Editorial

Perry Park echoed to the excitement of 5000 plus parochial supporters who willed the Maroons on to a 1-1 draw in the opening match of the interstate series against New South Wales.

The Perry Park showdown once again proved that Queensland soccer supporters are craving for more Maroon magic.

The success of representative football is well documented in other codes and the case for interstate soccer has now been firmly put.

The good news for Queensland supporters is that there will be a nation-wide interstate series during the 1993 winter. The formula is yet to be finalised but it will definitely mean more games for Queensland and more quality soccer for the followers of the code in this State.

Getting back to this year's interstate clash, there can be no complaints about the Maroons' treatment at Lismore.

The visitors were given a warm reception as they ran on to the park and throughout the match, the local crowd acknowledged any good play by Queensland. We were beaten by the better side on the day.

Congratulations to the Lismore Soccer Association on a well organised fixture.

Special thanks must go to the two GPS teams - Brisbane Boys College and Brisbane State High School - who provided an excellent curtain raiser for the Perry Park encounter.

It was good for all present on Saturday night to have a look at what GPS soccer is all about.

Credit must go to the GPS and TAS soccer masters and coaches who carry out such a very important job for soccer in Queensland.

These people are carrying the torch for soccer in schools which have traditionally been dominated by rugby union.

Keep up the very good work.

A BAD CASE OF THE BLUES

New South Wales brought Queensland's recent dominance to a halt with a decisive 4-1 victory in Lismore, following the 1-1 draw at Perry Park last Saturday night.

Before a large Perry Park crowd, Queensland were desperately unlucky to have to share the points despite having territorial advantage.

Alan Hunter's early goal was cancelled by an alert Zlatko Nasteovski, who capitalised on a wayward Steve Jackson backpass.

Both teams were confident of a result in the return leg in Lismore but the combination of David Seal's ability and Nasteovski's vision proved too much for the gallant Queenslanders.

First-half goals to Jose Iriarte and David Seal had the Blues well-placed but John Koch's goal early in the second half put Queensland back in the match.

However, late goals to Seal and Iriarte put the issue beyond doubt.

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - QUEENSLAND CUP

XXXX LEAGUE

North Star 2 V Brisbane Croatia 2

Half-time 1-2

Scorers:

North Star: G. Archer (pen), N. Seeley

Brisbane Croatia: J. Stipancic, H. Makridakis (pen)

North Star's first goals in four games came as a blessed relief to their long-suffering supporters, who had visions of their team dropping out of the five completely. The creation and taking of goals for the Zillmere club has been a major problem of late. It still hasn't been solved, as evidenced by the scorers in this match. Neither was a recognised striker.

Brisbane Croatia, although aggrieved at letting their half-time lead slip, are still a big show for a top-three position. Wednesday's postponed match against Lions will help determine their future hopes.

QUEENSLAND CUP

Far North Qld 2 V Brisbane City 2.

Brisbane City won 4-2 on penalties.

Half-time 1-1

Scorers:

Far North Qld: G. Waddingham, M. Waddingham (pen)

Brisbane City: M. Battistin, K. Stead

This was a match that very nearly didn't take place (see Into the Net), but take place it did, kicking off at 9.20pm. It was one of three Cup matches played in provincial centres that went to penalties, only in this one, goals were scored in the 90 minutes of play.

Fifteen-year-old Far North keeper, Clint del Santo, again was to the fore, winning his team's "player of the series" award.

Brisbane City went away with their Reserve team keeper Peter Kuiper, as Wayne Evans was performing miracles at Perry Park the same night.

A most satisfying match, with plenty of action plus goals, even if it did put a dent in Far North hopes for further progress in this year's Cup.

North Qld 0 V Mt Gravatt 0.

Mt Gravatt won 4-2 on penalties.

The nil-all end result certainly belied the action that took place at the Murray Complex. Both keepers were kept busy, with many shots hitting the crossbar or going just wide.

North Queensland's Paul Szabo and Dave Pollock were in the thick of things while Mt Gravatt's David Munn was kept out twice by North's keeper Dieter Schultz. Munn again missed narrowly early in the second half.

