Liddell sends out SOS

CSC coach Frank Liddell has sent out an SOS for a striker after losing his main target man last week.

Striker Harry Makridakis has broken his ankle and could be out for at least six weeks leaving CSC with no front man.

According to Liddell, Ringo Mejias, CSC's only other striker, has left the club to team up with Third Division club South Star.

"Harry's loss is a big blow," Liddell said.

"With Ringo gone it effectively leaves me without a recognised striker."

CSC beat Inala City 3-0 last weekend and are now only four points outside the top five.

Liddell pushed defender Martin Fehlberg up front last against Inala and said he was pleased with the youngsters' efforts.

"I put Marty up front last week and he did a good job for me," Liddell said.

Former CSC striker Joe Stipancic, who signed with Brisbane United last season, is the only recognised striker not currently playing in the XXXX League and could be an option for Liddell.

But with CSC not part of Brisbane United and Stipancic in the middle of a three month break, it is doubtful he would make a move back to Dunn Road.

Despite the loss of Makridakis, Liddell has

CSC's Martin Fehlberg - did a fine job filling in for the injured Harry Makridakis managed to bolster his squad with the signing of Steve Konstantinou from Olympic United.

Konstantinou, who was also being chased by several other XXXX League clubs at the start of the year, made the move after his transfer fee was set at $1750 by the QSF Football Committee last week.

CSC will rest this weekend with their next clash against Eastern Suburbs at Dunn Road on June 13 ■

VALE - JIMMY McMILLAN

The President, Executive and members of the Queensland Soccer Federation wish to offer their condolences to the family of Jimmy McMillan who tragically passed away at Capalaba last weekend.

Top two out of State Side

Queensland have received a major set-back for the upcoming State of Origin Series opener with the loss of outstanding Young Socceroo Craig Moore and dynamic Socceroo midfielder Stephen Corica.

Moore, who was one of the stars at the World Youth Championships in March, declared his availability after returning from a trial with Scottish giants Glasgow Rangers but was forced to change his plans after agreeing to return to Scotland during the week.

Corica fractured a rib during preparation for Australia's World Cup campaign and could be out for up to three weeks.

He will miss Sunday's clash with New Zealand and faces a race against the clock to be ready for their clash with AC Milan on June 16.

Coach Juan Cutillas added Moore to the squad after watching the talented youngster strut his stuff for the QAS against the Victorian Institute of Sport.

"To lose both Craig and Steve is very unfortunate," Cutillas said.

"The loss is tremendous and it's just a shame that out of all the Australians in the squad Corica was the one to get injured.

"It's unbelievable," he said.

Cutillas was forced to make two changes in all after several players declared they were unavailable.

Out go Alan Hunter and Danny Wright (personal commitments), and Alan Prentice (injury) and in come Graham Eden (Pine Rivers), and Stein Grodum (Easts).

A question mark also exists over Taringa and Brisbane United defender Glenn Gwynne who returned to Mossman last week to take a well earned two month rest.

Former Queensland defenders Frank Mengotti and Ibro Cahut team together to tackle an Auckland attacker at Perry Park in 1991. The pair will watch from the sidelines this year.

Cutillas said he was keen to fly Gwynne back for the matches and was currently awaiting word on his availability.

Gwynne has been a revelation in Queensland since Cutillas picked the youngster back in April 1991 and will be sorely missed if unavailable.

With Hunter out and Steve Jackson and Mark Greer struggling with calf injuries, Cutillas said he was concerned with the Maroon defence.

"Hopefully we will be able to get Glenn back," Cutillas said.

"I don't see any problems and I am 99 per cent sure we will have him on June 12."

With the squad expected to be announced later this week, selection will certainly pose problems for Cutillas.

The midfield will be his toughest task with youngsters Brad Ditton, Darren Hillier and Craig Collins all vying for selection.

With Frank Pimblett, Nick Meredith, Jason Polak and Brian McNicol all expected to play, one of these youngsters could miss out.

The Maroons take on the blues at 7pm at Perry Park on June 12 in what should be one of the best ever State of Origin clashes ■

EDITORIAL.....

