Goal spree

lead

Hard road to CCSL finals

Rain puts dampener on Rnd 3

Rain sent the XXXX Soccer League into submission last weekend with just three matches being completed.

Pine Rivers took full advantage of their clash with Rocklea United to boost their goal average, booting home six goals past Rocklea's Elvis Guzic.

The home side led 2-0 at half time but poured on the power after the break scoring four more and conceding just one.

Pejo Stanic provided some relief for the visitors scoring their first goal in the XXXX League, leaving Acacia Ridge as the only team yet to score this season.

In other matches, Willowburn and North Star fought out a 1-1 draw in Toowoomba with both goalkeepers producing some outstanding saves in the match.

Michael Brockwell gave North Star the lead in the 13th minute with a well taken goal while Paul Daly equalised for Willowburn 10 minutes after half time.

Surprisingly North Star's Damien Rosenthal was omitted from the North Star starting line-up.

Damien Rosenthal - surprisingly overlooked by coach Miron Bleiberg

Rosenthal scored two and was named Man of the Match against Easts the previous week but was overlooked by coach Miron Bleiberg.

Taringa Rovers confirmed their Premiership status with a difficult 2-0 win over Coalstars at Eric Evans Reserve.

Coach Juan Cutillas rated the away win as a good one and said his side was ready for the clash with Pine Rivers on Friday night.

"It was a very rough game," Cutillas said.

"But overall it was a great win and probably the most pressure they put on us was at corners," he said.

Taringa's first goal came in the 30th minute after striker Andy Lees played in a pin point cross which was headed home by midfielder Andrew Brayshaw.

They struck again deep into injury time when striker Joe Stipancic drove home from a goalmouth scramble. *

Goal spree gives Rivers lead

Pine Rivers are the new XXXX Soccer League leaders after an amazing run which has seen them score 15 goals in two games.

The Strathpine-based club head to Indooroopilly this week where they play Taringa Rovers.

Taringa have returned to their winning ways in the last two weeks with wins over Rocklea United and the more fancied Coalstars.

Eye On Soccer caught up with Taringa coach Juan Cutillas after the win over Coalstars and he was confident of stretching their unbeaten run to three this Friday.

"I have my backline complete with the return of Stuart Greer and Domenic Tonel and I am confident we can win at home," Cutillas said.

In other matches, Rochedale Rovers and Brisbane Lions will also clash on Friday night at Underwood Park. Rochedale can extend their unbeaten run to three with a win in the match and coach Frank Liddell will welcome the news that defender Paddy Dillon is available for the clash.

Dillon received a one week suspension after his sides match against Pine Rivers and was due to miss the clash with North Brisbane last week but received a reprieve when that match was called off due to wet weather.

On Saturday, Rocklea United will be looking to open their account against an ever-improving North Brisbane while Acacia Ridge and Eastern Suburbs meet at Proud Field. Both sides are yet to record a win with Acacia Ridge still searching for their first goal of the season.

The two newly promoted teams, Wynnum and Willowburn go head to head at Boundary Street in what should be a close encounter.

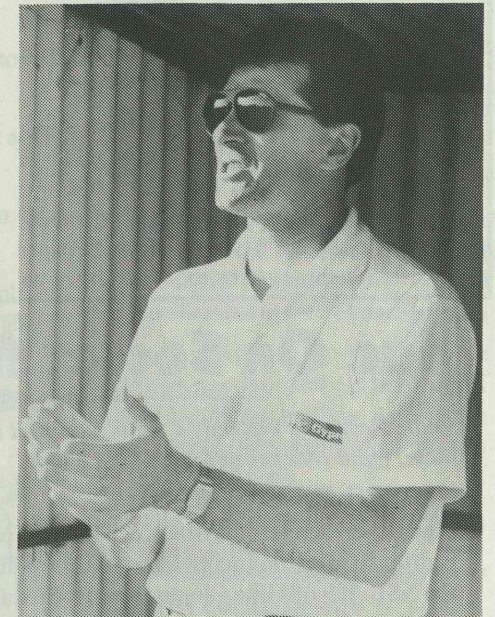

Wynnum's game against Easts was washed out last week with Willowburn gaining plenty of confidence in their 1-1 draw with North Star at Bridge Street.

