Finals countdown: The run home

Gesture causes uproar

Pine Rivers will lodge an official complaint to the Queensland Soccer Federation following an incident involving linesman Gordon Nicholson after last weekends clash with Rochedale Rovers in the XXXX Soccer league.

Coach Frank Pimblett said after the match that the club would lodge the complaint after Nicholson appeared to blow a kiss to the Pine Rivers supporters.

"We cop the bad decisions and try to be professional by biting our tongues and then things like this happen," Pimblett said.

"He gestured to our women supporters and he shouldn't be allowed to get away with it.

"These officials are supposed to be figures of respect but they go and do things like this," he said.

"It seems as though they are a law unto themselves."

Nicholson refused to comment after the match. If Rivers do lodge an official complaint, the Queensland Soccer Federation would take the matter up with the Australian Soccer Referees Association who would then act on the incident.

If the QSF is still not happy with the outcome, they could then take the matter further.

The following is a letter received during the week by Eye on Soccer from a concerned Pine Rivers supporter.

Dear Sir,

Various rules and regulations written into the constitutions of governing bodies and their affiliates, allow for the censure of players, officials and supporters. In short, no one is above reproach and we must all suffer the consequences of our actions. With this in mind, I wish to raise the growing concern of accountability of referees.

In any situation, an employee is subject to performance appraisal by the employer and if the employee is found wanting, the option is to shape up or ship out.

No employer can afford the luxury of carrying unproductive workers at the expense of loss of business or credibility.

Similarly, soccer must be conducted as a corporation, if it is to have any credibility amongst its followers - and also if Brian Kerle's plans to raise the image of soccer are to succeed.

I appreciate that no one is God and mere mortals do make mistakes and as mere mortals we must succumb and rectify.

The issue of accountability of referees must be addressed in the interest of the betterment of the code and in the hope of increasing the POSITIVE profile that soccer justly deserves.

In the words of Hinch - "WHO'S LOOKING AFTER THE PLAYERS?"

Lyn Waugh - Pine Rivers supporter.

The countdown begins

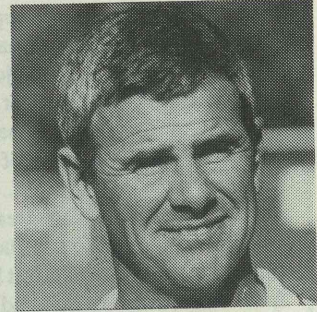

The race is on for the vital fifth place in the XXXX League final five series after a round of upsets last weekend.

Acacia Ridge (26 points) hold fifth spot at the moment after a 1-1 draw with Inala City last week but must fight off challenges from Pine Rivers (24), North Brisbane (22) and Brisbane CSC (22).

Rochedale Rovers (38), Taringa Rovers (35), North Star (34) and Brisbane Lions (29) make up the top four and all seem assured of a finals berth with Taringa, Rochedale and North Star destined for the double chance.

At the other end of the scale, Mt Gravatt (18), Easts (20) and Coalstars (21) will be fighting to avoid relegation with Easts and Coalstars still a slim chance of making the five.

Of the bottom sides, Easts have the hardest run home with matches against Mt Gravatt, Pine Rivers, Rochedale, Taringa and Lions. Coalstars will also do it tough with games against Rochedale, Lions, Acacia Ridge and North Star while Mt Gravatt face Easts, Taringa, Inala and CSC.

North Star coach Peter Bannon - his side seems assured of a top three finish

All the attention will turn to Heath Park this weekend where Easts host Mt Gravatt in what will be both club's most important game of the year.

While the above outcomes seem the most likely, it is possible that North Brisbane and Brisbane CSC could also be relegated.

In Division Two, Brisbane City (40), Willowburn (39) and Wynnum (38) will fight it out for promotion with Willowburn's two games in hand being the key.

The round 22 clash on August 29 between Brisbane City and Wynnum could be vital ■

EDITORIAL.....

