Editorial

It appears as though a definite top five is starting to take shape following Wynnum's 4-3 victory over Taringa at Jack Speare Park last weekend.

That match was a six point game for the Rovers. A win would have moved them into the top five, but the loss has now left them six points or two wins out of the money.

I've never been one to rule Taringa out of any top five but I must say that my faith in the Rovers to make the play-offs this year, has dwindled somewhat recently.

Although rocked with numerous injuries over the past few months, the form of Juan Cutillas' boys has been indifferent to say the least.

Time to go out on a limb! I believe the sides that currently make up the top five in the XXXX League will be the sides that play off for the Championship at the end of the year.

A brief glance at the season so far and a look at the current makeup of the XXXX League table, suggests a number of sides could already be ruled out.

To rule out North Star would be to state the obvious, while Eastern Suburbs, Pine Rivers and Coalstars will be purely nuisance value for the remainder of the season.

It's unfortunate Pine Rivers have taken this long to show their true potential, because I think they are a better side than their position on the ladder indicates.

Despite finishing on top of their group in the Queensland Cup, Thistle have conceded a massive 23 goals in their last six XXXX League outings and have scored just once, indicating to me that they just don't have what it takes to cut it this season, and Nerang's away form should mean that they will remain in the middle of the table.

Visiting teams should beware of Glennon Park though, with Nerang holding Rochedale, City and Lions to draws at home in the past few weeks.

As far as the Premiership is concerned, it's extremely tight at the top after City squandered what once looked to be an insurmountable eleven point lead.

But my gut feeling says that the title could be decided in the final round of the season at Spencer Park when Brisbane City host Brisbane Lions. □

Ipswich Masters Games are on

After reading your article on the Queensland Masters Games, I thought I would let you know about the Ipswich Region Masters Games which are being held over the last weekend of September this year i.e 26th to the 29th.

Soccer is one of the sports on offer and is being held at Coalstars Soccer Club from the Friday evening to the Sunday afternoon.

We have modified our rules and fields which should be more attractive to a wider participant base and the Games may also serve as a good warm up for teams participating in the Queensland Masters Games.

The competition is a six-a-side format played on half a field over 15 minute halves. Teams are allowed a maximum of four reserves per game with unlimited interchange throughout the games.

There is an over 35's and over 40's competition for men and over 30's for women.

The nomination fee for the soccer section is $30 per player and nomination forms are available from the Ipswich Masters Games Office, telephone (07) 3812 0936.

Any coverage you can provide this competition would be greatly appreciated.
David O'Leary - Coalstars Soccer Club Organising Committee.

Another fantastic opportunity for people to get active and to get involved in a sport they love. And as David wrote, the timing of the Ipswich Masters Games is perfect to serve as a warm-up for the Queensland Masters from October 26 to November 3. I'd encourage all who are eligible to participate, to call the Games office now. Ed

Aussie top guns in Brisbane

More than $50 million of talent will be on show when Australia's international soccer stars currently playing overseas and here at home, clash at Suncorp Stadium on Sunday June 23.

Multi-million dollar megastars such as Aston Villa goalkeeper Mark Bosnich and striker Aurelio Vidmar, will return home for the unprecedented two-match series to be known as The Superstars of Soccer 1996 Challenge.

Soccer Australia intends for the Superstars of Soccer Series to become an annual event each June when Australia's stars playing in the UK and Europe will meet our local heroes head on.

The first match of the series will be played next Wednesday evening at the Sydney Football Stadium, with the return leg set down for Suncorp Stadium the following Sunday, June 23. Future series will rotate throughout the country's capital cities and soccer centres.

Soccer Australia Chairman David Hill, in announcing the series said: "This is an unprecedented and exciting football innovation. Never before in the history of the game in this country will there have been a greater accumulation of local soccer skill, speed and class on the pitch at the same time."

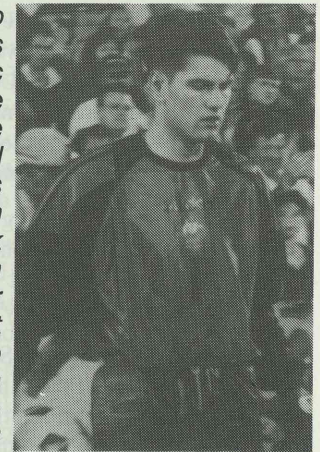

"It's the most expensive Australian soccer talent ever assembled - valued at over $50 million on the international market.

"This is the very best of Australian soccer. It's the clash millions of Australian sports fans have been hoping for. Just how good are our million dollar exports? Are our Australian-based players good enough to beat them?"

