Tigers reassess commitment

Eastern Suburbs' rough patch in the XXXX League could be nearing its end according to coach Calvin Daunt.

The Tigers have struggled in the first nine matches of the season, scoring only eight goals, while conceding a massive 27.

This poor showing has left Easts with only one win and two draws, placing them in second last position on the ladder on only five points.

Rocklea is the only team behind Daunt's side on the table, and with just one point to their name, look certain for relegation at the end of the season.

With Acacia Ridge (10 points), Willowburn (12 points), and Wynnum (13 points) all finding some recent form by upsetting a few of the League heavyweights, Easts are in the relegation hot seat.

However Calvin Daunt was not to concerned about the prospect of relegation at this stage.

"There's still 13 games to go, and if the players show the same sense of pride and commitment they showed at the weekend, then I think we will be fine," Daunt said.

Daunt was speaking about his side's Queensland Cup performances against Toowoomba and Taringa, where the Tigers got up 5-3 against the former and went down 2-0 to the latter.

"The players took it upon themselves to have a sorting out session last Tuesday night, deciding that they needed to give more of themselves on the field," Daunt said.

"And they went out and did a lot of good things on the weekend, which was pleasing to see.

"Now we have to continue with the same attitude every weekend and take every game week by week.

"It's no good us starting to worry about other teams. The minute we start doing this, we'll become our own worst enemies.

Concentration the key

"We have to just concentrate on our own players and our own game. Everything else will then fall into place."

Daunt said his younger players also felt it was time for them to stand up and be counted.

You can take the young thing only so far, but they too are beginning to realise their responsibilities on the field.

When asked if he would take to the field again, Daunt replied, "It's always a possibility."

Daunt stressed that Easts had been XXXX League regulars and club tradition and pride in past achievements would ensure they would come out of their current rut.

"Easts have been around for a long time," Daunt said.

"When a player puts on an Easts' shirt he must take pride in what he's wearing.

"This is what pulls all good clubs out of these situations."

Queensland Cup progresses

Potential finalists wait on tenterhooks for results of two games

With only two matches remaining in the early rounds of the XXXX Queensland Cup, just three of the eight quarter finalists are known.

They are Taringa, who won all three of their matches, and Coalstars and Lions, who both had two wins and a draw each.

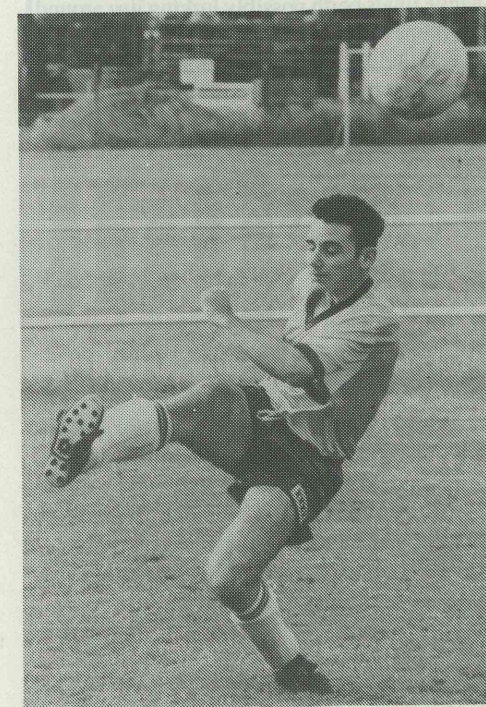

If Wynnum defeats the Sunshine coast the Wolves will also enter the quarter final stage, and the clash between North Queensland and Far North Queensland will decide the other four quarter finalists.

At this point North Star, Mackay, and Acacia Ridge should progress on goal differences.

▲ Pine Rivers' stalwart Frank Pimblett still proves a handful for the Ridge's Martin Kirsopp

◀ Kiely Calleja has that "Where did it go?" look after this cross during the match against Acacia Ridge

If North Queensland defeats Far North Queensland the former will be the eighth quarter finalist, but if they lose, North Brisbane will sneak in.

North Queensland had a 2-1 victory against last year's XXXX League champions Rockdale Rovers, while Mackay's wins against Rocklea and Rockhampton have virtually assured them of a quarter finals spot.

Rockhampton too looked promising after their 5-1 thrashing of Rocklea and a 2-2 draw with Lions, but failed to qualify for the final eight when they went down 2-1 to Mackay.