I ventured across to the opposition last week to sample a Winfield Cup match first hand and I must admit I thoroughly enjoyed the day. John Ribot and the Broncos put on an excellent match. It was great to be part of the 55,000 crowd and witness some of the world's best players strut their stuff. The half-time entertainment was also great with Margaret Urlich bashing out four of her hit songs. I sat back and thought, wouldn't it be great to play in front of crowds like that and win. It certainly gets the blood flowing. The crowd was surprisingly well behaved with ANZ stadium making it a family day.

The funny thing is, I left the ground truly believing that Soccer has the potential to achieve some of the goals that the Broncos have. 55,000 is certainly out of range but it must be noted that soccer clubs overseas play regularly in front of these size crowds. The thing that struck me most was that I was watching the world's best players out there on the field. Unfortunately for soccer fans in Australia, we do not have all the world's best players at our feet. Unlike Rugby League, which is played well by only a handful of countries, soccer is played in around 170 countries and being the best is a great achievement. Rugby League, in that sense, is limited and the players will be the first to admit it. Take Allan Langer for example. As the one of the world's best players he recently signed a million dollar contract for the next five years. If you look at that along side Holland's Marco Van Basten who is worth $30 million and receives $A30,000 per match, there is no comparison.

If you add all this up, it means that soccer in Australia has to work hard to get its supporters. Hopefully now with Brian Kerle aboard we will be able to do that. Australia qualifying for the 1994 World Cup would also be a big help. Our next biggest problem is keeping our top line players in the country instead of exporting them overseas. The last count showed almost 50 Australians were currently contracted overseas. Those players could certainly juice up the National League in Australia.

Rochedale increase lead

Rochedale Rovers increased their lead in the XXXX Soccer League with a last gasp 1-0 win over Pine Rivers in an incident-marred match at Perry Park last weekend.

Pine Rivers coach Frank Pimblett was left to rue the loss after two refereeing mistakes cost his side the match.

Ironically, the Strathpine-based club played some of their best football this season yet came away with nothing after they were denied what looked a certain penalty in the 80th minute.

They also had just cause to question the legality of Rochedale's winner after at least two of their players appeared to be offside with some later admitting they were.

Slowly regaining their form of earlier in the season, Rochedale started the match strongly with midfielder Frank Cole causing Rivers problems down the right flank and Keiran Cooper and Justin Playle running strongly up front.

Rivers also looked dangerous and could have gone ahead as early as the 7th minute after Wayne McGauley played a dangerous ball into the Rochedale penalty area. Only a good save from keeper Graham Ross kept the scores at 0-0.

Playle and Cole combined just before the break with Playle unleashing a powerful drive that Peter Underhill did well to save.

Rochedale's Frank Cole (right) and Pine Rivers' Mark Greer - both played well in last weeks match

After the break it was more of the same with both sides creating opportunities but failing to finish.

Drama struck in the 80th minute after McGauley was brought down inside the penalty area by Rochedale defender Stuart Hart.

As McGauley lay stranded, referee Ian Luxton waved play on to the dismay of the crowd.

With the match already into injury time, Keiran Cooper increased his season's tally to 17 after neatly slotting the ball home after through ball from player/coach John Stewart.

Stewart said after the match he was happy with the result after his side was denied a win in the dying minutes against Brisbane CSC last week.

Rivers coach Frank Pimblett was disappointed after the match but said he was happy with the way his side played.

Mengotti inspires win

Brisbane Lions midfielder Frank Mengotti returned to form with a bang last week, leading his side to an easy 3-1 win over Brisbane CSC.

With only four points separating the sides prior to the match, it was always going to be a struggle but Mengotti and fellow midfielder Wayne Hinton ran the show from start to finish.

CSC, who started the match without a regular striker due to injuries and suspensions, were left to rue some missed chances in the opening minutes after Lions started poorly.

Midfielder Fred Kruys kicked Lions back into finals mode in the 15th minute after latching onto a great ball from Hinton.

With the goal in his sights, the Dutchman skilfully evaded one tackle before reeling off a dipping shot that scraped over the bar.

Soon after it was CSC's turn to come close with a Frazer Cuba shot flashing wide.

Mengotti almost opened Lions account in the 39th minute with a well driven freekick that keeper Andrew Hobbs tipped over the bar.

