Penalty robs Rocklea

Strikers beat Breakers three year bogey

The Brisbane Strikers ended their 1993/94 Coca-Cola Soccer League campaign on a winning note last weekend with a tidy 1-0 win over rivals Newcastle BHP.

The Strikers had never beaten the Breakers in the three years since they returned to the CCSL but never looked like losing the match.

The three points from the clash left Brisbane's season tally at 36 points, double their intake in the 1992/93 CCSL season.

Newcastle started slightly better than the Strikers but failed to get past keeper Graham Ross who finished the season in outstanding form.

After a below par first half coach Bruce Stowell gave the side a quick pep talk at the break and the move paid wonders with Danny Wright (pictured) snatching the winner straight after the break.

Sean Cranney provided the platform for the goal with a surging run down the right flank. The 20 year old beat his marker before sending over a pin point cross that Wright met with a beautiful diving header.

Troy Cranney could have extended the lead with minutes remaining after surging past two defenders and the keeper, only to push his shot wide with the goal at his mercy.

Newcastle rallied late with several quality shots but were denied by Ross who made several acrobatic saves.

In the National Youth League, the QAS finished their season on a high note with a 5-0 thrashing of the Newcastle Youth side.

Dynamic striker Richard Hilli opened the account for the QAS in the 40th minute but it was in a barnstorming 10 minute period where the damage was done. Reece Tollenaere made it 2-0 in the 72nd minute with Ben Wood, Hilli and Stachowicz also scoring by the 82nd. *

Late penalty robs Rocklea

A controversial last minute penalty was enough to deny Rocklea United their first win of the season when they drew 2-2 with Easts at Dunn Road last weekend.

In a dour affair, Easts opened the scoring late in the second half when Makridakis's freekick found Carson, who headed home.

With only minutes of normal time remaining, Rocklea's Anthony Cule equalised from close range.

Pejo Stanic put the home side in front just before full time with an outrageous back heel over keeper, Chris Roche, that found the top left hand corner of the net.

This was definitely the goal of the year to date and should have given Rocklea their first XXXX League win.

However the home side was denied when a dubious referee's decision gave Easts a penalty during injury time. Chris Fegan converted and Easts scraped home with a draw.

Rocklea coach, John Caric, was disappointed with the result but fairly happy with his team's performance.

"We deserved to win," Caric said. "The boys are starting to work hard and are getting better every week.

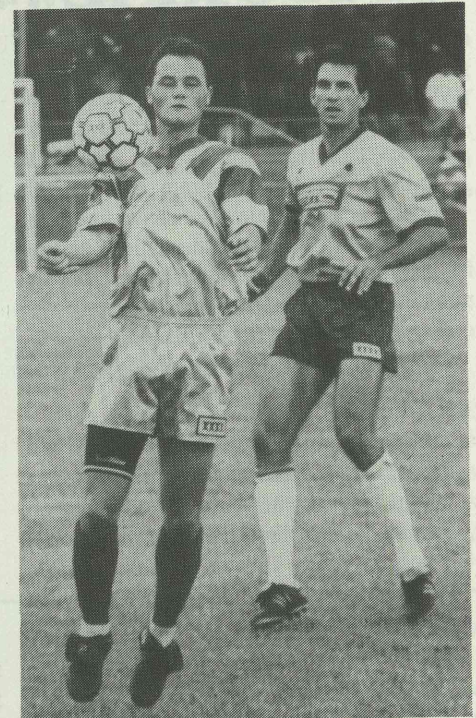

"It's just silly mistakes that are causing us goals.

"Once we get our defence organised, we can give the better teams a go."

Easts coach, Calvin Daunt, said his team did not deserve any points.

"We weren't good enough. We thought we were too good and they showed us up," Daunt said.

"The simple things were there, and we didn't do them.

Coalstars' midfielder Darren Petie pictured earlier this season, gave his side a 1-0 win over Wynnum last week

"If we didn't have Fegan we would have got thumped."

