The appalling response to the sales of QSF's representative season ticket package has raised a number of serious questions.

Most clubs have now returned their allocated tickets, many of which were unsold.

There is no doubting these are hard times, but questions must be asked whether any effort at all was made by clubs to promote this value-for-money package.

There is a large number of people in soccer circles who have indicated they were not aware this particular offer was even available.

Saving

Having looked at the tickets that were returned, one could easily get the impression many of those delivered to clubs had never seen the light of day.

For meagre sum of $60, the ticket package entitled two adults and two children admission to all six of the Maroons' representative matches this season.

It represented a massive "recession busting" saving of $91 on what it would cost an average family (two adults and two children) to attend those games.

The first two representative games have been played and would have cost the average family coming through the turnstiles $44.

With four matches still remaining you don't have to be Einstein to see the true value which many people have passed up.

Sadly there are probably hundreds of supporters who have missed out on the offer because they didn't know about it.

* * * *

Make a note in your diary to attend the next big match at Perry Park, the State-of-Origin clash between Queensland and NSW.

This match between the long-time rivals promises to be a beauty, so come along and support the Maroons.

Following on from Canterbury's successful Brisbane visit, an invitation has been extended to the Queensland team to play a return match in Christchurch later this year.

And Victoria are also keen to stage a reciprocal game against the Maroons.

The Queensland Soccer Federation has obviously re-kindled the interest in representative football.

Already Western Australia, South Australia and the Northern Territory have declared their interest in competing against the Queensland team on an annual basis.

Add to this the main New Zealand provincial teams and we will certainly have some top quality representative soccer lined up for next season's winter program.

Round in Review

Brisbane City recorded their first win, Rochedale Rovers and Brisbane Croatia went on a goal scoring blitz and Eastern Suburbs crashed to a third straight loss in an topsy turvy round of soccer last week.

After threatening to do so for the past few weeks City finally broke their duck last Saturday with a 3-0 victory over North Star at O'Callaghan Park.

Ironically the club sacked its coach Billy Wilkinson during the week and appointed player/captain Martin Jennison to the caretaker role.

It was a dream start to a coaching career for Jennison as his team showed plenty of commitment to roll the previously undefeated Stars.

Goals by young striker Jason Poggi and Jennison and also an own goal gave City the valuable three points.

Stars coach Billy Williamson must be concerned about his team's present form slump following a promising start to the season.

Eastern Suburbs coach Phil Thompson is also searching for answers after his team's 2-0 loss to Brisbane Lions in their Anzac Day fixture at Heath Park. Easts, who were without experienced backman Steve Perry, have fallen in a big hole in recent weeks.

Their match with Lions was an even contest for most part and Easts could feel somewhat unlucky not to have escaped with a draw.

Trailing 1-0 they had a goal disallowed before Lions scored the winner through a blatant handball which the referee and linesman failed to see.

Acacia Ridge will be wishing they had never heard of the clubs Brisbane Croatia and Rochedale Rovers. Both have handed out thrashings to the Ridge in the past two weeks. Last week it was Croatia to the tune of 5-0 and this week Rochedale with a unflattering 7-0 scoreline.

Lee Howells bagged a hat trick with John Stewart and replacement David Bearman each netting twice.

The win keeps Rochedale at the top of the premiership table on goal difference from Croatia, who enjoyed a 5-0 result over Mt Gravatt. Mt Gravatt was right in this match until the second half when Croatia piled on four goals in a matter of minutes.

Stocky striker Joey Stipancic, who is staking his claims for State selection, and Frazier Cuba scored two each and Rado Vidosic also made the scorer's sheet.

Coalstars bounced back from their loss to the Hawks last week to beat Nerang 3-2 on the Gold Coast.

Peter Vogler, Darren Petie and Michael Babic scored for the coalminers with Paul Cockbain and Wade Lunt replying for the hosts. Pine Rivers continued their hot-and-cold form when they trounced Taringa Rovers 4-0 at Jack Speare Park.

Rivers, beaten by Brisbane Lions last week, scored all their goals in an action-packed first half. The scorers were John Schiavo, Noel Carroll, Clayton Koch and Brian Hewitt.

Queensland performance proves acid test for NSL

Queensland showed they could compete in the National Soccer League (NSL) last Sunday in their representative match against Victoria. The Maroons went down 3-2 in an entertaining game played at Perry Park.