Lions did go up 1-0 from the resulting Kruys' corner after Mark Gilroy got the faintest of touches to turn home a Mengotti volley.

Gilroy was involved again right on half time after latching onto a Kruys' through ball.

The tenacious striker beat one defender and travelled 20m before putting in a low cross that defender Danny Valle steered into his own net.

It was more of the same after the break with poor finishing denying Lions a bigger margin.

Gilroy was the first culprit in the 51st minute, blasting over with the goal at his mercy after Hobbs had dropped a Craig Priddy cross.

He had another chance minutes later after Hinton put him through, but this time he drove his shot straight to Hobbs.

However in the 64th minute Gilroy made amends with a lovely ball that caught the CSC defence napping.

Queensland striker Warren Allen latched onto the ball, drawing Hobbs before passing to Mengotti who put the ball into an open net.

CSC did gain some reward for their efforts

Mengotti the match winner - his outstanding performance paved the way for a Lions victory late in the match when referee Henry Marron awarded a penalty after Andrew Stowell brought down John Oraloglu inside the box.

Lions coach John Sime was pleased after the match and said he was looking forward to his sides final five matches.

"I'm happy with the run in," Sime said.

"We've got to lift our fitness level but I'm glad we pulled through the match with no injuries."

His counterpart Frank Liddell was less than impressed with his sides performance and agreed the loss made it almost impossible for his side to qualify for the finals.

"It depends on the other results but we've got a hard run home," Liddell said.

"I thought it was a terrible game and both sides looked like they were outside the five."

Despite the loss, CSC are still only four points outside the five after results went their way but they would have to improve to be a threat ■

From the Sideline

Brisbane Lions coach John Sime couldn't take all the credit for his sides 3-1 win over Brisbane CSC last week. According to John, CSC played a big hand in motivating his players. It appears that the CSC officials, who were on the gate at Perry Park, wouldn't allow two of his players to enter the ground with passes. Apparently they had to pay.

"I just want to thank CSC for setting us on the right track on Saturday night," Sime said. "We had the right number of passes but they wouldn't let the boys in and they had to fork out their own money to play. I can tell you they were pretty angry and needed no geeing up to play well," he said.

While on the game at Perry Park. The home team, which for the early game was Brisbane CSC, failed to open the Folkestone Street gate or keep the scoreboard up to date as the score changed. People who usually park outside and walk in at the gate had to walk the long way around which was bad from a PR point of view. Also, people who were turning up for the second game had the wrong impression of the score. If the scoreboard is there it must be kept up to date.

Brisbane City will meet Wynnum in the final of the QSC Cup after both advanced through their semi-final matches at Perry Park last week. Brisbane City beat Souths United 3-0 in the first match with Simon Eslick and Alan Simseker netting in the first half. Simseker added his second after the break to give his side an unassailable lead. In the late match, it took extra-time to decide the result after it finished at 1-1 in normal time. Olympic United took the lead in the 30th minute through Nick Contoudios with Wynnum striking back through Mark Wilkins in the 58th. Duncan Andrews won the match for Wynnum with a goal in the 106th minute. The game was marred by a serious injury to Wynnum's Paul Wilkins. Wilkins was carried from the field with a broken leg, his second in the last 12 months. Eye on Soccer and the QSF wish Paul all the best with his recovery.

Watch out for Australia's World Cup clash with Canada which kicks off this Sunday August 1. The match can be seen on SBS Television and will screen from 6:15am AEST. The match is without a doubt one of the most important games in the history of Australian Soccer.

Top teams in a thriller

Taringa Rovers and North Star remained in the hunt for the XXXX League Premiership with a thrilling 4-4 draw at Jack Speare Park last weekend.

Billed as the match of the round, it lived up to all expectations with an actioned packed second half which included six goals.

Eddie Lees got Taringa off to a dream start in the 5th minute after Steve Glockner intercepted a bad pass. The agile striker fired off the ball to Lees who made no mistake, slamming the ball past keeper Jason Parks.

Ken Swan ensured the sides went to the break level after some poor marking by the Taringa defence.