In other matches, Taringa bounced back from last week's thrashing, to down Lions 1-0, an unfortunate own-goal gave Pine Rivers a 1-0 win over North Brisbane, Rochedale flogged Willowburn 6-1, Acacia Ridge squandered their half-time lead by losing 2-1 to North Star, and Coalstars scored a 1-0 win over Wynnum. *

EDITORIAL

Now that the CCSL has come to a close it is important that Queensland Soccer continues its association with the media. The XXXX League and the Queensland Cup are the best two avenues to do that, along with the 1994 State Team program. All the media outlets, including television, have supported soccer well throughout the winter and we must look to use that support as a platform for the future. XXXX League coaches were encouraged during the week to make contact with the local media in an attempt to lift the profile of the XXXX League.

Speaking of the XXXX League, it will be interesting to see what affect the National League players have on the competition. Several of the Strikers players have indicated they are keen to link up with clubs in the local competition and that can only enhance the value for the supporters. Already we have seen some excellent clashes in the league and I'm sure there is plenty more where that came from. Last week I went to Speare Park to watch Brisbane Lions and Taringa Rovers do battle and it was amazing to see the determination on the faces of the Taringa players. Any side that can bounce back to beat Lions 1-0 after a 6-1 thrashing the previous week must be congratulated and I'm sure it will stand them in good stead in the future.

This week sees North Star and Rochedale Rovers going head to head out at Zillmere, in what should be a real indicator of both sides finals chances. North Star are undefeated while Rochedale are the reigning champions so it should be the highlight of the season to date.

Finally, please make welcome the new Editor of Eye on Soccer over the next five editions. I am going on an overdue holiday and have called on the services of a journalist friend of mine to fill the Editor's role. Jason Kluver will take over the hot seat so please make him welcome.

Letters not bearing the senders name and address will not be published. Names will be withheld on request. Address all letters to "MAILBOX" Eye On Soccer, Perry Park, Abbotsford Road, Mayne 4006.

Dear Ed,

Rochedale Rovers Soccer Club Limited would like to make it clear that the two letters printed in Eye on Soccer (Vol 3 No 6 and Vol 3 No 3) were from David Bearman and not Rochedale Rovers. If you had noticed both letters were signed by David Bearman and not Rochedale Rovers Soccer Club Limited. We realise how fortunate we here at Rochedale

Rovers are and we do remember when we too had nothing. But it is not in our policy or nature to think we have come so far that we have the right to criticise some of our fellow clubs. In fact, we receive numerous calls from clubs for advice and we are always only too willing to help. Through our local media and radio we are forever emphasising that we would like to see all clubs with the same facilities as ours as it can only be for the betterment of the code.

Finally, I would like to apologise to Eastern Suburbs Soccer Club but I feel an apology from Eye on Soccer would be more appropriate as you have certainly put our club miles behind in our public relations. Can you imagine what other clubs are going to think when they read these articles. They will think we have our nose stuck way up in the air and that we think we >

Ampol Refinery's Colts Cup

If you want to see some great football, are interested in our youth, the future of the code, then take yourself down to Wynnum SC on Monday and Wednesday nights for the running of the 13th Ampol Colts Cup.

This year Ampol Refinery has put up $1500 and of course the cup itself.

Being the only competition of its kind in Brisbane, it is keenly contested with ten teams making up two groups. Group A, which plays on Monday nights are Rochedale Rovers, Grange Thistle, Pine Rivers, North Star and Wynnum. Wednesday nights Group B, comprises Brisbane City, North Brisbane, Brisbane Lions, Olympic United and Eastern Suburbs.

The finals are set down for April 20 with the winners of each group naturally meeting for the Cup. Third and fourth place playoff will kick off at 7pm with the main game to follow in what should be a corker of an evening and one to put in your diary not to miss.

The competition is already into it's third week with current leaders of Group A being Rochedale Rovers and Brisbane Lions on top of Group B.

A spokesperson for the Wynnum Club, Mr Tony Furphy, expressed their gratitude to Ampol for their continued and generous support in a 13 year old sponsorship that is aimed squarely at the youth of the community and soccer. *

are so far ahead of everybody that all we want to do is criticise. I hope you do the right thing and rectify this nasty situation as soon as possible. Finally, I would like to commend you on your excellent publication and in particular your Mailbox segment which gives both clubs and individuals the chance to voice their opinions, but please make sure you research the difference.

