Editorial

The season is getting away from us at such a fast pace with the traditional Labour Day long weekend of Qld Cup matches already upon us.

A total of 20 teams from the south-east corner of the state will take part in the 1996 XXXX Queensland Cup.

Unfortunately a number of regional affiliates have withdrawn from this year's competition, which has taken away the state-wide aspect of the Cup.

Nevertheless five country teams have made the effort to be a part of the proceedings again this year.

The withdrawal of country sides north of Bundaberg makes me wonder how happy soccer supporters and indeed players from these regions can possibly be with their respective administrators.

It is the fans in the country areas who are missing the opportunity to see Queensland's best players and likewise, the players in these areas are being denied the opportunity to see if they can match it with the boys from the city.

Last year a large number of appeals were made by disgruntled country supporters requesting the State coach to seriously consider players from the country, when selecting the Queensland team.

The QSF recently appointed John Stewart as the new State coach, a man who has no XXXX League ties and who would therefore be in a great position to take a good look at the talent on offer in the country.

With the regional affiliates in the north pulling out, how can the new State coach seriously consider these players when the opportunity to compare them against other potential State representatives has been lost.

While I appreciate that costs appear to be the major problem for these affiliates, the supporters and players in country areas are the ones who are suffering.

It is imperative that this dollar problem be overcome so as not to firstly, impede the possible career paths of our country players and secondly, deny supporters a chance to see their State's best.

FROM THE SIDELINE

With the season almost at its half way stage, there seems to be a shortage of Miss Queensland Soccer entrants out there (that's according to the files at Perry Park anyway). Of course those who get out to the games every weekend know that this cannot possibly be true, with many Quest entrants busy raising funds on match days to assist their clubs and take them that one step further before they meet the judges later this year. We know you're out there... so how about getting your entries and photos in so that we can begin publishing them in Eye On Soccer. Remember every bit of publicity will help you on your quest.

Wanted! Colour XXXX League team photos... for publishing in Australian and British Soccer Weekly. ABSW's Bob Brookes has requested from the QSF, team photos of every XXXX League side to be used on the back cover of the weekly soccer newspaper on occasion. This is a great chance to gain exposure for your club, your players and your sponsors, so rush your photos to Eye On Soccer as soon as possible, so that we can pass them onto Bob. The presses are waiting!

While on photos, we would love to print action photos, team photos, individual photos, spectator photos... any photos... from teams in the lower divisions. We can't possibly get to all of the divisions every weekend and our photographic resources are even more limited than our writing ones, so if you have something you feel could be used in Eye On Soccer, please don't hesitate to send it in to us.

Wynnum leap four places in IEA Fair Play Award

A number of significant changes have occurred to the table with the crackdown on foul and abusive language putting the discipline of clubs to the test.

The choir boys from Wynnum and Brisbane Lions lead the congregation after eight rounds with the Wolves claiming top spot on a count-back having received two less yellow cards.

Early front runners Taringa have let their halos slip, dragging them down to third after a large number of cautions in the last four rounds.

The sinners from Pine Rivers have continued to let their wrong doings keep them out of the money, but could soon be joined by fast falling Coalstars who have plummeted from third top to third last.

Heaven bound is Rochedale up seven pews to fourth spot.

Wolves enjoy timely double

A goal on debut by schoolboy striker Nick Hadland and an heroic penalty save by keeper Kevin Tatton provided the tonic for the Wynnum Wolves to break through for their first home victory of the XXXX Soccer League season on Anzac Day.

The Wolves clinched a backs to the wall 2-1 win over the high flying Rochedale Rovers in dramatic circumstances when Tatton saved a 92nd minute penalty attempt from the League's top goalscorer Kieran Cooper.

The Wolves had appeared certain to claim maximum points when Hadland, a half time replacement for the injured Billy McDermott, shot Wynnum to the front in the 85th minute.

