A week ago, Australia's Olyroos were struggling, and seemed certain to miss out on a quarter-final berth in the Olympic Tournament.

A 3-1 defeat at the hands of tournament favourites Ghana, and a 1-1 draw with Mexico had left the Olyroos with the task of beating Denmark 3-0 and hoping Ghana would defeat, or at least draw with, Mexico.

Remembering that in their previous match Ghana could only manage a draw against Denmark - the task seemed impossible.

But as we saw when Ned Zelic scored in the last minute against the Netherlands to send the Olyroos to Barcelona, our boys never give up and are ready to achieve the impossible.

A 1-1 draw between Ghana and Mexico gave the Olyroos the inch they needed, and they took a mile, stamping their authority on the tournament with an emphatic 3-0 victory over the Danes.

The win set up a quarter-final showdown with the much fancied Swedes but our boys were again dominant and won the match 2-1.

Victory over Sweden places the Olyroos in the top four Under 23 teams in the world, with their semi-final against Poland being played after Soccer 92 went to print.

Whether they win or not, we can all be proud of their achievements. The ramifications of their showing in Barcelona are immense. Australia has certainly arrived on the International Soccer scene, and the profile of soccer in this country with it.

In the space of 2 years, Australia has finished equal third at the World Youth Championships in Portugal and in the top 4 at Under 23 Level.

This augurs well for the future of soccer in Australia and is a boost in confidence for the Coca-Cola National Soccer League which is producing so many good players.

Australia's goals must now be to succeed at next year's World Youth Cup in Australia and to qualify for the 1994 World Cup in America.

It seems the revival of Australian soccer is well on its way and the sky's the limit.

Round 3 Results

Buderim Div 1 v Buderim Div 1 Res	(3-5pen) 2-2
Souths Utd 3res v Uni of Qld Div 4	(4-2pen) 2-2
Palm Beach Res v Uni of Qld 4res	(3-4pen) 0-0

This popular lower division knock-out Cup competition is now getting close to the business end of its 1992 life.

It commenced in June with 80 nominations, but this week it came down to the last 16 as Round 4 was played.

Already some big guns have fallen by the wayside, with high-fliers from Divisions 3 and 4 now out of contention.

At time of writing, the Gold Coast still had two teams left in Mudgeeraba and Coomera, while the Sunshine Coast's lone survivor was Buderim's Reserve Grade.

Last Wednesday, the three matches played (see above) all went to penalties. It should be noted that here is where one or two of the previously mentioned high-fliers met their fate, including Buderim. By one of those strange quirks of fate the two Buderim teams drew each other in Round 3, and the result is as shown.

With the quarter-finals being played mid-week after the Exhibition is over, it is highly probable one or two more ambitious clubs will be left to cool their heels for yet another year in this competition.

The Week in Review
Round 19

Mt Gravatt 0 V Pine Rivers 0

Finals' aspirations of both sides were dented after their scoreless draw at Dittmer Park, with Rivers probably bemoaning the dropped two points the loudest. A win here would have put them in firm contention for a place, but they will now have to wait another two weeks to know if a certain spot is reserved for them. For Mt Gravatt, this continues the frustrations for coach Barry Guyett. His only consolation is the re-scheduled match this weekend. A win over arch-rivals Grange will put them back in the race.

North Star 3 V Eastern Suburbs 2

Half-time: 1-0

Scorers: North Star: L. Scriggins, P. Mulvey, N. Seeley
Eastern Suburbs: C. Fegan (Pen)
A. Patterson

The Zillmere team appear to have repaired the wheel that fell off earlier, and are now firmly back on the premiership/championship trail. A hard-fought win over the Tigers provided a very welcome three-point boost to their League tally. It also gives some confidence to the team, with Lee Scriggins now also back among the goals, something Stars missed mid-season.

One of Easts' goals came from the spot, and for Chris Fegan this was his first goal since March, a long time between drinks. The other was scored by former State Junior representative Aaron Patterson. But the two goals were not enough for Easts to cement a top-five place. They also will have to wait a while to see if their season will end in August or September.

