Celebrity match honours McFarlane's ten year service

Coalstars Soccer Club captain Alan McFarlane will join former club mates and opponents in his Benefit Year match at Coalstars' Bundamba ground this Sunday August 13.

The XXXX League club has honoured McFarlane's tenth year of service with a recent Dinner Dance at the Clubhouse and this Sunday's game.

With no XXXX League matches scheduled for this weekend because of Saturday night's Queensland Cup Final at Perry Park, the Club is expecting a good crowd on hand to see many former great players of recent times back in action.

Coalstars have come up with a strong squad, many of whom were around in the sky blue strip when the Club collected two Ampol Cups and a Grand Final in the mid 1980's.

They include Brent Diflo in goals, Kevin Caldwell, Bruce Penman, Andy Ogden, Stu Weston, Jon Kitching, John Pedley, Mark Gilbert, Rob Clarke, Darren Freiberg and Mark Brusasco, along with Alan McFarlane and some current XXXX League players.

The XXXX League Invitation squad will include State players such as Steve Perry, Wayne Evans, Mick Mulvey, Ian Proud, Craig Lowe, Brad Ryan, Dominic Tonel, Bob McSkimming, and current top referee Derek Crawford.

The referee for the 2.30pm match will be former whistle-blower Alan Kibler.

The day will start at 12.30pm with an Under 9's match followed by a junior coaches and parents game.

Juniors will also have the opportunity to score a penalty against Coalstars' senior goalkeepers.

Entry to the day is by a gold coin donation towards the Alan McFarlane Benefit Year.

Taringa ready for Rivers

Taringa Rovers' coach Juan Cutillas is preparing his side for a tough Queensland Cup final encounter with Pine Rivers, this Saturday night at Perry Park.

Cutillas has had major injury problems of late, including six first team players out last week, and believes Rivers' experience could put them as equal favourites for the final.

"A Cup final is anyone's game, and Rivers are a very good and very experienced side, which is just what you need for matches like this.

"They have many experienced players the likes of Koch, Pimblett, Eden and Underhill, all of these players can turn a match around."

Despite these concerns, Cutillas was still confident his team could do the job.

"We have a pretty well organised side with a lot of pace, and I think that is crucial," he said.

"If we can put things together on the night I think we will come home with the Cup."

Taringa should be strengthened by the return of striker Martin Matula, who has been in sensational Cup form with nine goals to date

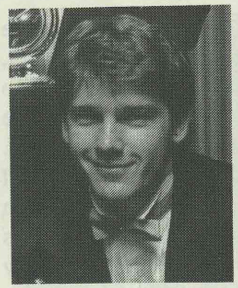
Defender George Whyte along with midfielder Danny Stowers will be out for the match following their two match suspensions.

Rivers too will be without key striker Lee Scriggins, who is ineligible to play because he started the Cup rounds with North Star.

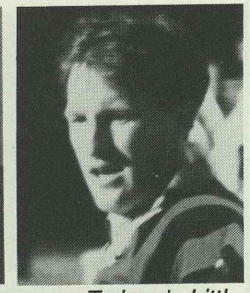
This could pose a problem for coach Gerry Lindsay, who will be hoping Clayton Koch can repeat his semi-final form, which saw him net a hat-trick of goals against Coalstars.

"Kochy is slowly improving every week, but he's still not at his best," Lindsay said.

Lindsay said he would be placing a lot of emphasis on mental preparation for the match and was quietly confident of victory.



Rivers' scoring hope Clayton Koch



Taringa's Little General Brent Read

"Taringa are the best side in the League, but we've gone this far so there's absolutely no reason we can't go all the way," he said.

He singled out Brent Read and Mark Bennett as possible match winners for Taringa.

"We won't be concentrating on any one player specifically, but they are probably Taringa's Generals, their playmakers."

EDITORIAL .....

Why are the NSL clubs again shooting the code in the foot? The efforts of Heidelberg, Melbourne SC, and Parramatta to get back into the National Soccer League are hindering the development of Australian Soccer to no end. While it is understandable on a personal level that these clubs are fighting so hard to stay in Australia's Premier competition, their motives seem selfish and it would be fair to say they are obviously not looking at the greater picture for Australian soccer. The new look ASF under the guidance of Chairman David Hill, is looking to give Australian soccer a second wind, yet how can the code move ahead while Clubs are embroiled in legal battles? Ian Brusasco was perfectly right last Sunday when he questioned the sense of joining the other football codes in all their in-fighting. Why should soccer become involved in a civil war of sorts, when we could be taking advantage of a potentially exciting time of change? David Hill's steps to form a revamped "A-League" are very bold but very necessary.

