Queensland soccer experienced a changing of the guard last week with the appointment a new State coach.

It was the end of an era as Juan Cutillas was handed the reins of the Queensland team for its 1991 representative campaign following the shock resignation of long serving coach Bruce Stowell.

Stowell, who remains the State Director of Coaching, has been at the helm of the Maroons for the past eight years.

His record speaks for itself - seven wins, six loses and eight draws in 21 matches against interstate and international teams.

Stowell's loss cannot be measured, but Juan Cutillas is more than a worthy replacement.

Cutillas will also have at his disposal the experience of Joe Gilroy and Gordon Arrowsmith, two coaches appointed as assistants by the QSF Management Committee.

Together the trio have the job of preparing the Maroons for their six representative games this season.

They will be expected to maintain the excellent record of previous Queensland teams.

The 1991 season has certainly got away to a very competitive start.

This augurs well for remainder of the season as the results of all games will not be cut and dried.

The two teams promoted to the XXXX League, Nerang and Brisbane Croatia, have both experienced challenging starts to the season.

Nerang, although they are yet to win a game, will not be league easybeats and any team travelling to the coast will have a hard match ahead of them.

Brisbane Croatia have already shown they are not to be taken lightly this year with victory over the big spending Rochedale Rovers last Sunday.

No team is guaranteed of a top five finish, and all will have to work very hard if they expect there come September.

All in all this should mean a bumper year of spectacular football for soccer fans.

The QSF would like to thank all those spectators who turned up for the final shoot of the soon-to-be-released television commercial.

They might have been short in numbers, but their enthusiasm more than made up for that.

A big thankyou also goes out to the players who have willingly given up their time to be involved in the film-clip and commercial.

SOCCER SAFETY

By Duncan Pike

Most on-field soccer injuries can be prevented off-field, according to a medical expert.

Australian Sports Medicine Association (ASMF) Queensland branch Executive Director Mike Knowles said proper pre-match preparation and exercises as well as trained medical back-up on the sidelines could help prevent most soccer injuries.

"Soccer rates as one of the State's safest team sports," Knowles said.

"Yet soccer still allows the untrained trainer to treat injured players.

"Rugby League regulations now require a Level 1 Sports Trainer Course to be completed by all trainers.

"Without an expert medical eye, injured players who would normally be taken off the field, are allowed to stay on and risk further damage."

Knowles, a former Grange Thistle player, said players themselves could minimise the risk of injury by using the prevention is the best cure theory.

"A few minutes spent warming up before the game instead of during the game is the first preventive step," he said.

"Spend 15 minutes before the game warming up all the muscles in your body from neck to toe, with an emphasis on the thigh, groin, quadriceps and calves muscles.

"Due to the multi-directional facet of the game which requires players to turn quickly in opposing directions, pressure is placed on the body's most vulnerable joints - the knee and ankle. "Injuries to both the ankle and knee rate as soccer's most common sporting injury."

ANKLE INJURIES

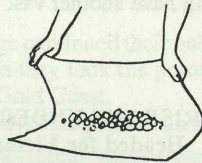

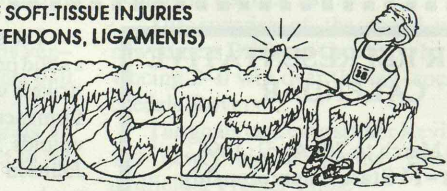

In addition to the prescribed warm-ups, ankle injuries can be reduced through proper taping.

But Mike warns "don't tape the ankle yourself, someone else, preferably a qualified trainer should tape your ankle for you." "If you tape your ankle yourself, you might as well not bother". Use the ICE technique for the treatment of soft-tissue injuries (muscles, tendons and ligaments).

- I - Ice
- C - Compression
- E - Elevation

No. 4: TREATMENT OF SOFT-TISSUE INJURIES — (MUSCLES, TENDONS, LIGAMENTS)

- I - ICE
- C - COMPRESSION
- E - ELEVATION

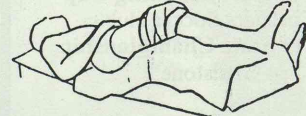

1. Use crushed ice

3. Pack all around injury site. Firmly apply a crepe bandage for compression.

2. Wrap in moist cloth

4. Elevation - Above the level of the heart.

N.B. - Never apply ice directly to the skin.

- Ice may be applied for up to one hour, depending on the injury and the site.
- Exercise (stretch and strengthen) should then follow 'within the limits of pain'.

