EDITORIAL:

The Goodna Soccer Club's handling of the recent IEA Inter-City clash between the Gold Coast and Ipswich was a well-organised promotion for the code.

No stone was left unturned by the committee in an endeavour to publicise the match.

Radio Station Q-FM and the local newspaper, the Ipswich Times, both lent positive support to the Goodna Soccer Club.

Giant sized posters were used in prominent positions around Ipswich to further advertise the big match to the general public.

These were all positive promotional ideas.

XXXX League clubs could certainly take a leaf out of Goodna's book. They could use the "big poster" campaign to tell their local supporters and community about their big matches being played on the weekend.

The lighting of the Goodna ground also should rate a mention. It was very effective - almost like playing in daylight.

And the game itself was very well contested in good spirits by both teams.

It is very pleasing to learn that Queensland soccer journalists are gaining some positive information from each issue of SOCCKER 90.

One of the new innovations introduced at the start of this season was to arrange for copies of SOCCKER 90 to be mailed directly to various members of the media.

The reaction to this have been excellent with senior sports editors voicing their approval in all three media mediums - radio, television and print.

This idea is part of a new approach by soccer to keep the media better informed.

Another idea currently being mooted is to invite leading media people onto a planned QSF media and promotional committee.

These representatives would help formulate positive thoughts in a bid to gain maximum exposure for the sport in Queensland.

Here's an example of what such a committee could read like: Eric Thompson, Geoff Stead, Garry Legg, Ron Millman (Courier Mail and or Sunday Mail), Rob Black, Col Bennett (The Sun and or Sunday Sun), Trevor Himstedt (Radio 4BC), Peter Buckley (Radio B105), Allan Thomas (Channel 9), Gerry Collins (ABC), John Beccui (The South-east Advertiser) and Mike Foster (Ipswich Times).

Overall a very positive media group to pick from to work out ways and means to take our sport - "media wise" - to the top of the pile.

GRANGE THISTLE

Although there was a Thistle Club operating as far back as 1888, no record has been found to link it to the present Grange Thistle Soccer Football and Youth Club.

However, the forerunner of our club is believed to have come into existence in 1912 with a team called Merthyr Thistle.

In 1920 all but one player and a group of supporters broke away and formed the now Grange Thistle Club, known then as the Thistle Football Club.

One of the pioneers and proclaimed founders of the club was the late RL (Bob) Waddell, father of the late Bill Waddell, former President of the Queensland Soccer Federation and past President of Grange Thistle.

Other prominent pioneers of the club were Jack Cumberford and Joe Scott.

Our first year in the Queensland Football Soccer Association resulted in a close premiership tussle with Corinthians, who eventually took the honours.

Thistle were also finalists in the Charity Cup. They went on to win the cup in 1921.

Nine members of the original 1920 team went on to gain State or national honours - B McBryde, J Cumberford, D Cumberford, J Peebles, A Thompson, W Nicholls, R Craig, S Ross and A McMillan.

Within the space of two years Thistle had established itself as one of the most powerful teams in the country.

Thistle senior's colours were originally sky blue and white with a yellow emblem on the jersey while the juniors were wearing a dark blue and white butcher stripes.

It is believed all our games were played at the Brisbane Cricket Ground until the club obtained the ground at Lanham park around 1926.

The park was situated at the corner of Lanham Avenue and Sellheim Street, but was later moved to where the bowling green is now and finally to our present location in the early 40s.

In 1923 Thistle won their first premiership beating Bundamba 5-2 in the final. But it was not until 1926 that the club came close to winning another premiership, when it finished second.

The club had its problems in the late 20s and 30s, but began a new era when it reformed in 1942. The word soccer was added to our name when the club was reformed.

An influx of migrants from Scotland and England after the War improved playing strength of the club and by the early 50s it was again a force in soccer.

During this period the club set a record by appearing in four successive Tristram Shield finals from 1949 to 52, winning the last three.

Some of the players in those teams included G Haggert, B Jardine, C Stewart, S Morgan, D Wilson, E Trotter, N Clark, W Nicol, H Bool, W Cansick, N DeSilva, J Mousedale, B Gold, P Corcoran and J Corcoran.

In 1949 the junior side of the club started again and the name Youth Club was added to the club's name.

The club experienced a slow decline in the 50s with deliverance coming with the formation of the present QSF.

By joining the fledgling federation, the club was able to keep its First Division status.

It was at this time the club's colours changed from blue and white to tangerine and white.

The club also entered the import business - the first player being East Fife forward Norm Tran.