Brisbane City 1 V Brisbane Lions 1

Half-time 0-1

Scorers: Brisbane City: R. Dameski
Brisbane Lions: J. Lombardo

When fierce rivals such as City and Lions meet, table placings go out the window, in a rivalry that stems back to the start of the National League in the mid-70s. Saturday night was no exception with the better credentialled Lions expected to account for 11th placed City. At half-time this appeared the case with defender Lombardo giving the visitors the lead.

Pride and the previously mentioned rivalry took over and newly promoted reserve grader Bobby Dameski, in a rare first-team outing equalised for City.

One point wasn't enough for the Spencer Park team to keep alive their slim hopes of surviving, and Division 2 is now a certainty. Lions will have to rely on this weekend's postponed fixture to gain some respectability in the table.

Brisbane Croatia 2 V Grange Thistle 0

Half-time 1-0

Scorers: Brisbane Croatia: K. Meacock, H. Makridakis

In the other relegation struggle, Thistle conceded a goal in each half to almost seal their relegation, mathematically they have a chance, but!!

Croatia's leading scorer now goes into double figures, with Harry Makridakis only one behind.

This was the home team's first win for a month and the timing could not have been better with the final run-in to the premiership starting next weekend.

A not entirely convincing performance, but one that coach Frank Liddell can work on for his last three, potentially difficult matches.

Taringa Rovers 2 V Lutwyche Utd 3

Half-time

Scorers: Lutwyche United: D. Bender, L. Cucchi, C. Williams
Taringa Rovers: M. Hornby, S. Glockner

The new chums on the block, Lutwyche, have now caught up to one-time table-toppers Taringa, and have a final five position in their sights.

The ambitious side from Prentice Park took all their chances in a game where the home team seem strangely bereft of strikers who want to score goals. Taringa are now in real danger of dropping out of the five, and with another performance such as this, they probably will.

Coalstars 1 V Rochedale Rovers 1

Half-time 0-0

Scorers: Coalstars: M. Gilbert
Rochedale Rovers: G. Brattan

Coalstars with their Cup semi-final drubbing 10 days ago from Rochedale still fresh in their minds, had done their homework well and policed the threats from the visitors with great discipline. The home side were not helped by the vast number of changes forced on them through injury and other reasons, so a draw here, was almost as good as a win.

Both goals were headers, and both from defenders, although Coalstars' goal from Mark Gilbert, his first for the year, was not exactly a defender's. Gilbert was press-ganged into an attacking role for this game due to injuries to the regular strikers.

Coalstars can still make the five, with one game in hand, while for Rovers, their lead is now down to a single point.

COMMENT

Either teams are getting more disciplined with their opposition strikers, or defenders are attacking more.

No less than 5 goals came from defenders in a weekend where most of the more acknowledged strikers were kept strangely quiet.

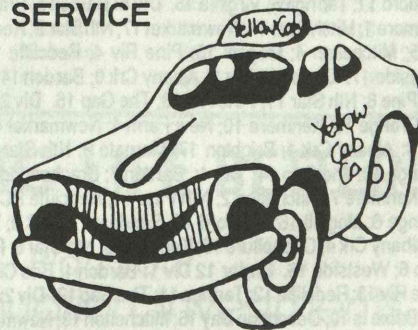

Is this a ploy to lull teams into a false sense of security prior to Finals' time?

Or have all coaches, finally, worked out how to negate the strike-force in the XXXX League?

No matter who scores, it makes for interesting match-watching and for interesting reading on Monday.

BRISBANE NORTH ON SHOW

The most important item on the agenda this week is the manning of the Exhibition stand. Please make sure the stand is properly attended. Your help is needed and will make a large contribution to soccer's future.

Representative coaches are on the lookout for talent. If players from your club are rep material, please make sure that their names are brought to the attention of the BN and D secretary.

Even though Regional Director of Coaching Mike Mulvey is down, he is not out. Mike is readily available on the telephone. If you have coaching course inquiries this is a marvellous time to have them all answered.

Harry English advised of a new referees course at the end of the season. It might be a good idea for some to attend. Some frequent attendees at Brisbane City could do with a course perhaps.