- 1) Use crushed ice
- 2) Wrap in moist cloth
- 3) Pack around the injury site. Firmly apply a crepe bandage for compression.
- 4) Elevation - Above the level of the heart.

KNEE INJURIES

"The Knee is the worst designed joint in the body. It is also the most difficult to protect and therefore the most susceptible to injury," Knowles said.

"Protecting the knee from injury involves a combination of warm-ups before the game and also weight training between games to build up the thigh muscle and other surrounding protective muscles.

"The traditional measures of taping and bandaging are not effective."

If a knee injury does occur use the ICE technique.

CORKED THIGHS AND PULLED MUSCLES

"Players must also aim to prevent carked thighs and pulled muscles, as a knee-cap strike or accidental kick will always occur during play," Knowles said.

"Do not attempt to massage the injury, do not play on or attempt to apply heat afterwards.

"Stop play and use the ICE technique."

Knowles said continuing to play can cause the bone itself to bruise which will lead to internal bleeding and calcification.

HEAD INJURIES

"Head injuries caused by clash of heads, is a rare but dangerous occurrence," Knowles said.

Identifiable signs of a serious head injury requiring immediate attention include: a loss of consciousness, loss of coordination, uneven dilation of pupils, headache and memory loss.

Do not continue to play, drink or drive home.

Effects of head clashes can lead to internal bleeding and pressure on the brain to areas that control body temperature, breathing and blood pressure.

In extreme cases, head-injured players can fall asleep before lapsing into a coma.

Accreditation of coaches and the provision for qualified trainers is essential to the future of soccer and more importantly to its players.

The Queensland Branch of the Australian Sports Medicine Federation conducts both Level One and Level Two Sports Trainer Courses. Contact Mike Knowles or Christine on 870 4195.

PINE RIVERS COALSTARS

Coach's Comment: Bob Hamilton -
 It was a good result against Brisbane City. The players are displaying confidence needed to win. Every game is a different proposition, but first and foremost we are interested in our own performance on the pitch. We will be treating Coalstars the same as any other team in the competition, with respect.

Coach's Comment: John Ogden -
 This will be a top game. I admire the way Bob Hamilton and his team have been putting it together so far this season. The Miners are going all out for a win over Pine Rivers. We have had a slow pre-season. Our form in the last two fixtures have been encouraging.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE

NORTH QUEENSLAND

I mentioned last week that the N.Q.S.F. had received a big boost to their Warehouse League with ten registered teams.

Several names will feature in this competition which may interest soccer followers Queensland wide.

Tom Walton and Mark Spiegelhaur who graced the State League with their skills in the early 80's are set to do it all over again, even if at a reduced pace! N.Q. had a tradition of veteran players and other T.K.U. stars of the past.

Ian Boyce and Hugh Montgomery still regularly turn out in Ayr. Thankfully, the other end of our spectrum is well served too - the N.Q.S.F. Youth Squad is looking good and will play in the XXXX Easter Carnival. State D.O.C. Bruce Stowell will be visiting the North to "admire" their talents.

Last year the N.Q.S.C.C. undertook an innovative Tour of the U.S.A. and U.K. and we seem already, to be reaping the rewards.

Players such as David Stallan and Lee Sawyer (W.S.C), Scott Dewar and Scott Mason (Mundingburra Olympic), Byron Darker (Burdekin) and Lorenzo Inunciage (Herbert Valley) amongst others, have certainly started the season with a new found playing maturity.

These are of course not our only talented youngsters there are many, lead by Tim James from Ayr (who also toured last year for Australian schoolboys) who has taken the new season by storm. The tour experience seems to be affecting even those who didn't go!

In years to come perhaps some of this young talent will be remembered along with Tom Walton and company, as amongst the best to represent the North (or Australia?). Only time will tell.

KINGAROY

East's and West's will contest two out of three South Burnett Soccer Association knock-out cup finals at Kingaroy in a fortnight following East's narrow 3-2 defeat of 10 tenacious Nanango Blues last Saturday.

West's first and second division sides made sure of a finals berth the previous weekend and East's seconds secured a finals spot without kicking a ball due to the folding of Nanango second division.

East's firsts started like winners following their first round 3-0 defeat of Wondai, but met a never say die Nanango in what turned out to be an extremely tough encounter.

Nanango missed a golden opportunity to score first in the sixth minute when Charlie Schloss was presented with a wide open goal, but he finished off target.