Others included Matt Jackson, Bob Buchanan, George Shearer, Gordon Mackie, John Parker, George Pagan, John Shepherd and Dave Melia.

In 1966 Thistle won the Ampol Cup for the first time defeating Brisbane City 6-1.

At this time one family emerged to have as much influence on the direction of our club as did the founders.

That was the Dann family and in particular Wallace Dann, present QSF President.

He served a record 13 years as President of Thistle, 10 as Treasurer and two as Secretary.

It was the time of changes, the rampant lion appeared on the Thistle emblem, Lanham Park was revamped, top class lighting was installed and the clubhouse was built and opened in 1979.

In 1976, for the first time in history, Thistle was relegated to Second Division after finishing last.

Thistle went straight back into First Division the following year with the help of two fine players in Jim Hermiston and Steve Dolan.

1977 was also the year the club enjoyed its biggest numbers of juniors with 31 teams.

In 1979, the State League was formed and Thistle became the inaugural winners of the premiership and championship.

The following year Thistle finished second to Mt Gravatt in the premiership, but triumphed in the championship.

Thistle was again victorious in 1982, after the State League was disbanded and a 15-team First Division competition was formed, winning the premiership and championship.

From 1977 to 83 was the club's most successful period winning three premierships, four championships and an Ampol Cup.

In the years since, Thistle has been forced to use strict budgetary restraints. However, the accent has always been placed on our juniors to proceed through the ranks to play at the highest level at the club.

Also from our ranks have come two QSF Presidents (Bill Waddell and Wallace Dann), three Rothmans Gold Medallists (Steve Dolan, 1979, Ken Swan, 1982/83, and Keith Marsh, 1986).

The history of Thistle has been chequered, more often down than up in recent years.

However, through the loyalty and dedication of supporters and players alike, they have survived and with Thistle's facilities almost complete and paid for, the future is assured.

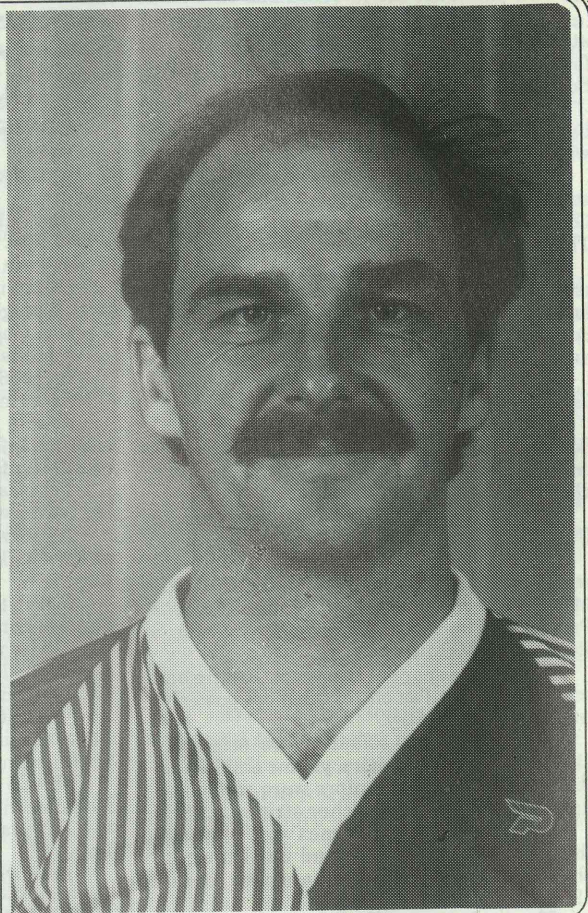

1979-1981 Squad
The Squad won 1 Premiership, 2 Championships and and Ampol Cup.

Eulogy

Queensland junior soccer mourned the death of Mrs Hazel Pickup last week. Mrs Pickup, one of the best known identities associated with the junior sphere, passed away in her Ashgrove home. Her funeral, held at the Mt Thompson Crematorium on Tuesday, was well-attended by members of the junior soccer fraternity and those who knew her. Mrs Pickup served junior soccer in Brisbane for more than 20 years. She was a life member of the Brisbane Junior Soccer Association, and after it disbanded, the Brisbane North and Districts Junior Soccer Association. She had been involved in the handling of the fixtures for Brisbane and then Brisbane North Juniors before computerisation necessitated a younger brigade. Most recently Mrs Pickup was a registrar for the Brisbane North and Districts Junior Soccer Association. Mrs Pickup has three surviving sons, Jimmy, Stephen and Mark who all played for the Gap Pastime Club.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

with Frank Liddell

ITALIA 90 has finished, and although many good things have come out of it, the World Cup final on Monday morning was an anti-climax. During the month-long tournament, there were teams who excelled when they were not expected to and teams who were disappointing after they had promised so much.