Coalstars expect to have defender Andrew King fit to play against North Star after he was stretchered off the park in their clash against Taringa last Sunday.

The talented 19-year-old first feared his leg was broken after receiving a deep cut near the top of the shin.

Coalstars President David O'Leary said King was "battered and bruised" but a definite chance of starting against North Star. *

EDITORIAL

Violence at Australian Soccer matches is something that has become rare in recent years so it was surprising to see what happened at the CCSL match between South Melbourne and the Melbourne Knights at Middle Park last weekend. 15,000 spectators were packed into the ground with the Greek and Croatian sections of the crowd allegedly involved in a clash. Soccer has tried very hard to lose its association with ethnic violence so hopefully we will not see a repeat performance in the future. Chief Executive of the ASF, Mr Ian Homes, said that a full investigation into the disturbance was under way and stressed that the ASF condemns all anti-social behaviour and was working hard to eradicate these type of incidents.

On the local scene it was disappointing to see the weather interfere with Round 3 of the XXXX League last weekend but hopefully all of that is behind us. It has not been good to see 6-0 type results in the paper over the last three weeks and certainly shows that a couple of XXXX League teams are way off the mark when it comes to performance. Hopefully the likes of Rocklea United, Acacia Ridge and Eastern Suburbs can put these hefty losses behind them and forge on to bigger and better performances.

This week sees two exciting clashes on Friday night. Taringa Rovers host Pine Rivers at Jack Speare Park and Brisbane Lions travel to Underwood Park to take on Rochedale Rovers. All of these teams are definite top five prospects and these matches should give their supporters an indication of how they are travelling at this early stage. Pine Rivers and Rochedale Rovers are undefeated and will be looking to keep their records in tact. In Saturday's matches Rocklea host North Brisbane, Acacia Ridge clash with Eastern Suburbs, Wynnum host Willowburn and Coalstars head to North Star. The match-up of the two former Division Two teams (Wynnum and Willowburn) should be the pick of the Saturday matches. □

Eye On Soccer Monthly Awards

While February was only a short month, it is time to reflect on the performances of the players and coaches in the XXXX League.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Pine Rivers striker Clayton Koch has had plenty of media coverage in recent weeks but rightly so after bouncing back from the disappointment of missing out on playing in the NSL. It looks like Clayton and Rochedale's Keiran Cooper are ready for a do or die battle for the leading scorer's title.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

North Star youngster Brent Reynolds is a player who looks set for a big future in the game. A central defender, Reynolds handled the likes of Warren Allen and Wayne Corbett well in his first two outings and showed plenty of skill and attacking flair.

COACH OF THE MONTH

Pine Rivers coach Dave Scriggins has only signed two new players in 1994 but has already got them playing the type of football that the fans want to see. Although there is plenty of work ahead, he seems to have struck up the right working relationship with his players.

Koch kicks Rivers to top spot

Pine Rivers striker Clayton Koch is enjoying his successful return to the XXXX League but believes there is plenty of work ahead of him before the season is out.

The livewire 23-year-old has already scored 7 goals in his side's opening three matches, three ahead of Rochedale's Keiran Cooper who has a game in hand.

Last weekend he added another two to his tally but was quick to point out that five of his goals had come against lesser teams.

Renowned for his quiet nature, Koch wasn't giving too much away but took time out to heap praise on rival Cooper.

"I've set myself three goals, one of which is to beat Keiran Cooper," Koch said.

He said he believed he would need to be at his peak to achieve that aim.

"I still believe I'll need more than 20 to beat Coops," he said.

"He looked magnificent against us when we played them and he's very good at exploiting week backlines."

Pine Rivers play current Premiers Taringa Rovers at Jack Speare Park this Friday night and go into the match without a loss.

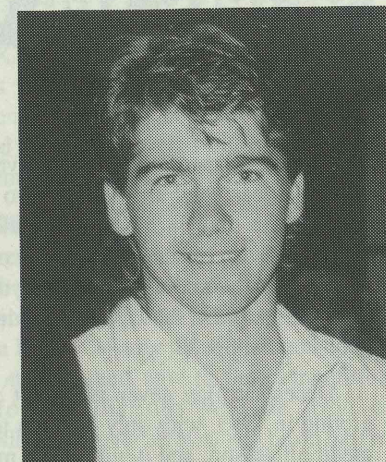

"We haven't really reached our peak fitness yet," Koch added.