With Brisbane United likely to be in a re-structured NSL competition next season, this match was an important test case for both players and spectators.

For the players, many of whom would must consider themselves prospects of playing for Brisbane United, it was a chance to gauge the standard of competition.

For spectators it was a chance to see a different standard of football.

And although the result went against us, we passed both tests with flying colours.

Even Victorian coach Tim White expressed the opinion Queensland would be competitive in the NSL with the addition of three or four quality players to the present squad.

Both teams played an open style of football throughout the match which added to the spectacle.

It was Queensland who drew first blood when speedy young Sean Cranney scored in the 13th minute.

Cranney, making his debut for the Queensland senior side, was able to slam home a ball from close range.

Victoria replied in the 23rd minute when Robert Stoicevski was able to beat the keeper.

Stoicevski, a late inclusion to the Victorian squad, stamped himself as one of the most dangerous players with his probing forays down the left flank.

Victoria scored again soon after half time when impressive striker Andrew Zinni found the back of the net.

And they increased their lead a few minutes later when Zinni's frontline partner Robert Markovac found himself open inside the box.

To their credit Queensland replied in the 64th minute when Cranney bagged his second from a header following a free kick.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

BRISBANE

The first fixture round of women's soccer began last Sunday with a few surprising results.

Brisbane City, perhaps spurred on by their men's amazing win over North Star on Saturday evening, beat Nerang 2-1 to score their first win in first division.

Nerang, suffering the same fate as their men, must have been disappointed in their loss of just one goal.

Coalstars must have been boosted by their men's success also. They had a decisive win 8-1 over first division newcomers Redcliffe.

Eastern Suburbs were convincing winners over newcomers Wynnum, with a resounding 6-0 victory.

Once they have settled down, I'm sure Wynnum will shorten that margin considerably.

Redlands, after being 1-0 down at half time, eventually defeated Annerley 2-1.

Training has begun in earnest for State titles teams.

State coach, Fred Robins has begun working with his squad of Susan Clayton, Helen Browne, Raeanne Dower, Sharon Wass, Stephanie McMahon, Kim Ketter (Redlands), Joanne Millman, Nadia Toffetti, Maree Grant, Angela Van Eyk, Leanne Priestley (Easts), Samantha McKinney-Smith, Justine O'Meara (Annerley), Louise Henney, Wendy Connew, Dawn Millard (Redcliffe), Vanessa Clayton, Lisa Eames (Wynnum); Sarah Bingham (Logan City Kings).

Under Fred's guidance I'm sure these girls will form a team that will contest the State Titles admirably.

Other centres looking to send a team to Brisbane on the long weekend in June are Cairns, Townsville, Sunshine Coast, Mackay, Rockhampton, Gladstone, Toowoomba, Ipswich, Gold Coast and Brisbane Youth.

This year looks like being one of the most exciting State Titles in a long time.

SOUTH BURNETT

Kingaroy showed that they are a team on the improve when they accounted for a very determined and spirited Nanango with a second half goal by Annette Sommerville.

Although understrength again, Nanango looked capable of upsetting Kingaroy and catching them on the break.

But sound cover defence from Kim Lavering saved Kingaroy on numerous occasions.

The problem Kingaroy have is they do not clear their defensive area quick enough and allow the opposition strikers too much space to operate in.

However a feature of their play is that they play the ball to the feet of team mates, something many of the local teams could learn from.

In the other Women's game, Murgon were awarded the two points by courtesy of a Wondai forfeit.

Australian Soccer Federation

MEDIA RELEASE

ASF General Secretary, Alan Vessey, today announced the re-scheduling of the trans Tasman Cup fixture involving Australia and New Zealand.

When making the announcement he cited the cost of obtaining support lighting necessary for the presentation of this International fixture at Perry Park.

"In placing the match at Perry Park, we knew there would be a need to upgrade the lighting and undertook an assessment with ABC Television. What we were not prepared for was the non availability in Brisbane of the required support lighting, which introduced a cost factor that could not be justified given ABC Television's Report confirming the equipment had to be obtained from Sydney" stated Vessey in explaining the reason for the re-scheduling.

Vessey confirmed "It remains the intention of the Australian Soccer Federation to have the Quit Socceros played in centres such as Brisbane.

We have given QSF President, Wal Dann, a commitment to place our National Team in Brisbane for a weekend match, at the first opportunity.

