Apology - Last week's cover pic did have a score-board with the result clearly visible. Unfortunately the gremlins at the printers cropped the picture and deleted the score.

QUEENSLAND CUP

Coalstars must overcome in-form Rochedale Rovers to gain a spot in the Queensland Cup Final later this year.

The double-header semi-finals to be played at Perry Park were drawn last week by representatives of the participating clubs.

North Star will meet Eastern Suburbs in the other semi-final.

North Star and Coalstars have both won back-to-back Cup Finals in past seasons, with North Star achieving this feat twice.

The semi-final draw is Wednesday, July 22
at Perry Park

6.30 North Star v Eastern Sub.

8.30 Coalstars v Rochedale Rov.

The Final will be played on Saturday August 8, also at Perry Park

Editorial

The competition doesn't get much tougher than in our own XXXX League.

Just six points separate 10 teams in the first division as teams line up for round 16 of the competition this weekend.

Who will make the final five is anybody's guess at the moment. With six rounds still to be finalised after this weekend's round, you could say any one of 10 teams could be semi-finalists.

It's all nail-biting stuff. Great for spectators as teams must throw caution to the wind and chase the winning three points.

Draws in most cases will not help the final outcome, except to save them from 11th or 12th spot on the table.

At this time of year, one starts to really study the second division points table to see which teams will finish one and two at the end of the competition rounds. The way second division is situated at the moment, any one of seven teams could fill those vital two spots to gain elevation into the XXXX League for 1993. It certainly is interesting.

But we will all have to wait a few more weeks to find the outcome of the first and second division competition.

The Under 16 Talent Identification Series was won last weekend by Brisbane South when they defeated Wide Bay in the Final.

Congratulations to Brisbane South and a big well-done to all teams who participated in the Under 16 Identification Series, another well organised tournament by the Bundaberg committee.

This week's Soccer 92 carries the first sneak preview of some of the entrants in this year's Miss Queensland Soccer Quest.

The final judging will take place at the Greek Club, South Brisbane, on Saturday, August 22. Make your table bookings now at the QSF office on 252 5327.

The Week in Review - Round 15

North Star 5 v Grange Thistle 2
Half-time: 2-1
Scorers: North Star: J. Mc Donagh 2,
N. Seeley 2, D Lobwein
Grange Thistle: A. Sommerville, N. McClure.

This was North Star's biggest win since early May, Jim McDonagh's first full game after a lengthy lay-off, and Noel Lord's first game against his old club.

As far as Thistle are concerned, only one thing was in any way memorable in this game. It was only the fourth time they had scored twice in a match, yet they still lost. This result gives confidence to North Star's run-in to the season's end, while for Thistle the season's end probably can't come quickly enough.

Coalstars 3 v Brisbane City 0
Half-time: 1-0
Scorers: M. Brusasco, B. Eastwell, B. Jefferd.

A rather one-sided match that helped Coalstars to come back into contention for a finals berth, but also probably stated, that which only die-hard City supporters probably didn't want to believe, their team just isn't good enough this year.

With seven matches to go and 10 points the deficit, City will need more than prayers now to retain their status in the XXXX Soccer League. For Coalstars, everything is now finally starting to click into place for coach John Ogden. Mark Brusasco has returned from injury; winger Brendan Eastwell scored his first goal; and the mid-field is now playing with lots of confidence to provide adequate supply for his front-runners.

Eastern Suburbs 0 v Rochedale Rovers 3
Half-time: 0-1
Scorers K. Cooper 2, I. Pedley

The early game of the Perry Park double-header gave Rochedale the chance to put a few average results behind them, and also to make a renewed effort to consolidate themselves at the top. This was achieved against a tigerish display from the Heath Park outfit that sadly missed the mid-field genius of Frank Pimblett.

It was a game that had only one convincing team on the field, a trend that continued later in the night with the second match.

East's were sadly out-classed with few players giving any encouragement to the Tigers' faithful.

Keiran Cooper, again underlines his ability to score, be they made, created, or poached, and he deserves his standing at the top of the XXXX League's leading goal-scorers.

Brisbane Croatia 1 v Mt Gravatt 0
Half-time: 1-0
Scorer: M. Babic

By virtue of this win, albeit a narrow one, Brisbane Croatia now take over pole position.

Mark Babic's first-half strike was enough to ensure that the team that plays percentage football, will ultimately reach their goal.

The team from Rocklea, while continuing to play attractive football where possible, is now scenting success and, when in front, is determined to stay there. Despite a rather torrid second half, the points stayed with the home side.

Meanwhile, Mt Gravatt are continuing to confound both the critics and their supporters and are now, once again, in the lower reaches of the table.

