EDITORIAL:

Last Saturday nights Ampol Cup Semi-final had all the football ingredience to keep spectators coming back time and time again.

The Easts/City semi final was a tight contest. Neither team wished to concede anything to the opposition with the XXXX Soccer League semi-finals just around the corner, but unfortunately the dreaded shoot-out had to break the deadlock.

Easts came away with a victory and will be worthy opponents in the cup final.

North Star, the most successful team in Ampol Cup history will once again contest the final on August 19 when they take on the Tigers from East Brisbane.

North Stars played positive football for the full 90 mins which has been their hallmark for this season.

North Stars semi-final opponent, Pine Rivers played exciting football. It was good to see the crowd support for semi-final matches.

North Star and Pine Rivers have a dedicated supporter group who will travel anywhere to give there teams a big lift with some parochial support, which other teams in the Brisbane competition can learn from.

The young cheer squad from North Star are to be complemented for their dress and enthusiasm.

They never stopped supporting their team all night, I do hope their throats were

O.K. on Sunday morning when they woke, because they certainly put a big effort in for their team.

No one can afford to miss this years Ampol Cup final.

North Star want their name on that Cup yet again while Eastern Suburbs, who are on a roll, will be out to pick up the silverware.

It will certainly be a great final and thank you Ampol for your support.

Tickets to the Grand Final will go on sale shortly.

Who the teams will be contesting the final is anyones guess.

There is still some club games to go and a hard fought semi-final series ahead.

At this stage of the football season it comes down to the depth of talent that clubs have at their disposal as injuries take their toll.

Come September 30 we will certainly have teams contesting Grand Finals in the first, second and third divisions and what an exciting day it will be - you cannot afford to miss the Big One - Grand Final Day 1990.

CLUB PROFILE CLUB PROFILE CLUB PROFILE

OLYMPIC UNITED SOCCER CLUB

Olympic United Soccer Club started in 1966 as Pan Rhodian Soccer Club at Raymond Park at Kangaroo Point.

Pan Rhodian played Association for 2 years until 1968 before moving to Dutton Park.

After the move they were admitted to the Federation under the name of Olympic Soccer Club and started off with a team in the 5th Division.

Olympic stayed at Dutton Park until 1979 winning Premierships to take them up to 2nd Division.

In 1980 the revamped State League invited Olympic, and they accepted, to join into the new State League competition.

Also in 1980 Olympic amalgamated with St. George Juniors and became Olymp-pic United Soccer Club and then proceeded with the move to Goodwin Park.

Olympic United's highlight in 1983 was to win the Grand Final at Perry Park beating Lions 3-2.

Since 1983 Olympic United have placed a great deal of emphasis on improving their facilities and fostering Junior Divisions.

Today they have Seven (7) junior teams from Under-7's to Colts, 4 teams in the Fourx League plus 1 women's team in 3rd Division.

After Olympics heavy expenditure on ground improvements, including a new additional grandstand, Goodwin Park is shaping up as one of Brisbanes best surfaces.

Plans are underway for ground lighting for night matches, plus clubhouse improvements and extensions.

Part of Olympics plans are to promote Junior coaching, the breeding ground for their future seniors.

They are fortunate in securing several sponsorships, their major sponsor being The Greek Community Centre.

It is also pleasing to see a number of founding members still actively involved in the clubs administration.

These include John and George Polichronis, Michael Tsangaris presently overseas, Mick Savvakis and Terry Stamatiou and Leo Tsimbikas.

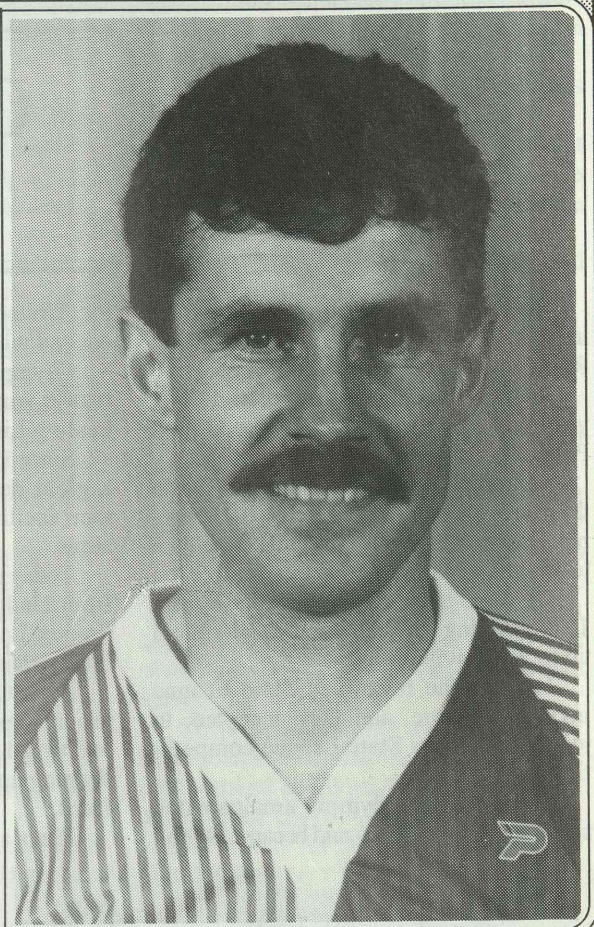

*One of the early squads of Olympic Soccer Club 1967 -68
Five of this squad are still serving on Soccer Committees.*

National Youth Championships
Melbourne July 8-14

Day 1 - Qld v Vic

Queensland was far superior to the Victorian team who were to improve steadily throughout the week. We were able to play some skilful football ending in a 5-1 victory for Qld.