Former State custodian Stu Woodruffe kept the Brisbane team's hopes alive with numerous saves throughout. He also made the all-important first save in the penalty shoot-out.

A thoroughly entertaining match which neither side deserved to lose.

Rockhampton S.F. 1 V Pine Rivers 1.

Pine Rivers won 8-7

on penalties.

Half-time 0-0

Scorers:

Rockhampton: A. Grohn

Pine Rivers: D. Campbell

In a match that could have gone either way, Rivers almost met their match against a very confident and competent Rockhampton side. Local strikers Andrew Grohn and Gary Banks always looked dangerous but sadly, lacked support. Late replacement into the squad, Tim James, did well in mid-field against a Pine Rivers team that had performed creditably in their fixtures prior to visiting Rockhampton.

The 90-minute result of 1-1 necessitated another penalty shoot-out with misses and saves predominant, the final result tells all.

Bundaberg S.F. 1 V Grange Thistle 4

Half-time 1-1

Scorers:

G. Thistle: D. Docherty 2, A. Sommerville,

D. Harris

Bundaberg: N. Trebbin

Thistle got their best ever start to a match when Anthony Sommerville headed their first goal after only three minutes of play against a hesitant and disoriented Bundaberg representative side. To be fair to the local team, late withdrawals through sickness and injury did not assist their preparation. They called on all their reserves (quite literally) and gave all that they had. The half time score was a fair and just 1-1, after Neil Trebbin headed home the equaliser.

The score-line remained locked until the inevitable effects of the flu epidemic which swept Bundaberg, took hold. Thistle scored three goals in the final 15 minutes. Danny Docherty picked up a brace, and David Harris scoring almost on the final whistle.

Best for the locals were John Capuzzo and 16-year-old Brett Jones, making his debut in the senior team. This was a score-line that possibly did not reflect the true state of the match, but Thistle won't complain. They live to fight another day.

North Star's 'keeper Mirko Runje looking pensive.

Maryborough S.F. 0 V Rochedale Rovers 7

Half-time: 0-2

Scorers: K. Cooper 4, P. Dillon, R. Stewart, (pen) D. Theochari

Lots of goals and lots of action. This was the scene at Federation Park, when the XXXX League leaders met their hosts from Heritage City.

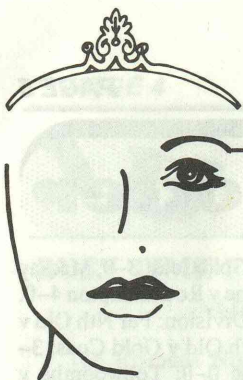

A 2-0 half-time score, including one goal from Paddy Dillon and a Russell Stewart penalty, did not in any way forecast what lay ahead.

Kieran Cooper scored all four of his goals in the second half against a rapidly tiring Maryborough side. Local keeper Paul Johnson was the busiest person on the park, and even though he conceded the penalty, he tried his hardest on the night.

Hopefully Maryborough officials will learn from this match, and continue their involvement in the Cup competition. As newcomers to the Queensland Cup, it would be nice to see them continue in the future.

WORLD CUP SOCCER

The match draw for the 1994 World Cup will be held in Las Vegas in December 1993, FIFA officials said last week.

Although Las Vegas is not one of the sites to host the 24-nation, 52-game tournament, it has made an extravagant bid to host the draw, when the teams will be divided into six groups.

FIFA have currently received a number of proposals both from hotels as well as convention places in the city. Whoever receives the nod to host this world-wide televised draw, it will be a highly spectacular event.

The qualifying draw, in which 136 nations were divided into groups for the preliminary rounds, was held in New York's Maddison Square Garden. The US, in another bid to show that they are fully united behind the conduct of the 1994 World Cup, are endeavouring to spread out the activities over a large number of cities.

The World Cup which will be held in June/July 1994 will be played in a vast number of centres from Boston on the East Coast to San Francisco on the West Coast, with the schedule of games to be announced by FIFA at its next executive meeting in Zurich in June.