However Cooper was ruled to have been brought down on the box after turning Ricky McKinless and it seemed the Wolves were destined to be thwarted by an injury time goal when Cooper confidently stepped up for the spot kick.

Giant Wynnum custodian Kevin Tatton brought the crowd to its feet when he sprang to his right to parry Cooper's attempt and bring victory to his side.

Earlier, goals only minutes apart by Rochedale's Sean Carey and Wynnum's Geoff Maltby had seen the teams level at half time.

Wynnum were forced to defend for long periods in the second half as the classy Rovers side took control, but stout defending kept scoring chances to a premium.

Eventually the Wolves were rewarded for their dogged determination when luck finally fell their way in an action packed conclusion.

Wynnum made it two wins in a row when they backed up to defeat Nerang 3-1 in another tense struggle at the coast on Sunday.

The Wolves led 2-1 at the break through goals from Paul Wilkins and a penalty by Tony McKinless but had to absorb enormous pressure in atrocious conditions before securing victory.

Teenage substitute Nick Hadland again proved his worth with a well taken goal to give the Wolves a 3-1 buffer with only 15 minutes left.

However Nerang captain/coach Paul Cockbain ensured another tight finish with a long range goal five minutes later.

The Wolves again defended with admirable desperation to survive a series of corners and goal mouth scrambles in the closing minutes to claim victory.

The wins have elevated Wynnum to fourth spot in the League after ten rounds.

We are writing to express our amazement at the lack of common sense employed by a referee on the weekend. We had travelled to Capalaba for a second division reserves game (a very long drive), arriving at 4pm for a 5pm kickoff. We were advised on arrival that a referee had decided to abandon the Colts and Reserve Grade games at 2pm because of the pitch condition. It was not raining (and had not rained for several hours). The pitch was in superb condition with no visible surface water. Needless to say, all of the players that arrived were amazed no game was on. When we next make the long journey for our catch up game we will be cursing the lack of common sense employed by this referee. Anthony and Kevin Beeley, The Gap Div 2 Reserves

I sympathise with your situation guys, but have you spoken to anyone from Willowburn? The referees are currently revamping their policy on weather-affected matches and QSF Extras on page 8 briefly touches on this. Ed

Bricks to the Rochedale Junior organisers for not ensuring that junior coaches were aware of the Olympic march past at the Strikers match on the 30th March. I took my two boys who play for Rochedale, to see the Strikers game and was confronted with this great spectacle. My disappointed lads sat in the stands and asked why they and their team weren't marching. When asked, the coach said he didn't know anything about it but he and his team would have definitely gone had he known. Well done Rochedale, NOT! Name withheld on request.

Roses and Raspberries

- Nick Nockemoffski

Rose - I continue to be truly amazed by the goodwill, knowledge and resources evident at the Grass Root Level. Onya Grass Rooters! They will be referred to as GR's for future reference (yes I know it can be spelt differently, but I don't vont a ret cart!)

Rose - For GR Fred Dobson, the man behind the camera at Carmichael Park (the Wynnum Wolves den). A hard worker with a great sense of humour. Win, lose or draw, you can view the replay immediately after the game in the Gateway Sports Clubhouse, without commercials, by courtesy of Fred and the Wolves' management.... Schtick dat inya paip Foxtel und Galaxy.

Rasp - For the "dreamers" at Capalaba who were seriously thinking about the top division next year.

Rose - To the Bulldog GR's and the club hierarchy who are now valiantly trying to overcome the current crisis. The potential for soccer at the top is definitely within your ranks. Go for it!

Rasp - To the "gentleman" (from the Referees Association) who asked another gentleman (the trainer of the home team) in a very rude tone, to sit down because he couldn't see. The elderly trainer had squatted for most of the second division match and had to stretch his legs. When the "gentleman" told him to get into the coaches dug-out (a tiny tin box), the trainer explained politely that there was no room, but received no response other than a vacant stare.