For my money the player of the tournament was Italy's Salvatore Schillaci.

Everytime he touched the ball it turned to "gold" and he excited the crowd from start to finish, deserving the Golden Boot Award for the top scorer of the 1990 Cup.

The final, in which Argentina were lucky to be, was a disappointing end to the football feast served up to Australian viewers.

West Germany emerged winners after a controversial penalty, even though I think they were deserving Champions.

Germany took the game to Argentina and although there were not many clear cut chances, they created all the highlights of the match. Germany's goalkeeper did not have to make one save during the 90 minute encounter, which showed how defensive Argentina were.

I actually think Argentina were just holding out for a penalty shootout. The two promised stars in the final, Diego Maradonna and Lothar Matheaus, were both marked out of the game and contributed little. And the referee over-reacted most of the time with some strange decisions and harsh treatment of two players with red cards.

Overall it was a great tournament which deserved a better show piece for the final.

Last week Pine Rivers let everyone know just how serious they are this season when they flew their two star strikers, Clayton Koch and Noel Carroll, back from an Australian training camp in Canberra.

Koch and Carroll flew in from the National Capitol to take their places against Grange Thistle last Friday night.

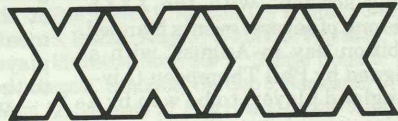

However, Rivers did not get the result they required, but they should be applauded for their efforts to achieve it.

I understand there are a lot of discussions currently taking place to vary and zone the new South Coast Queensland League.

There are suggestions to have 16 teams instead of the recognised 12 by bringing in more country teams.

This would mean a lot of travelling for clubs and so it has been passed onto another committee to get a decision.

Let us hope this is not going to be a long drawn out affair and we get something sorted out quickly for the sake and good of Queensland soccer.

REFEREEING INTO THE 90's with DES MILES

OBSTRUCTION

by Stanley Lover

The obstruction clause of Law 12 has remained unchanged since it was first introduced in 1951.

It became necessary because of the practice, fairly common in some countries, of a player stepping in front of an opponent to block his path to the ball without making any attempt to play the ball. There was no punishment for this action until the International Board decided that it offended the spirit of the game.

The offence is described as: "when not playing the ball, intentionally obstruction an opponent, i.e., running between an opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent." (Law 12.3)

It will be seen that obstruction of opponents can be used as a means to impede vital tactical play.

It is important, therefore, to differentiate between what is fair and what is unfair when a player appears between opponent and ball. To put the new law into its proper perspective, the FA issued carefully worded explanations of various situations which arise in match play in its Memorandum on Refereeing No. 5 of August 1951. Because the observations are still very relevant to modern football they will be reproduced here in weekly parts with illustrations. What constitutes the offence of obstruction?

During any match, in the ordinary course of play, there are many occasions when a player will come between an opponent and the ball, but in the majority of such instances this is quite natural and fair.

He is intent upon playing the ball and is entitled to make every legitimate move to obtain or retain possession of it.

Provided that the ball is within playing distance the player may interpose his body between opponent and the ball in a feint to play at it and yet allow it to go to a colleague.

This is again legitimate.

It is when the ball is not within playing distance of a player (say two or three meters) and when he is not making any attempt to play the ball that this new offence may occur.

But it is strongly emphasized, the offence must be intentionally obstructing.

Common sense of officials in interpreting the spirit of the game will help to differentiate between incidents of obstruction which are fair and those which are intentionally unfair.

A study of the following incidents may assist in distinguishing between "offence" and "no offence" in the matter of obstruction:

1) Player A makes a pass to B (one of his colleagues) and tries to run forward to collect the return pass at A1;

an opponent X, ignoring the ball, deliberately steps in front of A to bar his path to the ball at A1; X makes no attempt to charge, but deliberately positions himself to obstruct. (see figure 1) X is contravening Law 12 (2)

3 and the punishment is an indirect free-kick, taken from the place where he made the intentional obstruction.

