Qld Cup quarters underway

The quarter-finals of the 1995 XXXX Queensland Cup started last night, with Pine Rivers and Brisbane City clashing and Taringa up against North Star at Perry Park.

The focus now turns to this Saturday night at Soccer Headquarters when the second double header takes place, with Willowburn and Coalstars meeting at 5pm and Brisbane Lions and Rochedale in the late match at 7pm.

Willowburn were a little lucky to get this far in the Cup after riding their way into the quarter-finals on a favourable result in the Group One match between the North Queensland Razorbacks and Far North Queensland.

The Razorbacks looked certain to win that game to take the victory in Group One ahead of Brisbane Lions, who would have qualified on goal differences in any case.

However a shock 3-2 result to underdogs Far North Queensland put paid to the Razorbacks' finals hopes and allowed Willowburn, who qualified second in Group Four to move into the quarters.

Magpies' coach Steve Pennells is putting all of that aside however and seemed confident his side could do the job this Saturday night.

"If we go out with the same attitude we had

Willowburn Coach Steve Pennells - will be using a couple of his younger players during his side's encounter with Coalstars this Saturday against City last week, then I can see no reason why we can't make the semis."

Brisbane Lions will have a tough assignment in attempting to put a halt to last year's winners Rochedale in their defence of the Cup.

Lions have been playing well under new coach Miron Bleiberg, who made it clear at the time he took control of the side a couple of weeks ago, that one of his major goals was to win the Queensland Cup.

They were unable to secure the services of the experienced Frank Pimblett, who earlier in the week indicated he was considering switching clubs.

Nevertheless, Rochedale coach Kim Wishart knows his side will be tested this Saturday night.

"Our guys are in a positive frame of mind, but you can be sure Miron will have his side fired up and well prepared," Wishart said.

"Lions are one of three teams this year that have taken points off us so we'll be looking to set the record straight there.

"The other thing you have to remember is that we are the current Cup holders and we're pretty determined to keep a hold of it." *

Results highlight closeness of competition

Last week's round of matches in the XXXX League showed just how close this competition can be, with a number of teams coming close to upstaging their more fancied opponents.

Cellar-dwellers Willowburn could not capitalise on a 1-0 half-time lead against Competition leaders Brisbane City at Spencer Park on Sunday, and succumbed 4-3 late in injury time, which proved to be a point of contention with coach Steve Pennells.

The highlight of the match was three goals from the boot of Willowburn's Craig McConnell, who returned a fortnight ago to the Magpies after a twelve month stint at the Sunshine Coast.

Eastern Suburbs pulled a little further away from the relegation zone following their 2-0 victory over Grange Thistle at Heath Park.

Goals by Paul Georgiou and Stein Grodum sealed the result, making the battle to escape relegation very interesting, with five teams still not clear of the danger.

Grange Thistle in particular would be looking for a change of fortune, with their last win way back in Round Six.

Coach Danny Docherty believes all that is needed however is a bit more commitment from his players.

Taringa continued their good run of form last Saturday night with an Andrew Brayshaw hat-trick setting up a 5-2 win over North Star at O'Callaghan Park, while Rochedale had a strong 2-0 win over Wynnum at Underwood Park.

Rochedale are now only two points behind City on the table and look to be hitting the sort of form they were in at the end of last season, when they were unlucky not to make the finals.

North Brisbane Striker Aaron Aldridge celebrates his goal as Coalstar's keeper Kevin Farrar voices his anger at defenders

Brisbane Lions dominated in front of their home crowd with a 3-2 win over Pine Rivers.

Craig Priddy scored a double for the home side, with Lee Scriggins again proving what a valuable acquisition he was for Rivers, scoring his third goal in two matches for his new team.

In the final match of the round North Brisbane, who defeated North Star earlier in the week, were again out of luck, going down 2-1 to Coalstars, courtesy of another double by the in-form Troy Hews.

Aces coach Gary McDowall said he was getting very frustrated with his young side's inconsistency.

Only two XXXX League matches will be played over the Queen's Birthday weekend due to the quarter-finals of the 1995 XXXX Queensland Cup.