Australia's so called "Dream Team" scraped home with a hard fought 1-0 win over New Zealand at Mount Smart Stadium last weekend. The win means Australia can afford a draw in Melbourne this Sunday and still advance to the next stage of the World Cup where they would take on Canada. As usual there are concerns over the value of bringing back the overseas-based players who have little time for acclimatisation to the weather, and more importantly, their team mates. Carl Veart illustrated this point by totally changing the outlook of the game when he replaced Frank Farina who limped off with an ankle injury. Despite this, I believe the exercise was a success and if we do beat New Zealand we should reap the benefits against Canada. There is still plenty to do but hopefully the boys will do us proud this Sunday.

Taringa Rovers have re-emerged as a genuine title threat, reducing Rochedale's seven point lead to just two over the last two weeks. There biggest test will come this Sunday when they face Coalstars who have surfaced as one of the toughest lower-placed sides to beat. Undefeated in their last three outings, complacency could be their biggest enemy. Meanwhile, Rochedale will be hoping to get all their players back on to the pitch over the next few weeks to steady the ship. At the moment they have dug a small hole for themselves but a win this week will see that disappear. With all this happening, the race for the top five is still wide open. Realistically, at least eight teams could still make the five.

State of Origin fever is back and hopefully next week we will see Perry Park full of loyal supporters. Rugby League supporters showed their loyalty by turning out in droves to Lang Park earlier this week to see the third "dead" match in the series. Whether it was their love of Queensland or hate of New South Wales, they were certainly fired up. So if you are a proud Queenslander, get yourself down to the State's headquarters on June 12.

Delightful Dana in the running

The Miss Queensland Soccer Quest is on again this year and nominations are already flooding in to the State's headquarters.

This week we introduce the beautiful Dana Mak of Slacks Creek who is vying for the $5000 prize which will be awarded to the winner at the Greek Club on Saturday August 21 this year.

The award will be judged on personality, charm, deportment and general knowledge.

Miss Fund Raiser will also be awarded with a prize valued at $2500 for the winner.

Nominations for the award close on July 30 and all enquiries can be directed to the QSF on 252 5327 ■

Brisbane (Sth) storm home

Brisbane South are the IEA Inter-City Champions after a thrilling penalty shoot-out win over rivals Brisbane North last week.

The Southsiders staged one of the great comebacks of the season to force the game to penalties after trailing 2-0 at break.

Scores were locked at 3-3 after 90 minutes.

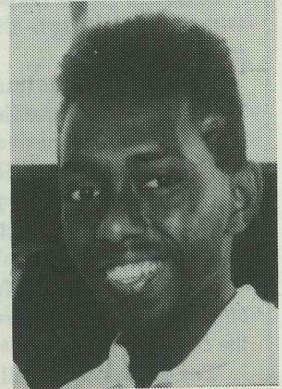

Willie Carter got North off to a dream start in the 10th minute with a brilliant solo run. The former Mackay striker beat three defenders before slamming the ball past Robbie Harrison.

Kevin Meacock added the second for North soon after, forcing the ball home during a goalmouth scramble involving several players.

Leading 2-0, North looked in control, however after the break it was a different story with South coming right back into the match.

Keiran Cooper reduced the deficit with a neat volley after Justin Playle made inroads down the right side. Darren Hillier restored North's two goal lead seven minutes later with a powerful 25m drive that gave Harrison no chance.

Substitute Alan Hilton added the second for South minutes later and Cooper finished the task with a stunning volley that left Tatton stranded.

Brisbane North striker Willie Carter - scored a great goal but missed a vital penalty in the IEA Inter-City series final.

With scores locked at 3-3 referee Lee Steen blew the final whistle, sending the game into a penalty shoot-out.

With North shooting first, the first eight penalties went to plan until Carter's effort was acrobatically saved by Harrison. Needing a goal to win, Frazer Cuba stepped up and sealed the result for South.

