Cutillas names Qld Squad

Queensland Coach Juan Cutillas has announced a 28-man training squad for the State of Origin Series against New South Wales next month.

The squad contains five players from southern Coca-Cola National Soccer League clubs including current Socceroos Stephen Corica and Jason Polak. Eight Brisbane United players have also been included in the squad.

QSF General Manager Alan Vessey confirmed Corica's eligibility for the Maroons following his inclusion in Rale Rasic's NSW squad earlier this year.

Corica played all his junior football in Queensland before heading to the Institute of Sport to further his career. The talented youngster has been the standout performer in the NSL this season and looks set to guide Marconi to a Grand Final win when they clash with Adelaide City in Sydney this weekend.

Cutillas said he had picked the southern based players to bolster the squad but was waiting on word of their availability for the Series.

"At this stage I don't know whether they're available or not but I'm hoping to get them all," Cutillas said.

He said the squad would train later this month before being cut to 16 players in the lead up to the first match.

"Some of the players have impressed me very much but others have been given a chance because of their previous service to Queensland," Cutillas said.

Danny Wright puts one in against N.S.W. - he may get the chance to do the same again this year.

"I've been following all of these players and I want to see how they perform in the next few weeks."

While the bulk of the team will come from the training squad, Cutillas said there was ample opportunity for others to be included.

"The State team has a four match program and I need to look at as many players as possible," Cutillas said.

"I will be watching the players very carefully and the side will be picked solely on performance."

Newcomers to the squad are keepers Graham Ross and Robert Harrison, North Star's Danny Lobwein and Damien Rosenthal and strikers Jason Eacott and Warren Allen.

The Maroons take on the Blues at Perry Park on June 12 before heading to Newcastle for the decider on June 26.

The Queensland Training squad is:

Quarter Final draw

With the final round of Queensland Cup matches played last week, the Queensland Soccer Federation has announced the draw for the Quarter Finals.

The four Quarter Finals will be played over two weekends with Taringa Rovers and Toowoomba, and Far North Queensland and Brisbane Lions clashing at Perry Park on Monday June 14.

North Brisbane and Rochedale Rovers and Bundaberg and Coalstars meet on Sunday June 20.

Brisbane Lions and Taringa will be under extra pressure in their matches as their Queensland representatives will be backing up from the State of Origin clash with New South Wales on June 12.

Last years winners Rochedale Rovers will be out to defend the Cup they won last year and take the $7000 prizemoney on offer for the winner. The Runner-up will receive $3000. The format of the Cup is such that the five group winners plus the next best three placed teams qualified for the Quarter Finals.

Rockhampton's withdrawal from Group 2 meant that only one team would qualify from this group. Another pertinent factor is that the 5 teams in Group 5 were placed on the results from their first three matches only.

EDITORIAL.....

Fill the fridge, clear the lounge room and get ready to burn the midnight oil. Yes, that's right, it's FA Cup time again. Soccer fans all across the world will be glued to their TV sets on Saturday to watch one of the pinnacles of world soccer, The Football Association Cup. This year Sheffield Wednesday take on Arsenal in what ironically is a repeat of the League Cup. Arsenal stole victory in that match and will be looking for a repeat on Saturday. Sheffield have not won the Cup in 58 years with 1935 being the last time they won it. There are other tournaments with more importance on the international stage but none, with the exception of the World Cup, have the romantic appeal of the FA Cup. I'll stick my neck out and say Wednesday will take the match, although it will be close.

On the national scene, I am still in shock over the demise of NSL giants South Melbourne. On paper, and throughout the season, they were by far the best team in the League. To see them lose 7-0 to Marconi, and then 3-1 to Adelaide City was unbelievable. What the reasons were nobody knows, maybe we never will. Tune into SBS this Sunday at 2:30pm for the final between Marconi and Adelaide City, it should be a cracker.