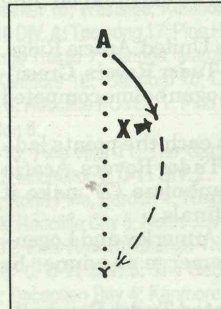

Figure 2

2) A, having beaten X by pushing the ball forward, attempts to run around him. X moves to block his path; he makes no attempt to charge A but, facing him, deliberately positions himself to obstruct A's progress. (see figure 2.)

In this case again, X is making no attempt to play the ball.

The result is that he is merely preventing A from taking part in the game or from making a reasonable attempt to play the ball.

He should therefore be punished by an indirect free kick from the place where he committed the offence.

It is again emphasized that this new clause dealing with intentional obstruction in no way empowers the referee to ignore the more serious offenses in section 1 of Law 12.

It is still a foul for a player to elbow an opponent out of the way or off the ball, just as it is and always has been a foul to hold an opponent or push him with the hands.

Furthermore, these fouls are punished by direct free kicks or by penalty kicks where applicable, and if the fouls are persisted in, the referee has power under Law 5 (d) and (g) to deal with the offender drastically by suspending him from taking part in the game.

More obstruction situations next week.

JUNIORS IN THE LIMELIGHT

BRISBANE SOUTH

We are pleased this week to be able to give readers some information about Eastern Suburbs juniors.

The year 1990 has seen an increase in numbers with the club having full squads in both Under-7 and Under-8s.

Players and parents seem to be enjoying themselves enormously as they learn the game.

After a break of many seasons, the club is now able to field a colts team, which is proving to be one of the best in Third Division.

Most of the lads will be eligible for colts again next season, and the club is hoping for another successful team in 1991.

The coaches and managers of all teams are to be congratulated for the improvement in the sportsmanlike attitudes of their players and the obvious pleasure the boys find in training and matches.

A "training session" with the XXXX league team is one of several events planned for the exhibition day in August, with a soccer ball signed by Phil Thompson (Liverpool and England player) to be won by a lucky junior.

Parents will also be greatly involved in this day.

Tudor Rovers Soccer Club successfully conducted their Under-9 carnival on July 8.

Teams from Souths United, Acacia Ridge, Annerley, Jimboomba, Tudor Rovers, Greenbank, Capalaba and Loganholme competed on the day.

After three games each the points ladder saw Annerley (9), Tudor Rovers, Acacia Ridge 1 (8) and Loganholme (7) make it through to the semi-finals.

The clash between Annerley and Loganholme saw Annerley emerge as winner by 3-1 scoreline.

Acacia Ridge defeated Tudor Rovers 2-0 in the other semi.

Tudor Rovers and Loganholme, the losing semi-finalists, can be proud of their results in this competition.

The final was a very hard and fast game with Annerley netting a goal to win the match.

The winners and runner's up were presented with trophies for their efforts.

A special congratulations must go to the other teams who competed in the carnival as some were Division 7 teams who did extremely well against the higher division sides.

Q.S.S.S. FEDERATION

Yesterday teams departed from Brisbane Airport for Cairns to compete in the State Secondary Schools Soccer Championships.

Several teams will also be busing in from the nearer centres. The South Coast team will now play as the President's XI and will be wearing shirts loaned to them by Coomera Soccer Club.

We would like to thank the club for their generosity and for coming to our assistance at short notice to provide this strip. As mentioned earlier, this Region lost three players to the Under-16's and five players to the Under-15's.

West Moreton lost several players to the Under-16s as did Brisbane South, and the most recent casualty was the defending champions Darling Downs who lost a key player.

Three coaches have complained to me that this clash should never have occurred in the first place as dates should have been known well in advance.

It was the consensus at our final meeting before the State Championships that this situation be avoided in the future through better communication between our associations. We will attempt to resolve this situation for the 1991 season.

As I will be in Cairns for this event there is unlikely to be a report next week, but the week after there will be a full round up of both the boys' and girls' competitions as well as a list of the State teams.

We have been unable to provide the scholarship to Germany this year which is a shame with German poised for a win in the World Cup.

There will still be a tour, however, and we may be able to provide one for both boys and girls.

We have been approached to consider this option with the probability of the return of the scholarship in the near future. I think that it was a great success last year and gave many players a little personal incentive to perform for their team as well as themselves.

A recent issue of SOCCER 90 had a history of North Star Soccer Club, which was disappointing because in the list of representative players no mention was made of the many schoolboy players from the club.

The most recent of those being Chris Tribbeck, who played for the Australian schoolboys in 1989 and was voted "player of the tour" by team officials.