We recognise the need to have a higher profile for our National Team, particularly in centres that historically have little access to such matches".

The match has been re-scheduled for May 15, 7.30 pm at Hindmarsh Stadium, Adelaide.

D.O.C. SEEKS ANSWERS

The articles written in "Soccer 91" regarding the lack of response from Brisbane Clubs in nominating players cannot be left unanswered.

To have only 25 players from Brisbane South and ten from Brisbane North is pathetic.

In fact if it wasn't for the support from Pine Rivers and North Star on the North side I hate to think what players would have attended.

If there is a problem or a reason why clubs have simply ignored, through lack of response the opportunity of nominating players, then let a spokesperson from each club come forward and air the views of his club for future reference.

To deny players the opportunity to represent initially their zone, possibly their State and eventually their country, should not be left to the club, but to the individuals to who it concerns.

The Under-16 State Talent Identification Series was hatched, to bridge the gap between junior and senior soccer at representative level, and was designed purely for development.

All coaches were carefully selected, for having a knowledge of the game as players and as development coaches, so the players are in very good hands.

The opportunity at the end of the series for a selected group of twenty players to travel to Europe in a playing and coaching tour with elite coaches in attendance, is one that I am sure all players would have relished the opportunity of being considered.

In the coming month another opportunity will be given to players, through the same channels, of being nominated by their clubs for selection in the State Under-17 team to attend the National Under-17 Talent Identification Series in Sydney.

The opportunity, of being selected in the National team to participate in the Youth World cup to be held in Australia in 1993 await these players.

Will we still have the same lethargic approach to this team, as for the Brisbane teams.

State Director of Coaching
Bruce Stowell

JUNIORS IN THE LIMELIGHT

BRISBANE NORTH

The representative season is underway for some and completed for others.

Those who were selected into State teams have had their fortunes enhanced but some have been selected on size rather than skill. So what is the point of skill if it's not going to get you selected into the State team.

There is about to be a turnabout in that approach to the game.

Two people wrote about skills in recent times.

Walter De Ste Croix and Barry Davis have made a start on the issue of skills for younger players.

The prime example of skills development in the National League seems to be Paul Okon.

On the local scene Chris Slater shows the skills younger players should look to achieve.

The days when players should be asked to run seven and eight kilometres are hopefully at an end.

However there is always a need for players to have some physical training.

Most Australians are substantially unfit. The fast food syndrome and the television screen has developed a generation of people who need a little more than the usual physical exercise.

Football players, however, are not always in that mould and their fitness has to be tempered with the skills needed to play their game.

This year a number of proposals have been discussed to change the approach to younger players.

Some of the more radical ones are that scoring in all age groups up to under-12 not continue.

Some others are not as radical but are aimed at change not for the sake of change but to highlight skill.

A lot of coaches have a problem selecting players with skills who are smaller in stature than some of their colleagues.

Many players such as Mick Higginbottom and Steve Perry are examples of how wrong those coaches can be with their attitudes.

There is room for both types of players in any team. If selected in a proper manner the two types of players compliment each other.

The skills development of the younger players should be of paramount importance to junior associations wherever they are in this wide country of ours.

There needs to be a better competition in the upper age groups of the code of Soccer so that retention levels are higher.

The commencement of inter Association upper age group competition will assist.

The recruitment in all age groups will increase if there are better competition arrangements in the lower age groups.

This was certainly the view Walter De Ste

Croix was alluding to in some of his writings.

Experiences all around the country indicate that the earlier that players start with some skills training the better players they are likely to be in the long term.

Players who in the early 70's started on the road to skills instead of the some times high level of physical training have proven to be the better players.

They are the players who enjoy their game more and are still fit because they understand the need for fitness, rather than have fitness forced upon them.

Recently a Brisbane coach said to a player that he chose him in his team because of his skills.

That coach taught skills to his players once or twice in three years.

Why do players get tired of being run around a paddock? Ask yourself that question.

How many coaches in your Club treat players like marathon runners with an endless supply of energy?

Perhaps your Annual General Meeting will resolve to place a greater emphasis on skills and skills coaching for the sake of the sport and the future of your club.

NORTH QUEENSLAND

The premiership takes a back seat this weekend as the North Queensland men take on Mackay in two Ampol Cup warm-up games at 7pm Saturday and 11am Sunday.

North Queensland will then finalise their squad and publish it in next week's Soccer 91.