Taringa Rovers 0 v Brisbane Lions 2
Half-Time: 0-0
Scorer G. Maltby 2

The importance of this match was quite marked. Taringa to cement their place at the top, Brisbane Lions to get away from ninth position and back to the top five.

A lightning double from burly striker Geoff Maltby ensured that Lions did, at least, get away from the bottom of the table.

The two goals came within the space of 75 seconds, and ruined Taringa's good defensive record.

It was a result that has not clarified matters at all in the points table, only further confused it.

Lutwyche United 1 v Pine Rivers 1
Half-time: 1-1
Scorers: Lutwyche: S. Rackley,
Pine Rivers: C. Koch.

With Pine Rivers scoring first, there were those who thought the Lutwyche bubble would burst. But fight back they did, to ensure that at half-time, honours on the score-board were even.

Loan player for Lutwyche, Apia's Paul McFadden had a quiet debut, while Pine Rivers' new acquisition Frank Pimblett relished his new role, with lots of youthful and skilful strikers running off him and accepting his precision passes.

This was a result that did nothing for either team's confidence, nor their standing on the ladder. The one point gained was, in reality, two points lost.

Stuart Woodruff, goalkeeper for Mt Gravatt at the Croatian Sports Centre last Sunday.

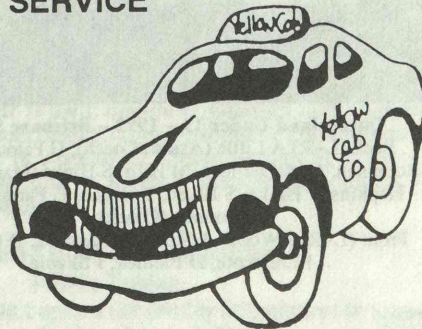

COMMENT

The late flurry of transfers and loans, does nothing for a club's credibility in the public eye, nor does it help their image from within their own supporters' and players' ranks.

New players being acquired and rushed into teams has an unsettling effect, on the player himself, and his team-mates who have to possibly change their style almost overnight. One also has to consider the players who had to stand down. Does this help their confidence and give stability? Or does it just undermine all the good work previously put into a team?

BRISBANE SOUTH TEAMS ACHIEVE GRAND SLAM

Third (L-R) Andrew Kassianos, Masato Fujimori, Steven Oresganin.

Absent: Matt Campion, Danny Britton (Assist Coach)

Brisbane South representative teams are all smiles after sweeping all before them at the State titles. What an achievement! Wins in all age groups. Our Under 12 teams travelled to Southport for the Harry Linning Tournament.

It took until the third game before the South South team settled and the goals started coming. Their most exciting game of the week was their 0-1 loss to SEQ and was the turning point. The boys remained unbeaten for their remaining five games.

The final game for South South required a win to be sure of success, and the players responded well to win 5-0.

UNDER 13

Kingaroy played host to the Under 13 Coca Cola State Talent Identification Championship. The teams were split into two groups of five with Brisbane South joining SEQ, NWQ, Wide Bay and Brisbane North.

Brisbane South's began their campaign with an 11-0 win over NWQ, with Matthew Hilli scoring six. The other games were to become tighter affairs as teams played defensive games in the hope of holding out Brisbane South.

By day four Brisbane South had ended up winners of their group, undefeated and without conceding a goal. In the semi-finals SEQ played CQ with an own goal giving South East a place in the final. Brisbane South's opponents were SWQ, with most of the game being played in SWQ's half.

Good goalkeeping held Brisbane South to a 2-0 win and a place in the final. Going into the final full of confidence, Brisbane South were kept scoreless for 20 minutes until Drew Nethercote opened the scoring. Darren Greer then headed a second goal before half time, and then made it 3-0, 10 minutes into the second half.

Yet again, some outstanding goalkeeping kept Brisbane South from scoring more goals. After the final presentation, the Under 13 State Squad was named with six Brisbane South players being selected. Matthew Hilli, Andrew Steen, Clinton McDermott, Drew Nethercote, Trent Bohan and Stephan Bland made it and a number of others were extremely unlucky to miss out.

UNDER 14

The Under 14 Brisbane South team flew to Cairns and were drawn in Group B with Wide Bay, Nth Qld, Far Nth Qld (host zone) and Nth West Qld. In their first game, Brisbane South defeated North West Queensland 6-0; in the second game, Brisbane South equalised just two minutes before the final whistle against Wide Bay for a 1-1 draw. Then came wins over FNQ 5-2 and NQ 2-0. The semi-final saw them crush SWQ 5-0 and then defeat Brisbane North 2-0 in the final. Brisbane South played extremely well with good ball control, good skill and a fast pace. A determined effort saw eight players chosen for the State squad. Congratulations to Desmond Hughes, Ngoc Bui, Kasey Wehman, Sean Carey, Shannon Fisher, Wade Cannon, Damien Conquest and Alan Gordon.