Other North Star players like Danny English, Justin Kilshaw, Wayne McGauly, Ross Swan, Ken Swan, Paul Fegan and Andrew Hauck have all represented Brisbane North at schoolboy level, and in some cases Queensland. Representing your State is a big achievement at school or club level.

The sooner it is realised that there is a place for both within our soccer community, the closer we will come to achieving the same status as those other minority football codes.

Other codes get better media coverage than we do and have a better image because they promote their code in the schools more than we do.

		Coach's Comment: Bobby Hamilton - I would have preferred to have played Easts earlier in the season. They appear to have solved their team problems and it will be a difficult game, it won't be easy, but we expect to win this match.		Coach's Comment: Phil Thompson - We just have to continue our good form displayed in recent matches. 		Coach's Comment: Glenn Davis - Realistically Lions must be favourites. But a Taringa win would not be a great surprise. We have been playing steady football lately and just need to continue in the same vain to get the points.		Coach's Comment: Frank Liddell - Taringa's small field will mean a change of tactics for us. We can beat them, but after their result against North Star they will have their tails up. We won't be taking them lightly as we want to stay on top of the points table.

Grange Thistle are in a desperate situation to avoid relegation so they will be coming out with a positive attitude which we must counter. Coach's Comment: Glenn Davis - Realistically Lions must be favourites. But a Taringa win would not be a great surprise. We have been playing steady football lately and just need to continue in the same vain to get the points.	Coach's Comment: Frank Liddell - Taringa's small field will mean a change of tactics for us. We can beat them, but after their result against North Star they will have their tails up. We won't be taking them lightly as we want to stay on top of the points table.

Coach's Comment: Juan Cutillas - At this time of the season no game is easy. Grange Thistle are in a desperate situation to avoid relegation so they will be coming out with a positive attitude which we must counter. After a good match against Lions we are back in good form.	Coach's Comment: Iain Fagan - Every match is important for us as we fight for survival for the club. Brisbane City on their own ground Spencer Park with their crowd support will be a difficult proposition. We need the points and have to win.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

Edge Hill had a double weekend of celebrations as both the First and Reserve grades climbed to the top of their XXXX FNQ Soccer premierships tables.

The seniors did it in the most emphatic way with a spirited 3-0 win over former top dogs, Dimbulah.

Two goals in the first 13 minutes set the Tigers on their way.

Dimbulah tried to force themselves back into the match after the break, but a Mark Waddingham goal sealed their fate.

Just two minutes into the match fullback Tony Lowrie gave the hillmen their lead with a close range header. Ten minutes later an own goal increased the lead.

It was all the better for Edge Hill as the club they would regard as their arch rivals, Leichhardt, dropped points in draws with Mareeba in both grades.

In what has become a chronic problem, the Lions were unable to stop a late goal destroying their lead.

In this case a penalty from veteran Chris young 10 minutes from the finish levelled matter for a 2-2 draw.

New Leichhardt coach Alex Stefanovic has implemented a novel 4-2-4 formation in the hope of initiating more goals for the premiers of the past four years.

But the players seem to be still coming to terms with the change after playing that style for their last two games.

Even if Edge Hill don't win the premiership, although they must now be considered a chance, they will be happy to have helped force Leichhardt to finally relinquish their hold on the shield.

Leichhardt have spoiled Edge Hill's intended party over the last two years and the Tigers give the impression that more pleasure would come from depriving Leichhardt of the trophy than the act of winning it.

Generally such intense rivalry leads to anti-climatic matches where the pressure ensures overly aggressive tackling and constant stoppages.

Unfortunately most of the matches concerning the four Cairns teams, Leichhardt, Edge Hill, Stratford and Marlin Coast have suffered for those reasons.

Stratford and Marlin Coast both had emphatic victories at home and have inched themselves up the table to fourth and sixth spots respectively.

Stratford defeated Mossman 5-0 and Marlin Coast knocked over a more determined Innisfail 5-1.

ROCKHAMPTON

League leaders Bluebirds shared the points with Nerimbera in last week's main Power's Bitter Premier League in a spirited nil-all draw.

The Rockhampton Soccer Federation returned to the match of the day concept with the other premier league game being played at the earlier time slot of 1pm.

It saw Frenchville keep the pressure on Bluebirds with a 7-0 drubbing of Southside United.

There never really looked as though there was going to be a winner in the Bluebirds/Nerimbera clash.

Most of the play was congested between both penalty areas with both sides having plenty of depth, but refusing to go wide.