Both matches are on Sunday, with Pine Rivers set to clash with Eastern Suburbs at Wendy Allison Park, in a relegation zone battle sure to bring the best out of both sides, while at Carmichael Park Wynnum and North Brisbane are set to meet. *

EDITORIAL

Some clubs have queried the necessity of investing in player insurance. Clubs are required to take out the cover recommended by the Queensland Soccer Federation and agreed to by the Council of Clubs. The benefits include Legal (Public) Liability, Coaches Professional Indemnity, Non-Medicare Medical Expenses, and loss of income.

It also appears some clubs are not happy paying out the required premium, which is difficult to understand given the risks that are associated with such a stand. Just last week we saw a player in the Rugby Union World Cup, from the Ivory Coast, become paralysed after damaging vertebrae at the base of his neck. On the local soccer front we had a similar scare with a player from a lower division club taken to hospital with temporary paralysis after falling awkwardly in a challenge. Fortunately he was released soon after his admission, however the point is that accidents do happen and if clubs are not covered, they could be liable to legal action. Other examples of injuries on the weekend in the local competitions included a broken leg and broken ribs, illustrating that our sport is not injury free.

Clubs must know they are responsible for making the players aware of the amount of cover they have and the benefits to which they are entitled.

Individuals take out insurance cover for their own personal belongings such as the house and contents, the car, and even their own lives, and do not seem to complain about those premiums. Why is it then wrong, paying a premium for sports insurance? Are the players and officials not worth it? I think they are.

On the National front, David Wooley has been appointed Chief Executive of the ASF. Mr Wooley is currently the Chief Executive of Basketball Australia, a position he has held since August 1989. He has played a leading role in the high profile basketball has enjoyed in Australia in recent years.

Call for true Queensland squad

On a recent holiday to North Queensland our family spent a few weeks in the Townsville area at the same time the North Queensland Razorbacks were playing in the Queensland Cup. We were most impressed with this team and how they played against Brisbane Lions, and also the games against Wynnum and Far North Queensland. North Queensland Razorbacks showed their supporters they were every bit as good as, if not better than some XXXX League teams, and showed total professionalism both on and off the park. We also saw the North Queensland Razorbacks play an exhibition game against National League team Marconi, and although beaten, they did not let themselves down.

The whole point of my letter is we recently had the "Queensland" squad play New Zealand in the Sir Robert Muldoon Cup. How can we have a "Queensland" squad when not one player from outside a Brisbane club is selected? Why can't the Queensland Cup competition be taken also as a State selection for the "Queensland" squad? From players we saw in North Queensland, including Far North Queensland, there are certainly players of top calibre who should be selected. In my personal opinion, I was very impressed with the Razorbacks defence. Perhaps the Coach of the Queensland squad should be free of club commitments so he can travel around the State and make his selections of a "wholly" Queensland squad. >

I would be most interested in feedback from soccer followers on the above comments.

H L Parry, Kallangur

With reference to your call for the State coach to be free of club commitments, as of next year this will be the case. Secondly, Queensland Soccer has in place seven Regional Directors of Coaching (RDOC's) throughout the State, who amongst other things are responsible for identifying potential State representatives at both the junior and senior levels. I have no doubts in my mind that if someone from the Razorbacks was thought capable of playing for Queensland, the RDOC in that area, Mark Boyd, who is also coach of the team, would have made his recommendation to the State coach. What price a drink?

Most teams like to celebrate after a game with a few drinks. As sponsor of our reserve grade side, win, lose or draw it's a carton of beer and six cokes. That is until last Sunday. Most clubs do the right thing and supply a "players" carton at the right price ($26 to $28). The players appreciate this and normally return to the bar for a social drink after showering and freshening up. Unfortunately $36 a carton was a bit over the top for me, and for the rest of the day my wallet and many others stayed in our hip pockets.

For the first time this year I was disappointed at not supplying a drink for the boys but they totally understood my stand and supported me. With such prices, possibly some of the profits could be given to the ground curator to assist in providing a better playing surface.