With keeper Clint Dal Santo to beat, Swan made no mistake after latching onto a well taken corner.

North Star came out firing after the break with New Zealand import Alun Evans showing his class with some clinical finishing to put his side ahead 2-1.

After pouncing onto the ball outside the box, Evans made no mistake smashing the ball just inside the post.

Former Queensland and Brisbane United striker Jim McDonagh turned on some magic seven minutes later after Taringa skipper John Ogden mistimed a header.

McDonagh picked up the ball and beat Ogden, Dal Santo and two other defenders before making it 3-1.

With the two goal lead and Taringa struggling, North Star appeared set for victory until Colin Gwynne turned the game around in the 72nd minute.

The young midfielder fired in a cross after Taringa were awarded a freekick and an unmarked Domenic Tonel steered home the header.

Andy Lees made it 3-3 five minutes later after another Gwynne cross was well met by Greg Swadling who headed down into the path of Lees.

With the goal at his mercy, the Taringa striker made no mistake smashing the ball into the roof of the net.

It was Gwynne who supplied the ball again in the 83rd minute finding Shane Tollenare from a corner.

The lanky striker could only head the ball on to Andrew Philp who turned and volleyed the ball into the net giving Taringa a 4-3 lead.

Philp turned from hero to villain in the 89th minute with referee Lee Steen awarding a penalty after the defender handled the ball inside the area.

Michael Mulvey made no mistake from the spot and the score remained at 4-4 ■

Sime offers silent support

When relegation-threatened Eastern Suburbs run out onto the field against Mt Gravatt on Saturday night, they will receive support from an unexpected corner.

In 1989, current Brisbane Lions coach John Sime was the first man to lead the Tigers to a Grand Final win since 1972 and he would dearly love to see them avoid relegation this season.

The 42-year-old Scotsman has firmly established himself as one of the State's leading coaches, with the Premiership-Grand Final double with Lions in 1991 a major highlight.

Sime boasts an impressive career in the game with stints at Scottish clubs Dundee and Dundee United and English clubs Sheffield Wednesday and Everton.

He moved to Australia in 1983 and linked up with Lions where he played a handful of matches before moving into the coaching scene.

He took up the position at Easts in 1984 where he stayed until the Grand Final win in 1989.

After that he moved to Lions where he coached their reserve side for a year before moving into the top job.

During his time in Australia he has seen many quality players come and go but one player will stick firmly in his memory for a long time to come.

"Steve Perry is probably the player that stands out more than anybody else," Sime said.

"Not only is he a quality player, he is a quality person as well and that is rare.

"His organisational skills are unbelievable and he just seems to have the edge over all the others," he said.

"Steve could play until he is 50."

And what about a highlight?

"The Grand final win against Lions in 1989 was for me the best moment," Sime said.

"It was against all the odds and it was something special."

Sime confirmed that this would be his last season at the Richlands-based club but added he would still be involved in the game.

"I'll definitely be leaving Lions at the end of the season and I could probably see myself Sime - may move to the administration side. looking into the administration side of things," he said.

Another bright spot in the Sime success story is the achievements of his children Darren and Jilly.

Jilly is keen netballer who has made several representative sides while Darren is currently on a scholarship on the Australian Institute of Sport.

The talented youngster is a current member of the Australian Under 17 side which heads to Japan in August for the World Championships.

"Darren's probably a better player than I was," Sime said.

"I haven't seen him play for about nine months and unfortunately I won't get to go to Japan.

"Maybe if they made the final I might make the trip," he said.

"Obviously as a Father I'm very proud of both my children's achievements."

And while things are looking good all round, he is solely concentrating on getting Lions into the Grand Final.

"It's all on the day and we have as good a chance as all the others," Sime said.

"Any one of the top four teams could win it."

Eye on Soccer wishes John all the best. If he does give up coaching this year, the game will lose one of its real characters ■

Women's Soccer

Although Easts may be on top of the ladder, the QAS are still in contention with Easts as they have deferred a number of their games due to 5 players being in Denmark for the Dana Cup.

Their endurance will surely be tested on their return when they play the catch-up matches.