People may possibly be wondering what became of the recent dispute by Brisbane City and Rochedale Rovers over fines, issued in response to their public questioning of a Board decision and subsequent personal attack on a QSF employee. While the initial attack was reported widely in the media, the outcome of the appeals was not. Just to set the record straight, the appeals were overwhelmingly dismissed by the Council of Clubs.

On a brighter note, two promotional matches are to be played this Sunday around the traps. Apart from the Alan McFarlane Celebrity match at Coalstars' Bundamba field, a XXXX select team is venturing to the inner sanctum of the Wacol Correctional Centre to play a demonstration soccer match to promote the game within the Centre. The match will be kicking off at 1pm but unfortunately the boys have been sentenced to solitary confinement as outside spectators are not permitted entry to the match.

I was recently offered to purchase a Corporate Box Season Ticket for the Strikers' game in the upcoming season. After calculating the cost, it worked out to be around $60 per game not including food (drinks only).

With all due respect, I believe the cost to be exorbitant. On the contrary, I believe the prices should be even cheaper than normal in order to attract people for the debut season at Suncorp Stadium.

Alan Scott

The actual prices for ten seat and 14 seat corporate boxes is around $47 and $53 per head respectively, both of which seem relatively inexpensive ways to entertain a client for a night while indulging your own passion. Of course a number of other attractive ticket packages are also on offer. Ed

Congratulations to all who made the Miss Queensland Soccer Quest last Saturday night such a spectacular, happy occasion. With the demise of the QSF Presentation Night, the Quest night is now the only time we, as Clubs and supporters, can all get together and have a fun night out.

Perhaps future Quest nights could be promoted with a "Let's Get Together" theme, where all Clubs have a representative proudly wearing the Club sash. As one entrant said to me, "It would be great to win, but just being part of it gives me a buzz."

Don Look, Buranda.

Olympic battle complacency

Olympic United's toughest competitor in Saturday night's QSC Cup final against Newmarket will be complaceny.

Coach Frank Campbell said his Second Division side would have to fight the huge battle of complacency before they could expect to win the Cup from their Division Three opponents.

"Getting into the right frame of mind will be our biggest challenge," Campbell said.

"We must get it out of minds that we're playing a Third Division side and realise that this is a Cup final and that you just can't take anyone for granted in a Cup final.

"I saw Newmarket play Mt Gravatt, and their will to win was incredible. They will be tough.

"You can be rest assured that the adrenalin will be pumping a little harder in both teams come Saturday night."

Campbell (pictured) believed his side's rock solid defence would win them the Cup.

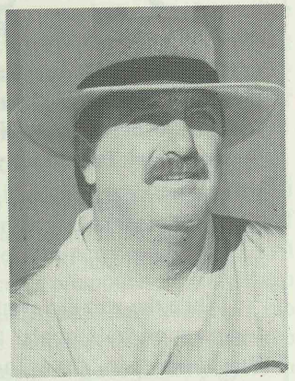
"Suspensions and injuries have left the defence weakened in recent weeks, but it's one of the best in the League, and I think Newmarket will find it hard to crack," Campbell said.

Olympic made it through a tough draw to make the final, defeating Souths United, Ipswich St Helens, and Nerang, but Newmarket had an equally tough run, knocking out Division Two front runners Beenleigh, Division Three leaders Capalaba, and Mt Gravatt.

Newmarket coach Peter Carey believes his side will take out the Cup by dominating the midfield.

"I think we can dominate in the midfield and I'll be looking to Fred Cross to organise the boys in that area of the park," Carey said.

Unlike Olympic's complacency worries, Carey said he would be using the fact that his side was up against a Division Two team as a motivating factor in the leadup to the final.



"Essentially that's what it's all about, us versus them, Division Three against Division Two," Carey said.

"That's also why I'd like to see some of the other Division Three clubs come down to Perry Park and support us.

"The other thing is that this is our last chance to gain something from the season. We can't make the finals now, so this is our last chance for any silverware."

City edge out gallant Aces

By Marco Monteverde

Brisbane City maintained their three point lead at the top of the table with a hard fought 2-0 defeat over North Brisbane at Spencer Park last Sunday.