Goal scorers were Kim Revell 3 (hat-trick), Tanya Corbett 1 (well taken penalty) and Peta Quail 1.

Day 2 - Qld v ACT

ACT was a very physical team and brought us back to earth a little from the previous day.

However, after being nil all at half time, substitute Trish Townsend came on for Qld and scored a great goal from about 30 yds out. The ACT goalkeeper failed to get her hands to it and Qld won again 1.-0.

Day 3 - Qld v NSW

This game was to prove the decider of the Championships. Our old foe, the Blues, had been held to a draw the previous day by Vic.

We only needed a draw to remain in contention. However, NSW scored a lucky goal with a flicked header in the second half and Qld went down nil-1.

Day 4 - Rest Day

Qld decided to spend a day in the snow. Many of the team had not seen snow so all spent a great four hours tobogganing at Lake

Mountain.

Day 5 Qld v NNSW

This game again proved to be very physical. Despite the referee awarding 25 free kicks to NNSW and none to Qld we were able to win the game 6-nil. Top scorer was Kim Revell with 5 and Tammy Sprott 1.

Day 6 Qld v Tas.

This team has been together for a few years with only 3 changes and they gave us a hard game. However Qld plugged on and came out eventual winners 2-nil.

Goal scorers were once again Kim Revell 1 and Christine O'Brien 1.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

with Frank Liddell

We are talking once again about stopping young players going down South after another two promising youngsters were offered scholarships with the A.I.S. in Canberra.

We have been going on about this for the last 10 years and the sad fact of the matter is there is nothing we can do about it.

These youngsters are being given the chance to continue their studies and still play the game they love virtually full time which is something Queensland soccer cannot offer.

I agree some plan has to be found to try and keep these lads here and if we cannot come up with a formula to keep them here in their early days of playing, then we must look at giving them an incentive to return to Queensland when their studies have been completed.

One such idea could come out of having a Brisbane United team in the National League then we could look at signing these promising youngsters on an elite contract or schoolboy contract, then if they go to the A.I.S. to further their studies and their learning of the game they would be contracted to return to Brisbane United when their Studies are completed.

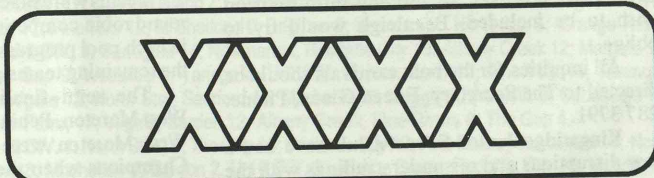

This is just one idea and I am sure if the right people get together, we will come up with a few more ideas.

* * * *

There were a few surprised people around when Clayton Koch and Noel Carroll were cut from the Olympic Squad.

New Australian coach Eddie Thompson looks to have just kept us happy by their inclusion in the training squad of 30. The two players concerned are very good players but maybe we should look further into the reasons for their omission from the final squad.

One reason might be that they were not good enough, that I don't believe but one thing is for sure, they are not playing in a high enough standard every week to keep them up with players from Sydney and Melbourne. So the sooner we introduce that higher standard in Queensland the sooner we will get International honours.

REFEREEING INTO THE 90's ————— with DES MILES

ADVANTAGE CLAUSE

of Law 5 Part 1
by Stanley Lover

The advantage clause of Law 5 has been described as setting aside the letter of the law to apply the spirit of the game.

In addition to the examples quoted in chapter 2 there are others which relate to the taking of penalty kicks.

Law 14, Decisions 3 (a), (b) and (c), allows the referee to ignore infringements by the goalkeeper (not being on the goal-line or moving his feet), or by another defender (encroachment), to avoid delaying the penalty kick and/or distracting the kicker. Similarly, an infringement by an attacker (encroachment) may be ignored (decision 4 (b)). The result of the kick determines the action which will be taken. The principle that offenders will not be allowed to profit by their offenses is clear. The spirit overrides the written word.

Law 5 (c) permits the referee to add 'time lost through accident or other cause'. One recognised cause is an attempt to waste time. The spirit of the law allows discretion in the calculation of time played so that time-wasting tactics are unsuccessful.

A defender may attempt to save a goal by handling the ball before it enters the goal. The handling offence occurred before the ball crossed the goal-line. Technically, Law 12 requires the award of a penalty kick but penalty kicks do not always result in goals. If the referee awards a penalty kick and it fails the offending team will have gained an unfair advantage. Therefore the correct award, applying the advantage clause, is a goal.

The foregoing examples illustrate clearly the practical application of the spirit of the game. During the run of play the task is more difficult. The classic example of the attacker regaining his balance after being tripped by a defender and having an excellent chance of scoring a goal is illustrated in figure 1. To stop play for the free kick or penalty kick would almost certainly be to the disadvantage of the offended team.