EDITORIAL

It appears that in recent weeks Eye On Soccer's Mailbox section has become an outlet for people and clubs to have a go at one another. The Mailbox section is designed for the public to give feedback and express comments about their observations during matches, as well as share their views on magazine content. Some people at present and in the past have used it as a forum to unleash personal attacks and criticisms about Clubs, coaches and players. Our primary aim should be to promote Soccer both on and off the field, and Eye On Soccer is a very good vehicle for this promotion. The Mailbox section should be left for its intended purposes! Clubs, coaches and players can express their views in magazine stories. We should all stop the backbiting and begin to encourage one another to move ahead in the development of Queensland soccer, while Clubs still maintain a healthy on-field competitiveness. What a nice change it would be to receive correspondence praising one another instead of the current trend of letters.

What a team Adelaide City has turned out to be! The Zebras looked down and out during the middle of the NSL season after a poor preparation and a very bad start, but fought back in the latter stages of the competition, finishing fourth and ultimately defeating the Melbourne Knights 1-0 in the Grand Final. Damien Mori's powerful 30 metre drive sealed the Zebra's second National title in 3 years. Adelaide is stacked with former and current Socceroos and have proved they can play well under pressure. We in Brisbane should take heart, as our home side the Brisbane Strikers proved they could beat the Zebras late last season. It is pleasing to know that our state is producing such talented players and has the resources to develop and maintain its players through the years. The increased crowds, extra interest from the media and obvious extra coverage says that the Brisbane Strikers have much to look forward to in future years, with a National Soccer League finals berth possibly lurking just around the corner - maybe even this coming season.

Rochedale take Ampol Refinery Cup

Rochedale took out the 1994 Ampol Refinery Colts Cup with a 3-0 win over Brisbane Lions at Carmichael Park last Saturday.

The Rovers were the first team to settle into the wet conditions scoring just before half time. They then made it 2-0 only four minutes after the break, and sealed the 3-0 win just minutes later. The player of the finals was Rochedale's Chris Weatherby.

Pine Rivers took out the earlier game for third and fourth places, when they had a narrow 2-1 victory over Brisbane City.

The match was locked at 1-1 until just before the final whistle when Rivers slotted in the winning goal.

General Manager of Ampol Refinery Mr Ted Wziontek presented the Cup, cheques and medals, saying he had seen some very talented players throughout the matches.

He also said Ampol Refinery's 13 year sponsorship of the competition would happily continue in the future.

Wynnum Soccer Club would like to thank Ampol Refinery for their continued support of youth soccer, as well as all teams who participated in the this year's competition. They look forward to teams' continued participation next year.

FROM THE SIDELINE

The much travelled reporters for Eye On Soccer can pop up at a variety of matches over any given weekend, taking into account juniors/women/seniors, and in a variety of Divisions and Grades. One undaunted correspondent, braved a ladies game at St Lucia last week between University and Rochedale, and came away suitably impressed with a lot of the skills, but quite incredulous at the amazing politeness between the players. Many were the "sorry" and "woops" heard coming from the field, with none of the crunch/grind/abuse usually emanating from other games, particularly the men's variety. Rochedale ran out comfortable 4-0 winners, with a couple of quite superb goals. Once the final whistle blew however, everything remained on the field, and the girls from both teams chatted quite amicably with each other. Great to see - it doesn't always occur in other grades of football.

Brisbane Strikers youngsters Clint Bolton and Sean Cranney have been included as part of a 25 man selection camp at the Australian Institute of Sport. Coca-Cola Olyroo coach Eddie Thomson will bring the players together as preparations for the 1996 Olympic Games continue. The 25 will reduce to 18 for a European tour in July/August, where three foreign based players, Paul Agostino, Craig Moore and Anthony Carbone will be included in the squad.

Eye On Soccer's holidaying editor Chris Slater will be back in the hot seat next week. We have been told that Chris has had a very interesting time travelling all across the State looking for his perfect match. For all you young ladies out there, Slates is still unlucky in love, and a "Date Slates" competition is on the drawing board. Chris's holiday started out badly when his car was broken into on day one, but he has since gotten over this and was last seen brandishing a bra on the beaches of Byron Bay. One wonders why he was wearing such apparel! Eye On Soccer's pictorial editor is eagerly awaiting the photos, which we hope to publish in a future edition.

Wanted - Striker for Rivers

By Marco Monteverde

A 2-0 defeat of Pine Rivers on Monday completed a successful Queensland Cup weekend for Acacia Ridge.

Coming back from a successful trip to Caloundra, Ridge's ability to capitalise on their chances told the story of the match.