* * * *

There was some interesting results in last week's fixtures. Mundingburra Olympic surrendered their 100 per cent record in a draw with the young Brothers side.

Estates claimed their first win of the season over previously unbeaten Burdekin Parkside. Herbert Valley also achieved their first three pointer at the expense of Polonia.

This feat was also managed by Aitkenvale with a 2-0 win over Heatley and Souths make it two in a row with W.S.C. missing out.

The Premiership Standings now read:

| Team      | P | W | L | D | F  | A  | Pts |
|-----------|---|---|---|---|----|----|-----|
| Olympic   | 4 | 3 | 0 | 1 | 15 | 5  | 10  |

The next round of fixtures on the 11th and 12th May throws up five interesting games which should start to spread out the table.

Brothers play Aitkenvale Utd, Burdekin Parkside take on Mundingburra Olympic, Estates clash with W.S.C., Heatley Warriors play Herbert Valley and Polonia host Souths Wallaroes.

MACKAY

Results of Powers Premier League soccer games played on 27-4-91 at Cremorne. Lions 1 (Burstion) d Sarina 0, Rangers 4 (Carter, Mifsud, Finney, Bogert) d City 0, Magpies 6 (Bentley, Walterback 2, Jarvis, Woods) d Wanderers 3 (Suokallio, Perry, Sargeant).

Points Table: Rangers 4, Lions 4, Magpies 2, City 2, Sarina 0, Wanderers 0

Both Magpies and Rangers were the big winners in last Saturday's Power's Premier League soccer games. Magpies defeated Wanderers 6-3, Rangers defeated City 4-0, whilst in the third game Lions had a narrow win over Sarina 1-0.

Magpies played impressively to down Wanderers with Ian Bertling, Michael Bentley, Andrew Wotherspoon and Alan Jarvis the best.

Wanderers scored first through Peter Suokallio but allowed a quick equaliser to Alan Jarvis and from that stage never looked like winning. For Wanderers Bill Perry and Allen Millican showed glimpses of form.

Rangers were too good for City although City's defence held Rangers to two goals for much of the game. For Rangers Tony Shields, Geoff Icardi and Kim Willis were best whilst goalkeeper Danny McGovern and Trevor Evans never stopped trying for City. Lions looked ordinary in defeating Sarina with Andrew Burstion scoring the lone goal from a defensive lapse.

For Lions Peter Munro was best and for Sarina Scott Lines pulled off some good saves in goal. This weekend there aren't any fixtures as the Mackay side will travel north to play both Townsville and Mt Isa.

These games should give them a solid hit out with the May 18 Ampol Cup game against Brisbane Premier League side Taringa Rovers fast approaching. Coach Danny Beerhalter was pleased with Mackay's 1-0 victory over Rockhampton on Anzac Day.

Striker Willie Carter scored the vital goal against Rockhampton so Mackay could retain the Buxton Cup.

SOUTH BURNETT

Murgon have sounded a warning that any team wishing to take home the trophies this season will have to take the points off the Maroons on the way.

This is almost certainly the best workmanlike Murgon team seen on the park for many years.

Had it not been for poor finishing by Joe Watt and Chris Barford in the first half, Murgon could quite easily have raced to a 3-0 half time lead instead of the actual 0-0 scoreline.

The young Wests team had to work overtime to contain the dangerous midfield combination of Albert Dynevor, Tony Green and Ivan Pedroni. Ten minutes after the break, Murgon took the lead when Ronnie Barford connected with a shot from six metres out. This goal jolted Wests into second gear forcing Murgon keeper, David Ackworth to pull off a couple of good saves.

Just when it looked like the Minor Premiers were about to get back into the game, Murgon broke and, a ball not cleared in a goalmouth scramble by Wests was put away by Dave Knight.

Although Wests threw everything into attack by pushing defenders forward, Murgon were not about to concede anything and thoroughly deserved their 2-0 win.

* * * *

East's can count themselves fortunate to have taken both points in this game. The 10-man Nanango squad did enough to salvage a draw but, lack of numbers to take advantage from the newly introduced interchange rule cost Nanango dearly.

The light blues shocked East's after only five minutes when East's keeper Scott Prendegast fumbled a bad bounce to allow the very dangerous Eamon Evans in for an easy goal.

Nanango's new keeper Chris Hermonne proved to be the difference between the two teams with a string of superb saves.