There are other situations which can cause much discussion among officials as to the right course of action. Basic questions on the use of advantage include the following:

1. Is advantage influenced by the timing of play?
2. Is advantage influenced by the position of the incident?
3. Does retention of the ball necessarily justify advantage?
4. When should advantage always be applied?
5. When should advantage never be applied?

Part 2 of Advantage continues next week with more questions and answers to serve as a summary of opinion of the Advantage Clause.

JUNIORS IN THE LIMELIGHT

BRISBANE SOUTH

World Cup fever is all over now; however, one comment I would like to make is how disappointed I was in the number of the code's top players who wore various types of jewellery during their games. Young players should be set an example by these players and the serious injuries that can be received must be stressed to all our juniors.

Around the scene there appears to be many coaches and parents who do not appear to fully understand the rules for Under-9's. All coaches should have received a copy of the rules from their club. If you have not please obtain one.

Beenleigh Soccer Club shall conduct an Under-7 and 8 (mixed teams) carnival on July 29. Teams shall be six-a-side with a maximum of nine players.

August 19 has been set for their Under 10 carnival. Division 1 & 2 teams are invited to participate; however, should any third division wish to be included, Beenleigh would try to oblige.

All inquiries for the both carnivals should be directed to The Secretary, Eileen Green, Phone: 287 3791.

Kingsridge Junior Soccer Club have had a few disruptions and misunderstandings with the recent departure of the Kingsridge United Senior Soccer who have moved to Meakin Park. Both bodies are run separately and Kingsridge Juniors are still at Gould Adams Park, and they wish Kingsridge United Seniors every success with their new venture.

Kingsridge this year are fielding a ladies team, 10 junior teams and a littlies team who play at home each week. All teams are enjoying themselves with some doing very well in their competition. Like all clubs it is very hard to keep a club running smoothly and constant fund-raising, but with team involvement this year the few dedicated workers are having a much easier time.

The club recently conducted two carnivals which were very successful and enjoyed by all. There are four boys from club playing representative soccer with Brisbane Southern Districts. They are Scott Davidson and Shannon Fisher in Under 12's, Ross Davidson and Rudi Suchanek in the Under 13's. All the boys play in their Under-13 Division 1 team. After the recent titles Ross

Davidson was selected to play in the Queensland team in Darwin later in the year. Also one of the girls in their ladies team has been selected in the Qld team for the Woman's Soccer Titles.

It is nice to see these players able to remain at their club with their friends as well as achieve representative honour and it is the club's belief that we are all here for the youth of the community and without them there would be no soccer. It is the clubs hope that with more promotion of the code it will never die in our community.

Q.S.P.S.S.F.A.

This year's State Primary School Carnival was held in Rockhampton from July 9 to July 12.

Participating regions were South West, Sunshine Coast, West Moreton, Wide Bay, Peninsula, North Queensland, Brisbane South, South Coast, Darling Downs, Brisbane North and Central Queensland.

Teams were placed in two pools and played a round robin competition. The leading two teams in each pool progressed to the semi-finals whilst the remaining teams played cross-pool play offs.

The semi-finalists were Brisbane North, West Moreton, Peninsula and North Queensland. West Moreton were eventually crowned State Champions when they defeated North Queensland 4-0 in the final. In the eight games they contested at the carnival, the West Moreton boys scored 37 goals for and none against. A tremendous record indeed.

At the conclusion of the carnival the state team to contest the Australian Championships was announced: Lance McKittrick, Clint Scott, Ngoe Bui, Wayne Derrick, Troy Wickstein, Matthew Hilli (West Moreton), Ricky Wahlsen, Ben Parkin (Brisbane North), Michael Vonhof, Peter Miles (sunshine coast), David Pilic (South Coast), Brett Patterson (Darling Downs), Wade Cannon (North Qld), Clinton McDermott (Brisbane South).

The team will assemble in Maroochydore for a week of training and schooling prior to the Interstate Carnival in Sydney.

Thanks must go to the Rockhampton District Primary Schools Soccer Assoc. for all their hard work. Educationally, Socially and physically this was a tremendous experience for all the 154 boys who participated.

Q.S.S.S.S. FEDERATION

In the Commonwealth Bank Bill Turner Cup Coomera are playing Sunnybank to decide who will play the winner of Redbank Plains and Haristown High (Toowoomba) to decide the area winner. The winner will then go on to play the winner of the game between Nambour and Shalom Catholic College Bundaberg which is to be played in Bundaberg. Les Killer, the Shalom coach is hoping to have the local T.V. station in to cover the game.

I am hoping to have the Final for Queensland played at Perry Park as a curtain raiser to the finals being played on August 19, so we all hope for a big crowd on the day. There will be an official from the Commonwealth Bank at the venue to present the Qld trophy to the winning team.

The other day I was advised by a parent that the year 12 students involved in the Queensland Schools teams are going to be unable to attend the training camps in the last week of August because of the ASAT testing on the Tuesday and Wednesday of that week. I am at present writing to the schools concerned and to the Board of Secondary Schools Studies to sort out the procedures we will need to follow as this training camp is necessary to sort out the teams and to outfit them.