In the early game, the QAS accounted for the Victorian Institute of Sport with a hard fought 4-2 win. Ian Hutchison, Craig Moore and Sean Blackman (2) did the damage for the Queenslanders ■

Origin series the toughest yet

State coach Juan Cutillas believes this year's State of Origin Series will be the toughest yet with New South Wales as hungry as they have ever been.

New South Wales, or the Soccerblues as they are currently called, recently received a $250,000 sponsorship deal from a major brewery and Cutillas said they will be desperate for the interstate title.

"New South Wales will be much more committed with the new sponsorship deal," Cutillas said.

"They have other matches and even a tour planned and will be all be fighting for places."

"It is such a tremendous incentive for the players," he said.

Queensland's squad is expected to be under strength with Craig Moore, Stephen Corica, Alan Hunter and Danny Wright all out.

But according to Cutillas, his players will be ready for the task.

"The chances to win are always there," Cutillas said.

"We have a good record at home and our players will be committed."

He said Queensland would field a relatively young side for the clash.

"There will be a lot of youngsters in the squad but I have 100 per cent confidence in them," Cutillas said.

"I'll put the best side on the park under the circumstances and I'm sure they won't let anybody down.

"We will be in for a tough time but I'm confident whoever plays will lift their game," he said ■

Lions roar into top five

Brisbane Lions leaped into the top five with a dominating 6-1 win over North Star last weekend.

Playing like league leaders, Lions controlled the match from start to finish with import Fred Kruids leading the way.

Since arriving from Holland earlier in the year, Kruids has slowly found form, with his sweet left foot causing all sorts of problems for opposing defenders.

Coach John Sime was full of praise for Kruids and said he had been a revelation since joining the club.

"The lad has done well," Sime said.

"It's taken him a while but he's fitting in nicely."

Warren Allen opened the scoring for Lions in the 17th minute with a piece of clinical finishing following an error from North Star keeper Jason Parks.

Midfielder Frank Mengotti started the move finding Craig Priddy in space on the right hand touchline. The youngster played a curling ball into the box and watched as Parks and team mate Ken Swan collided, leaving the ball for Allen to calmly volley away.

Swan made amends for the collision minutes later with his deflected 20m drive sending Farrow the wrong way.

Controversy struck seconds after the restart when referee Barry Power awarded a dubious goal to Lions.

Priddy fired a shot from the edge of the box that hit the underside of the bar and bounced back into the field of play. Power, who was 25m from the line, immediately blew his whistle and awarded the goal.

After protests from the North Star players he consulted with his linesman who indicated he did not see whether the ball had crossed the line or not. Consequently he awarded the goal.

North Star suffered a further blow soon after when striker Lee Scriggins limped from the field with a badly corked thigh.

Leading 2-1, Lions came out more determined after the break with Allen tapping in his second in the 48th minute after Parks failed to hold a Kruids shot.

Fred Kruids - Lions' Dutch import is fitting in nicely.

Mengotti made it 4-1 in the 55th minute after latching onto a ball following a North Star error. With only Parks to beat, he slammed the ball home.

Priddy nabbed his second in the 68th with a scintillating 25m drive that sped past Parks.

With less than 10 minutes remaining Mengotti sealed the result after good lead up work by John Schiavo.

North Star almost grabbed one back through Hutchison who was denied a goal when Farrow parried his close range shot onto the post.

With the ball back at his feet Hutchison squared to Damian Rosenthal who put his shot over with the goal at his mercy.

North star coach Peter Bannon refused to comment after the match but Lions' John Sime did, heaping praise on all his players.

"I'm delighted," Sime said.

"It's probably the best second half performance I've seen from Lions since I've been at the club.

"I just hope Juan Cutillas was here to see Wayne Hinton. He's the most consistent midfielder in the XXXX League," he said.

"Still, you don't get carried away - it's all on the day."

He said North star would be a tough proposition for opposing teams.

Lions meet North Brisbane next week while North Star clash with Acacia Ridge ■

From the Sideline

The Coaches Association will be holding their second coaching night in relation to the FIFA Coaching Course that was held in Brisbane earlier this year. Gordon Arrowsmith informed Eye on Soccer that the date is June 7, the venue is Perry Park and the time is 7pm. For further enquiries call Gordon on 351 1886.

