Congratulations to the Queensland team who played their hearts out to defeat NSW in the State of Origin match last Sunday.

Coach Juan Cutillas deserves the accolades which go to a winning coach and to his coaching staff Joe Gilroy and Gordon Arrowsmith, well done.

The Queensland team still has three representative matches to complete and it would be great to add these scalps to the Maroons 1991 season record.

The Maroons have games scheduled against New Zealand provincial sides Otago on June 29 and Auckland on July 28.

The QSF has also accepted an offer by the Canterbury Football Association for the Queensland team to play a return encounter in Christchurch on Wednesday August 14.

The invitation came from Canterbury FA chairman Colin Huston following Queensland's 2-2 draw with the New Zealand provincial champions on April 19.

Huston said the match would commemorate the re-opening of Canterbury's home ground English Park.

The Ampol Cup fixtures staged last weekend in the country areas produced some very close results.

Three of the matches played had to be decided by penalty shootouts.

I know penalties are part of the decision-making process in this competition, but it is a shocking way of establishing the winner of any soccer match.

Top marks to all the country Federations who have got behind the re-vamped Ampol Cup series.

Already the Brisbane clubs who have travelled out of town have declared the whole project successful on and off the field.

The local club competition is moving into top gear and the way it has unfolded over the past nine weeks indicated there will be no easy matches ahead for any of the XXXX League teams.

Soccer's new television commercial is receiving good reviews from the general public.

The production quality of the commercial is also being endorsed by the experts in the television industry.

Also keep an eye out the next time you are at the cinema because the "Soccer It's Hot" commercial will be making its big screen debut in the next few weeks.

NO BLUES IN MAROONS' MAGIC ORIGIN VICTORY

The left boot of volatile Queensland midfielder Nick Meredith allowed the Maroons to snatch a surprise victory in the State of Origin match against NSW at Perry Park last weekend.

Meredith unleashed two stinging shots from his favourite foot to score both goals in Queensland's 2-0 win over a powerhouse NSW team.

The former Brisbane Lions player, who transferred recently to Newcastle Austral, was the hero of the Queensland team and the horde of supporters who turned out for the match.

Queensland, rank underdogs going into the match, produced a sparkling performance to keep their interstate rivals at bay.

Leading the Maroon brigade were experienced NSL players Alan Hunter, Danny Wright and Steve Jackson who flew from interstate especially for the State of Origin clash.

Hunter and Jackson led by example from the back, while Wright combined with Frank Pimblett in the midfield to win valuable ball for the Queensland forwards.

But it was the committed effort from every Queensland player which paved the way for victory.

As one player was heard to comment after the game "you can't underestimate Queensland's pride - wearing the Maroon jersey means a lot to us guys".

Stuart Woodruffe never looked troubled in goal while his backmen Frank Mengotti, Andrew Stowell, Ibro Cahut, Hunter and Jackson continually repelled the NSW attacking force of Socceroo strikers David Lowe, Greg Brown and Tony Krislovic.

Pimblett, Wright, Meredith and Chris Slater did the job in the midfield while Kieran Cooper, Sean Cranney and replacement Clayton Koch caused the NSW defence plenty of problems.

Queensland's first goal came just before half time from a free kick just outside the 18-yard box.

Pimblett tapped the ball to Meredith who slammed it through a hole in the NSW defensive wall and past diving 'keeper Tony Franken.

NSW's best chance to score in the first half was in the 33rd minute when a soft Krislovic shot inside the six-yard box was cleared off the line by Jackson.

Queensland almost increased their lead just after the break when Koch rounded replacement 'keeper Bob Catlin, only to see his shot hit the upright.

Koch hit the same post again 10 minutes later after being allowed to turn unmarked inside the penalty area.

NSW threw everything at Queensland in the final 15 minutes, but were unable to break down the defence.

Meredith sealed the match result with a powerful shot from 30m out that caught Catlin completely by surprise.

The win, which breaks a three year drought against the Blues, was also a triumph for new Queensland coach Juan Cutillas.

Cutillas, who took over the coaching job from Bruce Stowell in March, was understandably delighted with the result.

Above right: Match winner Nick Meredith who scored both of Queensland's goals. Above: NSW keeper Bob Catlin prepares for another Maroon attack, but the scoreboard tells the story of the day.