Locally we can expect to see some tough encounters this weekend with Rochdale Rovers and Acacia Ridge meeting at Proud Oval and North Brisbane and Pine Rivers meeting at Prentice Park. With all sides involved yet to win a Grand Final, the eventual 1993 winner could come from this group. So get out and see some great action.

Finally, it is good to see that Stephen Corica is eligible to play in this years State of Origin Series. Hopefully he will make himself available and all of Queensland will be at Perry Park on June 12 to see the Maroons take on the Blues. It is certainly something to look forward to.

Scheinflug rocks into town

Young Socceroos coach Les Scheinflug, Wollongong coach David Ratcliffe and former Queensland representative Larry Gaffney head to Brisbane this week to join in the celebrations for the Frank Pimblett testimony.

Scheinflug, who has enjoyed success with the Young Socceroos and the Australian Under 17 squad in recent months, said he was delighted to be part of the Frank Pimblett testimonial match.

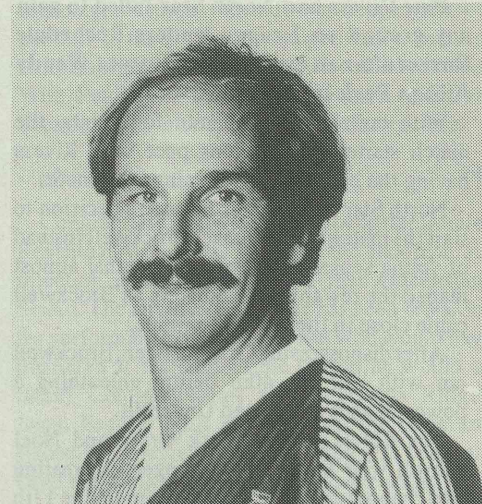

The round ball guru had a stint in Queensland coaching Brisbane Lions in the NSL and will again take up the reigns for this all important match.

Ratcliffe, who recently finished his NSL commitments in Wollongong, will team up with his former club Brisbane City for the clash.

Former Queensland great Larry Gaffney will also make a return appearance for Brisbane City.

Both sides are riddled with Queensland representatives and will bring back to the public the Brisbane City - Brisbane Lions rivalry of yesteryear.

The programme will also feature a Celebrity v Referees match with Channel 10 newsreader Arthur Higgins, Channel 7's Peter Meares, the ABC's Djuro Sen, The Courier-Mail's Garry Legg, 4BC's Trevor Hemstedt, The Sunday Mail's Geoff Stead and Brisbane United's Brian Kerle.

The man everyone will be going to see on Friday night - Queensland and Brisbane United captain Frank Pimblett

Draw fails to reduce lead

Pine Rivers and North Star failed to gain any ground on League leaders Rochedale Rovers after an exciting 1-1 draw at Wendy Allison Park last weekend.

With both sides desperate for points, the match started at a furious pace with Rivers having the better of the opening 20 minutes.

North Star coach Peter Bannon's decision to start the match with Michael Brockwell instead of young sensation Damien Rosenthal almost reaped the rewards immediately as Brockwell came close in the opening minute.

After dispossessing Graham Eden, Brockwell ran with ball for 40m before unleashing a powerful shot that tested Underhill.

For Rivers it was Mark Greer and Noel Carroll who looked most dangerous creating two chances early on. The best came in the 17th minute after Greer found Carroll at the far post. The powerful striker rose above the North Star defence to meet the cross with a well timed header. Only a great save from keeper Jason Parks denied a certain goal.

Three minutes later it was Frank Pimblett who was the provider with striker Wayne McGauley heading over the bar.

North Star's first real chance came through an error after a Rivers' defender failed to intercept a through ball. Jim McDonagh latched onto the ball but put his shot wide with only Underhill to beat.

Parks was again in the thick of the action just before half time making two brilliant saves after efforts from McGauley and Carroll.

With the sides locked at 0-0 at the break it was North Star who came out firing with Lee Scriggins putting them in the lead in the 52nd minute.