Rose - For the small number of people who work very hard and very long hours to produce Eye On Soccer. Send your letters and other contributions (match reports, news etc) to the editor. Also send any lower division photos, they can't be everywhere at once. Cumm lets help. Vee Kan do it!

North Star's daunting rebuild

Faced with the financial necessity to revert to amateur status and the subsequent exodus of playing staff, it was hardly surprising North Star turned to its former uncompromising XXXX League defender Michael McEvoy (pictured) to see to the process of rebuilding.

Former stalwart of North Star's championship and Cup winning squad of the late 1980's, McEvoy made a comfortable transition to coaching the club's youth team in the early 1990's on the back of a disciplined work ethic and a canny football brain.

Now in charge of the first team, McEvoy will need to use all the experience gained in his decades with the club to replenish North Star's football stocks.

"We have a squad of amateurs," admitted McEvoy. "They're all young guys who play for the love of the game, but they also realise there's an opportunity for them to play at North Star and they are wrapped to take that opportunity and get out there and compete and enjoy the experience."

Whilst the playing staff may hold amateur status, it is very much a professional ethos that McEvoy cultivates at O'Callaghan Park.

Sponsorship dollars have kitted out the top three teams at the club in smart travelling uniforms. A flashy new strip and other small luxuries, including meals for the team following home games, similarly encourage the players to give a professional performance when the whistle blows.

"All of our sponsors have been fantastic," McEvoy said.

"Without support from companies like NDL and Colonial Mobile Village, we wouldn't be able to bring this young team along and show them how you go about earning success. Generally speaking our local support is building,

I think because of the local product we have in these youngsters."

And though some clubs trot out the old "youth policy" cliché and continue to play their veterans, North Star is well and truly in the deep end of Brisbane's pool of youth talent.

"Half of my squad is under 19 years of age. Two years ago guys like Adam Marley and Paul Deranja (both 17) were playing junior football, and now they're coping with the rigours of the XXXX League.

"It's fair to say that all the guys in the squad are still learning the game. What they lack in experience they make up for in enthusiasm and the will to compete."

Courage is a particularly good cornerstone to have in the foundations of this developing team, according to McEvoy.

Under McEvoy, North Star are committed to attractive football and future honours. Time will be the judge of this daunting rebuild, patience McEvoy's ally.

Dogs defence up to speed

Capalaba's defence is coming to terms with the demands of second division and all it needs now is for the attack force to make better use of the chances being created.

That was the key observation in last week's two 1-1 draws under difficult conditions.

Playing away at Willowburn on Anzac Day, the backline kept the home team to one goal but a number of excellent scoring chances were squandered.

Alan Prentice levelled the score when he bent a shot into the far corner of the net in the second half, but the forwards lacked that lethal touch which has become so necessary.

For the first time the Bulldogs were able to field the same side in the following match on a rain-sodden home pitch against The Gap.

This previous loss of continuity had cost the team dearly, making it almost impossible to maintain consistency of positions even in the one game.

Building on the platform of the previous match, the Bulldogs began with a stylish display of attractive soccer.

Youngster David Gleeson, 16, had a taste of the real thing, putting in excellent performances when used as a substitute in both matches.

Keeper Jason Parkes did well against the tall Gap forwards, punching the ball clear on numerous occasions as he asserted his dominance inside the 18 yard area.

More often seen in defence, Robbie Ashcroft put his team on the scoreboard when he spotted the Gap keeper off his line and beat him with a well-placed chip.

However as half time neared, the side lost concentration and put itself under pressure by conceding a number of silly free kicks.

Play tightened up considerably after the break and the ball was kept on the ground to minimise the effect of the opposition's height. But The Gap proved up to the job and gained the equaliser through a deflection.

QSF NOTICE BOARD - EXTRAS

■ The early-bird club secretaries who read this column should refer to 265/96 from the QSF Board Minutes of 23 April 1996. The item referred to may cause some panic within their ranks.