Some players should have a good read of the Laws regarding shin guards. The reading may not go astray with some senior players as well. Shin guards that cover half or less than half of the lower leg should be re-considered. Have a look at your players and make sure that they are properly protected.

The Annual General Meeting is on its way once more. Nomination forms should be in the mail soon. Have a think about your position with the Association and consider if you want to make a contribution as a Member of the Committee.

CAPALABA TO CROWN 20 YEARS OF ACHIEVEMENT

One of Brisbane South's shining lights, Capalaba Soccer and Recreation Club, will notch a major milestone on Saturday, when it celebrates 20 years of progress.

The club kicked off in 1972 with just four teams. Now 48 sides line up for competition each week, including a remarkable number of youngsters who make this the biggest junior club in Queensland, and the women's team which was formed in 1978.

Capalaba has produced many junior representative players, some of whom have gone on to play in the XXXX League.

The success of the juniors has put pressure on the senior teams to perform.

Capalaba is fighting hard to overcome its biggest disappointment, of dropping out of Second Division, and the seniors plan to be playing XXXX League within four years.

The forward-looking approach of the club was emphasised by the installation of high-quality lights, which was one of the biggest projects of this 20th year.

The clubhouse extensions will be officially opened on Saturday.

With strong support from Redland Shire Council, two of the main fields will be re-developed under a three-year program.

The new facilities are a far cry from the days when a truck-mounted generator provided power for the drinks fridge in a tin shed.

JUNIOR SOCCER

Neil Pascoe (left) has been playing with Capalaba Club since he was 6 years old. Now 25, he is still playing with their Senior 3rd Division side.

BJSDSA raffle result: First, paint (retail value $500) donated by Dulux Australia, C Hislop, 32 Wilfred St, Lota. Ticket No 0279.

Second, $200 voucher at K-Mart, G Millwood, 32 O'Grady St, Upper Mt Gravatt. Ticket No 1054.

With just a few fixtures remaining in the 1992 season, there are some very tight struggles for premierships honours.

Sunday is the replay day for July 18 (fixture 13) wet-weather games. Most games in Under 10 to Under 14 should then be played. Good luck to those Under 11 teams competing in the referees' carnival on Sunday at Mitchelton.

Women's Soccer

With only two games remaining in Division 1 and one each in Divisions 4 and 5, the final four positions in each division are decided. The remaining games will not alter the semi-finalists.

Coalstars' 3-0 win over Brisbane City last weekend cemented the premiership for them. City will finish third with Easts (second) and Acacia Ridge making up the final four.

In Division 2, Brisbane City are premiers with Souths United runners-up, North Star third and Coalstars rounding out the top four.

Capalaba are premiers in Division 3 with Queensland University runners-up and Mount Gravatt and Beenleigh, finishing third and fourth respectively. Kingsridge finished top in Division 4 with Darra not far behind. Slacks Creek ran third and Newmarket fourth.

In Division 5, Olympic were strong winners followed by Goodna, Mt Gravatt and Rochedale. Mount Gravatt are premiers in the Under 15 competition with Brighton runners-up. Deception Bay (2) in third place were followed by Coalstars.

Mt Gravatt and Coalstars both have three teams competing in semi-finals next weekend so their supporters will be out in force, at Atlanta Field, Geebung. Times for semi-finals for Divisions 1, 2, 3 and 4 are listed below. Division 5 and Under 15 semi-finals will be played with preliminary finals on August 16.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, the Youth Squad will go through final training sessions with State Director of Coaching, Jim Selby and Youth coach, Guenter Pfuhl, for final selection in the Youth Team to travel to Hobart on September 3 for the National Titles. Nine girls will travel from the country areas, while several from the Gold Coast, Ipswich and Toowoomba will join the Brisbane players for some final sessions before the team is announced on Friday.

Women's Soccer Queensland will host its Player of the Year function at the Pacific Gold Club at Carina on Friday, August 14. Twelve nominees from Division 1 will be selected and the winner will come from one of these players. In the other divisions, two players will be nominated as most consistent and one player from each division will be chosen out of these two. It should be a good night with some of our most consistent players being recognised for their efforts.