LOWER DIVISIONS – PREVIEW

Jim Gilbert

As fixtures now turn into the home straight and with only four rounds to go, clubs will be more than aware of the problems that would accrue from players reaching 12 points, or worse, 12 points for the second time. More than ever discipline will now be a key factor in teams' standings on the table.

DIVISION 2

City, Willowburn and Wynnum all won, so no change at the top, Beenleigh and Olympic fight out minor Semi placings, St Helens and The Gap (as predicted) drew and are the only contenders for a possible Semi place. At the bottom Slacks Creek are one match away from relegation, with Nerang not far behind, Grange and Souths both drew, so not much change there.

This weekend matches split evenly with three Saturday and three on Sunday, with the Beenleigh and The Gap match showing great interest for the Semi placings – home win, Grange's visit to Goodwin Park will be a tough one as Olympic will be anxious to retain 5th spot – home win, down at Runcorn Souths will be out to try to halt a rampant Brisbane City – away win.

On Sunday Slacks Creek's visit to St Helens probably will not give them any joy as the Saints are anxious to salvage some pride from the season, Nerang's visit to Wynnum will be like-wise, with Wynnum picking up three points, the big match of the weekend is the derby in Toowoomba with Willowburn and St Albans meeting at Bridge Street. Despite their positions on the table, this will be true test of Willowburn's promotion aspirations – home win.

DIVISION 3

Newmarket dropped a (for them) unexpected point last week, Mitchelton got back on track with a resounding win, whilst 4th place is now very much a lottery. The two at the bottom lost yet again, and whilst they are not out of the woods yet, it will be a tough road.

First match on the weekend is Friday night at Albany Creek when the visitors are Latrobe Valley, the Creek's fortunes up and down like a yo-yo, with Latrobe possibly a little bit more stable – away win. On Saturday Mitchelton visit to the Cleveland Showgrounds to visit Redlands who are anxious to avoid the drop. Last weekend Redlands were, in my opinion, a trifle unlucky not to salvage a point from their match at Murray Street, and will be out to retain their status – draw. Also that afternoon LCK visit Annerley where the home side are well and truly having the blues, they are now out of the four, and will be out to get back into Semi contention, if not promotion – home win. The big match in this Division is at St Lucia where 2nd placed University and 4th placed Goodna meet. What a cracker this should be, with the edge going ever so marginally to the home side. On Sunday, draw specialists Souths Star are at home to Capalaba who themselves are now running into form at the right time and will preserve their status for yet another season – home win. The match at McCook Park will pit bottom placed Darra against first placed Newmarket, probably not a great deal to be said about this one except – home win.

DIVISION 4

Virginia's lead at the top is now a massive 11 points with North Pine dropping points pegging them back with Redcliffe, who themselves were surprise losers on the weekend. Brighton, after another draw, are now only two points in front of Samford who will be anxious to atone for their recent lapses. Deception Bay's draw last weekend proves that no one can take them easy for the remainder of the season, and they will continue to make life difficult in the remaining rounds.

This weekend Clairvaux and Kenmore meet at Mt Gravatt with both sides having had "up and down" result of late – home win, a local derby match will take place at Samford when neighbours Pine Hills visit, the home side have more to aim for, therefore – home win. At night North Pine trek up to Ipswich to meet a team suffering fluctuating fortunes, although the visitors result last weekend was a surprise – draw. At Deception Bay Brighton make the short trip, and this will not be an easy match for the visitors, look at Deception Bay's result last week – draw. On Sunday leader's Virginia host Moggill and whilst the leaders home record is not as good as their away, they should do enough to win. Oxley United pay a visit down to Redcliffe, and certainly will go home point-less.

DIVISION 5

Bulimba Eagles have extended their lead to five points after a resounding win over Ipswich, Brothers and Toowong had a predictable draw, whilst Uni again lost ground. On Friday Slacks Creek are home to Capalaba and the Creek should retain 3rd place. On Saturday Toowong and Leichhardt meet at Dunmore Park, Toowong again should retain the points to keep their second place, whilst at Lota visitors University will do all they can to get back into the four – away win. On Sunday Brothers, now in sight of promotion, visit Loganholme and should take the points, at Bulimba visitors Annerley will probably stay in 12th place. Western Suburbs are at home to Goodna – home side expected to win.