Coach: Alan Waller. Manager: Graham Kinsela.

BRISBANE SOUTH

Wet weather has interrupted our fixtures for the first time this season.

All games scheduled at the Redlands Soccer Club grounds on May 18 were called off due to field conditions.

Clairvaux Soccer club also had to cancel two Friday night games on May 17.

These games will be scheduled for a later date.

* * * *

Stewart Holmes, Regional Director of Coaching, has been busy around the super South in recent weeks.

Stewart spent three Friday afternoons doing some coaching skills work with boys from years 5, 6 and 7 at the Loganholme State School.

The boys from grades 5 and 6 will be able to start their 1992 school soccer season off on their newly completed field.

This season, however, the school is pleased to be able to use Tudor Rovers Soccer Club fields for games.

It is hoped many of our Brisbane South soccer juniors will take the opportunity to improve their skills by participating in the 4BC/Cobbity Farm Soccer Clinic in June.

Hopefully all clubs will ensure their players know about the clinic.

Brisbane Southern Districts have advertised for applications for coaches for our 1992 representative teams.

Further inquiries may be directed to The Secretary, Mrs Lorraine Boardman on 209 1228.

It is unfortunate that some schools have not been able to organise teams or games despite the fact they received their fixture information at the end of February.

All schools were given the option of withdrawing from this competition at that time instead of holding us up with round two matches to be completed by Friday May 10th.

MACKAY

The SWQ Zone team to compete in the under-13 State Titles at Gladstone was named on the weekend.

The players are Brett Gutteridge (Lions), Eddie Muirhead, Ryan Downie, Henry Kennell, Scott Trask, Andrew Murdoch, Danny Allen, mark Strang (Magpies), Aaron Beer, Greg Anderson, Samuel Patterson (Wanderers), Trent Dearness (Wests), Andrew Gibbs, Darren Tetley, Adam Philipson, Terry Chauntler (Proserpine).

Coach Rod Legge and manager Darryl Dearness are pleased with their players preparations and are confident that they will do well.

The team was very successful last year being runner-ups in the Gino Paris competition held in Proserpine, only going down in the last minutes of extra time.

The four Proserpine players also compete in the Mackay weekly fixtures with the Rangers Club and are a welcome addition to the team.

Whitsunday players are starting to make their mark in Zone teams.

Proserpine's Tom Perkins competed in the under-14 State Championships over the Easter school holidays in Beenleigh.

This is the third year Tom has competed at this level and is the number one keeper for the Zone team.

Bowen players are just starting with Jeff Richert as their first in the under-12 team to compete in the Gino Paris Championships in Mt Isa in June.

Jeff also competes for Mackay Rangers while Tom plays for Lions. To make the Zone team has been a lot of effort on these players and their parents to travel to Mackay weekly for play and training as well as keeping up commitments for their home club and their school work.

ANNERLEY

Teams from Toowoomba, Gold Coast, Sunshine Coast, Brisbane North and Brisbane South have already nominated for the Annerley Junior Soccer Club's under-7 and under-8 Carnival on Sunday June 2, 1991.

It looks as if the carnival is shaping up to be a huge day, but there are still some vacancies available for teams who wish to enter.

Closing Date May 29 - Phone: Marie Mulligan 848 9863 or Luc Iovenitti 397 1738 for more information.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

BRISBANE

Well done Queensland on their win against New South Wales in the men's annual State of Origin clash.

Well done also to the organisers who made the decision to precede the match with a women's curtain raiser.

Despite the derogatory remarks by some local soccer writers, I'm sure patrons of Perry Park were entertained and surprised by the standard of soccer shown by the Easts and Annerley First Division teams.

The QSF repeatedly speaks of soccer as "The family game - which all can play", and yet we have sports writers and soccer supporters who will not even see a women's game.

We all agree that women's soccer will never be played in exactly the same way as men's soccer. Women are not as physically strong or fast as men - this is a fact of life.

However, women are much more supple than men and consequently, their skills can come to the fore.

I challenge those people who attended and enjoyed the women's curtain raiser to make this fact known to the editor of this magazine.

You all support your men and boys, so don't hide your support of your women's teams.

While on the subject of supporters of women's soccer, the Queensland open women's coach, Fred Robins, and publicity officer and open team manager, Fay Dower, spent last weekend in Queensland's far north.