Yours in sport, Keiran Cooper
Rochedale Rovers' Development Officer

Keiran, thanks for your letter. I'm sure after reading the letter concerned that all readers knew Dave was a player with the Rochedale Rovers Soccer Club and I'm sure they knew it was just his personal opinion. If Eye on Soccer caused your club any trouble we would like to apologise but I really don't think we have. Since I have been in control of the magazine it has had nothing but praise for the way Rochedale Rovers is run and I don't see any reason why that won't continue. The fax I received from Dave had Rochedale Rovers SC on the top of the page so that was the only reason why the letter was attributed Dave Bearman of Rochedale Rovers Soccer Club. I think the public are smart enough to know that the complaint was from an individual of your club, not on behalf of your club. Good luck in the future. Ed.

Dear Sir,

The Annerley Recreation Club Inc will be celebrating 50 years in 1995. The club is appealing to all past and present members, players and supporters for assistance in producing a history of the club. A social gathering will be held Sunday, April 17, 1994 from 2pm at the clubhouse in Ridge Street, Greenslopes. All welcome. For further information call Marie Rogers 277 1327.

Yours in Sport,
Marie Rogers OAM.

Marie, good luck with your reunion and I hope you get plenty of response. Congratulations on achieving such a milestone. Ed.

Revival for Blue Machine

Taringa Rovers stormed back into form with a determined 1-0 win over Brisbane Lions at Speare Park last weekend.

The Blue Machine were handed a humiliating 6-1 defeat by North Brisbane last weekend but showed tremendous fighting qualities to take the points against Lions.

Andy Lees (pictured), gave the home side the lead in the 16th minute after Eddie Lees and Brent Read had worked a neat short corner. Eddie's near post cross found his brother Andy who was on hand to deflect a shot over the line.

A minute later it was Lions' turn to pepper the goals with Queensland striker Warren Allen pushing the ball wide with just Jason Lucas to beat.

However it was Taringa's night with the Lees brothers tormenting Lions' backline with their telepathic understanding. The pair almost extended the lead in the 26th minute after a cross from Andy was headed goalwards by Eddie.

Only a great save from Robbie Farrow denied the goal. Farrow, who has bounced back well after breaking his wrist late last year, was in fine form and saved his side from a bigger defeat.

The 31 year old was involved again in the second half, using his legs to deny a point blank strike from Eddie Lees.

Lions did have one chance to equalise after the break when Frank Mengotti unleashed a powerful drive from the edge of the area.

This time it was Farrow's counterpart, youngster Lucas, who was on hand to deny a goal.

Taringa coach Juan Cutillas heaped praise on his players after the match but was quick to single out Lions' keeper Robbie Farrow.

"It was a very good comeback after last week, we proved the critics wrong and we are now very much in the running."

Cutillas said he believed his side should have won by at least two goals.

"Robbie Farrow was fantastic, if it wasn't for him we could have won this game easily."

Taringa were boosted by the return of Mark Bennett, who arrived back in Australia from England two weeks ago. Bennett will now provide plenty of stability.

Lions coach Billy Williamson was disappointed with the loss but disagreed with Cutillas.

"I thought a draw would have been a fair result but I've got no complaints." *

FROM THE SIDELINE

Thumbs down to the supporters at Rocklea United last week who bailed up referee Stan McGregor outside the dressing room following Rocklea's unlucky 2-2 draw with Eastern Suburbs. McGregor was in hot water with the spectators for awarding a penalty to Easts in the 7th minute of injury time. Luckily, a few of the Easts officials surrounded McGregor and his linesman who must have felt uncomfortable for a few minutes. Hopefully we will not see a repeat of such an act in the future. It ruined what was probably the best performance by John Caric's young side this season.

All the best to the five QAS girls who are currently in New Zealand with the Australian Under 19 side. The girls will play three matches against the Kiwi's and arrive back in Brisbane on Tuesday. To Katie Smith, Belinda Kitching, Kim Revell, Trena Youngblutt, and Mia Thompson, we at Eye on Soccer wish you all the best.

Speaking of women's soccer, there is plenty happening on that front in 1994. The Year of the Coach is also the year of World Cup qualification for the Australian Women's team. The Cup will be held in Sweden in June 1995 and Australia will compete for a place in that competition at the Oceania Qualifying Tournament in October 1994. With that tournament in mind the Australian Women's Soccer Association is attempting to fast-track the National team's preparation and has a tournament pencilled in on the Gold Coast. The ASWA is preparing two Aussie teams to participate in a series of games against Russia at the Coast in April. The games should feature plenty of Queensland's finest players and should be a treat to watch. Watch out for more information regarding the tournament in upcoming weeks.