Nerimbera probably did the better in general build-up play, but with striker Chris Norton being well held, were unable to pierce the tight Bluebirds defence.

Evan Warkhill was Nerimbera's best player making many darting runs through the middle early in the game.

Bluebird's midfielder Darren Jeffries was there best running strongly all day and attempting to create something for his team's front runners.

Southside never really got into the game against Frenchville and if their opponents had been steadier in front of goal, the scoreline could have been even bigger.

The seven goals came from Craig Green, Lindsay Dean (2), Jason Wyer, Gavin Jenkins and Craig Dingley.

* * * *

The best soccer played in Rockhampton last weekend was the junior competition's two reserve grade games.

Nerimbera came from behind to beat Parkana 4-2 in a highly entertaining and see-sawing game.

The match was full of good soccer with both sides stroking the ball around well with good accurate parking.

In the other Reserve Grade game Frenchville and Berserker played a 2-2 draw.

SUNSHINE COAST

Beegees remain three points clear at the top of the Sunshine Coast Soccer Association ladder after a 2-1 win over rivals Kawana.

And although collecting the points for the match, Beegees could have hoped for a better scoreline with the march towards the finals beginning.

A Scott Fullerton goal and a penalty stroke netted by Chris Hall had the visitors 2-0, but Kawana were unrelenting in attack and answered with a Volker Pinzel goal in the second half.

A hatrick by Buderim striker Jason Dunn piloted his second placed side to a comprehensive 6-0 drubbing of Woombye.

Woombye's chance at being giant killers was depleted with the sidelining of Andrew and Steven Pitcher, but were never really in the match.

The other goal scorers for Buderim were Tony Bright, Scott Elliot and Shane Martin.

In other matches Caloundra consolidated its position in the four with a 2-0 win over Noosa and Maroochydore and Nambour contests a hard-fought 2-2 draw.

* * * *

Buderim Wanderers started its 1990 Qantas Cup campaign with a 17-0 thrashing of Pine Hills Division Four reserves last week.

The mid-week knockout competition for lower division clubs kicked off last week with 74 teams.

In 1985 Buderim became the first country team to win the event when they beat Broadbeach 1-0.

Noosa won its first round match against Slacks Creek Division Three reserves 3-1, while Woombye was too strong for Oxley United Division Three also winning 3-1.

PLAYING THE GAME RIGHT

BRUCE STOWELL

One of the most difficult times in practice sessions at our level is the start. There can be a great gap between the arrival of the first player and the last.

If the players come to associate the start of a session with enjoyment rather than pain they will make more effort to arrive on time.

I am convinced that one of the main reasons why so many players are late for practice is the traditional format of sessions - a long stint of pain followed by a brief game at the end.

It is amazing how many players are never able to arrive in time to start practice at 7pm for all manner of reasons.

But tell them there is a game next Tuesday, kick-off 6.30 and you can guarantee there will be 15 players at the ground no later than 6.15.

Even so the problem will persist and how to cope is probably more relevant than cure.

First of all, a thorough warm-up - loosening up and stretching all the joints and muscle groups is vital.

Insist that all players do this before they take part in any other activity.

If possible start a tradition of doing this individually before leaving the dressing room where they can be seen rather than relying on promises.

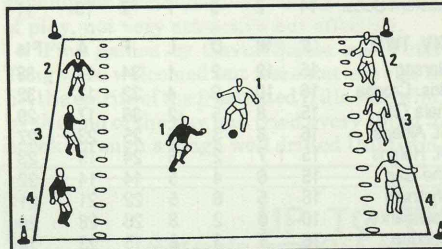

This is far preferable to having players hanging about until they are all ready.

Be prepared beforehand for players coming out warm and ready for action by having ready a game which can cater for numbers which increase from a handful to a full complement. Three such games are useful.

THE NUMBERS GAME

This game can cope with any number of players, but it is assumed as the diagram shows, that at least eight players have arrived.

PREPARATION

Mark out a large area with four cones. Split the players into two teams as they arrive, giving each a number to correspond with a number of a player in the other team.

All players start as goalkeepers and the goal is the whole width of the pitch between the cones.

One ball only is needed. A line of discs marks the goalkeeper's zone.

PROCEDURE

The coach calls out a number or numbers. The player or players in each team whose numbers have been called come out of the goalkeeper's zone, compete for the ball, and if they win shoot for goal.

NOTES

1) As more players arrive you will obviously want to involve larger numbers out of goal.

2) To change players over be firm. Blow the whistle. As soon as that happens no player is allowed to touch the ball further. If anyone does, give a free-kick to the opposition and give the offender a penalty run or exercise.