KAWANA BOUNCE BACK

Kawana returned to top form when they outplayed Beegees to win 3-0 in Sunshine Coast women's fixtures last weekend.

Kawana took the lead after 10 minutes when Glenda Cobby netted from close range. Kelly Bishop put them further in front when she slammed home a 20-metre shot. They scored their third just before half-time when Cobby sent a long ball through for Kelly Bishop to push past the keeper. Beegees lifted their game after the break and kept Kawana at bay with some strong tackling by Sue Milburn and Susy Ruhland. Lee Nash and Mandy Robinson played well in the Kawana defence while Belinda Cashion played well up front.

Caloundra struggled to take the points from a determined Buderim, 2-0; and Coolum scraped in against a much improved Caboolture, 1-0.

What a marvellous effort by the Aussies in their quarter-final clash with Sweden.

Two stunning goals, the first an absolute cracker, were enough to take the team into medal contention against Poland in the semi-finals on Thursday morning (AEST).

Under enormous pressure throughout the second half, the Aussies soaked it all up and despite conceding an early goal, held out a very committed Swedish team. For the record, all soccer results in the Barcelona Olympics to date are:

Australia had the advantage of playing their quarter-final in the Nou Camp Stadium in Barcelona, where all their remaining matches will take place. This gives them the chance to acquaint themselves with the over-powering aura of a 120,000-seat stadium, the playing surface, crowd, lights etc.

The final matches are as follows:
Thursday morning AEST semi-final at Nou Camp Stadium
Saturday morning AEST 3rd v 4th play-off at Nou Camp Stadium
Sunday morning AEST final at Nou Camp Stadium

All soccer supporters are urged to get behind their team and send a facsimile message. Address it too:

Divisional Review

With the tightness of the competition for promotion and top five placings in Division 2, it's unfortunate that this division has been given media coverage of late, for the wrong reasons.

Surely all players and teams aims are to win, and to secure promotion to a higher grade.

Unfortunately some of the gloss of this remarkable division has been removed by these comments of late.

DIVISION 2

Inala City have again secured first place in this Division, with the Ridge dropping two points to 9th placed The Gap, to drop to 3rd. Did the newspaper article have an effect on the players, or did The Gap play well?

St Helens now take over 2nd position, with Wynnum and Willowburn, 4th and 5th respectively. Nerang have slipped back and may now battle to make the five. Relegation is now a certainty for Mitchelton with Newmarket looking very precarious.

St Albans, seemingly against the odds, look to have secured their place in Division 2 for yet another year. All eyes this weekend will undoubtedly be on the postponed Ridge v Willowburn match at Proud Field. Can Ridge do justice to the name of their ground?

DIVISION 3

Beenleigh's lead over Souths has been cut to 4 points with their scoreless draw to third placed Goodna. Beenleigh have guaranteed promotion, with Souths likely to follow after this weekend's game with Capalaba.

Semi-placings are still very much up for grabs, with Goodna, Logan City Kings and Annerley all on 32 points and South Star knocking on the door. Don't forget Latrobe Valley's two catch-up games in the next six days!

At the bottom, Redcliffe may stave off relegation after last week's result. Samford look in trouble, with Darra also struggling.

DIVISION 4

University now have a four point lead over Albany Creek, with the rails run by Pine Hills now causing concern to the Creek. Moggill (4th) may not hold this position for long as Clairvaux, erratic though they are, have an extra game to play this weekend.

For poor Southside Eagles, they don't know what to do. When they win, so do North Pine, and last weekend's results did them no good at all. The second relegation issue looks set to continue for at least another two weeks.

DIVISION 5

Ipswich City having already secured promotion, now want the Premiership, and the night this magazine is distributed, is the time this factor could be determined, as their local derby match against Leichhardt will be played, and all could be revealed.

Semi placings continue to confuse, Wests (38), Oxley (34), and to a lesser degree Bay-side and Toowong are all contenders. Toowong also have one to play.

At the bottom, Capalaba confounded the critics and defeated mid-table Inala. Celebrations are still continuing, this being their first win of the year. Dinmore now look out of it, although pride could still keep them there, if they win all remaining matches.