In other world news, breakaway republics in Yugoslavia and the former Soviet Union will not be allowed to field separate teams in time to qualify for the 1994 World Cup. FIFA president Joao Havelange said that only those nations granted admission by FIFA for last December's World Cup draw will be eligible to participate in the World Cup finals.

Soccer officials in all the breakaway countries have advised they will apply to field their own teams for the qualifying processes. But this latest statement from FIFA appears to have concluded the matter, for this World Cup at least.

Meanwhile Havelange and a number of other FIFA officials have travelled to South Africa to meet with its leaders. They took in a number of matches in Johannesburg and other towns. It seems quite conclusive that South Africa will be admitted back to FIFA at its annual meeting later this year.

South Africa was expelled from FIFA in 1976 for its laws that legalised apartheid, the separation of races.

The South Africans in anticipation of their re-admission have already scheduled a three-game friendly series against Cameroon in mid-July. The return of South Africa to FIFA will come too late to compete in the 1994 World Cup qualifying matches. However they fully expect to be up and running for all future tournaments.

ROAD TO BARCELONA

As there appears to be no live television coverage of the Australian soccer team at the Olympics, we sincerely hope they get through to the semi-finals where the prospects of a medal should almost force the Seven Network to provide coverage. For all Australia's preliminary matches, we will have to be content with news coverage and highlights on the following day.

With all of the recent publicity about Olympic team captain, Ned Zelic, and the replays on television of his stunning second goal, which soccer supporters will not tire of seeing, spare a thought for the person himself.

Ned was subject to about 30 radio, print and television interviews in the short time he was in Australia, from his arrival back from Holland to his departure with the Socceroos to the Americas.

On the day the Australian soccer team arrived back in Australia from Holland, Zelic was interviewed at the inevitable airport press conference, which included TV, radio, news and sport spot interviews. He then appeared live on Channel Nine's Midday Show, held more interviews mid-afternoon, and yet again appeared live on a national evening variety show. All this was from a mature, young man who has not yet celebrated his 21st birthday.

All the national soccer teams have been wearing the "new" strip which is unique in its patterned appearance. Our successful Olympic soccer team, when travelling to Barcelona, will be decked out in a brand new strip, more widely known by its three stripes on the international scene.

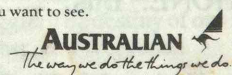

All teams at the Olympic Games come under the domain of the Australian Olympic committee which has contracted an overseas company to outfit all participants in both leisure and competition gear.

The new playing strip will still be in the familiar green and gold, but the design and colour tonings will be new. Another first will be the emblazoning of players' names across the backs of their shirts. This is a first for a FIFA event. So, when we do see the Aussies on the television screen, we will recognise them whichever way they are running.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE

CITY POWER TO VICTORY

Brisbane City had to endure a power failure and a penalty shoot-out, to overcome a spirited Far North Queensland combination in last weekend's Queensland Cup match at Cairns.

As the power failed, and the lights went out over the Leichhardt Soccer Club ground, Far North officials were forced to hurriedly transfer the match to Endeavour Park.

To the credit of officials and a crowd of very patient spectators, the whole operation was carried out smoothly and efficiently.

Margaret Cochrane and her committee catered for everyone's needs very adequately at a moment's notice.

Queensland Soccer Federation official, Guido Canale, was full of praise for the way the whole exercise was organised.

Even though the local side lost the match, the code was a big winner.

FNQ goalkeeper Clint Del Santo was awarded the Raymond Cator's Menswear award as the locals' player of the series.

On the junior scene, the under 13 Zone team have been training hard under coach Peter Zivanic and manager Ken Klarwein for the State Titles in Kingaroy in June.

BEEGEEES CLING TO TOP SPOT

Sunshine Coast pacesetters, Beegees, clung to top spot in the Heritage League Soccer by thrashing Maleny 12-0.

The newcomers had no answer to the relentless Beegees who came forward in droves. Scorers were Shaun DeCourcy (4), Michael Topfer (2), Carlos DeMaine (2), David Payne (2), Peter O'Brien and Peter Eels one each.