Give the players chance to get back to the goal line then call the next numbers.

3) Keep the goalkeepers alert. Some players regard this phase as a rest so punish a team each time a goal is scored.

4) Keep a strict check on time. Allow about one minute for each group in action. It is very demanding for small numbers but even so players will complain if they feel they are not having as much playing time as others.

A stop watch at the ready will keep the peace.

VARIATIONS

1) When the numbers of the players in action reaches six or more condition the game to two-touch.

2) This game can become a little fast and furious. Try adding some quality and composure by making a head-high limit for the ball.

Next week we look at the BALL TAG GAME.

XXXX LEAGUE LEADING SCORERS at the 8-7-90

INTO THE NET

Even though Goodna's efforts in staging the IEA Inter-city Shield match between the Gold Coast (1) and Ipswich (0) are given a big pat on the back elsewhere in these pages (and deservedly so), we must praise the enthusiasm of their club workers - from juniors through to President Ray Cosgrove. And the lighting - terrific!

The biggest shock to the system during Goodna's big night was for the patron who, after chewing one of George Pagan's diabolical cough drops, went to down a can of the amber fluid. Reckons the resultant taste put him on the wagon real fast.

Still on the IEA match - there was enough for a quorum with five QSF Management Committee members plus the Secretary and Promotions Co-ordinator attending the game.

There was a rocky start to the sub-committee's proposal to bring into being a South-East Queensland League. However, it's far from a dead issue judging by thought-provoking comments at this month's QSF Council meeting and around the ridges over the past week.

Big bucks being put out by Brisbane Croatia in the coaching department may have caused a few heart flutters from supporters but the efforts by Brian Styles, Peter Bannon and Brian MacNicol are showing it's money well spent and an investment in the future of the club.

Attention "Worried Supporter" of Bald Hills YES, Noel Carroll and Clayton Koch did take the field for Pine Rivers against Grange Thistle last Friday night. The scoreline - a 1-1 draw.

Showing more fire and commitment than previously displayed this year, Grange Thistle demonstrated they too possess some of the great features of Pine Rivers - individual skills and flair. In last Friday's match, both keepers showed remarkable reflex actions. And former Newcastle player Trevor Smith was a real dangerman for Thistle and featured in a number of assaults against the River's goalmouth. All in all, a very entertaining match.

True it's only $3, but some gatekeepers are a mite quick to hit the toe when they hear the kick-off whistle, thus depriving the club of valuable revenue. Saw nine adults walk in last weekend, all ready to pay, but the gatekeeper had already taken off, even though the match was just barely under way.

The Story Bridge's 50th birthday and its history has prompted several clubs to start getting together their club history. One of these is Annerley, and anyone connected with the Annerley Recreation Club since its inception in 1946 should contact or write to Mrs Marie Rogers, 28 Launceston St, Sailsbury, 4107 or phone her on 277 1327.

MATCH REPORTS

Pine Hills 0 Griffith Uni 1

Uni scored the only goal of the match midway through the first half. The rest of the match Hills kept them pinned in their half with only the occasional excursion into Hills penalty area.

The Uni keeper worked overtime pulling off several fine saves.

The Uni defence also did their job in stifling the Hills forwards and consistently slowing the game down by kicking the ball out of play, not very attractive but effective.

Fine games by Gavin Steele and Peter Tong were welcomed but were not enough to lift the spirits of the frustrated Hills side who, by the end of the day had tried every thing to break through a tough well drilled Uni team.

Reserves: Pine Hills 1 Griffith Uni 3

Hills unbeaten run finally came to an abrupt end when Uni trounced them 3-1.

Hills had their chances early in the game but failed to find target with their final touch.

Uni had a one goal lead by the break but Hills were still very much in with a chance.

Minutes into the second half Uni scored again when Hills lost possession in their own half and were punished due to some lethargic defending.

Hills were unlucky not to pull one back when Brad Rowlingson had his shot cleared off the line.

Uni scored again before the end and Philip Engstrom netted Hills consolation goal right on full time. Geoff Nicholson.

BRADLEY REPORT

The Chairman gave a Report on the meeting that had recently taken place with members of the Management Committee and A.S.F. Chairman - J. Constantine, and Dr Graham Bradley - author of the Bradley Report.

He advised that the Queensland Soccer Federation would be supporting the adoption of the Bradley Report at the forthcoming A.S.F. Executive Meeting.