It wasn't until midway through the second half that East's pulled one back to get on level terms through the efforts of coach Mark Fisher who's work rate was that of two players, 1-1. Nanango had done a good job of containing Hot Shot Wayne Broderick who hardly got a chance to show his talents, thanks to some special attention by Geof Walters.

East's had played catch up football all the match and left it until the last minute to steal the points from a very hardworking Nanango team.

It was the boot of Dino Padgett who made amends for all last week's misses to put away the winner in the dying seconds of the game for a 2-1.

SUNSHINE COAST

Goalkeepers seem to be the flavour of the week with the news that long time Woombye custodian Steven Pitcher has changed camps in a move to Caloundra. Pitcher normally shares Sunshine Coast representative duties with Gavin Henricks, however, it's been the fine form of Woombye's Peter De Blasio that's kept the rep keeper from his spot between the posts and forced the move.

Picher's rep partner Henricks has had similar problems at Maroochy-dore where Lee Allen has been in outstanding form for the light blues.

But it was still something of a shock when Henricks signed for Buderim this week.

It seems that Buderim regular No 1 Marty Barr wants to concentrate his efforts on colts only, and this would have influenced the talented Henricks' decision. Still on keepers, Nambour Reds regular goalie Damien Roache is recovering well after a heavy head knock in an accidental clash with one of his own defenders in a recent colts game.

Roache received 11 stitches for his head wound and is likely to miss several matches with Reds coach Peter Cockran forced to pull on the gloves himself.

* * * *

A big weekend for Sunshine Coast Junior Representative teams when they compete in the Wide Bay Championships being held at Gympie Saturday and Sunday. Coaches: Bob Bound (Under 15), Peter Gee (Under 14), Uwe Waage (Under 13) and Horst Rocker (Under 12) have all been working hard in recent weeks, moulding strong teams.

The weekend holds plenty of promise for the many talented coast lads.

AMPOL CUP

In the new style Ampol Cup Competition for 1991, the 6 county centres will be playing their first match in May, the 12 XXXX Soccer League Clubs in Brisbane having already played their first game. The draw is:

INTO THE NET

Big local derby in Toowoomba this weekend when ST ALBANS are at home to WILLOWBURN. Any softie who says a draw would be a fair result does not know the rivalry between these two teams whose war cry will be "ALL-OR NOTHING AT ALL".

Another second division match were no prisoners will be taken will be the clash between this year's promoted teams from the third division - LUTWYCHE and ANNERLEY. Annerley players could have trouble settling down as they compare Lutwyche's old change rooms with the new U-beaut set now in use.

With both teams "in the red", the third division match down Cleveland way on Saturday night won't be any social occasion. The lads from the Peninsula have no intention of travelling halfway round the world for a game just to go home empty-handed.

After their lively and entertaining 3-2 loss to COALSTARS last weekend, NERANG must feel disappointed that none of their players were selected in the Gold Coast representative team taking part in the IEA Inter-city Series. Don't write off the boys from Glennon Park. Just ask Coalstars' Coach John Ogden who was hoarse, but happy after his team's hard fought win.

At the risk of bursting the bubble, could BRISBANE CROATIA be called the GOAL MACHINE after a scoreline in their favour of 5-nil two weeks in a row. Other teams in the XXXX League could do as well if they were to put hot coals in the boots of their forwards to help them get up front as quickly as Croatia's men do.

Draws a plenty in last weekend's fourth division when four out of six matches ended with teams sharing the points. This is the first round in which any draws were recorded in the fourth Division this year.

One of life's continuing imponderables is why do so few reserve team players stay on after their own match to watch and encourage the top team. Obviously they don't have aspirations above reserve level.

We see him here, we see him there, Steel City's spy is everywhere. Pity the loyalty Queensland Soccer has shown him is not reciprocated. Those in the know think his actions are shocking.

Players are required by Logan City Kings, Division 8 and Under-8's, if interested phone the Secretary on 808 4019 or the Clubhouse on 808 1909.

It is obvious by the list players' name in the XXXX League teams as published in Soccer 91 that some clubs have small regard for spectators (including their own supporters) who can't put a name to a face. The correct name against a number would help enormously.

Thanks must go out to George Merrin, coach of the Queensland under-14 team, for bringing along Brisbane-based players to act as ballboys in the Queensland/Victoria match.