Hill said the Superstars of Soccer Series would become Australian Soccer's answer to the successful State of Origin series in Rugby League and Australian Rules.

In a major breakthrough for soccer coverage, the two-match series will be supported exclusively by the Nine Network.

English club Leicester's Zeljko Kalac joins the Aussie International Travellers along with Mark Bosnich from Aston Villa for the clash at Suncorp Stadium Sunday June 23

Bosnich, rated by many as the best goalkeeper in the world, was extremely excited by the series concept.

"This series will be a shot in the arm for soccer at a time when the greatest game in the world is growing in popularity in Australia," Bosnich said.

"The timing is just right. For years, everyone associated with Australian Soccer has been arguing about who is best - the full time professionals playing overseas or the boys back home, part-timers playing largely for love? They'll certainly be out to prove a point."

Australia's Olympic coach Raul Blanco and Sydney United coach Branko Culina will handle the overseas side, which will be called the "International Travellers", while UTS Olympic and Newcastle Breakers coaches David Ratcliffe and John Kosmina will take charge of the home-based team to be known as the "True Blues".

Home and away rules will apply to the series. Each team will have a designated home game, with "Golden Goal" time and penalty shoot-out if needed, to decide the Challenge winner. □

- Special Feature -

It was disturbing to note last week of a Brisbane sports writer who was banned from the Queensland Rugby League team's dressing room, following comments he made in a story a few days prior to last Monday's State of Origin match in Sydney.

The subsequent meeting of the Rugby League Writers Association condemned the ban, suggesting it was against all principles underlying a free press society.

Ironically, one of Eye On Soccer's intrepid reporters was afforded the same (dis)courtesy last weekend, when attempting to obtain a comment from a high profile 7th Division coach.

The reporter was refused entry into this team's dressing room after the match because of some obscure comment made in From The Sideline a few weeks ago.

The Soccer Writers Association (SWA) had their monthly meeting last week in the telephone box at the corner of Creek and Anne Streets, to discuss this latest development.

Again the SWA condemned the actions of the Division 7 club and also decided they may have to find another meeting place after keeping prospective phone users waiting for just over an hour. Telstra is investigating.

Chief Petty Affairs Officer for the SWA, Mr Dick Noall, released the following statement after the meeting.

"An incident such as this one has far wrenching consequences not only for the media but for society at large.

"The Soccer Writers Association can not and will not tolerate such blatant acts against the free press, which has served our society so diligently in modern times.

"You can be rest assured, we will fight Telstra all the way!" □

Miss Quest entrants

Ana-Maria Taraborrelli will represent Brisbane City Soccer Club in this year's Quest

The Miss Queensland Soccer Gala Dinner Dance is not too far away, and Brisbane City's Ana-Maria Taraborrelli and Jodie Keepence of Inala City are hoping to wear the crown on the evening of August 3 at the Greek Club.

Ana is 22 years old and works as a hairdresser. Miss Brisbane City's entrant enjoys soccer, meeting people and life in general. Seventeen year old Jodie is currently studying year 12 at school. Jodie's hobbies include playing indoor soccer and netball and her life ambition is to be a Childcare Assistant.

Both ladies are in contention for the $5,000 worth of air travel to be awarded to the winner and the $2,500 in air travel for Miss Fundraiser, both prizes courtesy of Qantas. □

Upsets highlight Qld Cup

Upsets dominated last weekend's round of XXXX Queensland Cup matches, and yet again, only XXXX League teams have progressed to the quarter final stage.

All five regional areas and the three second division teams were knocked out but did manage to show their XXXX League counterparts that they could cause a few headaches on their day.

In Group One, Bundaberg and Maryborough were easily accounted for by Wynnum, who finished on top of that group after winning all three of their matches, and Taringa who qualified for the quarter finals with six points and a plus nine goal difference.

Last year's Queensland Cup runners-up, Pine Rivers, cruised into the next round with impressive wins over the Sunshine Coast, Olympic United and North Star in Group Two.

North Star also notched up their first win of the year when they defeated Olympic 3-2 on Monday.

The out-of-sorts Grange Thistle were surprise winners of Group Three, with a 1-1 draw against the Gold Coast, a 2-0 win over Acacia Ridge and a shock 1-0 victory over XXXX League leaders Brisbane City, giving them a total of seven points.

City also qualified for the quarters after defeating the Gold Coast and Ridge to finish on six points.

Beenleigh were a huge disappointment in Group Four. They failed to score a single goal in any of their opening round matches and were humiliated by Toowoomba to the tune of 4 goals to nil last Saturday.