MISS QUEENSLAND SOCCER

A Management Committee member, G Canale, spoke on the Miss Queensland Soccer Quest, giving a reminder to Clubs to enter their Quest Entrants as early as possible to enable promotional activities to take place within the SOCCER 90 magazine, and also to allow for their photographs to be utilised in the SOCCER 90 magazine.

Delegates were then asked if their Clubs intended to participate in the Quest, with a tabulation being taken which augured well for the 1990 Quest.

SOUTH QUEENSLAND LEAGUE

The Chairman opened discussion on the proposal for the South Queensland League by asking the Secretary to read letters that had been received from Bundaberg S.F., Toowoomba S.F. and Gold Coast S.F.

Animated discussion took place concerning the future of Soccer in Queensland and the need for an overall developmental plan for the benefit of the Code in the future.

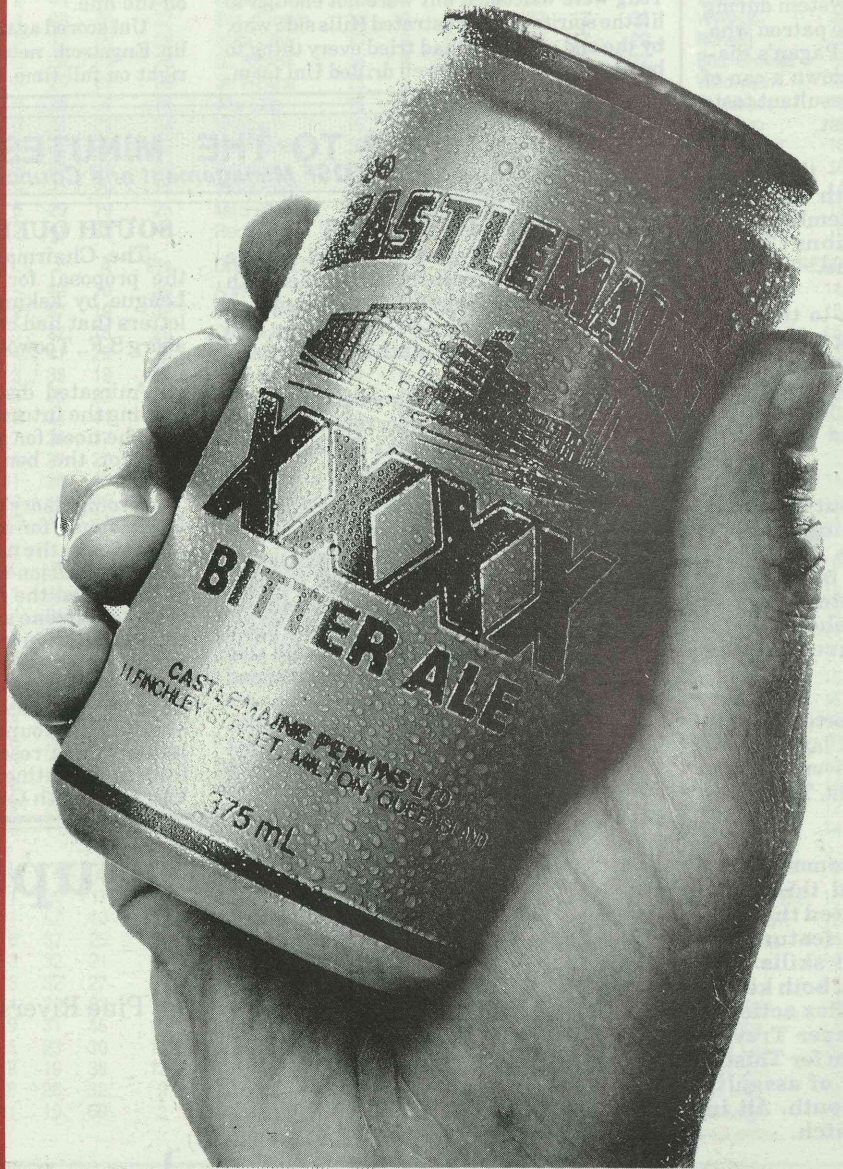

A compulsory meeting was suggested to be convened for all participant Clubs and Affiliates in the near future, for discussion and a resolution on the matter.

Resolved the Management Committee were to convene a compulsory meeting after consultation with the respective Country Affiliates and their member clubs, such compulsory meeting to consist of the four Country Affiliates involved in the proposal, and the full Council of Clubs to debate the issue, with a resolution to be determined from that meeting with relation to a formation of a South Queensland League.