UNDER 15

On a compact ground at Woombye on the Sunshine Coast, Brisbane South team were able to repeat last year's success. The team won all six games, scoring 17 goals and conceding just two.

Results: FNQ 4-0; SWQ 1-0; NW/Wide Bay 2-0; SEQ 4-0; Semi-final 3-1 against NQ and the final 3-1 against Brisbane North.

BRISBANE NORTH

The representative season has almost drawn to a close. The teams in all age groups did well and each player should be proud of the way they performed.

The Association would like to thank all the players who made themselves available for the Talent Identification Series for their efforts.

Thanks also to parents who assisted in the unenviable task of running players all over the place for training and games. The association, and the Under 16's in particular, thank Ben Hutchins for making himself available to drive the bus to and from Bundaberg, and being the efficient minder of the group in Bundaberg. Ben finished with the Under 13s at Kingaroy, then went almost straight on to Bundaberg.

After each Talent Identification Series there are always a few stories which sadden the heart. Take poor Neil Kinsela, in the Under 16s. In the first match, he challenged for a ball and sat out the remainder of the week with a broken foot. Bad luck Neil.

The advertisement for representative coaches and managers has been placed and a good response is expected.

The fixture season has recommenced and many teams are off and running once more. There will be great interest in the Under 13 and Junior Colts, now that some changes have been made in signings.

A player came back from a trip to unpack his gear and repack for the next week away. Dutiful mother unpacked all the lad's freshly packed gear, hung it up in wardrobes and put it away in drawers. Person came home late expecting to see all his gear in bags on front verandah. Moral of story: always trust your mother to put away your clothes.

Look of the week was on Adam Mortimers' face when he scored a decisive goal. Look changed when ground announcer announced the goal had been scored by Kiely Calleja.

Q.S.S.S.F

The Commonwealth Bank Bill Turner Cup has now reached the stage at which there are seven teams left to contest for final honours on July 18.

Keebra Park State High School, last year's winners, are due to play Shailer Park for a semi-final spot against Redbank Plains SHS.

Brisbane Grammar School will play the winner of Mt Maria and Wavell SHS for a semi-final berth against Pine Rivers SHS.

Thanks to the QSF, Taringa Rovers and Lutwyche United, the Queensland final will be played as a curtain raiser to the double bill of Lutwyche United v Eastern Suburbs at 5pm and Taringa Rovers v Rochedale Rovers at 7pm. The game will kick off at 3pm and players and spectators are encouraged to stay on for the two main games.

SO THAT'S WHAT THEY CALL UNGENTLEMANLY CONDUCT, IS IT?

"If you cannot classify it as anything else, put it down as Ungentlemanly Conduct. It covers a multitude of sins."

Such advice has been offered to many referees over the years with regard to the reasons for issuing cautions.

The term "ungentlemanly conduct" is one known to every player, manager, coach, reporter, spectator ... and referee!

But how many people have ever stopped to think about the meaning of those two words? Presumably they imply behaviour unbecoming a gentleman, and in football terms this surely must suggest that to comply with the Laws of the Game, players should behave as gentlemen. If they did, there would be no need for this article or for this outmoded terminology to grace the pages of the Laws.

The famous words have been there, it seems, far too long.

Collins' New English Dictionary states that a gentleman is a man of good breeding and refined manners. So if we have "ungentlemanly conduct" in football, one or two coaches and managers have a lot to answer for in terms of the so-called breeding. Moreover, the same dictionary tells us that "gentlemanly" means "well-behaved and courteous". Logically, its opposite means "ill-behaved and discourteous".

None of the major dictionaries seems to imply the sort of meaning that most referees put on the term "ungentlemanly conduct", i.e. cheating, not being prepared to accept the spirit of the game and its laws.

Brewer's Dictionary of Phrase and Fable, describes a gentleman as a "man entitled to bear arms but not of the nobility", which is very confusing for us poor referees. We always thought it was ungentlemanly types who would consider arming themselves, even if only with a series of tactics designed to ruffle others! Mind you, we always did accept that football was a game for the ordinary man rather than for the nobility.

Dear old Brewer comes up with another interesting snippet when he talks of "The Old Gentleman", which means the Devil or Old Nick. We are now getting thoroughly involved with words. A secondary meaning of this particular entry is "a special card in a prepared pack used for tricks of cheating". Perhaps after all, this "card" could be the special player in a team (a prepared or coached team) who is given the specific task of cheating.