Buderim maintained second position when they took the points from Caloundra by winning 2-1. Caloundra took the lead early when Michael Ryder sent a through ball to Matthew Clegg to slam home. But Buderim hit back when the elusive Paul Lees ran wide and pushed the ball goalwards for Scott Elliott to score. Buderim took the lead early in the second half when a cruel deflection beat the keeper, from a Scott Elliott free kick.

Caloundra ran all over Buderim in the latter stages of the game but failed to finish.

In the upset of the weekend, Woombye took the points from Kawana, 3-2, in an entertaining game. Woombye goals came from David Currie (2) and Brad Edwards (1).

Despite being without a couple of key players, Nambour still recorded a comfortable win over Noosa, 3-0.

DIVISIONAL REVIEW

Each week in this column, we will look at the aspiring clubs in all divisions from two to nine, and attempt to analyse their dreams, and their aspirations. We will also look at the teams that are struggling and perhaps even fighting relegation.

Round 11, the halfway point in the season, has just passed and each match played from now on, will be crucial to the hopes of many supporters.

DIVISION 2: At the turnaround of the season, this division could not be tighter at the top, with only one point separating each of the top four teams.

Inala City, perennial bridesmaids, yet leaders of this division for so long this season, were comprehensively beaten by Olympic United 4-1 last weekend. They retain top spot, but now by only one point from near neighbours Acacia Ridge, who themselves would love to get back to the XXXX League. The Ridge struggled last year, but appear to have a more settled side at present.

When these two teams meet in Round 15, not only the Intermediate Cup will be at stake, but quite possibly a promotion spot.

Third-placed Willowburn are having an up-and-down season, and are yet to attain the consistency required to challenge for inclusion in the XXXX League. Coach Juan Cutillas is blending youth with experience and has a large squad to call on. Check their Reserve and Colts teams' placings on their respective tables.

Wynnum, on 22 points, are shadow-boxing yet again with that elusive promotional spot. Consistency appears to be their problem as well, although they have a top Colts team which bodes well for their future. The only other teams that could be considered finals chances are St Helens, Nerang and Olympic United, none of whom are setting the football world on fire. But with 11 games to go, they may yet attain the heights that each has flirted with in past seasons.

For the rest, survival appears to be their main aim. Newly promoted Slacks Creek have a slight edge over The Gap, while Mitchelton and Newmarket may struggle for some weeks yet. For St Albans, four points from 11 games probably tells the story.

DIVISION 5: Two weeks ago, Ipswich City and Goodna were unbeaten when they met in Round 10. Now Ipswich City has a five-point lead on their close rivals. The promotion spot that the lads from Sutton Park have been seeking for some years, may just be theirs in 1992. Goodna, by virtue of their senior side's placing in Division 3, cannot attain promotion from this division. However, pride with the team's status is driving them to at least retain second spot. Third-placed Bayside, somewhat in the shadow of their high-flying neighbours, may

A TALE OF TWO HALVES

A tale of two halves unfolded at Nanango last weekend, when Nanango and Wests fought out a 3-3 draw in a topsy-turvy South Burnett Soccer League first division match.

Wests were two-up at half time, after almost totally demoralising the Nanango Blues.

However, Nanango responded so well to coach Ian Halliday's halftime roasting that they dominated the second half to draw the match.

Scores: Nanango 3 (G McArlen Brown, C Halliday, M Halliday) drew Wests 3 (Andrea, C Forbes, Burns).

At Murgon, the home side mauled Wondai 4-1 after racing to a 3-0 lead at the break.

A display of free running and slick passing produced a first-half hat-trick for Gordon Langton.

Wondai suffered through being drawn out of position and the sheer speed with which Murgon now play their game.

The black and yellows tightened up in the second half to at least share the half 1-1 with the Maroons.

Scores: Murgon 4 (G Langton) def Wondai 1 (Hogar)

just make 1992 their year. They struggled last year, but 1992 is a New Year in all respects.

Western Suburbs also struggled early in the season, and even forfeited a match through a mix-up of dates. Now they are in fourth spot and will trouble all teams they play.