Women's soccer is booming in the north and has the complete backing of the men's Federations.

Fred held some coaching sessions at Mareeba and Townsville and Fay had several meetings with the Far North Queensland and North Queensland Federation boards.

Women's matches all have referees, all fixtures are organised the same as men and all matches precede mens' games.

All husbands, boyfriends, mothers and fathers attend the games and the "whole family" supports the code.

If we could achieve this same support in Brisbane, our crowds at local games and Perry Park games would increase overnight.

In first division games last weekend, Nerang were surprising winners over Coalstars.

Coalstars, however, were without the services of Michelle Sawyers and Kaylene Janssen who were away for the Australian qualifying World Cup rounds in Sydney.

Wynnum and Brisbane City played a 1-1 draw.

In the battle of the Baysiders, Redcliffe went down to Redlands 5-2.

Midweek, the Queensland Youth team went down to Annerley 1-0 and in the curtain raiser at Perry Park, Easts were 1-0 winners over Annerley.

Fay Dower

SOUTH BURNETT

Wondai women overcame the forfeiting blues of their past two matches to get a full-strength team on the park for their South Burnett Soccer league women's match against Murgon "Royals" last weekend.

The premiers were held by Murgon who conceded only one first half goal, cleverly put away by Lynn Smith on a diagonal run to a Wondai free kick.

Ten Nanangos' "Blues" held out against nine Kingaroy "Elites" last Sunday in a match of two halves for the "Blues" to run out 2-0 winners.

Nanango prolific goalscorer of recent years, Sue Brown, found the net twice in the first half despite a handful of opportunities many of which were stopped by a top keeping display from Kingaroy's Maxine Tessman.

Brown and Paulette Trace ensured Nanango applied heaps of pressure on the "Reds" until the second half when Kingaroy showed they have character.

The "Baldwin Birds" lifted their game to prevent what could have been a rout, took the game up to Nanango, built constructively, forced numerous corners but finished wide and goal less as a result.

They must take a leaf out of Browns finishing book with their second half efforts deserving better.

SUNSHINE COAST

Sunshine Coast's women's representative team, under coach Gordon Wendt, are gearing up for the State Titles to be played in Brisbane over the Queens Birthday Weekend.

The team appears to be a well balanced one with a formidable midfield of Shirley Russell, Anna Minchev and Jodie Stumer and attacking forward line of Debbie Simpson and Cathie Maxworthy.

Susan Temming will keep goal with Rachelle Watson sweeping. Heather Trevan takes on the stopper role and Rosmarie Heath captains the team.

The Coast team has been drawn to play Toowoomba on Saturday and Gold Coast and Rockhampton on Sunday.

They are particularly keen to again take on the Gold Coast team hoping to avenge their two narrow 1-0 losses to them in both their encounters this year, firstly in the Watson Shield and then the Annual Challenge Cup game last month.

The Queensland Women's Youth Titles will be played at the same time and the Sunshine Coast will also be participating in these.

Coach, Jeff Trevan, has put together a very competitive team including two of last year's State under-16 representatives, Kylie Claridge and Christelle Adam.

Also included is Kelly Bishop, the Sunshine Coast's leading goalscorer in 1989 and 1990.

Samantha Hill is the team's keeper and she, Hoanne Forsdike and Susy Ruhuland are expected to play key roles.

Caloundra has established a two point lead in the local fixtures following this weekend's matches after defeating Kawana 2-0. Woombye on 11 points has taken over second spot after their away win over Beegees 2-1 with Kawana still on 10 third.

Beegees remain on 7 points and in fourth position.

PLAYING THE GAME RIGHT with Bruce Stowell

This week we look at holding and turning.

This is physically a demanding practice as well as one which places a high premium on skill.

Holding/turning is very much a matter of quickness and sureness of control allied to confidence and courage.

PREPARATION

Divide the players into even-numbered groups with a minimum of six in each group. The size of the area is not important but should be large enough for the players to make passes of acceptable length. Give half the players in each group different coloured bibs (for later stages of the practice). Only one ball to each group.

PROCEDURE

As shown in the diagram, the formation is a rough circle of players on the outside with the two in the middle. The practice starts by having the ball played into the middle for the two players to compete for possession.

The player who wins the ball tries to keep it by holding it, shielding it, turning with it, and passing it back to players on the outside.