Lookout for the SPORTSART Exhibition which will be held at Waterfront Place in the City. The Exhibition will include memorabilia from all walks of sporting life, including the famous round ball code. The Exhibition is on to benefit the National Heart Foundation and opens on Friday June 4 and continues on Sunday June 6, 11:00am - 4:00pm and from Monday June 7 to Friday June 11, 10:00am - 5:00pm.

Congratulations to QSF staff Jim Gilbert and Trish Betts who this year celebrate 10 and 15 years at the State Soccer headquarters respectively. In any mans terms that is a long time. All the best.

Plenty of action should take place at the Disciplinary Committee this week following three send-offs in the XXXX League. Pine Rivers captain Mark Greer received his marching for a tackle against Taringa at Wendy Allison Park while Rochedale and North Brisbane were reduced to ten men at Underwood Park when referee Gordon Nicholson sent Damian Harris and Lorenzo Cucchi off following a scuffle.

Junior, youth and open Brisbane teams head to Rockhampton over the June long weekend to compete in the Women's State Soccer Titles. Eleven zones from throughout the State are expected to compete at the titles with competition fierce as State representative sides will be announced following their completion.

Taringa pushing hard

By "The Boot"

Two of the most attractive sides in the XXXX Soccer League met at Wendy Allison Park last Saturday night, in what should have been a most attractive match.

The fact it wasn't was in part due to the greasy conditions and showers of rain that continued during the evening. Also, what at best would have to be described as some very ordinary refereeing.

It took the two teams 15 minutes to get adjusted to the ground, it took most of the first half to get adjusted to the referee.

The job wasn't made any easier for the home side when Steven Glockner, now playing much wider than in the past, chipped a ball over a static Pine Rivers defence for Troy Cranney to volley home after only two minutes. There were a number of over-lapping runs made by the visitors with Cameron Pearse, Michael Colliccoat and Glen Gwynne most prominent.

Rivers got back into the match just after the quarter hour, when a fairly inoffensive save by Del Santo resulted in him sustaining an injury, Pearse took offence at the challenge, pushed a Pine Rivers forward away and promptly conceded a penalty. Wayne McGauley duly dispatched it to put the home side back into the match.

It wasn't for long as Glen Gwynne once again overlapped down the right, playing a brief one - two with Man of the Match Andy Lees who put away Taringa's second.

State Coach Juan Cutillas is now putting his imprint on the Taringa team, with a number of excellent build-ups and one touch football now very prominent. On one such occasion on the half hour, six players were involved in an excellent build-up, only to be spoiled at the death by a premature run resulting in off-side. Such was Taringa's precision build-up, it took until the 35th minute before they gained their first corner.

Rivers were terribly subdued in attack, they had plenty of possession, mostly distributed through their player/coach Frank Pimblett, but it was all wasted at the attacking end through ineffectual final passes, or poor shooting.

Andy Lees - another Man of the Match performance

Taringa on the other hand had Andy Lees shooting at will and creating havoc every time he was in possession of the ball, to the extent that Pine's stalwart in the back line, Mark Greer, was eventually sent-off for a dangerous tackle on him on the half-way line.

Pine Rivers strength without a doubt was in their defence where Peter Underhill was stopping almost everything that came at him. Graham Eden and John Cartwright did their best but when the ball was knocked forward it came back almost as quick.

Deep in injury time Steven Glockner forced Underhill to prevent a certain goal, and from the corner Darren Hillier scored from an acute angle to well and truly wrap it up at 3-1. It was a game that was a great to watch but marred by many technical infringements and problems not related to the playing of the match.

It would appear as if it is going to be a long second-round for Pine Rivers as too many players did not perform to either their's or Frank Pimblett's expectations and their once invincible tag at home, is now gone.

Take nothing away from the Rovers, they were brilliant once they overcame the usual early storm from the home side, they consolidated and put the pressure straight back. Taringa's game is based on speed and deft one-touch football. It will take a good side to stop them on this performance ■

Womens soccer - It's Hot in North Queensland

Women's Soccer received a huge boost in North Queensland with the recent "Active Girls in Soccer - It's Hot" campaign.