The let off gave East's a chance to settle and they started to work the ball better. It paid dividends in the 20th minute when Dean Padgett slipped a defender and fired a perfect left foot cross to the far post, over Nanango keeper Brendan Evans.

The ball fell for the unmarked Scott Dempster who slotted it into the net.

Nanango, who continually shifted men from defence to attack at break-neck speed to make up their shortage, forced a fingertip save from East's keeper Craig Halliday in the 26th minute.

East's sweeper Chris Druce, was given a four points yellow card 21st birthday present by referee Lee Owen for dissent.

Geoff Walters was able to pierce the East's defence with the ensuing free-kick, but the shot went just wide.

A defensive lapse led to East's second goal when Nanango sweeper Walters failed to control a long ball, giving mercurial striker Wayne Broderick too big a look.

Broderick had no trouble getting the ball past the keeper for a 2-0 East's scoreline. East's scored again two minutes later when a Scott Baartz header found the net.

Nanango, however, had not read East's script and they replied in the 54th minute through a blistering Roy Trace shot.

Shortly after, Trace drove another ball at Halliday who did well to deflect it, but only to the feet of Aemonne Evans who clinically drilled the ball wide of the goal for a 3-2 scoreline.

East's held on to ensure a place in the final against old adversary West's in a repeat of the 1990 Premiership Grand Final.

Scores: East's 3 (Dempster, Broderick, Baartz) def Nanango 2 (Trace, Evans)

South Burnett Soccer Association president Mick North was pleased to announce this week the return of Yarraman into the league.

However he was also disappointed to concurrently announce that Nanango would be unable to field a second division side.

Yarraman's revitalisation will fill the void. "It is important that the second division flourishes in all South Burnett centres as it is the breeding ground for their first division sides," North said.

"The Association hopes the growth in population in the Yarraman-Blackbutt area will ensure the viability of the Yarraman team and results in their rejoining the first division in due course."

SUNSHINE COAST

This year's Wide Bay Management Committee shows good continuity with president Ken Pitcher, secretary Linda Sharma and treasurer Dawn Garven taking up the same positions they held in 1990.

Important dates for Wide Bay during 1991 include the Wide Bay Championships, to be hosted at Gympie on April 27 and 28 and the Wide Bay trials at Maryborough on July 27 and 28.

It was a very creditable performance by the Sunshine Coast Women's Soccer side at the annual Watson Shield carnival earlier this month at Geebung. Six members of the side, Rachel Watson, Anna Minchev, Tina Ensby, Angela Burns, Jodie Stumer and Nicole Smith, have been invited to trial for the Queensland under-19 State Side.

All had stand out performances during the Watson Shield and helped their side through to the Semi-Final of the consolation cup where they were defeated 2-1 by a committed Coalstars team.

Goalscorers over the weekend included Deborah Simpson and Cathy Maxworthy with Trina Elkington making some fine saves at the other end.

Other strong performers came from Helen De Clara and Sandy Sims.

Coach Gordon Wendt is now looking forward to the State Titles in June, where with a little more match practice, the side will be a force to be reckoned with.

* * * * *

The Big news at Buderim so far this year has been the signing of Danny Lobwein from XXXX League Champions Brisbane City.

Whilst Buderim coach Kim Cox is absolutely delighted with his latest acquisition, just where he will use Lobwein in his line-up is not yet clear.

Lobwein played most of last season as stopper for City. Buderim however, have retained the full defence and midfield from last years Championship winning team including the very successful Micky Savage and Dave McKee central defence combination.

Add to that the return of outstanding defender Steve Glover after 12 months overseas and the picture clouds even further.

The loss of strikers Sean De Courcy and Tony Brought to Beegees have left a huge void up front. It might be that Lobwein is pushed up forward to partner Jason Dunn where he can utilise the forces of midfielders Shayne Martin and Garry Blewer, and the powerful shooting skills of young Scott Elliott.

The solid form of several youngsters at the club will also be extremely difficult for Cox to ignore, with Brent Reynolds and the Hutchison brothers Ian and David prominent amongst a host of talented colts.

It would be hard to consider this Buderim side not featuring prominently in a challenge for the Premiership. How successful they are may well depend on their ability to score goals.

They have beat North Star 1-0 and drew with Grange Thistle 0-0 in pre-season clashes so far this year.

It should be remembered that Buderim are unlikely to face many sides in the Coast competition of the calibre of North Star or Grange, and Cox is confident his side is capable of improving on 1990's performance which saw Buderim runners up in the Premiership, then go on to take out the Grand Final. Robbie Glover.