In the end it was Lions' crushing 6-0 defeat of Toowoomba which allowed them to sneak to the top of that group with seven points and a plus seven goal difference, five more goals than Nerang who also finished on seven points, enough for them to appear in the quarter finals.

The final group proved to be an intriguing contest with underdogs Eastern Suburbs storming home after three mighty wins against Coalstars, Division Two leaders Rocklea and glamour side Rochedale. Indeed Rochedale struggled to come to terms with Cup football and failed to win a match.

The Rovers were shown up by Rocklea 1-0 last week, could only manage to take a point from Coalstars last Saturday and were 2-1 losers to Easts on Monday.

The quarter finals will take place at Perry Park next week, with double headers on Wednesday and Thursday nights, beginning at 6.30pm. Check your local media for match pairings. A full list of results for the 1996 XXXX Queensland Cup appears below.

ACTION REPLAY

Wynnum had a resurgence when they met Taringa at the Rovers ground and came home with the 3 points. Andrew Hobbs sported some unusual shorts and Fraser Cuba accounted for two of Taringa's three goals. Macpherson the Scot showed his class with two goals too. Van Basten met his match in Brent Read this time and the Wolves' own Trevor Murphy seemed very cautious in approach.

Wynnum scotch Taringa

by Andrew van der Beek

Two fantastic goals from Wynnum striker Jamie Macpherson decided the match as the visitors snuck away with the points in a 4-3 goalfest at Jack Speare Park on Sunday afternoon.

The two clubs seemed determined to make up for providing the only XXXX League entertainment of the weekend by trying to score as many goals as would normally be scored in a full round of fixtures.

If attacking flair was then to be the order of the day, no one exhibited it more spectacularly than Wynnum's new Scottish import Jamie Macpherson.

He showed his class from the outset, demanding a fine save from Taringa keeper Andrew Hobbs after only eight minutes.

But soon after Macpherson gave Hobbs no chance when he had time and space to produce an acrobatic volley which rocketed into the top corner.

The lead was short lived however, a Brent Read corner finding the head of Paul Worroll at the farpost and Fraser Cuba first to the knock back to level the scores just four minutes later.

Macpherson was again in the action moments later, controlling the ball and laying it off for big Geoff Maltby to arrow a stinging drive past Hobbs and put his side back in front.

It was to be Maltby's last involvement in the match as he suffered a facial injury in a heading duel with Des Hughes and was replaced by Malcolm Van Basten.

Wynnum then extended their lead when Macpherson picked the ball up in midfield and tried a speculative strike from some thirty yards. The ball's late dip clearly deceived Hobbs and he could only watch as it dropped just under the crossbar, much to the jubilation of Macpherson and his teammates.

Scottish import Jamie Macpherson notched up two classy goals. One, a quality overhead, then a 30 yard missile during his side's triumph over Taringa Rovers

The goal seemed to compound what had already been a shaky performance from Hobbs and he was nearly beaten again when he failed to reach a far post cross. Wynnum's Danny Valle got his head to the ball but Hobbs' blushes were saved by a goaline clearance from John Ogden.

The goals continued to rain in at the start of the second half with three in a four minute spell.

Firstly Cuba scored his second, an awkward looking but effective header from a Marc Flemington cross.

Three minutes later Hobbs' nightmare was complete when he was dispossessed following a backpass from Gavin Freier and Paul Wilkins rolled the ball in to give Wynnum a 4-2 lead.

Demetri Theochari kept Taringa in the game a minute later with an impressive shot on the turn which gave Wynnum custodian Kevin Tatton no chance.

It was all Taringa in the last twenty minutes as the home side tried everything to conjure an equaliser.

A shot from Flemington grazed an upright and two further chances to Cuba went close but it was not enough to stop Wynnum going home with a hard fought three points. □

Before The Whistle

Did you know that Division 2 leaders Rocklea have scored in every single fixture so far and that bottom marker Willowburn, (despite their lowly position) have scored in each of their seven home games which includes three losses.