Dennis Nielsen, Slacks Creek

$36 for a carton of beer is outrageous and I probably wouldn't shop there either. Ed

Nerang - a contender for promotion to the big one

Following their brief stint in the XXXX League back in 1991, Nerang have threatened to move back into the Premier League after a solid start to their 1995 Second Division campaign. Nerang are sitting in second position on 25 points, four points shy of leaders Beenleigh, and three points clear of their nearest rivals Rocklea. It has taken a bit of time, but player/coach Paul Cockbain is quietly confident his side can put in the performances in the second round of the competition to make the step upwards.

"I'm very happy with our start," Cockbain said. "We slumped a little in the middle part of the first round but hit back with some solid wins towards the end.

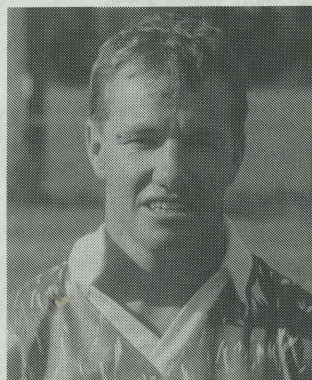

"As to our promotion prospects, we'll have a better indication in the next four to five weeks, but I think we are a definite possibility."

After being relegated from the XXXX League at the end of the 1991 season, Nerang struggled for two years in Division Two, before suffering a further setback when they were again demoted to the Third Division for the 1994 season.

Last year's Division Three Premiership rocketed the side back into Division Two and appears to have given the boys from the Gold Coast the confidence to enter the XXXX League ranks yet again.

"The sides we probably have to look out for would be Beenleigh, because they've already got four points on us, and Acacia Ridge are also a good side," Cockbain said.

Cockbain, himself part of the ill-fated Nerang XXXX League side of 1991, believes the Club lacked depth during its first Premier Nerang Player/Coach Paul Cockbain may have to go fishing for talent if promotion is the result of this year's efforts.

League campaign and would not make the same mistakes again.

"Our bad season was really a reflection of the Club's lack of depth, and lack of finance, but we're past that now and the Club is probably in the best position it's been in since I've been associated with it.

"If we do go on to the XXXX League then obviously we may have to fish around the local league down here to help strengthen the Club's depth even more.

"But we're going along pretty well. The local people are behind us more than ever and the media have taken a huge interest in the Club.

"The Gold Coast Bulletin has always given us good coverage, and Prime TV, the local television station down here, has begun to feature us every week."

Nerang are hoping to maintain their good run of fortune against Olympic this Sunday night at Olympic's Goodwin Park, where Cockbain will be looking for good performances from Trevor Wood, Eddie Dixon, and Dave Viitakangas.

FROM THE SIDELINE

A reminder to all clubs to check their history books for any players that have donned the Maroon jersey at Senior level, who may have been overlooked for some reason, when the QSF began giving out Life Passes to State representatives for Queensland Soccer matches. If there is anyone in this category can the clubs please get in contact with the QSF to notify us about the situation.

Frank Farina will come out of representative retirement to play his farewell match when the Coca-Cola Socceroos take on Ghana at the Sydney Football Stadium on June 18. The game will be a tribute match to Frank for his services to Australian soccer. The ASF will hold a special tribute luncheon for Frank in the week leading up to the game. Frank's last match for the Socceroos was against Argentina in Australia's ill-fated attempt to qualify for the 1994 World Cup and following that match Frank decided to retire from international soccer. Frank was one of the first players to come through the Australian Institute of Sport system and go on to play at all levels of the national teams, including 65 senior caps.

The 1994/95 National Soccer League Champions the Melbourne Knights are currently in Japan for a historic challenge between the Australian Champion soccer team and two of the most prominent J-League clubs. The two-match series is known as the Nikkei Challenge, with the Knights receiving $US100,000 as well as all meals, air fare and accommodation expenses for making the trip. The matches are to be played against Jubilo Iwata, who are currently running 4th in the J-League, and last year's Emperor Cup winners Yokohama Flugels.