A long throw by Brockwell was flicked on by Ken Swan, finding Scriggins unmarked on the six yard box. With only Underhill to beat the striker made no mistake and it was 1-0.

Carroll almost equalised for Rivers two minutes later but was again denied by Parks who made a diving save at the strikers feet.

Four minutes later it was 1-1 after Greer rose to meet a Pimblett corner.

Man of the Match Noel Carroll - his aerial prowess caused havoc for North Star's defence.

The towering defender headed the ball down to McGauley whose shot took a deflection before finding the net.

Carroll should have made it 2-1 in the 65th minute after Pimblett found him at the far post. He met the ball too well heading it down into the ground and over the bar.

Almond came close in the 70th minute after Parks made his only mistake of the night, misjudging a Pimblett cross. With two defenders to beat, Almond steered his header across the face and into the post.

North Star rallied back late in the game with Scriggins, Rosenthal and McDonagh all coming close.

Coach Peter Bannon was philosophical after the match.

"I thought a draw was a fair result," Bannon said.

"We worked pretty hard but missed three chances near the end so that was a little disappointing.

"But if games like this don't get people to soccer I don't know what will," he said.

Rivers player/coach Frank Pimblett saw it differently.

"I thought we were unlucky not to win," Pimblett said.

"It was a lot of end to end stuff but we seem to give away silly goals and miss chances and if you do that you're going to struggle," he said ■

From the Sideline

Congratulations to Darren Sime, Queensland's only Australian Under 17 representative. The talented youngster played in all four of Australia's World Cup matches and from all reports performed very well. With the Joey's place in the World Championships in Japan now booked, Sime can look forward to a great learning experience come August. We wish him all the best.

Queensland's other two Australian representatives are also doing well. Eye on Soccer can report that Sean Cranney is well on the mend after undergoing surgery in March for the knee he injured against Russia in the World Youth Championships. His team mate Craig Moore, who earned rave reviews for his performances during the Championships, is hard at work in preparation for a stint overseas. Nothing can be confirmed yet, but if all reports are true, he could be playing in the UK next season.

Speaking of the UK, it seems Australian keeper Mark Bosnich has not only missed out on an English premier League Championship medal, he is also likely to miss Aston Villa's European campaign. With only three foreign players allowed per club in the European competition, coach Ron Atkinson has confirmed Bosnich could be left out. With Paul McGrath, Steve Staunton and Dean Saunders all needed, Nigel Spink may return.

Congratulations to North star youngster Damien Rosenthal who must be over the moon at his selection in Juan Cutillas' 28-man Queensland Squad. The talented youngster has been rewarded for performance on the field. But who would have predicted at the start of the season he would be there? Congratulations also to Acacia Ridge's Jason Eacott. With 20 points on the table and Eacott in the squad, the Blue Army will certainly have something to sing about this weekend.

North Star President Neil Kirk was so happy with his sides trip to Mackay for the Queensland Cup that he called Eye on Soccer to express his gratitude. Neil says the treatment of his team by the Mackay Soccer Federation was second to none and they thoroughly enjoyed the trip. Congratulations to Ian Wright and all involved with the MSF.

Saints go marching in St Albans broke the drought to score their first derby win in three years with an entertaining 1-0 win over Willowburn in the Second Division last weekend.

With losses in their last four derbies, the Saints emerged triumphant with striker Anthony Brown the hero.

The match was always going to be tough with both sides in the top five and playing some entertaining football.

Willowburn started the match without two key players losing Josh Bird and Brisbane United sweeper Steve Jackson before the match.

St Albans had their fair share of troubles too with goalkeeper Jeff Philp deciding only minutes before kick off to take the field after being stretched off last week with a serious groin injury.

Despite the injury, Philp made several telling saves and showed he is definitely a player of the future. His first effort came in the 20th minute after Willowburn's Paul Daley fired off a shot from close range during a goalmouth scramble.

Seven minutes later he was in the action again after a miscued Gavin Frier cross caught him off his line.