Also Inala City's away record is better than at home, with four wins away to three at Freeman Road; a definite loser in the goal scoring stakes is Ipswich St Helens who have only scored seven goals at home and eight away, which is in stark contrast to Slacks Creek from Division 3 who are yet to concede a goal at home but have only two clean sheets away; finals aspirants Newmarket and Mitchelton always have close tussles with Newmarket having the wood on Mitchie this year, defeating them both home and away; the five goals Clairvaux scored in their win last week end, was as many as they

Who & When

Division 2 - Round 16

Sat 7:00pm	Rocklea Utd v Willowburn
Sat 6:00pm	Logan City v Inala City
Sun 2:45pm	Ipsw St Helens v The Gap
Sun 2:45pm	Mt Gravatt v Capalaba
Sun 2:45pm	St Albans v Acacia Ridge
Sun 2:45pm	Olympic v Albany Creek

Division 3 - Round 15

Sat 2:45pm	Mitchelton v Darra Utd
Sat 7:00pm	Annerley v Uni of Qld
Sat 2:45pm	Goodna v Redlands Utd
Sun 2:45pm	Souths Utd v Slacks Creek
Sun 2:45pm	Latrobe v Clairvaux

Division 4 - Round 15

Sat 2:45pm	Browns Plains v Moggill Utd
Sat 7:00pm	North Pine v S'side Eagles
Sat 2:45pm	Bayside Utd v Samford
Sat 2:45pm	Pine Hills v South Star
Sun 2:45pm	Brothers v Ipswich City
Sun 2:45pm	Redcliffe City v Greenbank

have scored in their last seven games, Moggill United from Division 4 have only conceded one goal in their eight home games to date; leaders South Star have only conceded two goals away from home and that was in their 0 - 2 loss to North Pine; and would you believe that Greenbank have scored 21 of their 26 goals at home! Some interesting statistical trivia for those interested in such things.

DIVISION 2

Top plays bottom on Saturday night with Rocklea v Willowburn, looks to be no contest, the other night match between Logan and Inala will be a lot closer, the nod going to the home side at the final whistle. Remaining matches are on Sunday with Gap visiting Ebbw Vale where Saints may just pick up a rare win, Mt Gravatt should cement their place in the top three at the expense of Capalaba, Acacia Ridge make the trip to Toowoomba and St Albans which is fraught with danger, Saints should get up come 4.30, final match between Olympic and Albany Creek will be very tight indeed, home side favoured.

DIVISION 3

Three matches on Saturday afternoon with Wests looking to be 'no show' against high flying Newmarket, Wests now playing at their 'new' home ground at Logan City Kings, Mitchelton in the meantime will keep up the pressure at the top with a home win over Darra, and Redlands make the trip up to Goodna, and may pick up a valuable away 3 points. One match at night between Annerley and University, looks (on paper at least) to be an away win.

Two matches on Sunday will see a tight one between Souths and Slacks Creek, and a score draw would not surprise, last match between Latrobe and Clairvaux should see the points remain at Murray Street.

DIVISION 4

Bayside will look to repair the damage from last week's defeat, with a home win over Samford, Pine Hills will have absolutely no joy with leaders South Star, Moggill will need a map to find their way to the new ground at Browns Plains, but they should not be deterred as they will take 3 points back with them. The lone match at night between North Pine and Southside Eagles will be a tough one indeed, with the Dakabin based club now on the verge of a semi position, again, a score draw would not surprise. On Sunday Brothers should be too strong for Ipswich City, particularly as this will be their first match back on their brand new pitch at Kangaroo Point, the remaining match should see Redcliffe pick up 3 points over Greenbank.

DIVISION 5

Games spread nicely over the weekend first one being Goodna's hosting of St Helens, both teams struggling of late but home side could get the nod, Capalaba are home to Bethania in the other Friday night match with again home side favoured. On Saturday afternoon University should be far too good for Woodridge, but it will be much tighter between The Gap and Logan City with the points to remain at Walton Bridge. One match on Sunday should see Acacia Ridge successful over Jimboomba.

DIVISION 6

More matches being played on Friday night with Mitchelton too strong for Bayside. Albany Creek will have their work cut out with Oxley but it will be tight at Cleveland between Redlands and Margate, with visitors getting the nod at the final whistle. Two games on Saturday should see the points go to Mooroondu from Annerley, but conversely Park Ridge will retain 3 points at home over Souths. One game on Sunday will see Mt Gravatt enjoying their trip down on the Redcliffe Peninsular.

DIVISION 7

On Saturday there should be wins for two of the home teams and two of the visitors, in the home games Uni will be too good for Newmarket likewise The Gap will topple Darra, with both Margate and Samford enjoying their trips to North Pine and Park Ridge. On Sunday Kingsridge will retain 3 points over Mooroondu with the other home team Jimboomba too good for bottom marker Clairvaux.

DIVISION 8

On Friday night it will be tight between Redlands and Samford but the visitor's better goal-scoring should see them through, Albany Creek will retain 3 points over Oxley, with Mitchelton struggling at home with visitors Bethania who should take all three points. In the Saturday matches, Rocklea should continue on their merry way with a win over The Gap, Inala will be far too good for Annerley, and in the lone Sunday game Acacia Ridge should do enough to take 3 points home from Pine Hills.