Brisbane Lions think they may have created Queensland soccer history, with the formation of their all girls Under Eleven soccer team. The girls, who compete against boys teams, have not yet won a game, but always come off the field with a smile on their faces. It may be a novelty having an all-girls team in such a competition, but they are very enthusiastic and extremely close-knit. According to Club spokesperson Joe Morcus, Lions are hoping to field an all-girls team in every age group next year. Eye On Soccer would like to wish the girls the best of luck, and don't forget to let us know how you are going throughout the season. Maybe you could send us a picture of the girls that we could publish.

The winner of the Eye On Soccer/Anfield Sports Hammers Cap Competition is Mrs A Beattie of Woodridge, who incidentally won complementary tickets to the match in the previous competition. Congratulations Mrs Beattie for winning a fantastic West Ham United cap from Starter and a great souvenir West Ham Calendar, both courtesy of Anfield Sports at the Rochedale Soccer Complex, Underwood Road Rochedale. We will be mailing your prizes out to you later this week.

Before The Whistle

The majority of results last weekend favoured the home sides, the exceptions being Divisions 4 and 9A, where not one home side won a match. Still there's always next week!

DIVISION 2

A distinct top half and bottom half in this Division at the present time, and the matches over the next few weeks will probably determine a few "end of year" placings. Two matches on Saturday night where the resurgent Souths take on St Helens, looks to be an away win, the other Saturday night clash is between Acacia Ridge and St Albans, and whilst the Saints had a good home win last week, this looks to be a bit tougher.

On Sunday, the length of the table separates University from Beenleigh, with it not looking good for the students in this one. Two strugglers meet at Inala City but Mt Gravatt should take the points, and in the twilight match at Goodwin Park between Olympic and Nerang, the visitors will need to keep their promotion thrust going in this one. One match on Monday between Rocklea and Logan City with the teams level on points, it will be a tough one and a score draw would not be surprising.

DIVISION 3

A tight match is on the cards on Friday night between Albany Creek and The Gap, and it is to be hoped that the first match will be well and truly put behind them. Tough to predict this one, I'll sit on the fence and predict a draw. In the two day games on Saturday, Slacks Creek look too strong for Annerley, similarly Newmarket should pick up 3 points against Redlands, although this one will be much tougher. In the night match Goodna should get on track at the expense of Clairvaux. One match on Sunday between Latrobe and Capalaba should see the leaders continue on their merry way, whilst the lone match on Monday may see North Pine pick up a much needed point at home to Mitchelton.

 James Hardie
MODULAR BUILDINGS

DIVISION 4

The Friday night match out at Bellbowrie looks to be a 3 pointer for the home side over Oxley. The game between Samford and Redcliffe will be incredibly tight on Saturday afternoon, with the home side marginally favoured, Wests and South Star also meet that afternoon whilst the two teams are 8 places apart on the table, I'm sure they won't appear to be that far apart in reality on the playing field, it still looks a 3 pointer for the home side though. The other match between Eagles and Loganholme should see 3 points remain at Bulimba. The Sunday match between Brothers and Pine Hills will see Brothers resume their climb up the table, whilst in the local derby between Darra and Ipswich City, Ipswich will once again be disappointed.

DIVISION 5

A tough match in store at Ebbw Vale between St Helen's and Olympic, visitors marginally favoured by virtue of their bigger goal difference, the game between Bethania and Jimboomba will be even tougher to predict as both teams are desperate for points, however home side should retain them, the remaining match on Saturday between The Gap and University, on paper, looks to be no contest. Browns Plains will retain the 3 points in Sunday's game over Goodna, On Monday, Slacks Creek will have no success against Greenbank, but the Woodridge and Bayside clash will be most interesting, with the current leaders expected to remain there, come 4.30pm.

DIVISION 6

There are two matches on Friday night with Capalaba expected to be too strong for Acacia Ridge, similarly league leaders Logan City, despite last weeks' surprise loss, should retain the 3 points at the expense of Inala. In the two Saturday games, St Helens' will have absolutely no success against Olympic, whilst Annerley and Souths will be a closer game, however visitors still the tip.

No matches on Sunday but the remaining two games on Monday should see Mt Gravatt too good for Mitchelton, whilst Beenleigh will not enjoy Redlands visit.