■ As we fast approach the halfway mark of the season, more and more clubs (and players) will be anxiously looking at their club's disciplinary record to ensure they are not losing players at the wrong time. But then, is there ever a right time?

■ The Qantas Cup competition is about to get underway. The draw has not been made at the time of going to press, is your team entered?

■ Last weekend's rare wet weather created a few headaches for clubs, players and referees. It is therefore timely to remind everyone that only the match referee (or his designate), can call off a senior match. Clubs cannot have matches deferred without an inspection of the playing venue taking place. Prime considerations to determine if a match can be played, include the safety of players and the condition of the surface. In other words, can soccer be played or just sloshball? The referees body is currently revamping its wet weather procedures to ease the many traumas that were experienced last week. Adherence to the correct procedures is of paramount importance. ▶

WOMENS SOCCER

The 22nd Watson Shield and Consolation Cup was contested a fortnight ago, with Eastern Suburbs taking out the main prize and Brisbane City claiming a penalty win for the Cup.

Unfortunately this year the Sunshine Coast and the Gold Coast were unable to take part in the competition due to other commitments.

The carnival therefore consisted solely of Brisbane teams and was helped along courtesy of a number of clubs who joined together to enter a side.

Brisbane Lions and Rochedale merged to form Lionsdale and Tiwiwarrin and Jimboomba also joined forces to make up the Tiwiwoomba team.

Tiwiwoomba knocked out Brisbane City in the first round and went on to the semi-finals of the Watson Shield. Lionsdale played Brisbane City in the Consolation Cup semi-final.

The final of the Consolation Cup between Brisbane City and Coalstars was a very tight affair, with the two teams remaining scoreless after extra time and the match being decided on penalties, with City successful 5-3.

The Watson Shield final was also a very hard fought affair between traditional rivals Eastern Suburbs and the Queensland Academy of Sport, with Easts the victors 1-0.

A number of players from Coalstars, Easts, Brisbane City and the QAS were not in attendance on the first day of the carnival due to representative duties in Coffs Harbour.

The Queensland players competed against a side from Northern New South Wales as part of a promotion for women's soccer.

Queensland took the match out 3-0 and then completed the long drive home to be at Geebung on Sunday for the completion of the carnival weekend.

The juniors also kicked off their fixtures on the Watson Shield weekend, with eight teams competing this year, double the number of sides who contested last year.

The juniors will have their own carnival day on May 6 when the Hazel Millman Carnival gets underway.

Bris City bruises Thistle 5-0

by Andrew van der Beek

Intermittent showers made quality football all but impossible at Wallace J Dann Oval on Sunday afternoon but Brisbane City still cruised to a 5-0 victory over Grange Thistle.

Thistle's team of youngsters have been the surprise packet of the season so far but they could do little to curtail an impressive performance from their high flying neighbours.

Damien Waugh scored the first for the league leaders after twenty minutes when he played a clever one-two with Ian Hutchison and coolly slotted the ball past Gary Hartzenberg in the Thistle goal.

Thistle nearly managed a reply shortly after when a flick from Troy Percival fell to the home side's top scorer Greg Di Losa but he shot wide of the goal.

However, City extended their lead just before the break when Hutchison was again involved this time floating a cross to the far post for the diving Lee Scriggins to power a header into the top corner.

In the second half Thistle keeper Hartzenberg made it clear he wasn't about to give up, making some great saves, the most notable an outstanding double stop from Scriggins.

Further chances fell to Hutchison and Waugh before City began their most impressive spell of the match, scoring three more goals in eight minutes.

First a defence splitting pass sent Scriggins though for a one-on-one with Hartzenberg. The Thistle custodian again made a fine save but could do nothing when Warren Cooley gathered the rebound and curled a well placed shot just inside the far post.