This time the crossbar did the work as he luckily palmed the ball onto the bar and away to safety.

Willowburn's Craig McConnell was the next to test Philp after slipping through the St Albans defensive line. The speedy striker fired off a low shot but Philp again was up to the challenge.

Willowburn keeper Trevor Gilliland also showed flashes of brilliance with a spectacular save to deny Anthony Brown in the 33rd minute.

Following good lead up work from Chris McCleod and Gary Carter, Brown smashed a powerful volley from 20m that Gilliland did well to tip over the bar.

After the break it was McConnell who came into his own for Willowburn creating several chances. The wiry striker can only blame poor finishing and some good keeping from denying him at least three goals.

His first chance came in the first minute after the break when referee Ben Hutchins awarded a free kick just outside the Willowburn penalty area.

After receiving a lay off, McConnell blasted the ball towards the goal but Philp was again on hand to tip the ball around the post.

Two minutes later he beat the Saints defence but failed convert with only Philp to beat, driving his shot straight at him.

With Willowburn pressing hard it was Brown who broke the deadlock for the Saints, smashing home the ball after good lead up work by Carter.

Willowburn almost scored straight from the restart with a drive from McConnell flashing by the post.

Their best chance for an equaliser came in the 72nd minute after a McConnell shot had Philp beaten. Only a great goal line save from Michael Fox kept the Saints ahead.

In the last 15 minutes St Albans dominated, with a Brown shot that hit the crossbar the best effort.

They did have one scare 10 minutes before the end when midfielder Chris McCleod was sent off after receiving his second yellow card for an illegal tackle.

Coach Gary Scott was delighted with the effort of his players and expressed relief at winning the derby for the first time in three years.

"The boys played really well and stuck to their task," Scott said.

"We played the pressing game and I thought we did it well.

"We're obviously aiming for promotion and after today I feel we're still in with a chance," he said.

Willowburn coach Gordon Arrowsmith was irate after the match, citing missed chances as his sides downfall.

"There was nothing unlucky about it," Arrowsmith said.

"We created four clear cut chances and didn't put them away. You just can't expect to do that and win games," he said.

Both sides have tough matches this weekend with Willowburn playing Grange Thistle in Toowoomba and St Albans meeting Wynnum at Wynnum ■

"I thought we were unlucky not to win – once they believe in themselves they can do anything"

These were the post match words of player/coach Frank Pimblett about his team in this fast paced important game.

North Star attacked from the whistle nearly scoring in the first few seconds and pressuring Underhill from the word go.

Greer and Carroll responded with two opportunities one of which, a brilliant header by Carroll off a Greer ball, came very close to open the scoring in Rivers favour.

Half-time found the score 0-0 and early after resumption Stars went one up after a goal from their Scriggins. At the 56th minute mark the trio of Pimblett, Greer and McGauley combined to cross, head then deflect the ball into the net providing the equaliser.

The pace continued till the end with Carroll almost making it 2-1 for Rivers.

A birds eye view

with Col Bennett

North Brisbane are an ambitious club as proof of their rise over the past 4 years.

With Novak Tonkin one of their major sponsors, they have big plans for the future. This can be seen by the appointment of Alan Hunter as caretaker coach and rumours that former Heidelberg coach Garry McDowall has accepted the position for next year.

They must be careful not to throw their money around too much on just any player. Perhaps two new strips for the First and Second team wouldn't go astray.

Their goalkeeper Wayne Evans has had his problems over the years but seems to be playing steady this year. Evans has always suffered from being brilliant one week and ordinary the next, but 12 goals against him in 10 games proves he is concentrating more.

They have pulled Gerry Lindsay, an ex-North Star player, out of retirement to play sweeper, and while he hasn't had too much training or games in that position, he will be fully tested in up and coming games. His strong tackling will help his team but his lack of pace has already been found out. His experience in the midfield should help get him out of some holes but he has to remember he is the last line of defence.