I named the teams last time but forgot to name the officials. For the boys the coach is again Richard Shortman of Rosedale S.S. Sec. Dept and I am the Manager. For the girls the coach is Phil Campbell from Caboolture S.H.S. and the Manager is Brett Green from Keebra Park S.H.S. Southport.

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

This weekend was a quiet weekend in Zone 1 territory with only local games and one of the usual local Carnival Sundays.

Carnivals for the different age groups is a common occurrence in Sunny FNQ.

This weekend we were down to the serious part of soccer.

Under-7, Under-8, Under-9 round matches to start with, then semis and finals.

Where necessary - Semis require shootouts to decide finalists, finals require extra time then shootouts.

When I first organised this lower age group carnival for the FNQ area we had a shoot out in every division to decide winners, a lot of comments came out of this approach to the younger generation.

Well now that I am older and wiser I still feel that the occasional carnival that contains a shoot out and the tension of a tightly fought series of matches is a good training ground and stepping stone for these enthusiastic kids.

What comes out of a carnival of this nature is

- 1) The talent of organising that you find.
- 2) Help from people within your club, people you did not notice before hand
- 3) The assistance you get from older and younger people in refereeing capacity plus the flow on of willing participants in the future.
- 4) The showing of talent from players sometimes ignored in the past.
- 5) Financial benefits from the days takings.
- 6) In general you feel that all that work and effort put in is well worthwhile.

Winners and runners-up from the Leichhardt Junior Carnival Under-7-1st - Tully; 2nd - Edge Hill; Under-8 - 1st - Saints; 2nd - Edge Hill; Under-9 - 1st - Leichhardt; 2nd - Saints. John Spilstead

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

This past week saw the Peninsula primary and secondary school teams compete in the state titles. The Secondary tournament took place on local turf at Endeavour Park.

Peninsula refers to the education region which extends from Cape York to Cardwell although almost all of the players come from the local FNQSF and CDSA area.

Many spectators expected to see Peninsula and Brisbane North play for the Secondary Schools' title in the final, but both teams who had made a name for themselves as attractive entertainers early in the week were beaten in their semi-finals.

Peninsula were unlucky to go down to Brisbane North 2-1 in a game described by their coach as the best game at this level he has ever seen. After being 2-0 down early in the match Peninsula got one back before the break but even with enormous pressure in the second half, could not push the ball across the line.

North Queensland triumphed over Brisbane South and went on to win the tournament with a 2-0 win over Brisbane North in the final.

Brian Stopford's Peninsula team, did however have four players chosen in the Queensland team. They were goal-keeper Peter Lion, defender Ian Soweni and forwards Micky Gwynne and Gary Cook. Matthew Cassey, Tony Andreijic and Glen Waddingham also made the shadow team.

Stopford who had often expounded the virtues of his team, said that having 7 of the 16 players involved in the potential squad spoke for itself.

Graham Lamperd, coach of the Primary team, was impressed with their commitment when the boys went to Rockhampton last week and came third overall. Peninsula came up against an outstanding West Moreton in their semi-final match and lost 4-0 but were not humiliated.

West Moreton, rated by attending coaches as the best team ever seen at the finals, did not concede one goal during the tournament and scored more than forty. They also defeated North Qld 4-0 in the final.

Peninsula Primary had made the semis by finishing second in their pool, defeating Central Queensland and Brisbane North and drawing with Darling Downs. Shaun Knudsen netted three goals for the team and he was one of four boys (Michael O'Shea, Vem Copley and Scott Ferguson the others) who made a possible and probables squad. None of the boys was finally selected. Peninsula finally defeated Brisbane North again in the third place play-off. Red McLellan

ROCKHAMPTON

Rockhampton's senior representative team continues its dominance over near neighbours Gladstone by retaining the Morning Bulletin Cup with a resounding 3-0 win over them in Gladstone.

A delighted Rockhampton coach, Bevan Dingley, was pleased with the way his team had played. "We had five regulars out and despite only having two training runs still knitted together perfectly. There is a tremendous spirit in this team and its a pity there are not more chances to show what we can do." Dingley said.

Frenchville defender Barry Cunningham was a late replacement and Dingley made a tactical switch pushing him into a striking role with Chris Norton. Gladstone defenders were unable to cope with the height of these two players and that went a long way towards the Rockhampton win.

Rockhampton started in a very positive manner and had a lot of mid-field possession. The home team had no answer to the strength of Gavin Jenkins, the deft touches of Grant Beevers and the strong running of Darren Jeffries who gave them little opportunity.

Beevers is the dead ball specialist for Nerimbera and it was his probing corner kicks that created Rockhampton's best chances. After 20 minutes one of them taken to the near post saw Tony Close get a touch to Jenkins for an easy tap in to make it 1-0.

The Rockhampton defence was never in serious trouble and Gladstone's only had two first half chances of equalising. Full back John Jardine had a volley that went wide and then former Rockhampton player Andrew Kiersnowski dispossessed Steve Lines but his shot was easily taken by goalkeeper Ashley Myatt.

Myatt making his debut for Rockhampton replacing the injured David Fox did his work particularly well.