DIVISION 6

This table will straighten itself out after the weekend with all five postponed matches then having been played. At present Slacks Creek have a four point drop on the Ridge (2 to play) with Loganholme suffering a crucial defeat to 4th placed University last week. Semi-Final placings are too clouded at present, but by 4:45pm this Sunday, the picture will become clearer.

DIVISION 7

The Gap continue with their 100% record and have successfully seen off second placed Bethania, to give them a 5 point lead with a potential 8 point lead on Sunday beckoning. With only three matches to play after that - will they retain their 100%? Bethania will be the other promoted side with Mitchelton, Ipswich and possibly Salisbury, the other contenders for a Semi-Final berth.

DIVISION 8

Greenbank are giving the Premiership a big push and are keeping the lads from Slacks Creek from falling asleep. Three points separate Clairvaux, and with one extra to play, they could cause problems to both Greenbank and Wynnum. Redlands are still in with a chance and their postponed match this weekend, if won, will improve their prospects.

MAGPIES CONSOLIDATE THIRD

Dempsey Magpies consolidated third position on the Mackay Premier League with a 2-0 win over Sportsco Wanderers at Barbour Park, last weekend.

Magpies led 1-0 for much of the match, after striker Russell Dovey scored early, but the result was not sealed until the second goal was netted just before the final whistle.

The match was only five minutes old when Dovey snuck behind the Wanderers defence to score a soft goal.

With only minutes remaining, Dovey again latched on to a ball to slot it away and give his side the valuable two points.

The other two Premier League clashes resulted in easy wins for top teams Kaldura Rangers and Lions. Rangers thumped City 10-1 at Cremorne while Lions came away from their match at Sarina with a 3-0 win.

The Rangers/City clash was all one-way traffic from the opening minutes when Peter Powell ran at the defence and bagged the first of a hat-trick of goals.

Rangers were without striker Trevor Evans but did not lack any firepower up front, switching Geoff Icardi to the forward line.

Rangers completely dominated the first half and a well-hit shot from 30 metres by Dave Lang five minutes from the break gave them a 5-0 lead.

City's cause was not helped any when John Struik was sent off seconds before half-time for a vicious tackle.

The big score was enough for Rangers to reclaim top spot over Lions at the top of the table, with a superior goal difference.

HAT-TRICK SINKS CALOUNDRA

A hat-trick by Beegees' striker David Payne lifted his team to victory and sent Caloundra tumbling out of the Sunshine Coast top four, last weekend.

Payne was the dominant force in Beegees' comprehensive 3-0 win.

He scored from close range after 15 minutes and netted again in the 35th minute. Caloundra's revamped defence looked better in the second half and held their own until shortly before full-time when Payne was left unmarked to complete his treble.

Maleny put up a spirited display in holding Maroochydore to a

1-1 draw. Maleny lead at the break when Ivor Evans scored from the spot, but Maroochydore equalised shortly after the break with a goal from Roger Mares.

Kawana overcame a 0-1 deficit to overpower Nambour 4-1, while Buderim proved too strong for Coolum, 5-0.

YOU BEAUTY, DIANNE

Yorkeys Knob Soccer Club has provided Far North Queensland's entrant in the 1992 Miss Soccer Quest.

Dianne Forbes came out on top of nine beautiful contestants, to claim the local title, last weekend.

All entrants presented themselves very professionally and put a great effort into the evening.

They were: Ronelle Little (Leichhardt Lions), Luisa Fusi (Whiterock), Michelle Borgo (Leichhardt Soccer Club), Gail Jebreen (Mareeba), Deanne DeFaveri and Kelly Horwood (Innisfail), Raylee Anderson (Mossman) and Andrea Dati (FNQSF).

Congratulations also go to Darryl Gorogo and Clint Del Santo who were chosen in the Queensland Schoolboys team to travel to Canberra. FNQ's Brian Stopford will coach the side.

With just five weeks of fixtures remaining, the competition is reaching a climax.

On the junior scene, applications for Zone coaches and managers have been called for. Closing date is August 18 and appointments will be finalised on August 21.