It is all becoming clearer now to the writer, who, like many of his readers no doubt, realises his gross error of all these years. He has been sending in caution reports about "ungentlemanly conduct" when he should have surely been doing one of two things: either cautioning players for "gentlemanly conduct", or cautioning for "ungentlemanly conduct", all those players who did not cheat or who did not seek to arm themselves!!!

All right, dear Football Association, we referees are not all suddenly going to do an about-face and carry out the suggestions of the last paragraph.

We shall still put the interpretation of cheating/not accepting the spirit of the Laws of the Game on the term "ungentlemanly conduct". But perhaps, when the powers-that-be do rewrite the Laws in more up-to-date phraseology, they will consider using a more appropriate wording than "ungentlemanly conduct", which nowadays doesn't sound half as bad an offence as simple "CHEATING".

U16 TALENT IDENTIFICATION

Eight teams from all over the State have just completed a week-long Identification Series in Bundaberg to enable State Director of Coaching Jim Selby, to view U16 players from around the State, with a view to gauging their progress, as well as assisting his selection for the 1993 National U/16 Championships.

Road to Barcelona

The Australian soccer team has been in Europe just over a week in preparation for their second shot at Olympic glory.

Already they have played two warm-up games, the first against German club Fortuna Dusseldorf, just 24 hours after arriving.

The jet-lagged Aussies went down 0-2, but coach Eddie Thomson was certainly not disheartened with this result, particularly when they played for 70 minutes with only 10 men after Gary Hasler was sent-off. On Saturday, a better prepared Australian team outgunned Kuwait's Olympic Squad 4-2.

This preparation is unlike that of their second Olympic opponents Mexico, who came fourth in a tournament involving three other Olympic qualifiers - Columbia, Poland and Paraguay.

The Cesar Menotti-coached Mexico are not exactly setting the world on fire in their warm-ups, but the real matches may be a very different story. Menotti is a great motivator.

The full Australian team now in Europe preparing for the first Olympic Games match on Monday, July 27 (AEST) is:

N. Zelic	Z. Arambasic	M. Blagojevic
M. Bosnich	S. Corica	J. Filan
J. Gibson	G. Hasler	D. Longo
J. Markovski	B. Maloney	D. Mori
S. Murphy	P. Okon	T. Popovic
S. Refenes	D. Seal	G. Slifkas
C. Veart	A. Vidmar

The only Queenslander in the squad is Steven Corica, who is proud to call the Sunshine State home despite his years at the AIS and Marconi.

Despite some ribbing from his team-mates, Steven insists on being known as a Queenslander.

Many of the track and field athletes in Spain are being given the option to march in the opening ceremony, as the heat and tension of the occasion can take its toll.

The entire soccer team have already made their intentions known. When the opening ceremony commences, they will be there.

Despite the heat and the fact that they play the following day, the Olyroos will be marching. Watch for them on the television.

The title of this column, The Road To Barcelona, is a bit of a misnomer, as far as soccer is concerned.

While a large percentage of the soccer matches will be played in Barcelona, at least two of the centres used are nowhere the Spanish capital.

Zaragoza and Valencia are 250-300km west and south respectively.

Australia plays a qualifying match in two of the three cities. Hopefully the travel arrangements are sound, and their mode of transport is air-conditioned.

World Soccer

Italy

Parma, the Northern Italian town famous for its smallgoods, is doing exceptionally well in the Italian first division since its promotion two seasons ago.

In their first year in Series A, they finished fifth, to qualify in the UEFA Cup. This year, having won the Italian Cup, they will now play in the Cup-winner's Cup competition. Two of their better known players who have helped with this success are Brazilian National goalkeeper, Claudio Taffarel and Swedish striker Thomas Brodin, who has also performed exceedingly well for his country in the European Championships.

Scotland

The future of the Premier League in Scotland appears to be very much up in the air at present, with lots of talk of resignations by the Big 5.

This Big 5, consisting of Rangers, Celtic, Aberdeen, Hearts and Dundee United, is an on-again, off-again situation. These clubs are tired of having the "tail wagging the dog" and are intending to commence a Super League within two years. Time will tell whether this will take place.

England

Justin Fashanu has just signed a two-year contract with Third Division Torquay United as assistant manager. He has coached in North America, and has spent time recently coaching youngsters at Torquay. Fashanu toured Australia in 1979 with the Norwich City side which defeated Queensland 1-0 in Brisbane.