Easts had a little bit of luck with that 2-2 draw against Rocklea at Dunn Road last week but not according to officials at Easts. The Calvin Daunt coached side lost striker Wayne Corbett midweek after he sustained yet another knee injury. With that out of the way Easts were set to concentrate on the Rocklea clash but lost another player just 45 minutes before the match was about to begin. Former Rockhampton midfielder Chris Nicol, who has been with the side for several seasons now, was badly burned on his way to the game after checking the water in the radiator. Eye on Soccer wishes Chris a speedy recovery and a Happy Easter.

Latest scoop from Rochedale Rovers says that Justin Playle has left the club and requested a transfer. The talented striker left the club midweek leaving coach Frank Liddell with a hole to fill up front. While disappointed at losing Playle, Liddell said he was fortunate to have the Gold Coast's Craig Walsh. Walsh scored two against Willowburn last week and will be a definite asset to the club.

While on Rochedale it was good to see midfielder Alan Prentice making his much awaited return to the XXXX League last weekend after a long lay-off due to a knee injury. Prentice was signed at Underwood Park after spending a couple of seasons at Mt Gravatt and could be just the impetus the Rovers need to beat North Star in the Match of the Round this weekend.

Before The Whistle

The surprises continue in some of the Divisions, with lots of goals being scored, just have a look at last week's Division 3 results. Matches this week will be played over three days of the weekend, giving a long weekend to most, but also allowing supporters to catch a number of matches.

DIVISION 2

Two matches on Saturday night, with Grange v St Helens most difficult to predict, both teams went down by one goal last week, home side favourite. Down at Runcorn, The Gap visit Souths United who picked themselves up last week, The Gap finding it difficult to score goals, home win. On Sunday the two relegated XXXX League sides meet at Dittmer Park with Inala City as visitors riding high at the top of the table, a draw is quite on the cards but I'll stick my neck out - narrow away win. At night Olympic will be hosting St Albans, with the visitors likely to have a long trip home.

On Monday Beenleigh make the trip to St Lucia, with neither side setting the house on fire as yet, away win, the last match sees high scoring City at home to neighbours Newmarket - difficult to see anything other than a home win.

DIVISION 3

I took in a match in this division last weekend and was not overly impressed with the ball skills of many players. On this performance both sides could only be considered "mid-table" prospects. No names, no pack drill, except they were old rivals.

All Saturday games this weekend are at night, with the first one Mitchelton at home to Nerang with the visitors tipped. Slacks Creek are home to Annerley, with the home side putting goals galore away, home win. Capalaba and North Pine United also meet at night, both sides went down fairly heavily last weekend, home side slightly favoured.

The last Saturday match is Goodna home to Albany Creek with the home side trying to work out how they can score five goals and yet still lose - home side favourite. Only one game on Sunday with Virginia home to Logan City Kings, looks to be a score draw, with the last match on Monday seeing Latrobe visiting South Star and taking the points home with them.

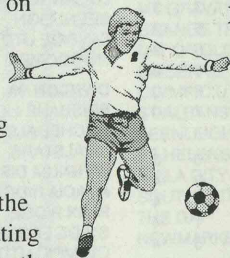

DIVISION 4

Only one match Saturday afternoon with Southside Eagles at home to Ipswich City, they will keep the points at Bulimba, at night Moggill host Recliffe City, with honours fairly even between these sides, narrow home win. On Sunday Brothers are at home to Kenmore, with the visitors favoured, on the Jinka Track, Samford will pay a visit to Pine Hills, a be rewarded.

Monday, Clairvaux go down to the peninsula to meet Brighton, good match this, both sides have recorded two wins to date, home side favoured, the last match is Darra and Redlands with the visitors to win.

DIVISION 5

Latrobe v Slacks Creek looks a home win, Bayside v Woodridge points to a draw, whilst neighbours Goodna meet Oxley with the away side favoured. On Saturday night Leichhardt make the trip down to Deception Bay where the points will remain at home. One game only Sunday, Wests v University, students the tip, on Monday The Gap meet Loganholme with the Walton Bridge veterans tipped.

DIVISION 6

Beenleigh host Olympic, with the visitors to pick up their first three pointer, Capalaba and Jimboomba will meet and the points will remain at home. Souths will make the short trip to Logan City Kings but won't take any joy from the game.