Alan Hunter fills in at left fullback and most raids forward start and finish here. Hunter must not get caught in possession and once he has beaten one or two players he must keep it simple.

Danny Cox is the right fullback and he must watch his tackling style. While always giving 100 per cent he must think a little more in possession.

George Whyte is the quiet achiever in the back line. He marks tight, wins his share of high balls and keeps his play nice and simple.

The two wide midfielders are John Figliano and David Vincenzino. While both possess nice skills they are two inconsistent over the 90 minutes of play and both have to work harder when not in possession of the ball.

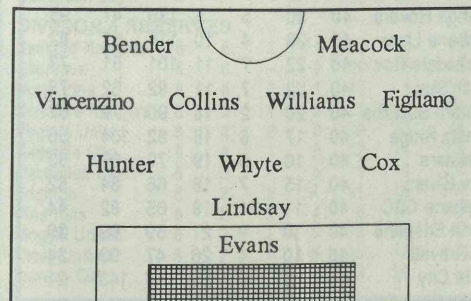

Craig Collins

The two Craigs, Williams and Collins, are the engine room of the team. Collins must surely be playing himself into an NSL spot next season with his performances. He must work hard on his crossing (corner kicks) and shooting to further impress Brisbane United coach Miron Bleiberg. An ex-United player, Williams is performing steadily and his aggressive tackling and distribution will be needed every week. These two players must dominate proceedings and I would like to see more shooting from the pair if North Brisbane are to get results.

Kevin Meacock and Darren Bender are the two up front and both players have to start working as one. While Meacock can lay off some good balls, his workrate off the ball has to be better. He must get sharper with his shooting and running in the penalty box. Bender promises a lot but he falls away with his shooting and distribution. He and Meacock have to form a combination so that one of them is scoring each week to gain that confidence. In their last game they had only three shots between them.

Their reserve talent is ordinary, but in Paul Fagan and Lorenzo Cucchi they have players who have played a fair bit of first team football. With Hunter dominating things, a position just outside the five would be a good season ■

LOWER DIVISIONS – PREVIEW

Another weekend of surprise results again led to a turn-around in table positions in many of the lower Divisions, and with the season only just over a third of the way through, makes for exciting weeks ahead.

DIVISION 2

Last weekend, three of the top four teams all lost, which made intriguing reading. This weekend two matches are on Saturday night with Olympic playing Brisbane City at Goodwin Park, and as Olympic are now surging back up the table, will they be the one to halt Brisbane City's runaway at the top? The other match on Saturday is the local match between Beenleigh and Souths United, Beenleigh have fallen away of late and suffered another unaccustomed loss last weekend. Souths are finding it tough going in this Division, and will probably leave the points at Chris Green Park. On Sunday Willowburn are at home to Grange, both teams suffering surprise losses last week, it's a question of which one will recover first. Down at Tingalpa, Wynnum are at home to St Albans, both teams had what could best be termed as "surprise results" last weekend. Is this the weekend that Wynnum will get back on track?

Up at Ebbw Vale, St Helens host Nerang, with the Saints now in the doldrums and dropping into the bottom quarter, for all that they should still be too strong for Nerang. At Walton Bridge, The Gap are now in the top half of the table and host Slacks Creek, will The Gap's good fortunes continue?

DIVISION 3

Last weekend both top two teams lost, so there is little change, although there is great jockeying for positions right through to the middle of the table. This weekend's fixtures commence on Friday night with Albany Creek at home to Mitchelton, and the Creek looking in danger of being relegated – even this early in the season. Mitchelton lost again last week, another one will drop them right out of the top four. On Saturday afternoon leaders Annerley, who also suffered a most surprising loss last week, are at home to Darra who are now starting to claw their way to safety. This will not be an easy match for the current leaders. Down at the Showgrounds on Saturday afternoon Redlands are at home to Logan City Kings, Redlands are now just outside the four, however they are hosting Logan City who rolled the leaders last Sunday afternoon, again not an easy match for either side. Saturday evening Capalaba are at home to Latrobe Valley, this has all the earmarks of draw number five for the visitors. On Sunday Newmarket are at home to Goodna, with Goodna having almost dropped out of sight at present, Newmarket are never easy at McCook Park and this appears as if this could be another home win. At Willawong, University of Queensland are the visitors with the students now in third place, this appears as if they may well take the points home with them.