The lack of a quality striker proved costly for Rivers, who dominated for most of the game, only to be let down in front of goal.

Rivers' coach Dave Scriggins lamented his side's missed chances.

"It's the same old story. We need a class striker," Scriggins said.

We will hopefully sign someone this week, but we can't expect one player to do everything."

Four minutes into the game Pine Rivers' midfielder Damien Waugh hit the post, following a good exchange with Stephen Starr.

Dene Almond should have given Rivers the lead in the 11th minute after he broke away, but his shot went wide of the post with only Ridge goalkeeper Adam Lebihan to beat.

Lebihan, in for regular keeper Andrew Hobbs, showed his worth 15 minutes later when he parried away a Waugh effort from the edge of the box.

Against the run of play Ridge went ahead from their first real chance, when a long throw eluded the Rivers defence, eventually falling from Damien Bitzious, who made no mistake from six yards.

Norm Bell could have increased Ridge's lead twice within the next ten minutes, but both his headers from Martin Kirsopp corners went wide.

Two minutes before half time selfish play cost Rivers an equaliser, with Starr shooting over the bar instead of laying the ball to an unmarked John Cartwright.

Five scoring opportunities went begging for Rivers in the first eight minutes of the second half.

The best of those chances fell for evergreen Frank Pimblett in the 52nd minute, whose shot from point blank range was denied by an outstanding save from Lebihan.

Ridge again scored from their first attack of the half four minutes later, when Peter Underhill's punch from a Martin Kirsopp corner fell for Martin Rudge, who buried his volley in the back of the net.

Rivers' frustration continued when a shot from substitute Adam Kinsela hit the post in the 61st minute, with Lebihan well beaten.

Rivers lack of penetration in front of goal seemed to rub off on Ridge in the next twenty minutes, with Rudge and Jason Eacott missing great chances to enhance the scoreline.

Two chances for Starr in the last five minutes summed up a disappointing day for Rivers.

Following a good run in the 87th minute, he blasted his shot from the edge of the box way over the bar.

One minute from time another fine save from Lebihan in a one-on-one situation thwarted Starr's effort for a consolation goal.

Acacia Ridge coach Davey Richardson was satisfied with the win.

"The game's about putting the ball in the net, and we did that," Richardson said.

He also conceded Lebihan was now putting Hobbs under pressure.

"He's got the jersey now, put it that way." *

Latrobe unbeaten - Wests unfortunate

The only unbeaten sides in Division 5 met last Saturday at Beninca Oval when Latrobe were home to Western Suburbs. It was a match of contrasting styles between two teams who are prolific scorers, but mean in defence.

Looking at the final score-line of 4-3, the term meanness in defence is somewhat of a misnomer, such was the openness of play, that it was inevitable goals would be scored.

The home side went to a 3-1 lead, and extended the lead to 4-1 shortly into the second stanza, however the stamina of the home side was found wanting, and the youthful exuberance of Western Suburbs started to run over Latrobe to the degree that two goals were conceded in the last ten minutes of the game.

Both sides had workaholics, both sides had excellent ball players. For the home side Gerry Kay was outstanding up front, ably supported by the old warhorse Gary Broomfield. Bruce Atterton attempted to steady the ship at the back.

For the visitors Arturo Mojica and Lee Hindley were quite outstanding, with the latter surely out of his class in this Division, he could quite easily hold his own in a much higher league. Two opportunist goals from Genaro Martinez were able to keep the visitors firing, and but for an injury to their regular goalkeeper only days before the fixture, who knows what the final score-line would have been.

In view of the recent publicity surrounding Western Suburbs, this match was a revelation, the team is excellent and can really play football. It's a typically South American style, ball played to feet, not afraid to take on opposition players, and are sparkling to watch. That, plus the excellent refereeing of Doug Prentice, made for a most entertaining afternoon. *

QAS girls - 38 goals 2 games

The QAS have gotten off to a good start in the first division putting behind their disappointing semi final loss to North Star in the recent Watson Shield. The girls have scored an incredible 38 goals in the first two rounds and have conceded none.

Capalaba in division two are also off to a good start with two good wins and no goals scored against them, as have Slacks Creek in division three, Souths in division four, North Pine in division five, and both Pine Hills and Rochedale in division six.

Mt Gravatt have scored 25 goals already in division seven.

$2000 - fund raiser

Over $2000 was raised last Monday for the six representative teams travelling to Cairns for the State Titles.