On Sunday Annerley and Brisbane City will meet, a predicted home win should result. Similarly Greenbank's visit to Grange should be a great match, however the points to remain at Lanham Park. On Monday, Bethania and Browns Plains meet with the home side favoured in this one.

DIVISION 7

Mitchelton have the early game with Albany Creek but the visitors will be far too strong. Down at the Bay, Olympic are the guests but like all good guests will leave the goodies at home. Joint leaders Annerley should retain the points against Clairvaux at the weekend, whilst our new team Wolter Park should get their first 3 pointer against Western Suburbs. On Monday joint leaders Inala City will be far too strong for Redlands. St Helens get the long week-end off.

DIVISION 8

Loganholme are favoured against Mt Gravatt and high scoring Newmarket will continue on their way against University. Bayside to retain the points versus Jimboomba, whilst visitors Mooroondu should keep the points when they visit Latrobe. Only one game on the Monday, with Bethania keeping the three points against Oxley.

DIVISION 9A

Acacia Ridge to get the blues against visitors Coalstars, similarly Annerley will most decidedly have the blues when they visit Taringa. Remaining matches are on Monday with Southside Eagles to retain the points against Browns Plains, Rochedale should be too strong for Olympic, Park Ridge should take the points home from Inala, whilst the Lions will take the points away from Wynnum.

DIVISION 9B

Moggill will probably shade North Pine in this Division for the points, whilst new club Kingsridge will be too strong for Brisbane City.

On Sunday visitors Park Ridge to take the points home from Pine Hills, and Margate will retain the points versus The Gap. Three games on Monday, with Brighton versus Albany Creek the pick, home side favourite, Rochedale versus Mooroondu, could well be a toss of the coin job, however home side favoured, last match is Wynnum and Brisbane Lions, with the visitors going home fang-less.

Memo to all clubs! Keep the alcohol off your subs benches, you never know when you will be spotted by a keen-eyed observer. We have seen two weeks in a row where spectators have been asked by the referee to remove themselves (with stubbies) away from the subs' bench. Take note.

Drive carefully over Easter we wish to see you all again in next week's fixtures. *

Wayne's world at Wynnum

By a Staff reporter

It was Wayne's World at Wynnum last week with the two coaches having different things to reflect on, during the past week.

For Wayne Gracey his side Wynnum hasn't won since the opening match of the season, five long weeks ago.

After last week's mauling by North Star he could have been forgiven for making wholesale changes but he didn't, and in a show of faith, put out the same team.

Most of them did well and tried to repair the morale-sapping damage from their last outing, some didn't and deserve to be dropped.

For Coalstars' Wayne Warren, his perennial problem is seeking a suitable target man up front. His team is based on ball-winners and ball-runners, with not too many who can hold the ball, hold the play, and then deliver a cutting pass.

Genuine shots on goal for both sides were few and far between, with most of the positive action in the first half.

Geoff Maltby made a bustling run to the bye line and cut the ball back for Malcolm Van Basten whose powerful drive cannoned off the crossbar.

A few minutes later Tony McKinless let loose with a gem of a shot that was heading for the top left corner, only to see keeper Kevin Farrar pull off a magic save.

Coalstars' attacks in the first half were limited to spasmodic forays and quick breaks and their first real shot at goal didn't come until 23 minutes into the game.

The visitors almost snatched a half-time lead when a concerted attack involving many switches of play from flank to flank, ended with Peter McKendrick driving straight at keeper Kevin Tatton.

With a scoreless first half behind them, both Wayne's laid down the law although some players weren't listening, judging by their performances.

Eighteen minutes into the second stanza, Coalstars won three successive corners with the pressure finally telling at the third.

Wynnum's defence failed yet again to adequately clear their lines and the ball fell kindly to Darren Petie who rammed the ball home just inside the post.

Wynnum's best player was Billy McDermott and most of their effective attacking moves came through him. When he was on the ball he was at his dangerous best.

Unfortunately he was lacking in adequate support and the visitor's tall back line easily snuffed out anything dangerous that came their way.

Best for the home side were McDermott and Tony McKinless, whilst for Coalstars McKendrick, David Guest and Farrar certainly stood out.

Farrar particularly was in outstanding form, stopping two on the line and pulling off many other good saves throughout the game. Cautions were two-a-piece.