QAS coach Connie Byrnes arrived back in Brisbane last week with the news that the campaign was an outstanding success.

Byrnes, who has been a tireless worker for Women's Soccer Queensland, said she was delighted with the response received during her weeks stay in Townsville.

The campaign was a long one with Byrnes working an 80 hour week and jamming in public appearances, clinics and media interviews along the way.

In seven days she visited 17 schools, 2 clubs, conducted a coaching clinic, attended two functions and spent two days watching club and representative matches. Somewhere in there she also participated in numerous television, radio and newspaper interviews.

Almost 2000 girls participated in the highly popular campaign which was devised by the Women in Sport Task Force and supported by the Department of Tourism, Sport and Racing and numerous other organisations.

Also helping Byrnes was QAS captain Katie Smith and Townsville Director of Coaching Mark Boyd.

"It was a great week and I thoroughly enjoyed it," Byrnes said.

"Soccer is alive and well in Townsville and it was great to be part of the campaign.

"The best thing was some of the people we met and that made the whole thing very rewarding," she said.

"On one occasion we were leaving a school and six kids came up to us and asked how they could get involved in women's soccer.

"It was great."

She also heaped praise on Smith saying she had learnt a lot over the seven days.

"The main reason we took Katie was to promote the QAS and give her a chance to learn more about the game and I think we achieved that," Byrnes said.

Byrnes received a boost on her return with the news she has been appointed as the Assistant Coach for the Australian Under 16 team ■

Pine Rivers were stunned in the opening minute when Troy Cranney found himself unmarked at the far post to slam home a volley from a ball crossed in to the box by Steve Glockner.

Rivers clawed their way back into the match in the 20th minute when Wayne McGauley put away a penalty after he had been fouled in the penalty area.

Unfortunately for Rivers, Taringa struck back almost immediately through Andrew Lees who put away the simplest of chances after good build up work by Glenn Gwynne and Troy Cranney.

In the second half Rivers came out firing and started applying the pressure.

Any chance Rivers had was lost when, to the surprise of most, the referee issued Mark Greer with his marching orders after a tackle that was no worse than some others that went unnoticed during the match. Taringa sealed the game in the final minutes when Hillier slotted away an angled shot.

Women's Soccer Qld

Fifth Division leaders Jimboomba appear invincible with a 3-0 win over Lions at the weekend. They are now five points clear of Lions and Clairvaux with The Gap only one point further away.

The surprise of the weekend came in the U15 match between Mt Gravatt, four wins to date, and Brighton, no wins to date. Brighton, the better team on the day won 1-0 and registered their first points of the season. A great effort by Brighton.

LOWER DIVISIONS MID YEAR REVIEW

Jim Gilbert

DIVISION 2

At the turn-around three teams are now well placed at the top each only one point apart, second placed Willowburn still have a match in hand.

Third place Wynnum are still waiting for a falter from the two teams above them to take out pole position themselves. The Gap and St Helens have fallen away a little although placed 4th and 5th respectively. At the bottom Souths, Nerang and Slacks Creek are all struggling, and it looks more than ever as if the relegated will come from these three.

This Saturday only one match, bottom placed Slacks Creek at home to St Albans. A fierce match, but it looks like the Saints will go home happy.

On Sunday Willowburn host Olympic United, with Willowburn anxious not to let second place falter, Olympic will have a long trip home. The Gap host Grange Thistle on Sunday, with The Gap having secured 4th place but then suffering a defeat last weekend, Thistle were 3-0 up against St Helens then finished up with only one point. Difficult match, however fortunes may well favour the home side slightly. At Ipswich, St Helens fresh from their comeback last week entertain Brisbane City, a very tight match indeed with St Helens possibly picking up three points through their morale boosting last start. Wynnum are at home to Souths United, with Wynnum's all round attacking strength too much for the struggling Souths. Down the Coast Nerang are at home to Beenleigh, and Beenleigh now appear to be in the doldrums, Nerang could pick up another point.