It was 4-0 five minutes later when City

Brisbane City's Lee Scriggins had a good day scoring a double substitute Shane Haddow curled a pass through the heart of the Thistle defence for Hutchison to drive in the goal his gutsy performance deserved.

Scriggins then made it five with his second of the match rounding two defenders and blasting the ball in from six yards.

City coach Peter Tokesi had mixed feelings after the match saying he was happy with the result but felt his side could still play better.

"We've been threatening to score a lot of goals for a while but we still missed a few today".

Barry Dann was at a loss to explain the sudden form reversal of his Thistle side who have so impressed in the opening rounds of the season.

"We were playing like City three weeks ago but we seem to have gone a little off the boil".

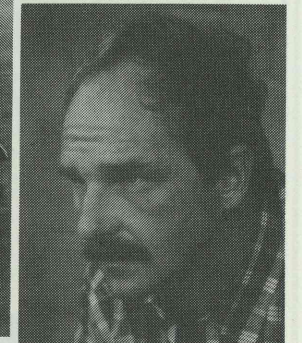

"We're a young and inexperienced side and hopefully we'll learn from this result" he said.

ACTION REPLAY

Pine Rivers coach Frank Pimblett arrived back from overseas just in time to watch Taringa's Brent Read score a goal, and "Wildman" Cuba got one too, then Marc Flemington made it three. His team's only consolation was from a Dene Almond effort which made the final scoreline 3-1. He just might want to go back OS.

Before The Whistle

Wet weather certainly played a part in last weekend's matches, with some results not exactly those that we would have expected prior to the weekend. It would also be interesting to know how many players, (and officials), adapted to the slippery conditions, conditions that we have certainly not had to put up with for two - three years!

I saw one second Division match played on the weekend in conditions that were, not unduly slippery, but did cause a little concern to some of the players to keep their footing, and to make adjustments for the greasy ball and grass. However the 40+ stoppages throughout the match, (not counting ball in and out of play) did nothing to help the patience of players, team officials and spectators. The players certainly had adjustment problems to the conditions, but obviously the referee had even more!

A few teams starting to run away with their respective competitions, most notably the one's at or near the top in Division's 2, 3, 4 and 6.

Sun 2:45pm Bayside Utd v Brothers Utd
Mon 2:45pm South Star v Ipswich City
Mon 2:45pm Redcliffe City v North Pine Utd

DIVISION 2

A very reduced round of matches this weekend, with only two scheduled due to the top club's involvement in the Queensland Cup. On Sunday, Inala take on Capalaba with the home side looking to regain their equilibrium from last week at the expense of Capalaba. Only one match on Monday between St Helens and Mt Gravatt, and judging by recent performances, the visitors should go further up the table.

DIVISION 3

One match scheduled for Friday night between Redlands and Slacks Creek, (brought forward from Saturday) looks very much to be a win for the visitors, unless the home side can produce something out of the box. On Saturday the day match is between University and Wests with Uni to pick up a sure-fire 3 points. Three matches at night, with the match between strugglers Clairvaux and Darra looking, on paper at least, to be a win for the visitors. Goodna v Mitchelton, a few weeks ago I would have said would be a win for the home team, but they appear to have lost their way of late, Mitchie to get up. Remaining match between Annerley and Souths could go either way but a resurgent Souths may take the points at the final whistle.

Local derby match on Monday between Latrobe and Newmarket looks to be no contest from their respective positions on the table, visitors to win.

DIVISION 4

The wooden spoon is very much at stake in the match between Greenbank and Browns Plains, with both sides coming close of late, however visitors should pick up a rare win in this one, the only other Saturday match between Pine Hills and Moggill looks very much to be a one-sided contest with visitors to take the 3 points. Two games on Sunday and the one between Samford and Southside Eagles could Pine should see the home side regain their composure, and the points, in this one.

On Monday, leaders University make the trip to Mooroondu and will return with the spoils, however Jimboomba should be a shade too strong for Newmarket in the remaining fixture.