Gladstone's inability to get forward game Rockhampton full back Paul Steyger opportunities to venture upfield and five minutes before the break he bruised the goalkeepers hands with a 25 metre drive.

Shortly before half-time Rockhampton made it 2-0 when Chris Norton also had an easy tap in. Again it was a Beevers free kick that did the damage but this time Gladstone goalkeeper Bert Fuller was unable to hold the ball to give Norton his chance.

Norton has been in good goal scoring form for Nerimbera but has to sit on the bench for the representative team. The absence of Wyer and Dean gave him his chance and he took it with both hands.

Brad Smith came on for the last 20 minutes and immediately troubled the Gladstone defence before completing the scoring from the penalty spot after he had been fouled.

The homeside's kick and rush style was no match for the slick Rockhampton combination and it was good luck rather than good management that the final score wasn't much larger. In the last 15 minutes the Rockhampton really went for goal only to be denied by some desperate defenders.

As he boarded the bus for the trip home Dingley said the next aim was a win over Bundaberg in the upcoming Rowlands Cup clash. "We owe Bundaberg a hiding and I am out to pull a bigger surprise than Tony Buesnel when they come here in August." Dingley said.

"There is no doubt that they won't get the same opportunities as they did in our Ampol Cup elimination game and we are out to reverse that result."

The Rockhampton Youth side kept its unbeaten five year record intact with a 1-0 win over Gladstone in the curtain raiser.

The goal came from a Cameron Jackson penalty midway through the first half after Willie Jensen had been brought down.

Rockhampton completely dominated the match against their more physical opponents and without the brilliance of Gladstone goalkeeper, the Biloela based Ian Wallace, the scoreline could have been much wider.

Rockhampton Director of Coaching John Reid delighted with the win. "The measure of our dominance was that goalkeeper Tony Hogan never had a difficult save and never had to kick the ball long up the field."

Bluebirds continue to lead the Power's Bitter Premier League despite having the bye last Sunday. They look to have a mortgage on the minor premiership being two points in front and having a game in hand over second placed Frenchville.

The league leaders test comes this Sunday when they meet Frenchville in the match of the day at Norbridge Park.

Frenchville snatched second place from Nerimbera after two good results over the weekend. On Friday night they thrashed Southside 13-0 in a catch up game and then on Sunday drew 0-0 with Nerimbera.

Nerimbera's fall from second place also started on Friday night when they were beaten 3-1 by Bluebirds.

Against Frenchville they made a couple of positional changes but it didn't seem to make much difference.

SOUTH BURNETT

Murgon Turn Tables

Fourth placed Murgon took premiers Wests to the cleaners in the first half of their South Burnett Soccer League first Division match at Murgon on Saturday.

At home, Murgon have always been a bogy side for Wests in recent years.

They established a half time score line of 3-0 from which Wests could not recover. Despite applying most of the second half pressure Wests could only wrest one goal for a final 3-0 result and two points to Murgon, to dash Nanango's hopes of overhauling them in the race to the final four with only four rounds to go.

Wests defeat Murgon

Wests seconds showed the benefits of controlled possession and passing to good effect in their 2-1 entertaining clash with Murgon at Murgon on Saturday after a 2-0 half time scoreline.

Striker Steve Forbes beat Murgon keeper Joe Watt in the air from a ball pumped over by Thomas Sidney at the 18th min to open Wests account.

Ben Wood capitalised on a defensive mix-up between Watt and Eugene Murray 5 mins later for Wests second.

if not for a first class diving take by Wests keeper Mick North from a Jamie Burow shot 11 mins into the second half Murgon could have saved a point because Burow finally found the target one min from fulltime after a Wests goalmouth shambles produced a rebound off North to give Burow the chance to goal.

Scores: Wests 2 (Forbes, Wood) def Murgon 1 (Burow)

Murgon Women pull one back for Draw

Murgon women, pulled a well taken goal back in the second half at Murgon on Saturday, to take a point from Kingaroy in their round 11 1-1 Draw.

Scoring first in the 28th min through the determined running and clinical finishing of left half Ainsley Robinson, having much more of the run of the game through superior numbers due to Murgon injuries, and peppering Murgon keeper and player of the match Therese Bolger, Kingaroy were unlucky to lose a point.

Scores: Murgon 1 (Sander) Drew Kingaroy 1 (Robinson)

Nanango Topple Easts

The match of the day at Nanango on Saturday between Nanango and Easts first looked like ending as a 1-1 draw after a nil all first half until late in the second half when the astute introduction of Sasha Ivanovic into the fray changed the game Nanangos way enabling them to run out 3-1 fulltime winners in their quest to make the final four.

Easts did well to hold Nanango for much of the match with a disorganised lineup due to unavailability of injured key players Mark Halliday, Peter Davison and Lee Owen as well as losing forward Dave Mensforth in the second half.

Nanango on the other hand kept building the pressure in this "Must Win" game. They brought on hard running Phil Newton at half time, resuming his association following an injury in Round 3.

Scores: Nanango 3 (R. Trace, Newton, Evans) def Easts 1 (Broderick).

Easts comfortably home against Nanango

Easts comfortably ran out 3-1 winners over Nanango seconds at Nanango on Saturday after a 2-1 half time scoreline in an entertaining encounter.