The fund raiser was held at Atlanta Field Geebung in conjunction with the battle between the Southside and Northside juniors for the Hazel Millman Trophy

The trophy was donated in memory of Hazel Millman, a long time worker for both men's and women's soccer.

It is traditionally played for by junior women's teams but unfortunately this year there were no junior women's sides competing in Brisbane, so the trophy was played for by the two representative squads.

Brisbane South took the match, which gave Queensland Junior coach Tony Smith a chance to get a first hand look at how the Juniors were shaping up for State selection.

Brisbane Women's Soccer would like to thank all those who supported the fund raising and businesses who donated goods. *

Before The Whistle

Coming up to two months into the season and a few more unbeaten records are falling by the wayside. Thistle's Youth team, Logan City Kings in Division 3 lost their invincible tag together with Redlands and Samford in Division 4 Reserves and Olympic United from Division 6. There are still quite a number that are going exceedingly well and look to be daunting tasks for their oppositions. Still, it's early days, the turn around of the season will be the time to judge whether invincibility is but a word, or a fact.

DIVISION 2

Old rivals Grange and Mt Gravatt meet Saturday night, both teams having fluctuating fortunes, home side the tip. Neighbours Beenleigh and Souths also meet Saturday night, Souths had the week off last week, but they will have to be at their best to beat Beenleigh who themselves are coming off a loss to leaders Brisbane City - home win.

Strugglers St Albans and The Gap meet in Toowoomba, with Saints to win by the odd goal. In Ipswich, St Helens should be too strong for Newmarket, whilst down the road at Inala, visitors University will not receive any favours.

Sunday evening will see old foes Olympic at home to Brisbane City, a top match this with the visitors narrowly favoured to win.

DIVISION 3

Two teams with an almost identical track record meet on Friday in the clash of the Creek's, they are difficult to separate but the home side to narrowly sneak in under their excellent new lighting. Mitchelton now starting to run into form and should pick up their first win at the expense of South Star. Mid-table teams Virginia and Capalaba will probably share the points.

On Sunday Goodna have a long trip out to Dakabin, and should take the points home, three teams are now vying for top spot in this Division with two of them meeting at Meakin Park, however visitors Nerang could well steal the points here. At Beninca Oval Latrobe may find it difficult up against Annerley and an away win should prevail.

DIVISION 4

On Friday Moggill should retain the points in their match against Brighton who suffered an unexpected loss at home last week. Saturday will see a really interesting match take place between Samford (3rd place) and Clairvaux (1st place) with this being a real tester for the home side, a score-draw should be the outcome. Two matches that night with Redlands at home to Southside Eagles, The Eagles to retain second or even first spot in this one. Whilst up at Ipswich, Brothers, even though they picked up their first win last week, shouldn't receive any favours in this encounter.

On Sunday Kenmore make the trip to Redcliffe where the home side should regain form. The two bottom markers Pine Hills and Darra are the last game with the Pine's to pick up their first points of the season.

DIVISION 5

An interesting match at St Lucia with University at home to Oxley, if the visitors are fair dinkum about promotion this will be the one in which they have to pick up the points. In the afternoon The Gap v Goodna with the home side to take the spoils. Later that night Slacks Creek and Deception Bay meet with the visitors narrowly favoured to win this clash.

On Sunday Woodridge will have a tough job taking points away from Division leaders Latrobe. Loganholme should be too strong for their visitors Leichhardt and the ball-playing wizardry of Western Suburbs will be too much for the boys from Bayside.

DIVISION 6

On Friday Souths will be too good for Beenleigh. Only one game on the Saturday with Jimboomba to keep the points at the expense of the Logan City Kings. Remaining matches are on Sunday, last year's promoted sides Greenbank and Browns Plains meet in what should be a cracker of a game with a score-draw the only possible outcome.

Annerley won't receive any joy from the visit of Bethania, whilst leaders Grange Thistle will be too strong for their Capalaba opponents. In the evening Brisbane City and Olympic should have a rare tussle with the home side narrowly favoured.

DIVISION 7

On Friday Olympic United will take the points from Clairvaux, whilst on Saturday St Helens will also take the points away from Redlands. Derby day at Wolter Park when United play Albany Creek in a no-holds barred match, the prediction is an away win. Two matches on Sunday with Mitchelton to take the points from Annerley and leaders Inala to be untroubled against Western Suburbs.

DIVISION 8

Three games on Saturday with Jimboomba not expected to have the fire-power to stop a stronger Latrobe side. University should also be too strong for Oxley, with Mt Gravatt and Bethania to share their points. On Sunday Mooroondu to be far too powerful for Beenleigh and similarly Newmarket will keep the points at home from Bayside United.