"Our start has been pretty good but we've played two of the bottom sides so we'll see how we go."

Koch played all of his junior football at Pine Rivers and helped the club earn promotion into the XXXX League back in 1989.

After a successful stint in the League he was signed by CCSL club Sydney United (then Croatia) in 1989 where he spent a season before returning to link up with Brisbane United.

That year he scored 6 goals in the CCSL and seemed set for a big career in the National competition.

"I'll need more than 20 to beat Coops" claims Pine Rivers current goal scoring machine Clayton Koch who is leading the pack with 7 goals

But injury plagued his second year with United and he opted to miss last years XXXX League to ready himself for another shot in the National League.

That plan fell apart late last year when he was omitted from the Strikers squad but he has bounced back in the best possible way doing what he does best - scoring goals.

Eye on Soccer wishes him all the best for the rest of 1994. ✨

Division 5

Bayside United will look to have a big year this year, they are fielding two teams for the first time in a long time and that, combined with the official opening of their new clubhouse, and it appears everything is right off the pitch, but can they produce the goods on the pitch?

Deception Bay never really got off the ground in 1993, with only one win to their credit all season, and it will take a massive injection of morale to lift them out of Division 5, the main thing going for them is the area in which they are located, with plenty of potential for support.

Goodna is another team with lots of ups and downs, two seasons ago they were championship material, last year very ordinary, maybe this is the year in which everything Goodna touches, turns to gold. For Latrobe Athletic, this will be very much a proving year for them, as their amalgamation in the off season with Toowong will see an influx of players spread over many teams, expected to do well. Leichhardt Eagles had a very ordinary year last year, it started badly by losing a team from division 7, and turned out to be ordinary for their Division 5 side, should and could do better. But for some administrative irregularities, Loganholme could well have been pushing for a semifinal place last year, they will do better and are fully expected to finish in the top half. For once-proud Oxley United, this is getting to be almost habit forming going between Divisions 4 and 5, it is to hoped for the proud heritage of the club that they can get back up to the higher divisions sooner - rather than later.

Slacks Creek are not enjoying the best of fortunes, their top side were relegated, and this team also had some misfortune in 1993, player departures from the club are expected to affect the standing of this team. The Gap having yet again attained promotion, may find this Division a bit hot to handle for their "veterans", however they should do well, as talent knows no age restrictions. The students at St Lucia had an excellent year in 1993, promotion of their top side could reflect on this team, however. For the last two (alphabetical listing) teams in this division Western Suburbs and Woodridge, it will be very much a "toss the coin" job as far as predictions are concerned, both clubs have lost players and officials in the off-season, it will be interesting to see how they fare this year.

Annerley were relegated 5 last year, and will probably struggle in this one, whilst for Beenleigh this will be more of a social outing for some of their players. Bethania Rams, on the other hand, have been trying to get out of this division for the last two seasons, and been getting pipped each year, maybe this is their year. For Brisbane City this will be a division in which their players will undoubtedly just enjoy themselves.

The two promoted clubs from division 7 last year, Browns Plains and Greenbank, may well find the step up difficult to adjust to in the early stages, however both sides have good players and are fully expected to do well. Capalaba were relegated from Division 5, and this will be very much an outing for these players. Grange Thistle on the other hand, always take points off the more fancied teams, and shouldn't be underestimated. Jimboomba upset a number of clubs last year, and finished in a very creditable fifth placing, they are expected to be in the semis at the end of the year. Logan City Kings also enjoyed fluctuating fortunes last year, but with the extra importance given to their top side this year, this is the team which will probably suffer. Olympic, who only just held their status in this division last year, will probably not fare much better, likewise for Souths United, at least for them they were nine points adrift of relegation.