When players on the outside receive a pass from the player in possession they return it directly to the same player.

NOTES

1 This is an extremely tiring practice so make sure that players are not kept too long in the middle.

2 Players on the outside in a practice like this tend to think that they are only there for ornament especially those who have just come out of the middle. But they play a crucial part so encourage them to keep alert and expect the ball all the time. If they slack the vital momentum of the practice is lost.

3 Players should do several stints in the middle but look for ill-matched pairs. Players who are outclassed tend to give up and spoil things for the rest so be prepared to swap pairs around.

VARIATIONS

1 Those in the middle may only pass to players wearing the same colours.

2 Those on the outside pass between themselves to select better angles and alternatives for the return pass to the player in the middle. There is no competition on the outside though as that would lead to a shapeless scramble.

ZONE GAME

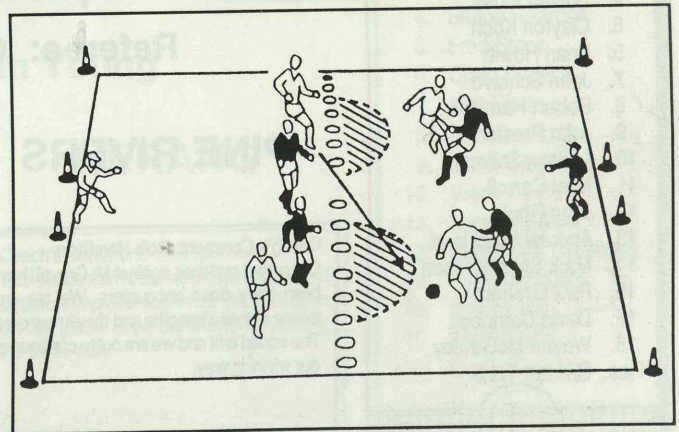

PREPARATION

Mark out an area shown in the diagram (but without shaded parts). The number of players in the game should not be too large as we are looking for one against one situations with the player receiving the ball under pressure from a defender. Half the players are defenders, half attackers. Both are restricted to their own zone.

PROCEDURE

One of the goalkeepers starts the game by distributing to a teammate. The aim of the game is to get the ball into the attacking zone for a striker to receive, turn, and shoot at goal.

The strikers in the attacking zones may not pass to each other. This means that they are forced to turn in order to get in a shot or to play back into the defensive zone for a pass into the attacking zone. There are no offsides in games of this kind.

NOTES

1 Keep an eye on defenders when the ball is in their attacking zone. They tend to relax. Make sure they make themselves available for a return pass from the attacking zone.

2 The shaded areas in the diagram show good positioning by the attackers. They have left an area (shaded) into which they can move to collect the ball and which leaves them a safety margin if their initial control is a bit faulty. The attackers in the other zone are right up to the line so any failure to control the ball will see it back across the line into the defenders' zone.

3 This is a good point to introduce "going & checking". In its simplest form it means attackers move towards their opponents' goal taking opponents with them then quickly move back towards their own goal to make themselves some space in which to receive the ball. It is the sudden move away from the defender which creates the space as the defender is still going in the opposite direction. An attacker who stands still is easy to mark.

VARIATIONS

1 Numbers must not be too large or the opportunities for attackers to practice the skill will be limited. If numbers are large but space permits, mark out more areas and have games taking place simultaneously.

2. An interesting variation is to put in an extra (central) zone to give midfield players some practice. These players play with both sides taking the part of whichever side passes the ball into their zone.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE

FAR NORTH QUEENSLAND

Hello to everyone for the first time this year. We have just hosted Acacia Ridge in the first round of the newly revamped Ampol Cup and are happy to report the enthusiasm of the Soccer Fraternity in our area was mammoth.

Our Far North Team comprising of Srecko Rogina in goal, Colin Junna as Captian, Martin Docherty, Steve Benyon, Brian Schincariol, Jorgen Dissing, Bill Ingledew, Gerry Montagner, Mario DeVecchi, Terry McDonough, Jim Ezzes, Fab Soncin, Stacey Fittock, Tod Strike, Glen Waddingham, performed at an extremely high standard to hold Acacia Ridge to a 1-1 draw at fulltime, before losing the match in a penalty shootout.