DIVISION 4

The top four in this Division is starting to take on a settled look, however matches over the next two weeks could see a change by the start of the Second Round.

On Friday night Moggill host North Pine, with the leaders appearing to have too much all-round strength. On Saturday afternoon tenth placed Clairvaux are at home to eleventh placed Oxley, not much to choose from between these two sides, the home side slightly favoured. At Albert Bishop Park the home side entertain Samford, and with Virginia still unbeaten at present, this will be a very tough match for both sides. Home side slightly favoured. On Saturday evening Brighton make the trip up the Western Freeway to Ipswich City. Brighton, another unbeaten side playing a team that is leaking goals like they are going out of fashion. Away win. Also on Saturday evening, Kenmore make the trip to Deception Bay, with the Baysiders picking up their first point last weekend, I don't think this will be enough with the Rangers favoured to win. One match only on Sunday with Redcliffe at home to Pine Hills, Pine Hills good one week, average the next. Home win.

DIVISION 5

One plays two on Saturday afternoon when Southside Eagles are at home to University, what a cracker of a match this will be with both teams having almost identical goals for and against. This will test the Eagles, but they should fly through. Also on Saturday afternoon Goodna make the trip down to Lota to meet Bayside, with Goodna favoured to take the points home with them. Also on Saturday Capalaba are at home to Brothers, and point-less Capalaba is not expected to get any points in this one either. On Friday Slacks Creek are at home to Western Suburbs with the Tangerines strongly favoured. Sunday, Dunmore Park will see Toowong beat fairly convincingly the winless Annerley. The remaining match is two mid-table teams playing each other, with Loganholme and Leichhardt both struggling for form. Home side slightly favoured.

DIVISION 6

In this Division the Kings look like they may be running away with the title with the whole pack snapping at their heels. The next two to three fixtures, may well resolve the situation.

On Friday Souths are at home to Beenleigh with Beenleigh strongly favoured. Saturday afternoon sees mid-table Jimboomba at home to third placed The Gap, and if last week's result is any criteria, Jimboomba should win. Also on Saturday evening Mitchelton are at home to Woodridge, with the visitors far too strong. On Sunday leaders Logan City Kings host Darra United, with the home side not being unduly taxed. Also on Sunday Grange are at home to Bethania, with Grange now holding the title of "erratic" in this Division – visitors to win. Spencer Park has as its visitors tenth placed Olympic United, with Brisbane City expected to retain the points.

DIVISION 7

Only two teams vying for top spot at present, with again a packed mid-table positioning.

Two matches on Friday night with Souths at home to Redlands, and the home side's enormous goals against probably pointing to the result. Also on Saturday Slacks Creek are at home to Browns Plains, and this will well and truly sort out who are the leaders and who are the usurpers. On Saturday afternoon Albany Creek make the trip to Western Suburbs, and should take the points home with them. On Sunday afternoon Clairvaux are at home to Wynnum, two very evenly placed sides, with the home side favoured. Also on Sunday Greenbank at home to Annerley with the home side far too strong.

DIVISION 8

Three matches on Saturday with the weekend commencing at Jimboomba who are at home to Browns Plains, a narrow victory to the visitors. Out at St Lucia, University are at home to Beenleigh with the home side favoured in this one. At Bowman Park leaders Olympic will be making their first visit, and Latrobe Valley will still not pick up their first win. On Sunday Newmarket are at home to St Helens with these two teams very even both in terms of points and goals, a draw a likely prospect. New team in this Division Annerley play Wynnum on Sunday morning, with the visitors expected to be far too strong. The last match is Greenbank at home to Bethania with the visitors again expected to take the three points home with them.