DIVISION 9A

Top of the table match at Richlands on Friday night between Lions and Taringa with the home side to retain their 100% record. At the opposite end Annerley and Eagles meet at Elder Park, with the visitors favoured, meanwhile back at Acacia Ridge, visitors Wynnum will be disappointed. On Saturday Coalstars should be too much for visitors Rochedale, similarly Inala will retain three points against Logan City. On Sunday, Park Ridge will be successful against Olympic.

DIVISION 9B

The late game at Richlands will be in stark contrast to the Division 9A fixture, Lions are home to Margate with the two sides having diagonally opposite goals for and against - away win. Adjoining sides in the table meet at Underwood Park when Wynnum are the visitors, the points should be shared here. On Saturday the visitors Brighton should take the points away from The Gap.

The remaining matches are on Sunday with Kingsridge to be successful at Pine Hills, Mooroondu to be a shade stronger than Moggill, visitors North Pine to be successful at Park Ridge, whilst the late game should see Albany Creek topping Brisbane City at Spencer Park.

City retain unbeaten record

The 100% record of Brisbane City was on the line when they met promotion aspirants Beenleigh last Sunday at Spencer Park. Both sides have been in good form, with the home side having the edge considering the goals scored, and the small number conceded. City won 2-1.

In many respects the style of the two teams cancelled each other out, coached as they are by two of Brisbane's former ball-playing mid-field wizards, and it was most pleasing to see that neither side resorted to the "hoof" down the park. Both teams, when in trouble in the back third, played their way out, always aware they had players in support.

Genuine shots at goal were relatively few and far between, with the first serious attack in open play mounted by Beenleigh after 20 minutes, with a quite superb shot from Beenleigh's Jeffrey Jasch from fully thirty metres out, unfortunately it went wide.

Beenleigh dominated the early part of the game, with City getting more and more into it as the half wore on, up front Jeremy Woodger and Steve Glockner had a first class understanding, with both players coming close. There were many near misses, with shots being charged down in the 15-20 metre area, and it looked as if half-time would return a nil score-line. This came to an abrupt end, when Glockner was put through minutes before the break and ran 40 metres to slot under Keeper David Iliff, to give City a half-time respite.

It was under one minute after the turn-around when City went two-up with a quite bizarre goal.

Brian Webster tore down the left cutting in and drove a hard cross to Jeremy Woodger who went for the ball at the same time as Keeper Iliff. Iliff saved the ball, unfortunately it rolled away from him only one metre out from the goal-line, Woodger lying flat on his back poked the ball in to the open net whilst prone on the ground.

It was just the sort of freak opening to the second half that would have devastated lesser teams, but to Beenleigh's credit they picked themselves up and, if anything, were inspired by it. Keeper Iliff was in the thick of things pulling down shots from both Webster and Glockner, and then a glimmer of hope for the visitors when one of the few mistakes by City's Keeper Daniel Duke presented Jeffrey Jasch with a goal.

Davy Jones sent to the locker

Just as Beenleigh started to warm to the task of pulling a point back, they lost central defender Davy Jones, sent-off for his second bookable offence.

Both Keepers, whilst not being over-worked, did pull off some brilliant saves, and none better than QAS Keeper David Duke who pulled off a ripper when faced with a one on one situation against Jeffrey Jasch. Although Beenleigh had applied total pressure in the last seven minutes, they could not penetrate, enabling City to retain their 100% record.

Beenleigh Coach Steve Dolan, whilst being upset at losing a player and the game, should be proud of the way his team fought the full 90 minutes, being best served by Keeper Iliff, mid-fielders Grant Beevers and Jeffrey Jasch, whilst Jarrod Austin did well up front. For the Bobby Hamilton inspired side, Brian Webster and Jeremy Woodger were quite outstanding, whilst Darren Mair and "veteran" Andy Chapman almost commanded the mid-field. An excellent game and an excellent advertisement for Division 2 football.

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 11

ROCHEDALE ROVERS v ROCKLEA UNITED

Underwood Park, Rochedale, Saturday May 7, 7:00pm
Referee - L Steen

Rochedale Rovers are having major problems at the moment, with injuries and poor performances on the pitch hampering their XXXX League campaign. This could be the match to help them regain some lost confidence.

What can you say about Rocklea. They have been less than impressive throughout the competition, and failed to cause any problems for the country sides in the Queensland Cup.