DIVISION 8

In the Friday night matches Inala should enjoy their outing to Mitchelton, whereas Albany Creek will certainly not enjoy their's when they make the trip to Rocklea. On Saturday, Bethania and Samford will have a close encounter, with home side in at the whistle. The remaining games are on Monday and will see Redlands overcome hosts The Gap, Acacia Ridge too good for Annerley, and two teams vying for their first win of the season between Pine Hills and Oxley should see the home side get up.

DIVISION 9A

Only one match on Friday will see Brisbane Lions too good for Easts, very much a local derby in the only Saturday game between Taringa and Rovers will see Taringa too good for their counterpart. The Sunday games should see Lions overpower Grange, and Coalstars take home 3 points from Beenleigh

DIVISION 9B

Three out of the five matches are played Friday night, thus giving most of these hard working players the weekend off for other commitments! Top of the table clash between Capalaba and Coalstars may see the current leaders go further ahead, Wynnum will be too good for Park Ridge, and Slacks Creek will be marginally better than Brisbane Lions. In the Saturday games Mt Gravatt will go further ahead at the expense of host's Taringa, whilst Wolves will certainly know they have been in a match after Lions have left.

- QANTAS CUP -
COMMENCING SOON!
Is your nomination in??

be a tight match indeed, home side's defensive credentials may see them through, the other match at Lota has Brothers as the visitors, where Bayside should retain their push for a top two position. On Monday, South Star entertain Ipswich City and should retain the 3 points, whilst on the Redcliffe peninsula we have North Pine as the visitors and home ground advantage may just keep the points down on the bay.

DIVISION 5

Half the matches in this Division will be played Friday night, with the pick the one between Acacia Ridge and Logan City, 3 points to remain at Proud Field. Capalaba host The Gap, in another entertaining match, visitors better attacking capabilities may see them through, remaining game between Slacks Creek and Goodna will see the points remain at Usher Park. One match on Saturday should see Bethania climb the table at the expense of St Helens, and the remaining match on Monday should see Jimboomba also to pick up 3 points at the expense of Woodridge.

DIVISION 6

On Friday, leaders Margate make the long trip to Runcorn, they should not be too dismayed as they will take 3 points home with them. Three matches on Saturday will see Mt Gravatt defeat Bayside, Park Ridge overcome a strong Mitchelton side, but Annerley will become undone with visitors Redlands.

Remaining games are on Monday with Mooroondu in for a tough match with Albany Creek where the visitors may well take all 3 points, and Oxley should enjoy their trip down to Redcliffe.

DIVISION 7

Another wooden spoon battle takes place at Clairvaux with Darra almost certainly taking the points home, The Gap make the long trip to Park Ridge, but they too, should not be unduly dismayed as they will return with the points. On Sunday Samford will have a tough match on their hands with Margate, again visitors tipped, the other match between Kingsridge and North

READ between the LINES

All the goss with Brent Read

It's been an outstanding season for the Brisbane Strikers and Queensland soccer with the State's lone Ericsson Cup side seizing their inaugural trip to the finals on the weekend.

With a bit of luck the Strikers could have snatched the minor premiership as well, illustrating how far the club has come over the last three years.

The signing of Frank Farina and the move to Suncorp Stadium were the catalysts for this outstanding season and the rest has fallen into place. The Strikers look set for a long and successful stint in the NSL if this season is any indication.

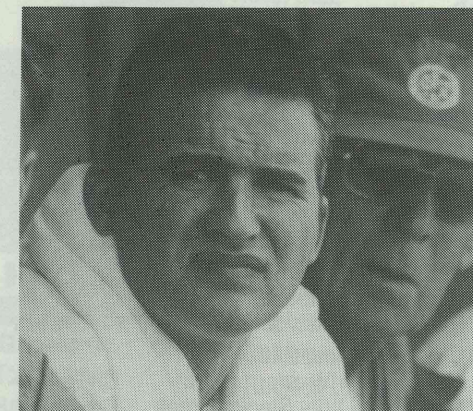

On the local front, the big mover in recent weeks has been Brisbane Lions. After an off season in which the club tried to build its depth by making offers to more players than you can poke a stick at, Lions are starting to form a formidable combination.