DIVISION 9

The top of the table clash between Taringa and Coalstars last week resulted in Taringa opening an even wider margin at the head of this table. Three games are on Friday evening with Lions at home to Park Ridge, both sides fairly evenly matched, toss of the coin as to who will pick up the three points, probably the visitors. Also on Friday evening Kenmore at home to Wynnum, again two evenly matched sides with the visitors slightly favoured.

Up at Proud Field leaders Taringa make a visit to the Ridge, with another taxing match for the leaders, draw a prospect. On Saturday Coalstars are at home to Olympic with the hosts hotly tipped to pick up three points.

On Sunday morning last placed South Star host Rochedale, who themselves picked up their first win last week, this should make it two in a row. At O'Callaghan Park second place North Star are at home to fifth placed Mooroondu, Mooroondu suffered a surprise loss last week, can they come good and give the Star's a fright? Next week: A two month review ■

Women head North for promo

High profile women's soccer coach Connie Byrnes will head to Townsville next weekend to promote women's sport in North Queensland.

At the request of the Department of Tourism, Sport and Recreation Byrnes will take part in the "Active Girls in Soccer - It's Hot" campaign.

But the talented coach will not be alone, with QAS Women's captain Katie Smith also making the trip. Smith is probably the highest profile women's youth player in Queensland and will be ideally suited for the promotion.

A chance offer to play the game started it all for Smith and she hasn't looked back since.

"My brother was playing with some friends one day and I was just mucking around with them. This guy told my Dad to bring me to training and I've been playing ever since," Smith said.

At 18 years of age, Smith has represented Australia at Under 16, Under 19 and Schoolgirls level and has travelled far more than most players her age, including boys.

In 1991 she toured South East Asia with the Australian Schoolgirls and followed that up in 1992 with a tour to England and Ireland with the same side.

She is yet to tour this year but will head to Denmark in July to play in the Dana Cup with the Australian Under 19 side.

But for someone with such big wraps on her future career, she is relatively reserved, attributing much of her success to hard work.

And for Katie the QAS scholarship couldn't have come at a better time.

"The QAS gives you a lot of discipline and dedication and has definitely improved my game," Smith said.

"We have a home training program where we do all our fitness and strength work and training is spent concentrating on the ball.

"At the moment our strength coach has us doing a lot of leg work and I can certainly notice the difference," she replies.

"I'm definitely getting faster."

QAS Womens side celebrate after scoring a goal.

Queensland is the first State to introduce the women's scholarship scheme but it seems the other States are catching on fast.

"Other States like NSW are already getting ready to introduce similar schemes so we are setting the trend," Smith said.

Apart from soccer, she has also had success in Athletics with the 1500m and cross country her speciality.

And about that promotional tour next week?

Byrnes believes Smith will be a big hit with the kids.

"This is an ideal opportunity to promote women's soccer throughout the State and with Katie a high profile athlete you couldn't ask for more."

Eye on Soccer wishes the pair and women's soccer all the best in promoting our code throughout the State ■

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 11

ACACIA RIDGE v ROCHEDALE ROVERS

Proud Oval, Saturday May 15, 7.00PM

Referee -S Kingshott

This match is without a doubt the game of the round. A loss to Rochedale would see their lead reduced to three points and would certainly open up the title race.

On the other hand, a Rochedale win would give them a seven point lead and could leave the Ridge as low as fourth. With all this plus a President's Cup berth for the Ridge up for grabs, it should be a beauty.

MATCH WINNERS

Jorge Ibanez-Formas has recovered from a slow start to the season and is performing solidly every week. With this their biggest match of the season, it will test his ability.

Demetri Theochari is another who is performing solidly every week. His ability to beat a player and get in an early cross will be an asset in this match. He is one to watch.

NORTH STAR v COALSTARS

O'Callaghan Park, Saturday May 15, 7.00PM

Referee -J Nuell

North Star and Coalstars have always traditionally had tough matches and this one will be no exception.