England

Soccer on television is BIG business with the recent $304 million signing of the agreement between the new Premier League, BSkyB and the BBC. In addition, another new contract has just been signed between the satellite television company and the FA to cover England International matches and the FA Cup for the next five years. ITV, having missed out on the lucrative League programme, have signed a contract with Manchester United and Leeds United to cover all their European Cup matches in the new season starting in August.

England

A revolutionary new team strip will be seen in the Premier League next year when Everton play away to teams wearing blue shirts. The Goodison Park Club is adopting as their change strip, a salmon pink shirt with navy stripes. It is said that this is to mark the club's centenary at Goodison Park. One wonders whether the supporters will recognise their own players in the colourful garb.

Europe

Success is definitely not a recipe for longevity of service, if the attitude of two recent prominent clubs is a criteria. Morten Olsen was sacked as coach of Danish club Brondby, despite winning the past two league titles. Bobby Robson also received the same treatment from PSV Eindhoven.

Oceania

The Oceania Football Confederation became the third region to open World Cup qualifying matches last month, with New Zealand's matches against Vanuatu (twice) and Fiji. Australia opens its campaign against Tahiti and the Solomons, with home matches to be played in Brisbane later this year.

Sweden

During the recent Euro '92 Championships in Sweden, a number of national teams had their squads almost entirely foreign-based. The vast majority of top-line players were playing for clubs in the big-money countries such as Spain and Italy. English champions Leeds United had players turning out for three different nations: McAllister (Scotland), Batty (England), Cantona (France).

Divisional Review

DIVISION 2

After a weekend of upsets, oddly enough, the top six positions didn't change, except for a minor goal-difference variation between Inala City and Wynnum. Olympic confounded the critics by demolishing Willowburn at Goodwin Park, which was but sweet revenge for their 0-4 loss in Toowoomba. However, leaders Acacia Ridge met their bogey team Inala City and, you guessed it, suffered only their second defeat of the season, and to the same team. So no change at the top. The bottom, however, is a different story, with proud Mitchelton now in 12th place, exchanging places with St Alban's who are now on a late run to preserve their Second Division status. More dog-fights are predicted with the bottom three teams.

DIVISION 3

The top two, Beenleigh and Souths, as previously predicted, are now pulling away from the pack, and are three results away from any alteration to this status.

The fight for a semi position will continue however, with five clubs slugging it out for two positions. Goodna will know after this Saturday if they really have a claim for a higher position when they entertain Souths United, while Latrobe may also have a say in the leaders' ambitions.

As for relegation, this may well be resolved next weekend when Redcliffe trek out to the Western Suburbs to meet Samford.

DIVISION 4

Vacations and an overcommitment in other areas may well have proved costly to University, when they drew their mid-week fixture against modestly placed Kenmore. This enabled Albany Creek to close to one point. Another slip-up and the Creek will take their chance for the premiership. Both Pine Hills and Clairvaux suffered losses last weekend, which could also prove costly, as they have now lost touch with the leaders and allowed the pack to catch up. This weekend's round of fixtures will, however, go a long way towards clarifying matters.

DIVISION 5

Ipswich City are now only two wins away from the premiership and promotion, with seven rounds of fixtures to go. Goodna's thrust has wavered of late, but Western Suburbs and Bayside are giving everything. Oxley and Toowong may still come good and secure a semi spot. But for the middle pack of four clubs, safety and pride must be their only concerns now. Dinmore already look as if Division 6 is beckoning. Can they prove us wrong?

DIVISION 6

At present any one of three clubs, Slacks Creek, Acacia Ridge and Loganholme are vying for the coveted top spot. Last weekend's postponed match between the 'Ridge and Loganholme will now have a vital bearing and its re-scheduling will undoubtedly cause great interest.

University appear, at present, to have fourth spot tied up. The mid-table pack will probably only change slightly, whilst any two of five at the bottom may well be playing Division 7 next year. For Darra, Albany Creek, Jimboomba, Caboolture and Woodridge, some of whom are only now picking up valuable points, it will be a long end-of-season.

DIVISION 7

The Gap are still five points clear at the top from Bethania, who in turn now have a 12-point buffer before any other team can catch them. It would appear that, barring accidents, Bethania will secure promo-

BUNDY BOYS UNLUCKY

FNQ finished third in the Under 16 Talent Identification Series, but according to coach Aldo Avolio they played well enough to win it.

FNQ remained unbeaten, with the 0-0 draw against the all-conquering Brisbane South the highlight of the week.

Manager Tony Salerno was also full of praise for the team. But it is Tony who deserves the highest commendation for his fine work in his debut as a representative manager.

Congratulations to Darryl Gorogo and Clint Dal Santo on their selection in the State training squad.

This series is a key to retaining talented young players and directing them into senior ranks.