It was imperative for City to win, with Rochedale maintaining the pressure winning away at North Star.

While the win did eventually come, with two second half goals, the young North Brisbane side gave their usual gutsy performance, and were unlucky not go ahead early through Sam Tancred.

The energetic midfielder showed great skill in the box, flicking the ball up for himself before shooting on the turn. His shot, however, fell just wide of the post.

Only five minutes later North could have gone ahead again through Michael Lane. The strong defender's header from a Ben Wood cross missed the target, however.

City's best chance of the half fell for State representative Mark Greer (pictured). After good work from Stephen Glockner and Mark Battistin, Greer performed a spectacular overhead kick, which just cleared the bar.

The home side came out strongly after the break, and took the lead through Battistin, who took advantage of a defensive mix-up from a long Cameron Pearse throw to slot the ball home from inside six yards.

He nearly had his second two minutes later, with a low shot that ricocheted off the base of the post.

The woodwork again denied the lanky striker in the 76th minute, when his curling shot from a set piece cannoned off the crossbar.

City finally got their second four minutes from time courtesy of Damien Waugh, who's low shot across the face of goal proved to be beyond the reach of North goalkeeper Adrian Parrella.

The visitors could have pulled one back three minutes into injury time through Brendan Rogers, who got on the end of a Nathan Carloss through ball. The finishing header, however, went over the bar.

For losing coach Gary McDowall it proved to be another tough day at the office, in what has been a frustrating season.

"We battled away well, and weren't a disgrace," McDowall said.

He did have valid excuses for his side's loss.

"They are a very competent side, and we also had four players out with the flu."

City coach Bobby Hamilton was just relieved to pick up the three points.

"Our main priority was to pick up a win," Hamilton said.

He cited the rough Spencer Park surface as an added obstacle on their course to victory.

"We are more than capable of playing great football. It's a drawback playing on a hard, bumpy field."

FROM THE SIDELINE

Don't forget to get to the Ekka and support the Soccer stand at the Showbag Pavilion. Strikers' players will be on hand daily to sign autographs and give skills demonstrations and some great merchandise is on offer to kids and adults, including all the latest international and Brisbane Strikers gear.

With no XXXX League matches on this weekend, it's a great opportunity to see some fantastic schoolboy action as the Queensland finals of the Bill Turner Cup kick off. The semis will be played at Beenleigh SC Friday night, with Yeppoon SHS up against Brisbane SHS at 6.30pm and Shailer Park and Brisbane Grammar doing battle at 8.30pm. The final and the playoff for 3rd and 4th will be played on Saturday night at the same venue. This year's Bill Turner Cup involved 653 teams from eastern Australia, including 195 from Queensland.

Rumours are ripe that a high profile Queensland coach was offered a top coaching position by the ASF recently. It just goes to show the wealth of coaching talent we have to offer up here is being recognised.

Well done to Capalaba, who have managed to get all of their senior teams in the finals of their respective competitions. The Third Division club secured promotion a fortnight ago when they defeated Slacks Creek at home. Club Management are confident this is the first step to halting the exodus of good junior players to First and Second Division clubs.

Another pat on the back, this time to Clairvaux Soccer Club for their colourful display at the Miss Queensland Soccer Quest. The Clairvaux table was festooned with helium balloons in Club colours. A real nice touch.

AS IN LIFE, THE FINER THINGS IN FOOTBALL ARE OFTEN WORTH WAITING FOR.

Miss Willowburn tops Quest

Miss Willowburn Selena Stansbie was crowned the 1995 Miss Queensland Soccer at a Gala Dinner Dance at the Greek Club last Saturday night.

In front of 400 guests Selena took out the crown, winning $5000 worth of air travel courtesy of Qantas, ahead of 26 other glamorous entrants from clubs throughout south-east Queensland.

Rochedale's entrant Jodee Pierce received the runner-up award as well as the crown for Miss Fundraiser.

Jodee's efforts were rewarded with a mystery flight for two for being the runner up and $2500 worth of air travel also courtesy of Qantas for being crowned Miss Fundraiser.

Selena said she was very surprised when her name was called out at the end of the night.

"I couldn't believe it. I went in for a bit of fun, not really thinking I could win, because so many of the girls had played soccer before," Selena said.

"Personally, it really is a great honour for me and I would recommend to anyone to enter the Quest next year."