Finally a poser of a question. When was the last time talented Coalstars' striker Wes Park completed a game without getting booked?

After serving a one week suspension last Sunday, Park was again in trouble with the referee during this clash. (Scoreboard opposite) *

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 7

WYNNUM DISTRICT v ACACIA RIDGE

Carmichael Park, Tingalpa, Saturday Apr 2, 7:00pm
Referee - P Hulme

On paper this match looks like being a tough one with both Wynnum and Acacia Ridge recording a solitary win this season.

Both sides enter this match after losing by one goal last weekend and will be determined to reverse their fortunes. Neither has been finding the net regularly and therefore find themselves near the bottom of the ladder.

MATCH WINNERS

Ridge midfielder Martin Kirsopp showed his best form of the season against North Star last weekend and will be dangerous in this clash. Wynnum keeper Kevin Tatton has conceded nine goals in his last two outings and will want a clean sheet against the Ridge.

NORTH STAR v ROCHEDALE ROVERS

O'Callaghan Park, Zillmere, Saturday Apr 2, 6:00pm
Referee - J Nuell

This is the clash that most have been waiting for all season and it should be a real test of North Star's ability. The boys from Zillmere have not lost a match all season but are yet to meet the holders of the Championship trophy.

Coach Miron Bleiberg will have plenty of tricks up his sleeve for this clash while for Rochedale's Frank Liddell it will be business as usual.

MATCH WINNERS

North Star's Jim McDonagh is a big game player and should relish the chance to line up against Rochedale. Keiran Cooper has 8 goals from five games for the Rovers and will be the key in this clash.

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 7

COALSTARS v NORTH BRISBANE

Eric Evans Reserve, Bundamba, Sunday Apr 3, 2.45pm
Referee - G Nicholson

Coalstars and North Brisbane have been rivals ever since North Brisbane entered the XXXX League with Coalstars stealing all six points last season. This season sees both in the top five and should make for an interesting battle. Coalstars have bounced back well after two defeats while North Brisbane are unlucky not to be on ten points after an own goal robbed them of a draw last weekend.

MATCH WINNERS

Coalstars midfielder Peter McKendrick was outstanding last week and narrowly missed the man of the match award. Expect him to play well. North Brisbane's Wayne Evans has only conceded two goals in his last four matches and is playing well.

BRISBANE LIONS v PINE RIVERS

Lions Stadium, Richlands, Monday Apr 4, 2.45pm
Referee - L Steen

Brisbane Lions face their second tough match in as many weeks when they host an in form Pine Rivers at Lions Stadium. Rivers are currently lying second but have failed to find the net with any real conviction since Clayton Koch was ruled out.

Lions too have striker troubles with David Munn and Warren Allen still yet to find the net. Perhaps this will be the match to break the drought.

MATCH WINNERS

Lions keeper Robbie Farrow was simply brilliant last week and will need to again be at his best. Rivers defender Mark Greer has been playing well this season and should stand out in this one.

WILLOWBURN v ROCKLEA UNITED

Bridge Street, Toowoomba, Sunday Apr 3, 2.45pm
Referee - R Eedy

Willowburn have failed to live up to expectations so far this season and must grab the points when they are on offer. Although there is a long way to go, they are too close to the relegation zone.

Rocklea have impressed in their last three outings and were very unlucky to lose at home to Easts last week. Their determination to win was impressive and they are definitely a chance in this one.

MATCH WINNERS

Willowburn defender Ken Duncan adds a bit of toughness to the Magpies outfit and will be one to watch in this clash. Rocklea's Pejo Stanic scored a classic goal last week and played well. He could be the key.

EASTERN SUBURBS v TARINGA ROVERS

Heath Park, East Brisbane, Monday Apr 4, 2.45pm
Referee - R Miszczuk

Eastern Suburbs left open the question mark over their relegation chances with a lucky 2-2 draw with Rocklea at Dunn Road last week. The Tigers have been hot and cold so far this season and could be in danger of demotion if they continue to play that way.

Taringa bounced back in the best possible way last week and confirmed their status as a top five prospect.

MATCH WINNERS

Easts' sweeper Chris Fegan was outstanding last week and saved his side from an embarrassing defeat.

Taringa's Lees brothers were the catalyst for their outstanding win and will have to be watched.