PINE HILLS MATCH REPORT

Division 4: Pine Hills 2 d South Star 1.

Both teams fought ferociously under very hot and dusty conditions with chances created at both ends.

Pine Hills' Mark Harris and John Easley both put in strong first half performances as South Star repeatedly attacked through the middle of the field.

After holding South Star scoreless for the first half, Hills were always a good bet to come home strongly with the aid of a gusty tail wind.

Within minutes of the re-start Hills' Kevin Beeley was brought down in the penalty area and Stuart Purcell converted to give Hills' a 1-0 lead.

The game went through a flat spot with Hills prepared to absorb South Star's long balls that became predictable and unimaginative. Hills broke several times from defence but squandered their chances in front of goal.

Eventually Stuart Harding put Hills 2-0 ahead with a brave challenge on the South Star keeper.

South Star, however, continued to rush forward again through the long ball and were awarded a hotly disputed penalty, which they converted, late in the game.

Play then became scrappy with Hills content to spoil Stars' game through to the final whistle.

Steven McLean and Anthony Beeley also had strong games for Pine Hills.

INTO THE NET

The JUNIOR POINTS TABLE for Brisbane North and Brisbane South will be a feature of your magazine again this year. If you have any Junior Club news (keep it short & sweet), give "Big" Pat McErlean a call at Perry Park on 252 5327. He's a big softie for the juniors.

Congratulations to the DECEPTION BAY CLUB on the quality of their recently installed floodlights - bright as day. This club continues to make steady progress with their ground improvements, and now have 18 junior teams linking in with their seniors. The QSF Management trio inspecting the lights were very impressed. However, two of the inspection team were less than impressed with the navigating ability of number three. He claims a name change for the area from Deception Bay to Deceptive Bay would be in order after several "that-a-way, no, this-a-way" instructions before he eventually got the Commodore pointed in the right direction. New streets, old directory he claims in self defence.

Witty remark from one player to another when discussing the new Queensland Coach.

"What do you think of Juan Cutillas?"

"Tina Turner will tell you."

"Tina Turner?"

"HE'S SIMPLY THE BEST!"

Back on the park after a break of a few years is former Sydney Olympic player David Harris, seen taking the field for Grange Thistle last Friday night in their local second division derby 1-1 draw with newly promoted Lutwyche United. In what was a very entertaining match, it bore out the prediction in this column last year that some of this year's second division games in the shade. Coached again this season by "Mr Positive" himself Iain Fagan, Thistle has shaken off the demotion blues, while Mario Saftich and the boys from Prentice Park are not the least bit overawed with their move up a division.

Talk about quick off the mark! Grange Thistle already have their entry in this year's MISS QUEENSLAND SOCCER QUEST, JUSTINE CREED, willingly at work fund-raising for her Club and the Miss Fund Raiser part of the Quest. As one wit said "Teaming Justine up with Noel Sommerville is like having Beauty and the Beast do your Club raffles," but Wow! can they sell those tickets.

What a performance! Atletico Madrid keeper ABEL RESINO had a record-breaking 1275 minutes of perfect keeping in the 1st division before a goal was scored against him. Just the guy we need for Brisbane United!

Hear tell Brisbane's most eligible soccer bachelor is a young fellow by the name of Matthew who was recently a BIG winner in Lotto. Playing with a lower division team for a Southside club we hear he has invested wisely.

XXXX League top team reserve 'keeper showed he is a big fan of SOCCER 91 when he spent the first half of his team's match last Sunday sitting in the grandstand intently reading the magazine while the play in the rather ordinary game went on right in front of him. Nice to have such confidence in your number one 'keeper.

Would the person or person's who took our Reserve Manager's car from Garden City Thursday night, please return our strip, shorts, socks, shirts and training balls, as it's very hard to play with no BALLS. P.S. and his car.

Newly appointed Queensland coach Juan Cutillas is more than happy to have two assistants on hand to help with the preparation of this year's State side. Juan was heard to say "six eyes are better than two".

Talk about being stung into action! Coalstars Captain Alan McFarlane, who has been mowing lawns to pay the bills of late, had a nasty experience before last weekend's game with Brisbane Lions. Alan, a qualified teacher, was mowing a lawn when he accidentally interrupted a wasps' nest. The angry insects made sure he wouldn't do that again by stinging him 17 times.