The 20 year old is hoping to take her father to England to see some of their relatives and has laid down the ground rules for the trip.

"We're definitely stopping over in Hong Kong and we'll be doing a bit of shopping at Harrods."

Selena said her fundraising activities included raffles at the club and a Theatre Night, involving club supporters.

As Miss Fundraiser, Jodee raised more than $13,000 and went as far as conducting a slave auction to help raise funds for her club.

"We had a lot of raffles, a VIP Night, the Slave Auction, and at the top of the table clash between Rochedale and Brisbane City we had Willy Carne helping in the sale of raffle tickets," Jodee said.

"I've had a lot of fun in this year's Quest... I've met lots of people and I wasn't expecting to win anything. The prizes were a real bonus."

Eye On Soccer would like to congratulate both ladies for their achievements. More pictures on Page 17.

Legendary XXXX Satisfaction

Before The Whistle

with Jim Gilbert

With only a handful of matches to be played this weekend, it is opportune to have a more in-depth look at the Divisions and their promotion/relegation issues.

At long last it would appear that Beenleigh have obtained XXXX League status, something to which the club could only dream of, when they first affiliated some fifteen years or so ago. They are now five points clear, and with only six points to play for, it is unlikely they will relinquish this position, however the second promotional spot still looks open. Nerang are currently three points ahead of St Helens, with the latter side having by far the more difficult end-of-season. However, much interest is now centred on the bottom as at the top, with Souths now having closed the gap to come level with Mt Gravatt, The Hawks have two very difficult matches to finish this season, with Souths having marginally the better draw, still, it's a most peculiar game.

In Division 3, and as pointed out last week, promotion spots are set in concrete, with it looking highly likely that the Premiership will end up on the Southside of Brisbane. Semi-final placings also cannot be altered, with much interest again centred at the bottom. A few weeks Latrobe were completely stranded, now they even have two teams beneath them, Sunday 20th August, with out a doubt, is D Day.

Division 4 has changed yet again, with Wests now clear leaders and Moggill having not moved, with much shaking of heads at last week's results. Eagles are now back with a

THE SPIRIT OF AUSTRALIA

Olympic's veteran Steve Konstantinou could hold the key in the QSC final chance, but it would appear that not much will change at the other end of the table. In Division 5, Bayside are looking more secure for the Premiership with each week, Greenbank now assured of going up, however the fourth semi final position is still well and truly open. A certain amount of interest is centred at the bottom of the table where Jimboomba's valiant attempt to stay in Division 5 appears to be paying off, just have look a at who their Round 22 fixture is against!

Division 6 has Logan City four points clear, and they will have the advantage of knowing this weekend whether they will be going up as Premiers, with the Round 21 game having been brought forward. More about that later. All other Semi Final placings are well spaced out, and it does not appear as though very much will change.

Margate's postponed match this weekend in Division 7 will do much to help their battered morale, with forfeits abounding for the unlucky team from the Peninsula, however it seems highly unlikely that the top two places will alter over the next few weeks. The same can also apply to Division 8 where The Gap and Acacia Ridge appear to have a mortgage on their positions and, judging by their end-of-season opponents, little should change.

This weekend, being a weekend set aside for catch up fixtures and postponements, only has a total of seven fixtures being played with four of them in the XXXX Youth, these matches being postponed with players on representative duties earlier in the season.

On Friday night Logan City will play their Division 6 home game against Olympic, brought forward from Round 21 and, as mentioned early in this column, they will know a full week before the other participants as to their aspirations, and judging by their current form it looks to be a home win and the Premiership.

On Sunday another deferred Division 6 match takes place between Souths and Redlands, with the home side the likely winner, the remaining match on Sunday in Division 7 will see Margate making the long trip down to Jimboomba yet again, the first time having been washed out in a very rare occasion in 1995. Looks to be very much an away victory.

CUP FINAL

Great to see two diverse teams play in the QSC Cup on Saturday night, with Olympic representing Division 2 and Newmarket representing Division 3, I am very much sitting on the fence in this one, and just hope that both sides enjoy a rare tilt at glory for their respective clubs this year.

GRAND FINALS

In the two Division 9's, it's Grand Final time, with both matches being played on Saturday afternoon, the draw is printed below:

Saturday August 12 at Mitchelton SC

Div 9B - 12.30pm
Browns Plains v Taringa Rovers

Div 9A - 2.30pm
Taringa Rovers v Grange Thistle

In both occasions it is first v second, which is probably as it should be, being judged on the season's performances.