DIVISION 9

This is the last round of fixtures for the teams in this Division. At time of writing all Semi-Final positions are open.

Taringa (1st) must defeat Coalstars (3rd) to secure the Premiership whilst the mid-week match between Coalstars and North Star will have a crucial bearing on the minor placings.

Fourth place is between Browns Plains and Rochedale, their destiny is in their own hands as they play each other in the final fixture.

Next week - Semi-Finals for Division 9.

Into the Net

All Queensland athletes participating at the Olympics received a grant from the Queensland Academy of Sport to help cover their expenses. No matter what their sport, each was treated equally. It is pleasing to note that Queensland's only representative in the soccer team also received this grant. Steven Corica was able to utilise the $5000 quite well in his preparations. Hats off to the Academy.

One of the more unusual events in our game occurred the other day when a goalkeeper scored a goal. This happened not once, but twice in the same game between the two Saints' Colts teams when playing in Toowoomba. St Helens' keeper John Turner achieved this feat twice with big drop kicks and a strong wind at his back. Poor old St Albans were terribly embarrassed. Once is enough, but twice!!!

Those who witnessed the COALSTARS-ROCHEDALE ROVERS 1-1 draw would agree on one point. Soccer is not a game for whimps. In one of the toughest matches of the season, two players who took some of the hardest knocks came up trumps. MARK GILBERT and GARRY BRATTEN each scored a goal.

IPSWICH CITY'S 7-0 annihilation of ANNERLEY in Division 5 has them into the 80s in the goals-for department. Two other teams, WYNNUM'S Division 2 colts and THE GAP Division 7 side, are also in the same high goals-for region. The three of them would dearly love to hit the 100 mark.

Having taken the big brave step of a try-out with Aston Villa in the UK, DARREN HILLIER has the best wishes of us all. Keen watchers feel his style should blend in well at Villa, something that didn't always happen at Rochedale Rovers.

Pressure is on BRISBANE UNITED to make a move to have one of our favourite soccer sons play in Brisbane in the summer season. Financial assistance could come from some unexpected quarters.

With all eyes on the Australian team at the Olympics, the home-based Socceros have been receiving invitations to other tournaments due, in part, to their recent successes in the Americas.

The ASF has received, and accepted, an invitation to tour Indonesia for the Independence Cup Tournament. Nations participating are: Thailand, Korea, Indonesia, Malaysia, and Australia. The Socceros' matches are:

- August 10 V Thailand
- August 11 V Malaysia
- August 13 V Korea
- August 14 V Indonesia
- August 16 V GRAND FINAL

With the Olympic team enjoying a successful run, the coach to accompany the Socceros could not be finalised.

SUNSHINE COAST NEWS

- * The SCSA is running a number of Level 1 & 2 Courses for coaches at the end of the season.
- * Applications are called for 1993 representative coaches from Colts to Under 11s, as well as Women and Under 16 girls.

- * A catchy name is being canvassed for the SCSA Senior representative team. How about the Sundowners?
- * 1992 is the 25th anniversary of soccer on the Sunshine Coast and will be celebrated in style at their presentation night in October.

MITCHELL CULTIVATES HOME-GROWN TALENT

With his tongue in his cheek, and meaning no malice, a good friend of Toowoomba coaching director Richard Mitchell referred to the South West Queensland Zone boys as "farmers".

With that thought in his mind, Richard came up with the rural people's ideas of the soccer coach's garden.

First, we plant Ps: Persistence, Patience, Perseverance and Positive attitude.

Then some LETTUCE:

Let us set good standards.

Let us have an open mind.

Let us be enthusiastic.

Let us have sound knowledge of the game.

Then three rows of SQUASH:

Squash negative thoughts.

Squash late arrivals.

Squash poor standards.

Finally, we finish our soccer coach's garden with TURNIP:

Turn up with your session planned.

Turn up cheerful and ready to coach.

Turn up with new ideas.

Turn up with certain goals in mind.

So when you "turn up", "please" "let us" be careful of the "farmers".

Richard Mitchell (Head Farmer)