On the weekend, the third round of the Sunshine Cup was played at the Leichhardt Oval. Leichhardt, Stratford and Mareeba will now go on to contest the finals on July 18. The other place went to North Queensland team Mundingburra Olympic.

The third division competition continues to be a valuable part of the code in FNQ. Players compete hard and really enjoy the game.

This division is valuable, for players who are debating whether they want to take up the game seriously, players who are eligible for the youth competition, but due to lack of numbers have a team to play in at least, players from first division who are returning from an injury and need some light game practice, in all a social event.

Where else would you see father and coach, Mario Cortesi, and his two sons Robero, 26, and Etorre, 23, playing in the same competition together. It is truly a pleasure to watch such a match.

We are pleased to welcome a police team in this competition. We wish Paul Priest who is coaching them, an enjoyable association with soccer in the Far North.

They had their first match against Leichhardt Lions on Saturday, with only nine members attending as Saturday night in Cairns is the busiest period for the police.

We will have to have a word to the citizens of Far North, to ease off on Saturdays so as our police can have a leisurely game of soccer.

WANDERERS TIP RANGERS OUT OF TOP POSITION

Two late goals allowed bottom team Sportsco Wanderers to snatch a draw with premiers Kaldura Rangers in Mackay Premier League fixtures last weekend.

With Wanderers still below strength, coach Tony Britton took the field and chimed in with a penalty and a goal in the last 10 minutes to give his side a share of the points.

The drawn result was also enough to topple Rangers from the top position.

Rangers were red hot favourites to notch up a big win against the Reds and were dominant in the first half.

Rangers went to the half-time break with a 2-0 lead with goals to Greg Dow and Peter Bogert.

But Wanderers showed plenty of resolve in the second stanza to force their way back into the match. With about 10 minutes to play, Wanderers were awarded a penalty after a Rangers player handled the ball in the penalty box.

Britton converted the penalty and was on hand with only minutes remaining to force the ball home from a corner to give Wanderers a well-deserved point from the match.

In the other Premier League match on Saturday night, Lions regained top spot on the ladder with an 8-0 thrashing of City.

Lions totally outclassed their opponents with Mark Durelli, Andrew Burston and Josh Comp-ton picking up two goals each.

In Sunday's match at Magpies Sporting Complex, Dempsey's Magpies managed to steal a valuable win from Franklin's Sarina Saints in an eventful match.

For the second week in a row, the black and whites had two players sent off. But this time they managed to hold on for a 3-2 win. Magpies found themselves down a man early in the match when Alan McKerihan was given his marching orders for foul language.

But Magpies still managed to strike first with a goal to Alan Cameron after a good one-two move.

Despite being a man down, Magpies adopted an attacking style of play and had their opponents on

BURDEKIN BURY OLYMPIC'S INTER-CITY CUP HOPES

Burdekin Parkside denied Mundingburra Olympic a place in the Inter-City Sunshine Cup final with a 3-3 draw at Townsville's Murray Complex last weekend.

Although Mundingburra Olympic prevailed 10-9 in a marathon penalty shoot-out, it was not sufficient to qualify them for the final.

Cairns teams were also fighting it out at home for a finals berth.

In the Group 2 game in Cairns, Stratford defeated Edge Hill 3-0, to take No 1 spot and relegate Mundingburra Olympic to second in that group.

Group 1 group leaders, Leichhardt and Mareeba, played a goal-less draw, with Mareeba finally winning 4-3 on penalties. But Leichhardt qualified first with a better goal difference.

Leichhardt will now play Stratford in the final at the Murray Complex on Saturday, July 18.

Mareeba and Mundingburra Olympic will play off the third and fourth places on the same programme.

In the only Premier League game played at the weekend, Aitkenvale defeated Polonia 6-1 at the Murray Complex.

Organisers of Estates' 60th anniversary celebrations are having a busy time.

They have already arranged a bowls day on August 6 and a dinner dance on August 7, both at the South Townsville Bowls Club.

Estates Soccer Club was initiated in the Townsville Railway Workshops in 1932 by the late Crad Evans and Jim Keeler.

Two members of the original committee, Cyril Patterson and Bert Buckley will attend the celebrations as will Graham Evans, the son of the late Crad Evans.

Former players, officials and supporters are asked to contact Roy Lovelady, (077) 798 199 or Warren Crow (077) 722 839 for more information.

DOONVILLA DOIN' GREAT

Doonvilla continued their outstanding form in the Central Queensland League when they defeated Eagles 5-0.

Doonvilla's superiority was very clear and only a lack of concentration prevented a larger margin. Greg Caulley played outstanding football for the Magpies, scoring four blistering goals.