Coach Alex Stefanovic said his team was unlucky to loose adding that if only half of the three shots that hit the pole, or three cleared of the line had gone in, it may have been an accurate reflection of the game. Acacia Ridge coach Eric Thompson, in his post match address, stated that our team was a well disciplined, impressive team.

The match itself was a spectators delight, and the excitement was evident by the cheering and general appreciation of the game.

We are all very keen for the next round, against Coalstars on the June 29. Far North have been extremely active as we had a very memorable visit from National Cup Winning team Melita Eagles. It was certainly an experience we will never forget.

From the Women's perspective, Fred Robbins, and Faye Dower visited over the weekend. Fred coached our women whilst Faye communicated to the committee the latest moves within the women's organisation which we here are keen to encompass.

Innisfail United Soccer Club had a gala evening to choose their Miss Soccer Quest entrants. The two beautiful girls to represent Innisfail on July 5, in the Far North Quest, are Shannon Cookruckow and Jenny Hickey. Other Clubs are busy organising their entrants.

Our Women's coach Paul Piccolo is also busy preparing our first ever representative team to contest the State Titles in Brisbane over the Queens Birthday weekend.

Lastly we are looking forward to Bruce Stowell's visit on Tuesday, where he will work with our 17 players.

Far North Qld is certainly active and progressive, making sure "SOCCER IS HOT".

NORTH QUEENSLAND

After the excitement and penalty shoot out drama of last week's Ampol Challenge Cup fixture with Brisbane Croatia, this weekend sees the return of Premiership soccer to the North.

Only 10 points separate teams from top to bottom and there is only one win between second and seventh!

Leaders Mundingburra Olympic take on bottom placed Heatley Warriors and with third placed Brothers (8pts) travelling to sixth placed Burdekin Parkside (7pts) and second placed Souths Wallaroos (9pts) meeting seventh placed Estates (6pts), the Pics could easily extend their lead at the top of the ladder.

A four point lead or more at this stage of the season, with outstanding players such as Lance Vickers and Mal Quattrill set to return from injury in the next four weeks, has already established a formidable barrier from the chasing pack.

Never the less it is early days and soccer is a funny game!

MACKAY

Visiting Brisbane xxxx Soccer League team Taringa Rovers proved too good for the Mackay side last Saturday night winning 3-1. Poor finishing cost the Taringa side even more goals although the stubborn Mackay defence restricted the visiting team. Mackay held out for 57 minutes but then conceded three goals in 12 minutes, two from defensive blunders and the third from bad marking.

All three goals were put away clinically - Steve Glockner lobbing Mackay goalkeeper Troy Kurtz for the first, midfielder Troy Cranney slotting the second into the corner of the net, and Mick Gerritsen hammering in the third from 20 metres.

Mackay netted in injury time when defender Geoff Icardi pushed forward to head home a Tony Shields cross.

The visiting side were a metre quicker on the ball than the home side and also won most tackles and high balls. That the Mackay side held out for so long was a good effort and if they had converted their chances into goals the end result could have been interesting.

The Graham Brown Sports Store players of the game were Mackay sweeper Geoff Icardi and Taringa Rovers striker Steve Glockner. Other players to impress were Mackay goalkeeper Troy Kurtz, and defenders John McGill, Frank Perna and Russell O'Hara.

For Taringa fullbacks Greg Swadling and Mark Hornby impressed. Ampol Cup Result: Taringa Rovers 3 (Steve Glockner, Troy Cranney, Mick Gerritsen) d Mackay 1 (Geoff Icardi).

SOUTH BURNETT

Kingaroy Wests have grabbed top spot on the South Burnett first division soccer league ladder with a close 3-2 win over Nanango last Sunday. Wests have been rebuilding their firsts and seconds this year with an influx of youth.

They are still searching for a cohesive combination from a team of individuals who showed on Sunday they haven't played together often enough this season to establish understanding.

Rex Parsons made a welcome return to slot a goal in each half for Wests. Nanango's settled combination played hard, fast, committed football throughout which put Wests off their game until the dying stages. Wests were sloppy in defence as though their attacking formation would suffice to stop Nanango when they were in possession.

Wondai showed their defensive strength to good effect in protecting a 1-0 goal advantage for 88 minutes of their dour struggle with Murgon at Wondai. Enthusiastic Wondai would just not give up their well-taken second minute advantage.