MATCH WINNERS

Rochedale's Kieran Cooper scored all five of his team's goals on their recent trek north for the Queensland Cup. He could tear Rocklea apart.

For Rocklea, coach John Caric must do something special with his young side. He is the only one who can pull them out of the mire.

ACACIA RIDGE v TARINGA ROVERS

Proud Oval, Acacia Ridge, Saturday May 7, 7:00pm
Referee - H Marron

Ridge have been in sensational form of late, with strong wins over Rochedale in the XXXX League and Pine Rivers in the Queensland Cup on the weekend. They will not be easybeats for Taringa. Regaining form in the Queensland Cup, Taringa have not performed up to standard in recent weeks. They need three points in this match to keep them in touch with the League's front-runners.

MATCH WINNERS

Captain-coach of Acacia Ridge Davey Richardson has been the driving force behind his side's resurgence. He'll certainly be one to watch. Young Taringa midfielder Brenley Jefferd has proved his mettle in a side that has been down in recent weeks. He will be a good example for his team mates to follow.

NORTH STAR v NORTH BRISBANE

O'Callaghan Park, Zillmere, Saturday May 7, 6:00pm
Referee - B Hutchins

North Star's shock weapon Damien Rosenthal broke his ankle during his side's Queensland Cup win over North Queensland. His enthusiasm off the bench will be sorely missed by team mates.

North Brisbane have failed to dominate in any of their recent games. They must start to capitalise on all of their chances in front of goal.

The cool head and experience of North Star's Jim McDonagh have been major factors in his side's strong performances. He is an important figure in the team.

Darren Bender has been finding the net regularly for North Brisbane of late and will have to be marked closely.

WYNNUM v PINE RIVERS

Boundary Street, Tingalpa, Sunday May 8, 2.45pm
Referee - L Vo

This will be a replay of one of last weekend's Queensland Cup matches, where Wynnum and Pine Rivers fought out a 1-1 draw. Wynnum's XXXX League form has been very good however, coming off an excellent 2-0 win against Taringa.

Rivers have been struggling up front with their more recent performances exposing their need for a quality striker.

MATCH WINNERS

Young Wynnum striker Alan Eilmann is proving he is well up to XXXX League standard, putting in some impressive performances lately.

Rivers' midfielder Damien Waugh will have to take up some of the scoring duties and be on target while his side still searches for a striker.

WILLOWBURN v BRISBANE LIONS

Bridge Street, Toowoomba, Sunday May 8, 2.45pm
Referee - R Miszczuk

Willowburn have proved they are tough to beat at home and Lions will not find Gordon Arrowsmith's boys any easier than other teams have, especially since the Toowoomba boys have hit some mid-season form.

Lions find themselves only two points behind Taringa on the table and a win here could put them into outright second place.

Anthony Brown has been putting in some solid performances for Willowburn during the past few weeks and could cause a few headaches for Lions.

Lions state striker Warren Allen has found touch lately. This along with his enthusiastic approach will be needed up in Toowoomba.

EASTERN SUBURBS v COALSTARS

Heath Park, East Brisbane, Sunday May 8, 2.45pm
Referee - D Street

East's coach Calvin Daunt was pleased with the renewed commitment of his players during last weekend's Queensland Cup matches. The tigers will need to be in a similar mode this week.

Wayne Warren's boys have been inconsistent all season and yet still find themselves in fifth position on the ladder. A few good performances could well see them get closer to the top.

MATCH WINNERS

NSL star Stein Grodum will have to take control of the Eastern Suburbs side. A good performance from him will lift the younger players in the team.

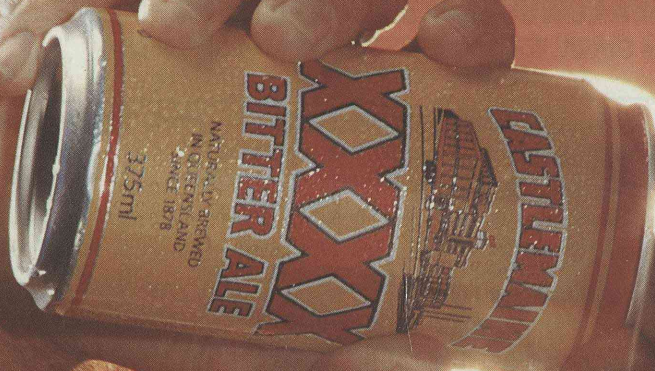

Coalstars' Anthony Cotton has been finding the net again with some regularity. Easts will have to keep him under scrutiny.
