills in the second half who played the ball around with ease.

Brad Rowlingson scored twice from open play before getting his hat trick from the penalty spot.

As good as Hills performance was it maybe timely to remember that the most important game is the next one.