EASTERN SUBURBS SOCCER CLUB 10TH ANNIVERSARY

The Eastern Suburbs Tigers are set to roar in 1991 as the club celebrates its 10th anniversary.

They have already started the season in fine fashion winning the lucrative XXXX Pre-season soccer tournament last month.

And they hope to continue that success by adding a premiership flag come September.

To celebrate the club's 10th anniversary, Easts recently held a special presentation evening at their Heath Park den.

The evening also doubled as the pre-season launch and meet the players evening rolled into one.

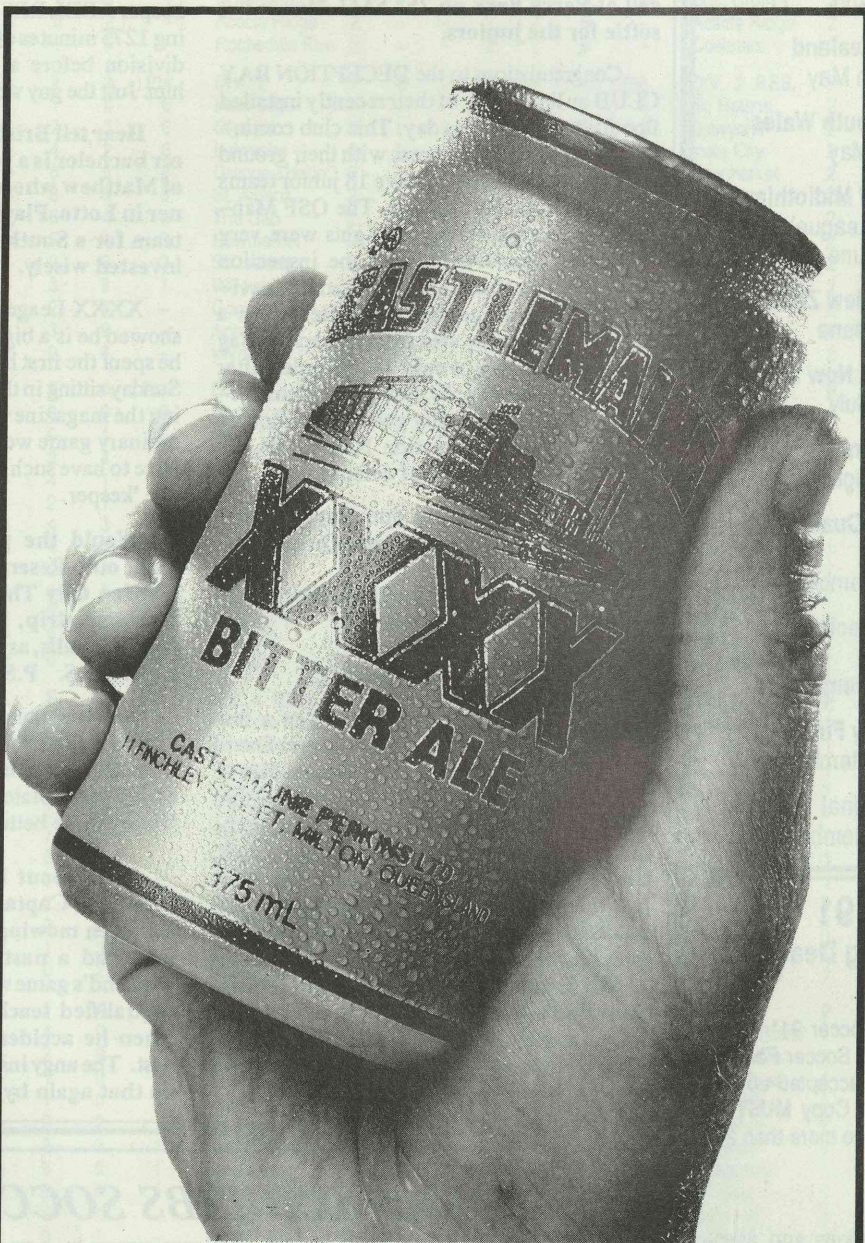

The presentations included Certificates of Appreciation being awarded to the likes of Phil Thompson, Stein Grodum and Billy McDermott.

Thompson, Easts' current XXXX League coach, was awarded for played the most number of games for the club since it came into being.

He has pulled on the beloved Tiger's strip for a total of 154 games in the XXXX League.

Grodum's certificate was for playing 100 games, a milestone he reached last season and McDermott's award was for being the leading goal scorer (a total of 32) in the weekly league matches from 1988 to 1990.