Scores: Easts 3 (M. Broderick, Ludke) def Nanango 1 (Newton)

Nanango stop Wondai winning streak

Nanango stopped Wondai women's winning streak at Nanango on Saturday holding the league leaders and 1989 Premiers to a 0-0 draw in a dour match.

SUNSHINE COAST

UNDERDOG Noosa consolidated its position in the top four with a shock 1-0 win over Buderim Wanderers in their Sunshine Coast soccer clash at Ballinger Park.

The victory, which has crushed Buderim's minor premiership hopes, comes at the business end of the season for Noosa who seem to have found the right antidote for its failure to secure the tough points.

Noosa coach Neil McCarthy had touted the second-placed Buderim the finest team he had seen a season and his workman like lead-up to the clash paid dividends for the young side.

A Doug Parkin header in the 30th minute lobbed over Buderim keeper Marty Bour's head to take Noosa into the change 1-0.

Buderim spokesman Robbie Glover said last night Noosa outfit was hungrier for a win.

"Our normal cohesion wasn't there - Noosa has the better attitude," he said.

Midfielder Carl Harrison stamped his authority on what was a mammoth team effort by the Noosa side, proving tireless across the centre.

Chances went begging for both sides in the open and fast game, but in the second half neither side was able to take control.

Buderim midfielder Shayne Martin was sent off in the 50th minute after an altercation with Noosa's Dobison defying any real chances of a homeside resurgence.

In other matches Caloundra accounted for Nambour with a resounding 7-0 win in which newcomer Paul Clancy netted five. Wayne Hensley scored 1 other and an own goal added to the tally.

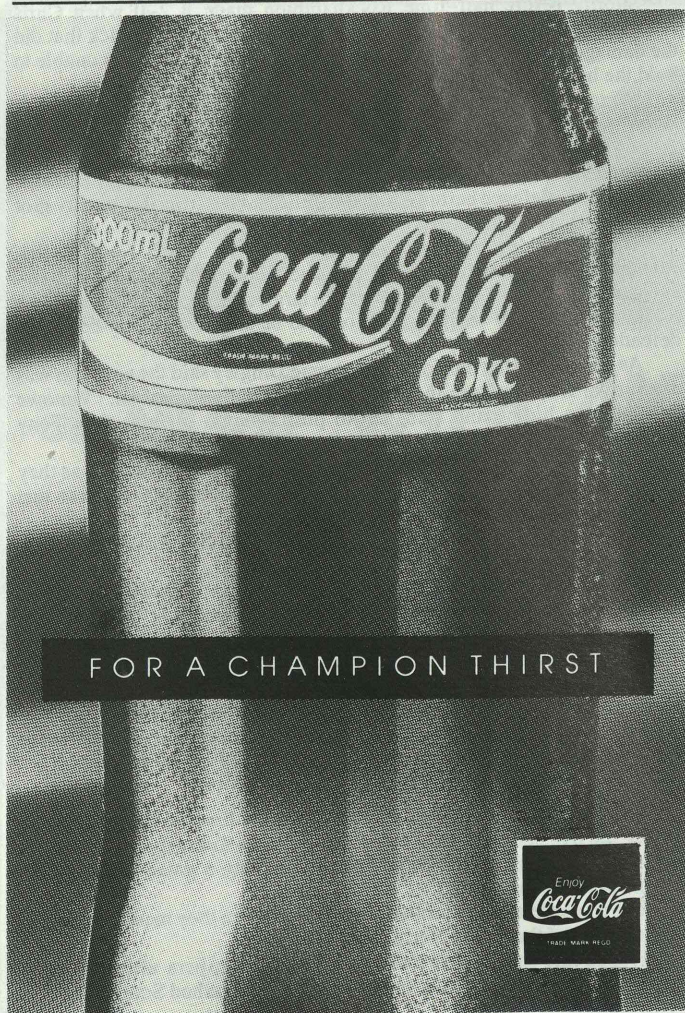

Beegees pushed to six points clear on top of the table after a 2-0 win over Maroochydhore with goals going to Chris Hall and Michael Topfer.

RECENT exploits at an over 35's game could mean that Woombye keeper Willie Woods may be tagged as the coasts answer to Colombain extrovert goalie Rene Higueta after all Willie is South American; but a change of hair style is needed to complete the act.

THROW-HEAD GAME

This week we look at the "Throw-Head Game".

This game is not "Throw-Head, Catch". It resembles netball except that the end product is a goal from a header.

PREPARATION:

Mark off a large area with cones and divide it into quarters with discs and one or two additional cones to help players keep their bearings.

Divide players into two equal teams. The goal is the whole width of the opponent's end of the pitch to a height to be decided by the coach.

PROCEDURE:

The ball is thrown from player to player until an opening arises for a header at goal.

The reason for the playing area being quartered is that no player may score a goal from a pass received in that same quarter.

However, players may move freely from area to area.

NOTES:

1) The rule about not being allowed to score from a pass received from the same quarter means that headers come from a realistic angle - as from a cross or a corner or from a diagonally behind as from an early cross. Passes may also come from directly behind to flick on and occasionally from in front as in the case of a half clearance.