Their season illustrates how ironic this game can be. Only a couple of weeks ago as they stumbled at the bottom of the table, rumours of player and coaching dissatisfaction were at a high.

Coach Miron Bleiberg (pictured), who's credentials include a minor premiership and grand final win with North Star only two years ago, looked to be under immense pressure and some players were seeking out greener pastures.

Now, only three weeks later, Brisbane Lions look a picture of serenity and goodwill and Bleiberg's position at the club is as secure as any in the league.

Without panicking and taking unnecessary action to rectify the situation, Lions are now a major part of the finals puzzle. The talent was always there with a squad who's depth is arguably the best in the league.

On a final note, I've discussed in this column before the viability of a combined Ipswich side in the new XXXX League for next year and there's little doubt it remains an important part of any elite competition.

The fact is Coalstars as their own entity will find it difficult to compete. They don't have the ability to hold onto their best players and, although the support is as parochial as any in the competition, they'll struggle to be competitive.

Just a look at the players the club has lost over the last few years gives an indication of the talent the area produces. Quality players such as Brenley Jefferd and Alan McFarlane were playing at the club within the last three years but now find themselves plying their skills in foreign territory.

If the Ipswich area could combine all its players and skills into a combined unit they'd give any side in the competition a real shake, elite competition or not.

The area has a proud history in soccer circles and it's time someone bit the bullet and started moves towards a side truly representative of Ipswich.

Eye On Soccer Match of the Week

1996 XXXX QUEENSLAND CUP

This long weekend the spotlight turns away from the XXXX League competition and onto the 1996 XXXX Queensland Cup.

Now in its fifth year, this year's Cup involves all 12 XXXX League clubs, five regional affiliates and three sides from Division Two.

It is the first time teams from Division Two have been allowed to enter the Cup, a decision that came about following the withdrawal of several regional affiliates from the competition.

The top three sides from the second division at the end of April have all been invited to play in this year's competition. They are Rocklea United, Olympic United and Acacia Ridge.

The country teams that will be participating in the Cup this year are Bundaberg, Maryborough, Sunshine Coast, Gold Coast and Toowoomba.

The XXXX Queensland Cup replaces the old Ampol Cup and provides for more quality matches in some of Queensland's regional areas.

With $10,000 in prizemoney up for grabs, the Cup is well worth winning.

Already each side in the Cup has played a match against one of the other teams in their pool, prior to this weekend's games.

The results of these matches can be found on the opposite page.

After Monday's third round of Cup matches the quarter finalists will be known, with these matches to be played throughout May and June, the semi-finals set down for June and the Grand Final to be played at Perry Park over the weekend of July 20/21.

Last year's winners Taringa Rovers, have

Toowoomba's Mike Turvey returns to top competition after a couple of years in the XXXX League with Willowburn been struggling for form in the XXXX League this year and did not make a positive start to their title defence, when they went down to rival XXXX League team Wynnum by two goals to one early in April.

Not one of the regional affiliates made it past the first rounds of last year's Queensland Cup and the country teams this year will be out to show that they are just as good as their city opponents.

Their work will be cut out for them though, as Toowoomba realised a fortnight ago when they were handed a 6-0 lesson by Brisbane Lions.

The Gold Coast Gamblers have made a good start to their campaign by holding Grange Thistle to a 1-1 draw, while Pine Rivers, Nerang and Eastern Suburbs have all recorded first round wins to date.

Because some of the more distant regions have pulled out of the Cup this year, all games will be played in and around South East Queensland, allowing supporters to see a feast of soccer and a host of current and former XXXX League stars.