In Maryborough fixtures, a freakish goal by Craig Backer allowed Granville a 1-0 victory over West.

The match was a good spectacle as both sides played good attacking football. Backer's goal in the 25th minute of the first half gave his side the psychological edge and West never fully recovered.

Meanwhile, Tinana continued on their winning way when they defeated Olympians 3-1. Olympians will be very happy about their performance against Tinana the form team of the competition. Steve Brunke was involved with two of the Tinana goals and Mr Consistency - Ray Bedford scored the third.

Doonvilla continued their dreadful form slump when they were defeated 2-1 at Hervey Bay. Villa were on top early when Woods fired the ball past the keeper. Rod Heuser quickly responded by scoring a brilliant goal to level.

Despite being a player down after a send-off, Hervey Bay dominated. Michael Smith eventually capitalised when he beat the the back foot for much of the match. But Sarina made the most of their opportunities to give themselves a chance of taking the points. Sarina hit back with a goal from a close range shot and went to the break on equal terms.

In an incident-packed second half, Sarina hit the lead after goalkeeper Barry Nichols only managed to parry a high ball to Shane Wallace.

Magpies equalised with a goal to Simon Heading and had their second player dismissed when Clark Cocup was also sent from the field for foul language.

With only 10 minutes remaining, Magpies were awarded a penalty after a player was brought down in the box. The shot was converted by Gary Hughes to give Magpies a narrow win.

Late in the match Magpies player Roy Davies was taken to hospital heavily concussed after a collision with a Sarina player.

Second division results: Lions d Rangers 2-0; Wests d Magpies 5-2.

Premier Division: Rangers drew Wanderers 2-2; Lions d City 8-0; Magpies d Sarina 3-2.

WYNNUM WIN AGAIN

Wynnum continued on their winning way last weekend with a 3-1 home result over Newmarket in the Brisbane women's competition.

Coalstars had a very easy win over an understrength Tiwiwarrin 9-0 at Geebung.

Acacia Ridge surrendered a half-time lead to go down 2-1 to Easts. The tightest game of the round was a scoreless draw between Brisbane Lions and Brisbane.

In the final of the Groundwater Under 15 Carnival, Coalstars and Mt Gravatt went to penalty shots before Coalstars emerged victorious (2-1). Congratulations to both teams.

Queensland Juniors

Queensland are set to defend their Australian Junior title in Renmark in South Australia.

The girls have been training and playing hard games under coach Bob White since the State Titles in June and are now ready to take on the rest of the country.

After some intensive training sessions at Perry Park this Tuesday and Wednesday, the team leaves for Renmark, today (Thursday) for the Titles which begin on Sunday.

The girls are managed by Deserie Hardy and sports trainer Alison Baker will be there to tend to any injuries. We wish them good luck and hope they can hang on to that trophy.

WONDAI PIP ARCH-RIVALS

Wondai clung to a single-goal advantage to win a spiteful South Burnett women's encounter at Murgon last weekend.

Three yellow cards were issued, some hair was lost and some players were lucky referee Jason Koy did not see who started the after-match fracas.

As Wondai makes a fightback from an ordinary start to season 1992, skin and hair literally started to fly in this encounter.

Chrissy Geary, playing in the midfield after a long stint in goal this season, added plenty to the Wondai engine room.

At the ninth minute, she almost stole a far-post goal from a curling corner which was saved by Helen Eagleson's perfect positioning on the goal line.

Wondai continued to play enterprising soccer but were forced to repel Murgon by Therese Bolger. In the 15th minute she brought a good save from Wondai keeper Caren Gscheidle.

After a scoreless first half, Wondai took 13 minutes of the second stanza to find the net when Naomi Hockey stretched Murgon down the left wing to fire a cross which Madonna Hay buried past Murgon keeper Sue Steinhardt.

tion again in their second year of affiliation with the QSF. Four other clubs will chase the semi positions with some real strugglers at the other end of the table.

DIVISION 8

Greenbank are staking a strong claim for promotion, in a contest that will continue for a few weeks yet. Leaders Slacks Creek certainly should not be complacent, judging by last week's result, while Wynnum, Clairvaux and Redlands will keep them all honest.

DIVISION 9

The lead has changed yet again between Taringa and North Star, after Rochedale scored a surprising 1-0 win over the team from Zillmere. Browns Plains were crushed by Coalstars, but still retain third placing. With only five rounds left in this Division, places are still up for grabs.

Other scores: Tinana d Olympians 5-0; Granville d West 3-2; Doonville (1) d Hervey Bay (1) 5-1; Sunbury d Heritage City 3-0.