DIVISION 7

In the lone match on Saturday, Park Ridge will retain equal poll position at the expense of Albany Creek, and in Sunday's clash Mooroondu will be too strong for Clairvaux.

The remaining matches are on Monday, in the morning clash between Darra and Bayside the visitors will be far too good, Mt Gravatt may not have too much success with Jimboomba, as the visitors are already two matches in arrears and are now desperate for the points. Newmarket are home to University with Uni expected to take the points, and in the local derby on the Peninsula between Margate and Redcliffe, Margate should continue to retain their unbeaten record.

DIVISION 8

Getting to be quite jammed in the top five positions in this table, unfortunately it's a top four play off! The Saturday matches should see a win for Kingsridge over Annerley, The Gap over Samford and Albany Creek enjoying the long trip out to Park Ridge. Olympic should pick up the points in the early match at Mooroondu on Sunday, whilst in the two Monday clashes, Eagles and Pine Hills will have a do or die effort, with the home side marginally favoured, the remaining match at Dakabin will be even tougher to predict between North Pine and Acacia Ridge, however home side should get the nod.

DIVISION 9A

A number of players will enjoy the long weekend, as there are no less than three matches scheduled for Friday night. Local Derby time at Richlands Stadium between Brisbane Lions and Lions, with "the visitors" looking too strong, Capalaba will retain 3 points at the expense of Wynnum, similarly Grange will pick up 3 points at the expense of Coalstars.

The remaining two games are on Monday with both the home sides expected to be far too strong for their visitors, Margate over Kingsridge and Taringa over Pine Hills.

DIVISION 9B

Like the division above, Brisbane Lions and Lions clash at Richlands Stadium on Friday, on this occasion Lions, by virtue of their plus goal efforts, expected to keep the points.

One match on Saturday between Redlands and Wynnum will be much closer, however visitors have too good a set of credentials not to keep the points.

Remaining matches in this Division are on Monday with The Gap to enjoy their visit to Runcorn, however the match between Taringa and Browns Plains should be an excellent one to view, and if the visitors win, it will give them a 6 point lead, for that reason I think that this may be a draw.

READ between the LINES

All the goss with Brent Read

The changes foreshadowed when David Hill took over the running of the Australian Soccer Federation earlier this year are starting to come following the recent soccer seminar.

The National League season over three rounds, an interstate State of Origin series, more Internationals and more apprenticeships are positive moves in the game's development.

What they will also do is fast track the move towards more professional players within Australia. More games and a longer season almost guarantees this.

There seems little doubt these moves will lift the profile of Australian soccer, particularly with more exposure at the International level.

This will be a beneficial move for the local league with the lift in soccer's focus providing spin-offs for the game at all levels.

It also appears several current National league teams face the axe, which will encourage those proponents of a second Brisbane team.

Talk of a Superleague has come to the fore with rumours several clubs in Brisbane soccer are talking about forming an elite competition.

The competition would have only ten teams including the Gold Coast, Toowoomba, and possibly a team from Bundaberg. Stay tuned for further news in that area.

On the local front, bad haircuts appear to be the growing trend at this stage of the season as players try to break out of the weekly grind and keep up their enthusiasm.

Warren Allen, the volatile Brisbane Lions and Queensland striker, had become famous (or infamous) for his 'flattop' haircut over recent years.

The transformation from "Wazza" to "Curly". These before and after shots of Warren Allen show the NEW look

But it seems "Wazza", or "Curly", decided it was time for a change and I'm reliably informed he now has something resembling a perm on top of his melon.

It hasn't softened his play on the field though "Wazza" was sent off on the weekend against Pine Rivers.

His great mate and fellow Queensland representative, Steve Starr, recently changed his image whilst on a one week sabbatical to his home town of Cairns.

"Starry", who's losing his hair quite rapidly anyway, decided he would follow the lead of the "footballing freak shows", the Lees Brothers, and shave his head.

What a mistake - he now goes by the nickname of "Yoda" thanks to his uncanny likeness to the alien in the 'Star Wars' trilogy.

Meanwhile, it appears the elite of Queensland soccer have found themselves a new 'hang out' on those cold, weekend nights.