Division 7

Albany Creek will probably have another good year in this grade, which is probably a little bit more than could be said for Annerley. Clairvaux, playing on Friday nights, will probably have a better year, whilst for Darra they will struggle. Deception Bay are new to this grade and are therefore unknown, the same can be said for Inala City. Mitchelton have just come down a peg, so they may be looking for top half consolidation, Olympic United are the Premiers from Division 8 and will do well. Redlands United should also do well, as will St Helens who were promoted from Division 8. Western Suburbs will probably struggle in this grade.

Division 8

Bayside are an unknown quantity, therefore predictions are difficult, Beenleigh can expect mid-table status, as can Bethania. For Jimboomba, hopefully their top side enthusiasm will rub off on them, Latrobe Athletic very ordinary last year should do better. Loganholme suffered from their top side's "points lost" syndrome, but should do well in this grade, Mooroondu have been promoted and may struggle in their first year. Mt Gravatt are new to this division therefore unpredictable, Newmarket flattered to deceive but could only finish fourth - should do better. Oxley and University could well end up at the opposite ends of the spectrum, based on last year's performances.

Division 9A

Last year's second placed team, North Star has already fallen by the wayside, however it is expected that the fifth "social" teams from the XXXX League clubs will all do well again in this year. For the only new club in this division - Park Ridge - hopefully they will have learned from last year and will be finishing up in a semifinal placing.

Division 9B

There are two changes to the originally published list in this division, with Pine Hills replacing Samford, and Rochedale replacing Acacia Ridge. Nearly all of the teams in this division are brand new to the competition, therefore predictions will be nigh on impossible, however all eyes will be on the two new clubs in this division - Kingsridge and Margate, and we bid them welcome.

For those who wondered why these lower divisions are numbered in this way, ask some of the players if they wish to be playing in Division 10!

Next week - First round previews. *

Hard road to CCSL finals

The Brisbane Strikers left themselves was an imposing mission after losing 2-1 to the West Adelaide Sharks in Adelaide last Sunday.

Currently four points outside the top six, the Strikers need to win all of their remaining three matches, including this Sunday's clash with second placed South Melbourne at Perry Park.

Featured on the SBS Match of the Day program, the South Melbourne clash could also go a long way to deciding who wins the Premiership.

Socceroos Paul Wade, Mehmet Durakovic and Jason Polak will invade Perry Park along with former Socceroos Paul Trimboli, Francis Awaritefe and Mike Petersen.

Brisbane's only concern is a minor injury to captain Steve Jackson who strained his calf muscle midway through the first half in the clash with West Adelaide.

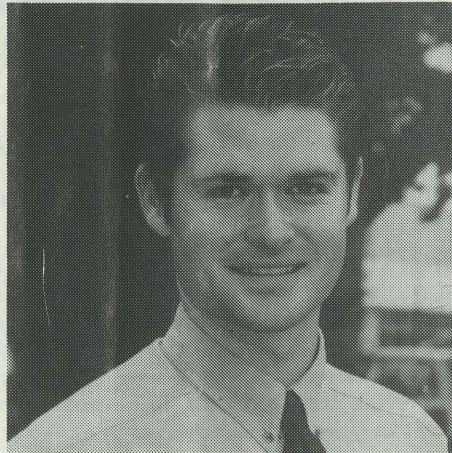

The Sharks got off to a dream start with striker Pablo Cardozo netting in the 13th minute after good lead-up work from Greg Brown.

Raymond Blair almost made it 2-0 soon after but was denied by the woodwork.

Brisbane rallied after the break with Sean Cranney and Danny Wright looking dangerous although neither could find the net.

With time running out the Strikers pushed forward and were caught on the break with Socceroo Stan Lazaridis finding Brown unmarked at the far post to make it 2-0.

Alan Hunter finally found the net in the 89th minute after a surging run into the box and a quality shot.

Replacement goalkeeper Graham Ross will admirably fill the hole left by Clint Bolton.

In the National Youth League, the QAS remained in the hunt for a finals berth with a hard fought 1-0 win over the Marconi Academy in Sydney.

Midfielder Stuart Collins was the hero for the visitors, heading home a Reece Tollenaere cross in the 82nd minute.