They scored from a cross which Murgon defender Bevan Rattey could only help onto Wondai's Wayne Hoger.

Hoger clashed with Murgon keeper Joe Watt allowing the ball to fall for the every hungry Alan Wier to slot home.

SUNSHINE COAST

Heritage League leaders Nambour Reds were defeated for the first time this season but retain their position at the top of the table. The Reds had no answer to the determined Kawana attack and were convincingly beaten to the tune of 3-0.

Kawana's first was volleyed in by Voker Pinczel in the 15 minute. They surged further ahead shortly before half time via the boot of Paul Dutton and completed the beating with a well taken goal 10 minutes from time through Peter Watson. Kawana, like so many Coast teams, runs hot and cold. Last week they were whipped 5-0 by Buderim.

Woombye travelled to Noosa and found Alan Sinclair's charges more than a handful. They were comprehensively beaten by the uncompromising Noosa lads who rattled in four goals - a hat trick coming from Ray Procoue and the other from Graham Day.

Woombye's new signing, Scott McInemey, showed glimpses of class but received little support in his forays into Noosa territory. Woombye stand-in keeper, Dave Capper, making his first division debut played well and could not be blamed for any of the Noosa goals.

A determined Caloundra travelled to Glasshouse and can be well pleased with the result, coming home with a well-earned point.

For the bottom team to hold the Beegees to a 1-1 draw on their home territory is, if nothing else, a moral victory.

Beegees went to the lead when Chris Fullerton hammered a free kick around the Caloundra wall and into the net.

Caloundra equalised when Grant Donaldson found the net after Paul Martignango latched on to a bad back pass and pushed it around the keeper for his team mate to score.

Beegees almost broke the deadlock in the first minute of the second half but were foiled by a determined Caloundra keeper.

They threw everything at the Caloundra defence in the second half and one David Payne shot hit the upright. Caloundra fought tenaciously and hung on for a well earned draw.

The scheduled Coolum v Buderim game was called off because of a water logged field and will be rescheduled mid-week.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Sir,

I am writing this letter in reply to Mr John Browett's Letter to the Editor in Soccer 91 (vol. 2, No 10). It leaves no uncertainty in my mind that coaches do not know the laws of the game of soccer football and have no intentions in learning them.

This year I gave a law book to a top coach who annoyed the hell out of me with his comments about the referee's decisions and his coaching from the sidelines.

He again approached me some weeks latter and thanked me for the knowledge he had absorbed from the law book and it is now a pleasure to attend games his team are playing. There is certainly a change in this man's man management.

I would like to point out a few facts to you and other coaches.

1 Law 5 of the referee's chart clearly states in international board decisions section 12; the referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary line.

Law books can be purchased from either senior or junior divisions of the referee's body and I would suggest that you and other coaches who wish to reach a higher standard in coaching purchase one.

2 My idea of a good coach is a person who has a good knowledge of man management. This is a must.

3 Somebody who can get his message across to his players at coaching and training nights and then sit on the bench and watch and enjoy some of the rewards of his hard work.

4 Record all the faults that may occur in the time his team plays and use this for further coaching.

5 Give his team credit from the sideline for a good pass or shot at goal, but not abuse when something goes wrong.

6 All players from the time they start playing must be taught how to trap, head and kick a ball with both feet and run with the ball at their feet. 80 per cent of players around at present can not do any of these things.

Who is to blame, not the referee, but bad coaching from people who only wish to win at all costs by shouting abuse at their own players, the referee or linesmen from the sideline.

Soccer has certainly deteriorated in Queensland at present and this must have come from bad coaching, not refereeing.

All coaches should have to do the same as referees – be a member of a coaching organisation and attend yearly seminars and monthly meetings.

This is the only way soccer will improve because some coaches think they are law unto themselves.

I am sure 50 per cent of referees turn a blind eye to some of the ridiculous comments that they call out to their players and I have been asked many times, when I was refereeing, by players to please stop the coach coaching from the sideline because it is upsetting them.

My parting words to you are do a better job of coaching so that you will not have to be chipped by the referee for coaching from the sideline.

It will certainly improve the standard of refereeing because we will be refereeing a better standard of players and we will once again get more people to follow the game because of the better standard of football.

Des Miles
Former FIFA Referee

Dear Sir,

In regard to your publication SOCCER 91, which my family enjoy reading. Something is missing!