Spotted at the "Grand Orbit" on Saturday night was the forgotten man of Queensland soccer John Brown. Still incapacitated by a knee injury, seems Brown still finds time to chase things other than goals.

Mitchelton celebrate 75 years

From humble beginnings on the local paddocks, Mitchelton Soccer Club celebrated their 75th anniversary Friday night at the Parliamentary Annexe in Brisbane.

The gala dinner dance was attended by more than 200 past and present players in lavish surroundings, a far cry from the days when players were forced to change in the local theatre.

Mitchelton Soccer Club is one of the oldest clubs in Brisbane, with indications that some of the families of the district played soccer as early as 1916, even though the club wasn't officially registered until 1920 due to the War.

The club's only Australian representative, Iain Fagan, was an honoured guest along with Keith Green, nephew of the club's founding father, George Green.

Club stalwarts from as far back as the 1920's, when players often trained under a solitary 75 watt light, showed their support for the current third division side.

President Kevin Jones, the driving force behind the function, praised the dinner as a great success, particularly considering the wide spectrum of people that attended.

Eye on Soccer wish to extend their congratulations to one of Brisbane's most durable and ambitious clubs.

XXXX QUEENSLAND CUP - QUARTER FINALS

WILLOWBURN v COALSTARS

Perry Park, Mayne, Saturday June 10, 5.00pm
Referee - J Peacock

Willowburn have been struggling and would be looking to salvage some pride in the Queensland Cup. A win here would put them just one step away from a Cup Final berth.

Coalstars too have been a little disappointing in the League and would know that they have a real shot at the Cup if they win this game.

MATCH WINNERS

The return of Craig McConnell to Willowburn's playing ranks had a marked effect with three goals coming from his boot last week. He could cause problems for the Coalminers.

Troy Hews scored a double last weekend for Coalstars, proving his worth to the side. If on target he can be a match winner.

XXXX SOCCER LEAGUE - ROUND 13

PINE RIVERS v EASTERN SUBURBS

Wendy Allsion Park, Strathpine, Sunday June 11, 2.45pm
Referee - D Prentice

This is a battle to escape the relegation zone as both sides hover just above that area, Easts four points clear and Rivers only two points away. Rivers played well last week despite losing 3-2 to Lions, while Easts' win over Grange gave them some breathing space.

This is a game both teams must win and in all reality, either team could take the points.

MATCH WINNERS

Youngster Joel Hale made a return for Rivers from a knee injury last weekend. He proved to be one of the side's two prospects at the start of the season and will be a welcome addition.

Stein Grodum has been Easts' Mr Consistency all year and will be called upon again to stop the Rivers attack.

BRISBANE LIONS v ROCHEDALE ROVERS

Perry Park, Mayne, Saturday June 10, 7.00pm
Referee - C McCol

Lions have been fairly successful to date under new coach Miron Bleiberg, who has been quoted saying one of his goals this season was to win the Queensland Cup. Lions have drawn a tough opponent in Rochedale though.

The Rovers have hit a purple patch with a series of wins highlighting a welcome return to form. They will be extremely tough to beat.

MATCH WINNERS

Craig Priddy played superbly last week for Lions and was rewarded with a couple of goals. He caused problems for Rochedale in their last encounter and could do so again.

The experience of Gary Brattan at the back will be vital for the Rovers in this match to stop the likes of Priddy.

WYNNUM DISTRICT v NORTH BRISBANE

Carmichael Park, Tingalpa, Sunday June 11, 2.45pm
Referee - R Eedy

Wynnum were without a few of their regulars last weekend, but coach Wayne Gracey should have all back for this match.

North Brisbane once again have highlighted their inconsistency, after defeating North Star in a mid-week clash only to back up for another loss to Coalstars. Coach Gary McDowall would be wanting a little more maturity from his young side.

MATCH WINNERS

Dennis Eilmann has been playing solidly for the Wolves showing he can mix it in the top League. He will be one to watch out for.

Willie Carter made a pensive return from injury last week, and although taken off early to avoid further aggravation, should play a full game and will create chances for his side.