DIVISION 3

Leaders Annerley suffered a huge loss last week to University, who possibly were on the rebound from their own loss the previous week. Newmarket continue to set Division 3 on fire, with the students close behind. Mitchelton came back from the dead, saving a 0-2 deficit to snatch a point against Latrobe Valley. There's a horrific jam in the middle of the table with only one point separating six teams. Bottom placed Capalaba and Logan City Kings did not complete their match last weekend due to the tragedy that occurred towards the end of their match.

All matches this weekend on Saturday, with the match of the round at Annerley, where second placed Newmarket will be the visitors. Newmarket's scoring ability could well see them through, and at 4:30pm they could be the new leaders. At Wilston, Logan City Kings will be the visitors, and if last weekend's match is any guide, Latrobe could possibly win. Having said that, the Kings are on their way back. Albany Creek take on a disjointed Goodna, with Goodna's fighting ability being brought to the fore - Score draw. At Cleveland, Redlands are home to 3rd placed University, a difficult match, with the students probably taking this one but it will be hard. At night Capalaba are home to the up/down Darra United, and if Capalaba can get their minds back on football, they could collect three points. Also on Saturday night 4th placed Mitchelton are home to South Star, this will not be easy for Mitchelton, as last week's narrow 0-1 loss by South Star to Newmarket illustrates. A narrow home win.

DIVISION 4

There are now a distinct five vying for four places, but such is the tightness of the points, that any upset result now will cause a re-shuffle.

Deception Bay appear stranded, Ipswich City are making a great fist to preserve their status, with Oxley edging away from danger.

This weekend Oxley make the trip to Moggill, the home side to win. On Saturday unbeaten Brighton are at home to Virginia and on recent performances, Brighton could possibly suffer their first loss in this one. At night Ipswich City are at home to Pine Hills, with the Hills starting to pull away from the danger area, but Ipswich are making every effort in retaining their place. Also Saturday night, bottom-placed Deception Bay are at home to Samford Rangers, the visitors were crushed by Clairvaux last week, can they come back? Can the Bay pick up their first win?

On Sunday Redcliffe trip to Mt Gravatt to visit Clairvaux and after Clairvaux's big win against Samford, this will be an interesting test of strength. The visitors should take the points. At Dakabin, North Pine are home to Kenmore Rangers, with the North Pine lads having gone off the boil, however their all round strength should be too much for the visitors.

DIVISION 5

It's neck and neck back at the top of this Division again, with Toowong in 3rd place and a profligacy of teams taking out the mid-table positions. Annerley, Capalaba and Loganholme are now in trouble, and even this early in the season, could well be playing Division 6 next year.

This weekend co-leaders Southside Eagles are at home to Bayside, with the Bulimba team expected to retain three points. The other joint leaders University make the trip to Capalaba, where the visitors will probably take the points home. At Dunmore Park Western Suburbs make a visit, Toowong's all round strength is expected to be too great. On Sunday Brothers are home to Annerley, with the Raymond Parkside keeping the points. Loganholme and Goodna do battle at Cornubia Park, with the home side keeping the points. The last match is at Ipswich when Leichhardt host Slacks Creek, these two teams are closely matched on the table, Leichhardt to win.

DIVISION 6

The four teams that have been vying for the top four positions in the first half of the season, are still there and are now ensconced. The only question is, how much shuffling will take place over the next few weeks. It appears as if promotion and Semi-Final placings will be retained by these sides, with the remainder battling out the mid-table. This weekend Souths are home to Darra, home win. On Saturday The Gap, who last weekend knocked over leaders LCK, are home to Grange, home side to retain the points. Olympic and Jimboomba do battle that evening, with the visitors expected to win. On Sunday Logan City are home to bottom placed Mitchelton, the leaders should get back on track. Beenleigh and Bethania also meet Sunday, with this being a more closely matched pairing, visitors the winners. At Spencer Park, Brisbane City will entertain Woodridge, with this being a severe test for City - an away win.