For Inala City, their destiny may well be in the hands of their seniors if injury or suspension catch up. Oxley United, the once-proud club of the 60s and 70s from Division 1, are only now gaining respectability. Toowong, another club struggling for both players and survival, may well be too far off the pace to regain their Division 4 placement. The enigma in this Division without a doubt, is Salisbury, the perennial runners-up who just miss promotion by a whisker each year. They are now struggling for survival and could well drop into Division 6.

For the two Ipswich clubs, Leichhardt Eagles and Dinmore Bushrats, who have almost a century of difference between them in their foundations, this year is going to be one long struggle. The destiny of one could even be resolved when they meet each other next weekend.

Next week: Division 3 and Division 6.

Into the Net

Congratulations to ASF Chairman, John Constantine, on his AM in the Queen's Birthday honours list, for his services to soccer in Australia.

On the local scene, all soccer followers and the community generally will applaud the awarding of an OAM to Mrs Patsy Brusasco. The citation reads: "for services to the community". Those who know Patsy, will realise those few words don't really reflect the vast amount of work she has done in many, many aspects of charity and community work. Congratulations Patsy on finally being recognised.

There is a well-known, young XXXX League player who, when recovering from a broken arm, succeeded in attaining a 40-lap circuit of his football field before participating in limited training activities. This same player, even though he is now fit and participating in full training activities, is still continuing his 40 lap circuits. Actually, he is going for the magic 50. Well done, BJ.

It was a "moving" experience, the Queensland Cup match played last Saturday in Cairns. Early in the evening, prior to the match commencing, a power blackout occurred in the suburbs where Far North Queensland were to play Brisbane City. Electricity authorities advised that it would be a number of hours before power could be restored, so the resourceful FNQ Federation officials moved everything - lock, stock and barrel - to a ground in another part of town. The match (including penalty shoot-out) did not finish until 11.10 pm. Nothing fazes the locals in provincial centres.

At a Division 2 match recently, a prominent XXXX League referee made one of the goalkeepers change his shirt. Nothing unusual you say, except the 'keeper was required to change twice: the first time, because of a clash with the opposition; the second time because of a clash with the referee. Good one, Peter.

Wynnum Winners!

At Maramba Stadium last Monday all four Wynnum teams - Junior Colts, Senior Colts, Division 2 Reserves and Division 2 - won their respective matches. Well done Wolves. Keep up the good work.

Congratulations to the Australian Indoor Soccer team for qualifying for the second FIFA five-a-side Indoor Finals to be held in Fiji later this year. The Oceania qualifying series held at Chandler last weekend saw Australia defeat New Zealand 9-0 and 3-0 and also defeat Vanuatu 8-1 and 8-3.

Big show of officialdom in Brisbane last weekend with ASF Chairman John Constantine and Commissioner Graham Bradley in town together with Australian Futsal Chairman

Charlie Perkins and his Chief Executive Joe Brent. One special guest was Oceania Football confederation President Charlie Dempsey, a New Zealander who considers Australia, and Gold Coast in particular, as his second home. All were here for the Futsal Oceania play-offs, but many attended the Queensland v New South Wales match at Perry Park.

Big promotion last weekend in Emerald, when the locals invited Pine Rivers to travel west after their Saturday night Queensland Cup match against Rockhampton.

The occasion was the opening of their new soccer complex, and the main attraction was a "friendly" against the local Emerald side, featuring guest player Stein Grodum from Eastern Suburbs.

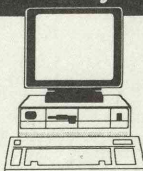

The match went over well with the soccer-mad populace. Former Merton 'keeper Chris Carroll enticed Stein to the North for the occasion, and very successful move it was.

A devoted Brisbane North mother made sure no goals got past her goalkeeper son, during a recent Under 8s game. On one occasion when the ball looked bound for the net, mother rushed on to the field and kicked it away. The goal was saved; the team had a wonderful time; the players and spectators thought it was great and the referee is still looking up the Roo Ball rules. While this was humorous at the time, it is not recommended behaviour. Players and spectators, both young and old, should be kept under control at all times.