Despite their position on the table, Coalstars have occasionally showed they can play football. Consistency is their problem.

With Lions only three points behind them, North Star need to win this to maintain their place in the five. It should be close.

MATCH WINNERS

Lee Scriggins has quietly moved to second place on the leading scorers list and is now only four behind Keiran Cooper. With Scriggins running hot, Coalstars captain Alan McFarlane will have to be at his best.

Brent Read has quickly slipped into XXXX League mode and is looking dangerous. He is one to watch.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 11

BRISBANE LIONS v EASTERN SUBURBS

Lions Stadium, Sunday May 16, 2.45PM

Referee - L Steen

Brisbane Lions have hit form in recent weeks and with CSC and Taringa, are one of the few sides to really test Rochedale. With a few of the top teams clashing this weekend, this could be their chance to sneak into the top five.

Easts, on the other hand, are locked in a tussle with Coalstars and Inala for a relegation spot and must play every game like it is their last. A close game but Lions should win.

Jeff Lombardo is a young player with plenty of experience and talent. In recent weeks he has shown he can not only defend, he can score goals as well. He is one to watch.

Wayne Corbett is back to his barnstorming best and could relish the opportunity to play against his old club. With Easts desperate for a win, he may be the key.

NORTH BRISBANE v PINE RIVERS

Prentice Park, Sunday May 16, 2.45PM

Referee - B Power

North Brisbane have remained undefeated in their last four outings, one of which was a 1-0 Queensland Cup win over Pine Rivers. Currently six points outside the five, this will be their most important game of the season.

Rivers, on the other hand, have lost some of their early momentum, despite playing well. A loss at this stage of the season could prove costly and they will be desperate to win.

With much at stake it will be a tough encounter.

MATCH WINNERS

North Brisbane's Craig Collins meets Frank Pimblett this weekend in what will be a true test of his ability.

Collins has been the form player this season but will have to be at his best against the midfield general. It should be a great contest.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 10

MT GRAVATT v BRISBANE CSC

Dittmer Park, Sunday May 16, 2.45PM

Referee - I Young

Mt Gravatt picked up a vital three points last weekend to move from 11th to 9th place. Their 2-1 escape at Inala could be just the remedy they need to start moving up the table. Despite the win, CSC will prove to be tougher opposition and the Hawks will need to be at their best.

CSC must also start taking the points or they could find themselves stuck in the bottom half of the table. It should be a close one.

MATCH WINNERS

Mt Gravatt's David Munn is probably one of the best finishers in the League and he proved this last week with another goal.

With a more stable midfield behind him, he could soon be a regular on the scoresheet.

CSC's Danny Valle was outstanding in his last outing and deserves his spot in the Brisbane South side. He should shine.

TARINGA ROVERS v INALA CITY

Jack Speare Park, Sunday May 16, 2.45PM

Referee - D Crawford

On paper this match looks as one-sided as you can get. Taringa are flying high in third spot with 19 points while Inala are firmly entrenched at the bottom with four. But as always, both sides have 11 men and anyone can win.

Inala must have gained confidence with their win last week and hopefully they will kick on from here on in.

MATCH WINNERS

Taringa's Darren Hillier and Troy Cranney have formed the beginnings of what could be a lethal combination in the centre of the midfield. With plenty of goals expected this weekend, they could be in the thick of the action.

Jason Keepence returned to the scoresheet last week and is now third on the top scorers list. Six goals from the club's 13 is a great effort in anyone's terms.

A close-up photograph of a man's face in profile, drinking from a can of XXXX Bitter Ale. The can is held in his right hand and is tilted towards his mouth. The background is a solid, warm red color. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of his face and the texture of the can. The can's label features the 'XXXX' logo in large, stylized letters, with 'BITTER ALE' written below it. A small illustration of a building is also visible on the can. The man is wearing a patterned shirt with a floral or paisley design.