2) The coach must be aware to the fact that the game can become pure netball with a header coming only every five minutes. This game is all about heading goals, so constantly remind the players of the fact. Play short games to the best of five goals rather than imposing a time limit where players tend to forget the main object of the game.

3) The fact that interceptions are made with the hands minimises the danger of clashing heads as often happens in "throw, head, catch".

4) Do not allow challengers to touch the player with the ball but encourage interceptions.

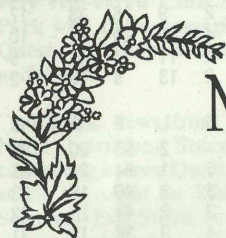

VARIATIONS:

1) If the game become frenzied with 20 passes to every one header, players stop thinking about finding gaps. Restrict them to three passes before a header is attempted.

2) Crowding may occur, ruining the object of the game. Try a zone-game, restricting players to one half or even a quarter of the playing area.

3) If a zone system is being used change attackers and defenders now and again.

Next week we begin a series on "Heading".

INTO THE NET

What a feast of goal-scoring was had at the final games in the I.E.A. Inter-City series at Perry Park, with Brisbane defeating Ipswich 5-0, and Toowoomba triumphing over the Gold Coast 4-3.

Interesting suggestion being floated that any future Ipswich teams should be selected from players registered with Ipswich Clubs plus players registered with other Federation Clubs but who live in Ipswich.

Great support from I.E.A. State Manager Nick Zomer who, with members of his staff attended all of the games in this year's series. Nick's personal involvement was much appreciated.

And as a final thought on the Inter-City series, will consideration be given to expanding it further so that Bundaberg can be included next year?

Miss Queensland Soccer hopeful excitedly rang SOCCER 90 to enquire when her photo would be appearing in the mag. Check of the Miss Q file failed to find her nomination form and photo which she said she had given to her Club Secretary weeks ago. Short time later very red-eared Club Sec. fronted at Perry Park with the necessities to enter her in the Quest. Let's hope there aren't any other forgetful ones.

Terrific news from Cairns where the Far North Queensland Soccer Federation has been conducting its own Quest so as to have an entrant at the big night on 25th August. Live-wire Secretary Eva Strike and her helpers doing a mountain of work organising it all.

Question: Which Club has Brisbane's only carpeted Referees' room?

Thora Baldassi, who over a number of years has helped raise oodles of cash for Mt. Gravatt and Annerley Juniors, seen giving the Lucky Envelopes Machine in the club area at Perry Park a real going over. Won a few dollars and lost a few, but as Thora says "It's all for Soccer".

Hate to rave, but there's a guy called Dave Pulled off more than one incredible save To put EASTS in the final of the AMPOL CUP Beware the Tigers when their tails are up!

More than a few opposition XXXX League Coaches rate JOHN PRESTON the real danger-man in PINE RIVERS side. Both Ampol Cup semi-finals were great drawcards, but the win by North Star (3) over Pine Rivers (2) in extra time was a bottler, with JP putting away the two for Rivers.

A case of more of the same, when for the second week in a row Jimboomba defeated Pine Hills - this time in a wet weather fixture. This coming weekend they play away to co-basement dwellers Beenleigh. Could this be win number three of the season coming up for the Jets?

Another team ruffling a few feathers as they try to fly out of the relegation zone is Leichhardt Eagles who birdied Southside Eagles 2-0 last weekend. This weekend they'll guest the boys from Samford, hoping the Rangers will remember that Eagles are a protected species.

Thought of the week: If winning isn't important, then why do we keep score?

MATCH REPORTS

Toowong 1 Pine Hills 1

Toowong took the lead midway through the first half via a well directed free kick which found the bottom corner of the goal.

Play continually swung from goal-mouth to goal-mouth with both keepers working overtime and both defences sometimes desperate in the tackle. Motivated by a half time pep talk, Hills looked a different team in the second half with nearly all the action happening in Toowong's half.

A long cross from Stuart Purcell found Gavin McLeod on the far post who drove this ball past the Toowong keeper. The game then became spiteful with both teams desperate for the maximum points. It was Hills who showed more discipline, that threatened time and time again with through balls for their forwards to chase and exploit Toowong's back line. Peter Tong played well for Hills as did Gavin Steele.

Pine Hills 0 Toowong 0

After receiving a 3-1 thrashing from Hills the week before, Toowong's fight, pride and commitment is to be commended.

At no time did Hills enjoy the space or territorial advantage of the previous week. Toowong constantly pushed forward and threatened several times during the match, but were foiled each time by M.O.M. Goalkeeper Jeff Noonan.

The second half was much the same but Hills found themselves forward more often with Terry Johnson unlucky not to score after a fine run from half-way.

Midfielder John Henderson gave another spirited performance. David Iriondo also played well.

RUSSIAN COACH ON WAY TO QUEENSLAND

by guest columnist Tom Chutnee

"The Russians are coming" is a cry which should send Queenslanders running, not for their beds, but to their local Soccer club to see a true coaching maestro in action.

Noted Russian Coach YURI GURI is due to arrive in Queensland for a series of coaching clinics.