DIVISION 6

Jimboomba's surge to the top last weekend came to a shuddering halt at Woodridge, and it will be questionable as to how this will dent their morale. Bethania also fell by the wayside to a resurgent Mitchelton, the other results were a little bit more predictable.

This weekend Jimboomba will have a chance to salvage some pride at home to Souths United – home win, whilst the battle at the top between The Gap and Woodridge will take place at Walton Bridge, both teams have scored the same number of goals, and The Gap will be out to reverse their first round drubbing – draw. At night Mitchelton are home to Darra and if Mitchelton's recent good fortune can continue they will retain 10th spot. On Sunday Beenleigh visit Spencer Park and will probably take the points, Grange and Olympic battle at Lanham Park and the home side should win, whilst a BIG match will take place at Meakin Park between Logan City Kings and Bethania – home win.

DIVISION 7

Some odd results last weekend reduced Browns Plains lead, and put Greenbank back into 2nd spot on goal difference ahead of Albany Creek, with Redlands, Wynnum and Slacks Creek battling out the 4th placing. On Friday night Slacks Creek are at home to Souths and will certainly win. The other matches are on Sunday with Redlands visit to Loganholme to be a prolific one for the away side, Greenbank home to Mimosa Creek and the Bankies to retain the points. Clairvaux and Annerley meet at Klumpp Road and the home side should keep the points, Wynnum make the trip to Western Suburbs and will take the points home, whilst Browns Plains and Albany Creek will have a real humdinger at Hyde Park – home win.

DIVISION 8

University increased their 2nd place by only one point after an unexpected home draw last week, St Helens suffered an unusual loss, whilst one-time promotion aspirants Newmarket got hammered by Bethania. On Saturday Jimboomba and University meet, Jimboomba's form has been most erratic but if they keep last week's momentum going, this should be a good match – away win, Beenleigh visit Bowman Park and will probably take the points home. The remaining matches are on Sunday with bottom placed Greenbank home to leaders Olympic – away win, Annerley and Bethania meet on Sunday and the visitors should have too much strength, Newmarket and Wynnum also meet in the early game on Sunday and this will be a tester for both sides – home win. St Helens visit to Browns Plains later that afternoon, should be a happy trip home to Ipswich.

DIVISION 9

Not a great deal of change in the table this week, however that is likely to change with some of the matches programmed over the next two weeks. Three matches on Friday night, Kenmore home to Mooroondu where the visitors will probably take the points, Lions home to Wynnum where again the visitors to take the points, and Rochedale home to Park Ridge where for a change the home side to keep the points. One match on Saturday, the battle of the Blue's with Coalstars home to Taringa, the away team is expected to take the points. On Sunday South Star and Acacia Ridge will meet with the Blue's taking the points back to Proud Field, whilst at O'Callaghan Park, North Star and Olympic will clash, and the home side should retain the points ■

Maroochy State Champs

Maroochy State High are the new Queensland champions of the Commonwealth Bank Bill Turner Cup after an emphatic 4-1 win over Brisbane Boys College at Perry Park last weekend.

The win means Maroochy State will represent the State as they advance to the National Quarter-Final of the Cup where they met NSW side Wauchope. The match will be played next month at Perry Park with the winner advancing to the Semi-Final.

Striker Matthew Packer was the star of the match with three goals, including two in the first half which set up the win.

Maroochy State took the two goal lead to the break with Packer adding his third soon after.

BBC staged a minor revival with Adam Craven reducing the score to 3-1 but Maurizio Merollini settled the match just before time to make it 4-1.

The win was all that much more special for the Maroochy State side as it was the first time they have played in the Under 15 competition.

In other schools news, BBC sealed the GPS Premiership with a hard fought 4-2 win over Churchie last Saturday ■

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 19

EASTERN SUBURBS v MT GRAVATT

Heath Park, Saturday July 31, 7.00PM

Referee - I Young

This game will be without a doubt one of the most important matches of the season. Both clubs have been regulars in the League for many years and will be desperate to do all they can to register the three points.