My son would have great delight if you could return the appearance of the Player Profile section you included in last year's issues. As well as the XXXX League perhaps we could see some photos and information on the Queensland and Brisbane United teams.

This information emanates an awe which young players hope to achieve one day and I feel it is a shame if the idea has been discarded.

Hope to be reading Player Profiles soon and perhaps see a group photo of the Queensland team.

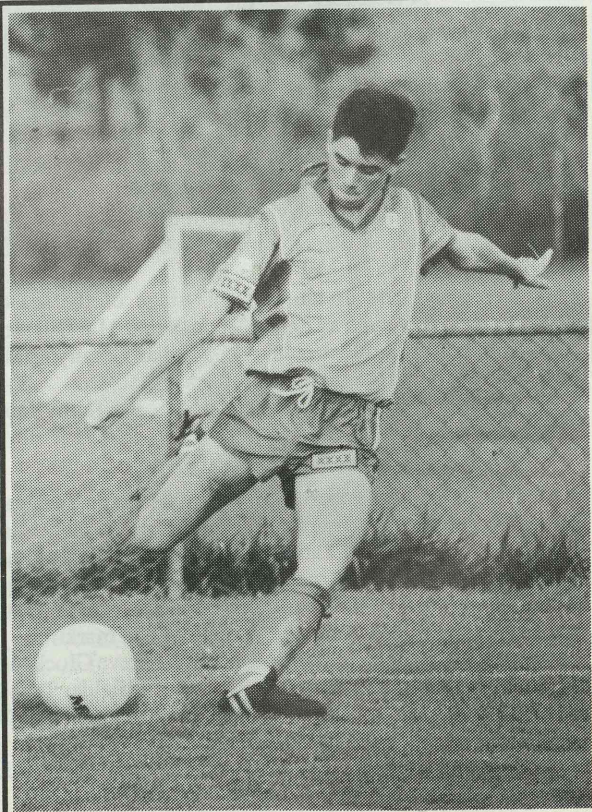

Yours faithfully
Sharyn Doyle

Editors Note.

Thank you for your interest in the player profile section of Soccer 91, it is always nice to have positive and encouraging letters. From week 10 issue of Soccer 91 we have restarted this section.

Refereeing with Des Miles

George Courtney speaks at North Middlesex

The hall was jammed with members and guests for the recent visit of George Courtney, fresh from a game across in Portugal at Sporting Lisbon.

The President's introduction highlighted just how busy the top referees in this country are, for aside from European appointments George had a Barclay's League game at QPR the afternoon after addressing North Middlesex and then was back in the capital three days later for Peter Shilton's testimonial at White Hart Lane. With all these impressive duties there may have been some thought that he had left his roots behind, but these were quickly dispelled when, in his opening remarks, Courtney emphasised he was still a referee who enjoys operating at the local park level of the game. As he said, "It keeps my feet firmly on the ground".

Throughout the evening he discussed points that are very much current.

The first of these was the presence of television cameras and the possible effects on the game via the media's ever increasing technical improvements.

Whilst some referees feel the constantly present spotlight is intrusive George said "I don't mind this because I am of the television generation, I've grown up with TV as a referee."

Yet he did feel that occasionally, like all images, it can give the wrong impression and is becoming an influence on soccer because it could determine what people think.

Like news and other sporting events, television can only focus on one action amongst literally hundreds of others in the same scenario, by editing and mixing images it is possible to link two unconnected events, to make scenes appear a great deal closer together and therefore related when this might not be the case at all.

"Don't, please, always believe what you see." As with refereeing itself the individual should always draw their own conclusions and not be directed by others.

"I establish control by talking to players as the game is going on – not when the game is static; not when the ball is out of play."

George had a positive message for those just starting out as officials – "there is far more pressure on referees than ever before."

In coping with this he outlined his pre-match routine. He said he always preferred to instruct his linesmen out on the park as opposed to in the dressing room.

He felt it offered them a chance to relax in the fresh air but also to gain an insight as to the smell of the crowd, the mood and expectations.

That considered a referee must always officiate the game as they see it in any one moment.

The main struggle for any referee is to gain the respect and recognition of the players but once you have these, once you are seen as an official of a certain calibre you must not fall into the trap of complacency.

The job is a lot easier with that respect, but it is a two way deal.