Having spent the past five years coaching the very successful Siberia Dynamos (motto - "we never let a player go"), Yuri has expressed his pleasure at being invited to the Sunshine State under the QSF's "International Visitors" program which has already seen Charlton Athletic and New South Wales being invited here.

Watchers of International soccer believe Yuri's coaching methods will revolutionise Soccer in this State.

Interpreters at Perry Park are busy translating The Guri Handbook of Coaching which can be found on every frozen players' bench from Siberia to Outer Mongolia.

Some of the innovative coaching methods detailed in the book are set out below.

Team Fitness Conditioning. This is done by way of a 40km "warm-up" run at the start of every training session. Yuri reluctantly admits this unfortunately leads to a severe re-arrangement of the team sheet with players not returning from the run. Sadly he admits this is due to the missing players being eaten by polar bears, or being used as target practice by restless army personnel. Those who make it back have a fine style of weaving runs.

Heading the Ball. This practice is done with the aid of a Red Army truck. The method is simple. The player attempts to head-but a passing truck off its course. If he succeeds he gets the Award of the Soviet Peoples Neckbrace. If he fails, another blank spot appears on the team sheet.

Halftime Oranges. These juiced and mixed with vodka are team favourites.

Field Treatment of an Injured Player. Yuri has found there are two sure-fire methods to get a player quickly back on his feet again. One is to whisper the letters KGB into his ear, the other is to apply a block of freshly hacked ice to the front of the player's shorts.

Yuri has asked for a session with the Queensland team as he says the colour of their playing shirts will make him feel at home.

His coaching camps will be conducted behind barbed wire fences.

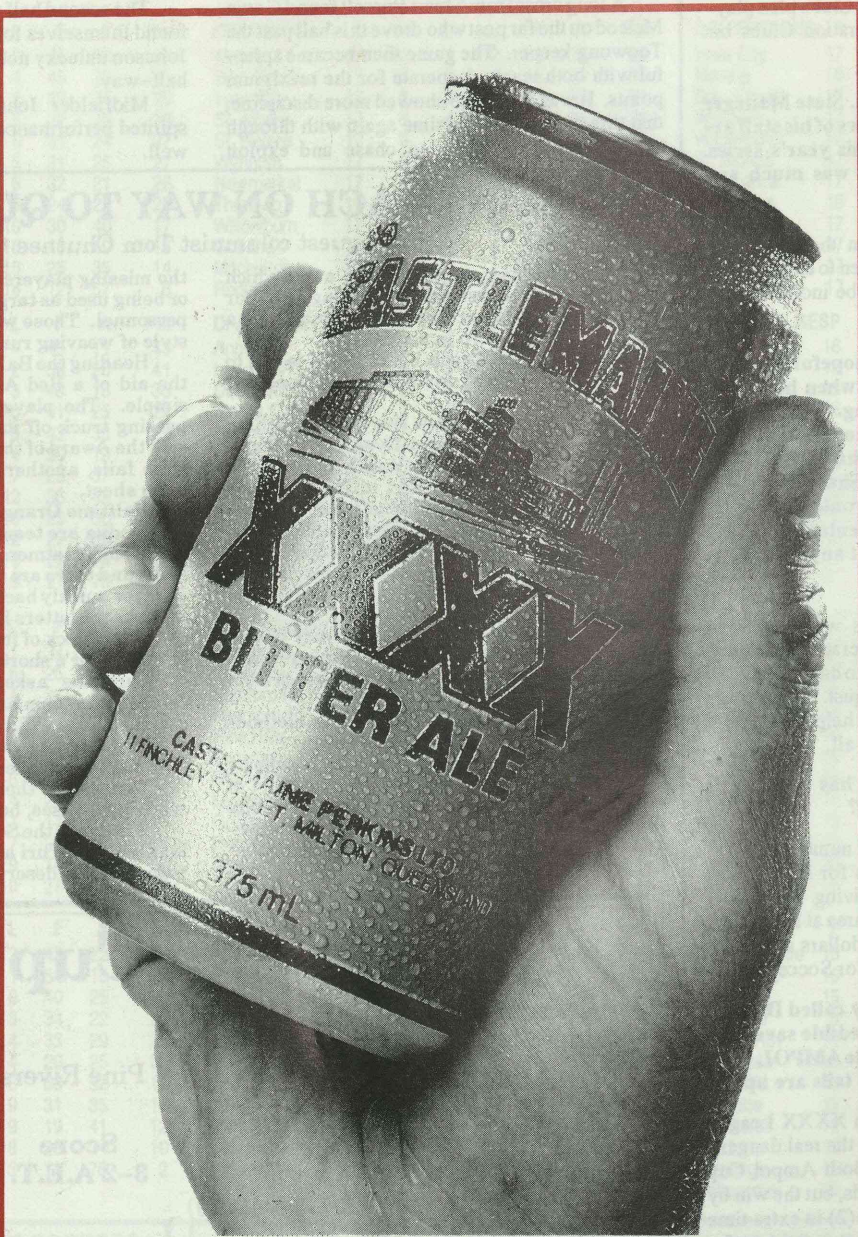

Yuri insists there be no charge to enter his coaching courses, but $100 to get out.

It is hoped the Soccer community of Queensland will give Yuri and his coaching methods the welcome they deserve.