In women's soccer: Tinana (1) d Hervey Bay 1-0; West d Olympians (2) 6-1; and Doonville drew with Olympians (1) 0-0.

WESTS CRUSH MURGON

West celebrated the return of several top players with a comprehensive 3-0 victory over Murgon at home, in last weekend's South Burnett first division fixtures.

West, nearing full strength for the first time in weeks, capitalised on Murgon's lack of depth which resulted in some players having to back up from second division.

Murgon's tenacity held West to one second-half goal, despite a major territorial advantage. Scores: Wests 3 (Baartz 2, own goal) d Murgon 0.

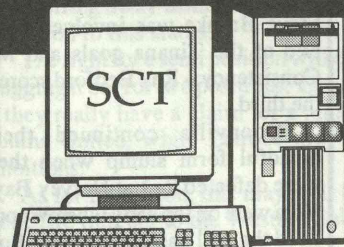

Bottom side Wondai blew a chance for points against league leaders Easts at Kingaroy when beaten 1-0.

Coach Gary Potter said his side played their best possession soccer of the season.

"Yet we blew two dead set chances to goal," Potter lamented.

Easts did not play well, being content to play long balls in the hope Dean Padgett or Wayne Broderick could capitalise. Scores: Easts 1 (Davis) and Wondai 0.

The South Burnett Boars bowed out of the Downs Super League following their 3-1 loss to Dalby at Dalby on Sunday.

Dalby did not win this game. The Boars lost it!

In this must-win match, South Burnett side were all over Dalby for the first half. But the forwards could not find the net until the final minute of the half when Wayne Broderick won and converted a penalty.

Eight minutes into the second half, Dalby captain-coach Peter Hienemann goaled from a missed midfield pass by the Boars, with the defence caught up on the halfway line.

Wienemann repeated the dose five minutes later with a solo goal but was allowed two shots when the first hit a post and spun kindly across goal behind keeper Rod Alford.

Dalby again scored from a good build-up, 26 minutes into the half, as the Boars defence started to feel the effects of the previous day's local fixtures.

Into the Net

Youth certainly helped tip the scales, in Rochedale Rovers' win over Eastern Suburbs. With the Stewart brothers and Paddy Dillon sidelined, Rovers' young Turks seized the moment and made the most of their chances, including a goal by IAN "PEDDLES" PEDLEY. The best incentive for any club's juniors is seeing the home-grown product in the top team.

His arms may have been tired after flying in from Rockhampton for the match, but nifty NICK CONTOUDIOS' legs certainly weren't. He played a vital part in Olympic United's hopeful division two revival, as they defeated Willowburn 6-2. Olympic, who have been on the ropes more times this year than a punch-drunk boxer, gave some heart to their sometimes dazed, often amazed supporters, for a respectable finish to the season.

A dinner date with Miss Coalstars, TAMARA KITCHING, is the go any Friday night at the Coalstars clubhouse. Everyone is welcome, and it's part of Tamara's fundraising efforts. Adults' meals are $5, and children's $3. An additional attraction this Friday is a Funny Money night, while a riotous New Faces night is planned for July 31. Tamara, a very talented player, is enthusiastic in her role as Coalstars' entrant in the Miss Queensland Soccer Quest.

Big wraps on a couple of budding stars of the future as the fans responded to the tireless efforts of former Dinmore Bushrats junior PETER McKENDRICK and the lad from Laidley WES PARK. The pair helped boost Coalstars away from the relegation zone in the XXXX League with their 3-0 win over the luckless Brisbane City who couldn't get the better of keeper GRAHAM ROSS.

A tale of two cities in division five on Saturday when INALA CITY are at home to the might of the undefeated IPSWICH CITY who have put away an incredible 71 goals so far this season. Half way up the straight while most of the opposition aren't even to the home turn, Ipswich City would seemingly not only have to fall in a hole, but have someone with an endloader fill it in on top of them, to prevent the division five silverware going to Sutton Park at season's end.

Grange Thistle have re-scheduled their Scottish Festival for this Sunday at Lanham Park in conjunction with their XXXX League games against visitors Coalstars. This was the gala day that was washed-out in May. Entertainment will include a "Concert on the Village Green", Highland, Irish and Morris dancing with the Queensland Police Pipe Band. A number of stalls, all decked out in a Scottish theme, will sell food, craft, books and white elephants (that's if you want a white elephant). The Colts match will kick off at 10am and Reserves at noon, with the XXXX League starting at 3.30pm. All in all, a gala day.

Last week's par about Jimboomba in Division 6, recording their first win had a profound effect on the players. They won again to make it an unprecedented two in a row. Things will never be the same again at Kurrajong Park.