They now play the ACT Institute of Sport at Perry Park this Sunday. *

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 4

TARINGA ROVERS v PINE RIVERS UNITED

Jack Speare Park, Indooroopilly, Friday Mar 11, 8:30pm
Referee - G Nicholson

Both sides have two wins under their belt this season and have been tipped to feature prominently in the finals this year. Taringa started poorly against Rochedale Rovers in Round 1 but have rallied with impressive wins over Rocklea United and Coalstars.

Rivers, on the other hand, have had comfortable wins against two of the bottom sides but performed strongly when put to the test against Rochedale Rovers. A close game that should be decided by one goal.

MATCH WINNERS

Taringa's Brenley Jefferd showed why he was a Young Soccerroo member last week with a scintillating game and should cause Rivers hassles. Striker Lindsay Dines scored his first goal last week and will be dangerous.

ROCHEDALE ROVERS v BRISBANE LIONS

Underwood Park, Rochedale, Friday Mar 11, 8:30pm
Referee - P Hulme

Rochedale Rovers and Brisbane Lions have been old adversaries since their first ever clash, with Lions gaining the edge last season. The boys from Richlands won 1-0 at home last year and were unlucky to draw 1-1 at Underwood Park.

This time around should be just as close with Rochedale undefeated in two clashes and Lions coming off a dominating 2-0 win over Wynnum two weeks ago.

MATCH WINNERS

Rochedale's John Stewart has dominated the midfield in recent weeks and will have to be at his best against Frank Mengotti. Lions' striker Warren Allen is yet to score and must be due for a goal in this one. He will have to be watched.

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 4

ROCKLEA UNITED v NORTH BRISBANE

Dunn Road, Rocklea, Saturday Mar 12, 3:45pm

Referee - S McGregor

North Brisbane started the season slowly with a 4-1 loss to Wynnum but rallied quickly with a 3-0 win over Acacia Ridge. Rocklea United, however, are yet to register a point although they can take some solace from the fact that they scored their first goal for the season against Pine Rivers last weekend. Last year the sides fought out two 0-0 draws so this match could be a close one.

MATCH WINNERS

North Brisbane's Scott Cunningham is one player who can turn a match and is looking strong after a long lay-off due to a knee injury. Pejo Stanic was the man who scored Rocklea's first XXXX League goal and he will be wanting to do the same again this weekend.

WYNNUM v WILLOWBURN

Boundary Street, Tingalpa, Saturday Mar 12, 7:00pm

Referee - G Brownlie

Wynnum and Willowburn have both adjusted slowly to the XXXX League since their promotion but should feel right at home in this match.

The Wolves are yet to win at home and should come close in this clash while Willowburn arrive at Carmichael Park full of confidence after holding leaders North Star to a 1-1 draw in Toowoomba last week.

Wynnum defender Danny Valle is yet to show his full potential to his home supporters and will be keen for a big one in this clash.

Toowoomba keeper Trevor Gilliland was outstanding last week, narrowly missing Man of the Match. He will be one to watch.

ACACIA RIDGE v EASTERN SUBURBS

Proud Oval, Acacia Ridge, Saturday Mar 12, 7:00pm

Referee - R Eedy

Both sides have experienced big losses in recent weeks and will be desperate to get their first victory of the season. Acacia Ridge look solid on paper but are yet to find the rhythm that saw them just miss out on the top five last year.

East is another side yet to find their rhythm and will be hoping they can quickly make amends for their 6-1 loss to North Star.

MATCH WINNERS

New signings Craig Thompson and Martin Kirsopp should shine for the Ridge in this clash and will have to be watched. Look out too for Easts striker Wayne Corbett and midfielder Chris Nicol. They should add plenty of much needed bite to the Easts line-up.

NORTH STAR v COALSTARS

O'Callaghan Park, Zillmere, Saturday Mar 12, 6.00pm

Referee - L Steen

North Star and Coalstars matches are traditionally tough encounters and this one will be no exception. Both enter the match after playing below their best last week and will be desperate to stay in the top three. Last year saw Coalstars take the honours winning 4-2 at home and drawing 1-1 away. Will 1994 be any different?

New signing Paul Worroll looks the goods in a North Star outfit and seems to be getting better with every match. He could be the key.

Coalstars keeper Kevin Farrar is one of the silent achievers at the Ipswich-based club and will have to be at his best for this clash.