DIVISION 7

Browns Plains are now running away with a 100% record at the completion of the first round, Greenbank will retain the pressure, with Slacks Creek bringing up the rear in 3rd place. After that the teams tend to be far more spread out. This Saturday sees Mimosa Creek officially coming into the competition and they play their first match against 3rd placed Slacks Creek, too early to give a judgement, but expect the visitors to keep the points. The previous night Souths play Wynnum, the visitors to take the points. The remaining matches are on Sunday with Clairvaux at home to Western Suburbs with the Mt Gravatt side expected to keep the points. Redlands play Annerley, again the home side expected to keep the points. Loganholme host Albany Creek, visitors to take this, with the last match being the battle between 2nd place Greenbank and leaders Browns Plains. A top match, with Browns Plains expected to keep their 100%.

DIVISION 8

In this Division there is also a distinct top four, a congested mid-table, and a definite bottom two. 4th plays 5th when University play Wynnum on Saturday, with the students expected to take this one out narrowly. Latrobe are at home to St Helens, with the home side still yet to register a win, it won't be in this one either. Also on Saturday Olympic are home to Jimboomba, with the leaders expected to retain the points at Goodwin Park. Early on Sunday Annerley play Newmarket with the visitors taking the points home with them.

Beenleigh do battle with Bethania, and Bethania will probably take the points home also. Greenbank v Browns Plains is the last match, this time the home side should keep the points.

DIVISION 9

Even this early in the season it would appear that Taringa have a mortgage on the Premiership, with the minor placings being fought out between North Star, Acacia Ridge and Wynnum, particularly now that Wynnum will have picked up a gift three points from the Zillmere Club. It should also be remembered that at the end of the season, promotion from this Division is not necessarily from the top sides, as the XXXX League Clubs cannot have their teams promoted from this

Division.

This weekend three matches are on Friday night with Kenmore at home to Lions, neither side setting this Division on fire, but Kenmore should keep the points. Up at Proud Field 3rd place Ridge play 4th place Wynnum, this will be a most entertaining match, however the Ridge should keep the points at home. At O'Callaghan Park the visitors will be Rochedale, who have finally found that they can score goals. They will certainly need to prove that as the Star's defence is not exactly of the benevolent variety. Home win. On Saturday leaders Taringa play Mooroodu with the visitors going home pointless. At Bundamba Coalstars are at home to Park Ridge with the sky blues keeping the points. The last match is at Goodwin Park when visitors South Star will almost certainly not go home with any points, leaving Olympic with all three ■

Allen ready for State debut

This time last season Brisbane Lions' striker Warren Allen was relatively unknown in the XXXX League.

Playing under coach Juan Cutillas at Willowburn in the Second Division, he was content with soccer in Toowoomba.

But form that was too good to overlook and offers from Lions and Taringa Rovers convinced the dynamic 22-year-old that it was time to venture into the XXXX League.

And with nine goals in 13 matches and a place in the Queensland State of Origin squad, Allen couldn't be happier.

"I'm over the moon," Allen said.

"It's definitely the highlight of my soccer career."

Born in Roma, Allen is a country boy through and through, playing most of his junior soccer in Toowoomba.

Like most up and coming talents, he relishes the challenge of playing at the highest level and has a positive attitude that is sure to carry him far.

"I'm pretty happy with the goals I've scored and the way I've been playing," he said.

"Hopefully I can keep playing well and make the final 16-man State side."

Living in Toowoomba, Allen makes the trip to Lions Stadium twice a week with team mates Troy and Chay Hews and has no qualms about the travelling.

"Troy and I take turns and John (Sime) is pretty good," Allen said.

"Occasionally if the travelling gets too much he gives us the night off so I've got no complaints."

One fact that did prove interesting was his decision to choose Lions over Taringa after spending the last two seasons at Willowburn under current State and Taringa coach Juan Cutillas.

"At first I was going to go to Taringa but Lions called me and John came up to Toowoomba to see me," he replied.

"Basically the fact that Lions is closer to home had a lot to do with it."

Warren Allen - fired up and ready for the Blues.

"I've got no regrets. I love it here and the club are really looking after me," he said.

Lions are currently in fourth place with the second best attacking record in the league with Allen and Frank Mengotti leading the charge for a successful run into the finals.