It is very difficult to predict a winner in the 9B final, as both sides have a good record in Premiership fixtures, however it could well be a "home" win.

In the 9A Final, Taringa's all round capabilities in goal scoring and defence, looks as if it will carry the day, whatever the result in the above two games, hopefully both Taringa side's will go and support their top team in the Queensland Cup final on Saturday night. ✹

READ between the LINES

All the goss with Brent Read

The Queensland Cup Final this weekend provides a welcome respite to teams throughout the league and gives us the opportunity to revise the season so far.

The XXXX League still hangs in the balance, although the faint hope Taringa had of winning the premiership has disappeared.

With only a win separating Brisbane City and Rochedale, the final two weeks of the season will decide this year's minor premiers. The City players were at the Treasury Casino on Sunday night celebrating their win over North Brisbane, quietly confident they could hold their lead over their nearest rivals.

State striker Mark Battistin (left) decided not to test his luck on the blackjack tables after hitting the bar twice in the Aces clash. He assures me it was a case of a good player out of luck, although he managed one to keep the pressure on Kieran Cooper (right) for the scoring title.

"Batts" has been one of the most consistent players in Queensland soccer over several years and must surely be a chance of recapturing a place in a National League team.

City coach Bobby Hamilton deserves high praise for his efforts in guiding the club to within reach of a league title in its first year back in the top flight.

In the process of gathering further research for this article, Queensland representative Mark Bennett joined me at Suncorp Stadium on Sunday to watch the clash between the Crushers and the Cowboys.

The new home for the Brisbane Strikers is a magnificent venue and, along with the signing of Frank Farina, will go a long way to helping the Strikers become a real force.

It does, however, leave the future of Perry Park in the balance. For so long the home of Queensland soccer, the ground has lost its major drawcard and summer tenant.

Intermittently, double headers have been played on the ground in recent years. The time has come to use the ground every weekend.

With a reasonable draw, each team could play at least four games on the best surface in Brisbane. This would include one home and one away game.

Whilst clubs may complain about a loss of revenue, the standard of football would surely improve and lead to a resultant increase in support, thereby offsetting any such loss.

1995 QUEENSLAND SOCCER CLUB CUP FINAL

OLYMPIC UNITED v NEWMARKET

Perry Park, Mayne, Saturday August 12, 5.00pm
Referee - V Dogan

A classic confrontation between clubs from different divisions. Olympic must go in as favourites, with several players with XXXX League experience leading the way.

Newmarket are not to be outdone and have knocked out some formidable opposition in getting this far, including Beenleigh and Capalaba. They will be tough.

MATCH WINNERS

Olympic striker Steve Savvakis has scored a lot of goals this season. With a powerful shot, he must be on target for his side to win.

Defender Darren Burge will have the job of stopping him. He has been one of Newmarket's mainstays all season and will relish the big game atmosphere.

1995 XXXX QUEENSLAND CUP FINAL

TARINGA ROVERS v PINE RIVERS UTD

Perry Park, Mayne, Saturday August 12, 7.00pm
Referee - J Palmer

Taringa have been in great Cup form but injuries and suspensions have decimated Cutillas' side. The Rovers must produce something special, to take out this year's Cup.

Rivers have been the "dark horse" of the Cup and know that this is their last chance for a trophy in 1995. They will be fired up and experience could just get them through.

Martin Matula's Cup form has been sensational, with nine goals in the preliminary rounds. Look for him to sneak a couple past the Rivers' goal.

With Lee Scriggins out, Clayton Koch will be under a lot of pressure to perform. A quality striker, he is definitely a danger for the Rovers.

	PINE RIVERS	TARINGA ROVERS
1.	Peter Underhill	Jason Lucas
2.	John Cartwright	Mark Bennett
3.	Graham Eden	Paul Worroll
4.	Mark Kaps	George Whyte
5.	Andrew Stillman	John Ogden
6.	Frank Pimblett	Damon Voss
7.	Joel Hale	Brent Read
8.	Kiely Calleja	Joel Douglas
9.	Lee Scriggins	Stephen Starr
10.	Clayton Koch	Danny Stowers
11.	Dene Almond	Cameron Williamson
12.	Dave Campbell	Brett Jones
13.	Chris Wilson	Martin Matula