You must always work hard and remember there is a great deal at stake for the players at all levels of the game. A referee owes it to those players to give his best every time.

If you stick to your decisions, keep your feet on the ground and operate a democracy with your linesmen then problems will be eliminated, or if not, greatly reduced.

One hundred per cent preparation offers a 95 per cent certain chance of getting through 90 minutes without a problem.

Much of the most important work, therefore has to be carried out before the game even starts.

George summed up this theory by saying, "The art is to get people on to your side."

On the question of fitness George explained that he trained at least twice every week with professional athletes and coaches who could assess his relative needs and coach accordingly.

For those not directly involved with league refereeing he explained that there is no structured training in the league system, everything is a result of the individuals personal discipline and commitment.

Instead of a single fitness test, George suggested that there ought to be regular tests, at least every two months, "to cope with the demands of a game that is changing rapidly."

"The game in the football league is at least thirty per cent quicker than it was eight years ago. The only way to keep pace with these changes is to be fit and for that you must train regularly."

"The wonderful thing about operating at all levels of refereeing is the number of friends you make. The most important element of refereeing for me since I started in 1962 is the element of friendship. We have a unique family.

In conclusion he outlined his main ambition, "I'd love to referee the European Cup Final...because we've all got to have ambition.

CONGRATULATIONS to the SOC-CEROOS for their Trans-Tasman Cup win, defeating New Zealand 1-0 in Christchurch and 2-1 in Adelaide.

A week away to the big one in Sydney when Australia plays England in what is looming as a sell-out match. Australia's worst defeat was 0-17 v England in the mud at the Sydney Cricket Ground in 1950. Saturday June 1 should see a narrow win to the green and gold.

Those who braved the damp 'n' dreary conditions last Saturday to take in a Division four match would know of course the reason they played and no other division was to satisfy the Soccer Pools folk.

Some entertaining football with some lighthearted moments thrown in at all matches we hear. The results (obviously to please the Man From The Pools) was four home draws from six games.

WHAT DRAMA! A 20 million dollar star carried off, the English captain injured, and the favourites losing the final through an own goal in extra time. Such was the final of this year's F.A. Cup when Tottenham Hotspur defeated Nottingham Forest 2-1.

Did you know that EDDIE CHARLTON one of the world's finest snooker players, played first grade soccer for 10 years?

Liked the look of DECEPTION BAY in their free-running 2-0 victory against TOOWONG. John Doyle showed he hasn't lost it and will play a key part in many more wins likely to come the Bay's way.

Member of the team which won the NSL Grand Final, member of the FANTASTIC Queensland team which defeated New South Wales 2-0 last Sunday, AND getting married this Saturday - who? DANNY WRIGHT that's who, one of the real gentlemen of our code. Best wishes to Danny and his lovely bride ELEONORA GINARDI.

Truly playing the match of his career, State 'keeper Stuart Woodruffe rates his return to representative football as the high point of his career. With each passing game for the Maroons this season, Stuart has grown in confidence and authority. Still on a high an hour after the State of Origin match, he said he just couldn't wait for the games against Otago and Auckland.

Before a very light crowd at Olympic Park, Melbourne, AUSTRALIA defeated PAPUA NEW GUINEA 4-0 in an Olympic Games Oceania qualifying match. After suffering disappointment of having the Australia/New Zealand Match taken off us, maybe the ASF will give us a day game involving the Socceroos. We may be light on lux but we've got them beat on Sunshine.

Just for the record, SOCCKER BOY was the only member of the tipsters' panel to get it right on the Queensland v New South Wales match.

Another possible printer/footballer with the birth of a son, Joshua Bruce to Bruce and Pauline Atterton-Evans of Latrobe Valley and ABC Printing fame.

NOTE SENT TO SOCCER 91 FROM WILLOWBURN

Congratulations to the Wynnum boys for their sportsmanship on the field and great entertainment after the games. BEWARE! Boys on the return match. Our lads are practising! Thanks.....P. Dorge

VALE

The Queensland Soccer Federation expresses its deepest sympathy to Rockhampton and District Soccer Federation hard working secretary Gwen Fox upon the death of her husband Paul Fox last week.

Paul was a great supporter of soccer in Rockhampton. He was also a long serving member of Bluebirds United Sports Club and was a member of Frenchville Sports Club.