"We're in the five for the first time since March and if we keep going the way we are we've got a good chance for honours this season," Allen said.

Eye on Soccer wishes Warren all the best with his Queensland selection and with his quest for glory with Brisbane Lions.

With the month of May completed it is time to look back at some of the stand-out performers in April.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH:

With three man-of-the-match performances in the month of May, North Brisbane's Craig Collins is without a doubt stamping his claims to be one of the leading midfielders in the State. After a disappointing year last year due to injury, he is back to his best and thoroughly deserves to be Player of the Month.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH:

Coalstars youngster Ricky Brown has swept all before him this season moving from Colts earlier in the year to a starting place in the Coalstars line-up. A solid performer for Ipswich in the Inter-City series, Ricky is the Rookie of the Month.

COACH OF THE MONTH:

Taringa coach Juan Cutillas has seen his side reduce Rochedale's lead from seven points to two in the last month.

Undefeated since March, Juan Cutillas is the coach of the month.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 14

NORTH STAR v ACACIA RIDGE

O'Callaghan Park, Saturday June 5, 7.00PM

Referee - P Hulme

North Star coach Peter Bannon would have spent most of the week trying to regroup after his side suffered a humiliating 6-1 loss to Lions last week. With Acacia Ridge only two points behind them, this will be an important match.

The Ridge almost succumbed to Easts last week but rallied to earn a valuable point at Heath Park. Grimly holding onto their top five place, they must win this one.

With all this mind, this clash should be a beauty with plenty at stake.

MATCH WINNERS

The loss of State striker Lee Scriggins after 25 minutes last week proved a cruel blow to North Star. They will be desperate to get him fit for this one. Ridge striker Jason Eacott has failed to score in recent weeks and must be due for some luck. He is one to watch.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 14

TARINGA ROVERS v COALSTARS

Jack Speare Park, Sunday 6, 2.45PM

Referee - S Kingshott

Both sides can boast two wins from their last two matches and with plenty to play for, should come out fighting.

Taringa now trail leaders Rochedale by only two and have found some real consistency. With their last loss against Lions in March, they must be favourites for this one.

Coalstars, on the other hand, have proved the critics wrong with real fighting spirit over the last few weeks and are still a finals chance.

MATCH WINNERS

Taringa striker Andy Lees is playing well and, but for poor finishing, could be the XXXX League leading scorer. He is one to watch.

Coalstars defenders Mark Gilbert and Pat Boyle have lifted their game in recent weeks and are now providing plenty of stability. They could be the key.

NORTH BRISBANE v BRISBANE LIONS

Prentice Park, Sunday June 6, 2.45PM

Referee - I Young

With Brisbane Lions firing on all cylinders and North Brisbane coming off a 2-2 draw with Rochedale, this match has all the ingredients of a match of the round.

Lions have scored 10 goals in their last two games and now have the second best attacking record in the league. Taking their place in the five for the first time since March, they are ready for a run in to the finals.

North Brisbane are sitting in 9th place, six points outside the five. They must start winning to make the five. It will be a tough encounter.

Lions striker Warren Allen scored another two last week and now looms as a real threat for the leading scorers title.

Aces striker Kevin Meacock is also finding form and he will be one to watch.

MT GRAVATT v ROCHEDALE ROVERS

Dittmer Park, Sunday June 6, 2.45PM

Referee - L Steen

Mt Gravatt face a tough test this week when they meet League leaders Rochedale Rovers. On paper Rochedale look red hot favourites but recent form goes out the window when these two local rivals clash. Mt Gravatt are desperate for points but must start battling for 90 minutes as Coalstars do to avoid relegation. Rochedale will also be keen to get their Premiership aspirations back on course after letting a seven point lead slip to just two. This will be tough.

MATCH WINNERS

Mt Gravatt have a midfield and attacking line equal to most XXXX League clubs but sadly have conceded 32 goals in 13 games. A former Socceroo defender, coach Col Bennett must work on their defence if they are to succeed. Up against the best attacking team in the League this week, defence will be the key.