Easts will be especially keen to win with such a tough run in for the rest of the season.

Mt Gravatt, on the other hand, have found some form in recent weeks and will prove hard to beat.

With a draw doing neither side any good, expect a entertaining match.

MATCH WINNERS

When it comes to big matches, Easts defender Steve Perry is all class and this match should prove to be no different. He could be the key.

Mt Gravatt striker David Munn is also a big game player and will be one to watch.

NORTH STAR v INALA CITY

O'Callaghan Park, Saturday July 21, 7.00PM

Referee - R Anderson

North Star are hanging on by a thread in the Premiership race and must win from here on in to have a chance. Usually good at putting the lower sides away, this will be a test for them.

Inala, on the other hand, have scored two draws in their last two matches and are proving a thorn in the side of all who play them.

Finally they are starting to believe in themselves which shows the season has been a learning experience. Hopefully they will all be better players for it.

MATCH WINNERS

North Star's Ken Swan has returned to form after fully recovering from a nasty ankle injury. He could be the key.

Inala's Kirk Lilley was again outstanding last week, and along with Craig Thompson, will have to be watched.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 19

ACACIA RIDGE v BRISBANE CSC

Proud Oval, Saturday July 31, 7.00PM

Referee - B Hutchins

At the start of the season everybody except themselves said Acacia Ridge would struggle to avoid relegation. Well, the first round has come and gone and we have four games left and they are still in the top five - a marvellous achievement. This match will be vital to their finals chances. They must win.

CSC can also make the five but must win from here on in. Only four points clear of relegation, they must also watch their backs. It should be a tough match.

MATCH WINNERS

Acacia Ridge midfielder Jim Kelly has struck form at the right time of the season and could be one of the best value for money buys of the year.

CSC midfielder Martin Fehlberg can hold his head high after a good performance in a poor side last week. He is one to watch.

NORTH BRISBANE v TARINGA ROVERS

Prentice Park, Sunday August 1, 2.45PM

Referee - D Southgate

North Brisbane wasted a valuable chance to move closer to the five last week and will be out to make up for it in this match. Always looking a top five side, they have had trouble beating the lower placed sides which may cost them a finals spot. If they are to have a chance they must win this one. Taringa staged a houdini act last week to secure a point and could have taken all three. With their winning streak over, they must get it back before the finals come around. It will be a tough match.

MATCH WINNERS

Aces defender David Vincenzino had a strong game last week and will be looking forward to the challenge in this match. He is one to watch.

Taringa midfielder Colin Gwynne can take much of the credit for his sides comeback last week and could be the key.

XXXX LEAGUE - ROUND 19

BRISBANE LIONS v PINE RIVERS

Lions Stadium, Sunday August 1, 2.45PM

Referee - S McGregor

This match will also be one of the best of the round with both sides looking to secure a berth in the five. While Lions appear safe, anything can happen and they will be going all out for a win in this one.

Pine Rivers, on the other hand, will still be fuming after the result didn't go their way last weekend.

Desperate to make the five, they cannot afford to lose this one.

Brisbane Lions' Frank Mengotti took his season's goal tally to seven last week, one of his best scoring seasons ever. With finals time just around the corner, he is one to watch.

Rivers midfielder Andy Strickland is another who played well last week and he could be the key.

COALSTARS v ROCHEDALE ROVERS

Eric Evans Soccer Reserve, Sunday August 1, 2.45PM

Referee - F Falkner

Coalstars run of good football and good results came to an end last weekend with a disappointing 1-0 loss to Eastern Suburbs.

The loss means relegation is still a real threat and they must work hard to avoid it.

Rochedale, on the other hand, had some much needed luck last week and are slowly firming as finals favourites. After a rough patch mid season, they appear to be back on the rails.

With all this in mind it will be a tough match.

MATCH WINNERS

Coalstars captain Alan McFarlane led from the front last week and would have been deeply disappointed with the result. Being the true leader that he is, he must get them going again this week.

Rochedale midfielder John Wetherby played well last week and could be the key in this one.