DIVISION 9 A

There should be wins for both away teams in the Friday night games, Grange over Wynnum and Taringa over Brisbane Lions. On Saturday Easts will have no fears for Lions, likewise Rovers will be far too good for Beenleigh.

DIVISION 9 B

A close encounter at Usher Park between Slacks Creek and Lions, with the visitors marginally ahead in their goal scoring ability, visitors again are favoured in the Brisbane Lions v Taringa match at Richlands, local derby at Tarragindi between Wynnum and Wolves with Wynnum about to get back to a plus goal difference. On Saturday Capalaba will have too many guns for Mt Gravatt and Coalstars will hold equal first spot courtesy of Park Ridge.

Olympic aims for promotion

After six years in Division Two and at times missing promotion by only one game, Olympic is once again looking for entry into the XXXX League.

The team is currently in second position in its division and with some good fortune will be fighting hard to maintain its position.

The firsts side has a good mix after being strengthened with some new blood added to a large number of young players, who have stayed loyal to the club through the harder times.

The team will have to dig deep and find their winning way though, following below par performances in their two losses to Pine Rivers and North Star in the Queensland Cup.

With the restructure of the competition, the two important factors of facilities and financial stability and management, are areas where the Olympic Committee has been working overtime in trying to address.

A new building which will be the centrepiece of a Multi-Sports Complex, in an ongoing development of Goodwin Park, is on the drawing board. The push is on for construction of the building in the coming off-season.

Support for the redevelopment has never been greater and the attendances this year have been good.

But the club is looking to triple its attendances next year with a massive public relations campaign throughout the surrounding suburbs and shopping centres.

Whichever way the ball bounces, next year is looking good for the players, spectators and the world's most popular game, soccer.

A dark dog's day out at Inala

One-nil up at half time and well in control, Capalaba looked set to take the points in their second division catch-up match away to Inala on Sunday.

Nine goals and 45 minutes later the stunned Bulldogs were wondering what had hit them.

One of the killer blows in the 7-3 loss came from Inala's John Clark, who scored twice in the dying moments of the game.

In the first half, the Capalaba midfield and front line took charge, creating plenty of chances.

Simon Kalaba, John Quinn and Robbie Ashcroft combined well to keep their team moving into Inala's danger zone.

Deon Haynes scored with a well taken header from a Quinn corner, then added to the pressure with some fine defence and accurate clearances to his midfield.

Inala's Wayne Spence sparked off the impending goal spree with a tremendous shot from the right wing which beat Craig Blackburn to nudge the underside of the crossbar.

Shortly after, Inala's Mark Goodman intercepted a careless backpass and took off before coming to an abrupt end resulting in a free-kick. Spence duly threaded the ball through the wall for Inala's second.

Capalaba brought on Vince Kelly, who stirred up their attack and quickly had a shot deflected for a corner. Inala cleared James' cross but only as far as Cosi La Frenz, who scored a cracker for a 2-2 scoreline. The fightback looked certain but then Inala made another strong probing run and Brett Wilkinson was brought down in the penalty area.

Blackburn was sent off and even though replacement Dave Mewburn picked the right direction, Mike Mason's shot was placed sweetly in the top right hand corner of the net.

Wilkinson's move from sweeper to the front paid off again with another goal, then Goodman sent in a top shot for Spence to put away.

Reece James pulled one back for Capalaba with a magic header from a Quinn corner, but Inala's Clark retaliated immediately after the kick-off.

With Capalaba pushing everyone up, the defence was left wide open for Clarke and his next dazzling run down the right wing resulted in a shot being tipped just over the bar. But moments later he streeeted the Capalaba defence and scored comfortably. Story by Allan Watson

- From the Sideline -

Redlands United would like to extend their thanks for the return of their missing jerseys. Regrettably, Eye On Soccer stated that one of these jerseys went missing at Newmarket Soccer Club, when in fact this statement was wrong. Apologies to Newmarket!

QAS Head Coach Greg Brown will conduct the first of three seminars focussed on Youth training and development at three of Europe's top clubs, Manchester Utd, Chelsea and Ajax, on Friday June 14. The seminar will be on the training methods used at Manchester Utd, with the seminars on Chelsea and Ajax to be conducted on Monday June 17 and Friday June 21. All seminars will take place at Perry Park, commencing at 6.30pm and concluding at 8.30pm. Cost to attend is $5 or $3 for Coaches Update Members. Each seminar is worth three ACC points towards obtaining a coaching badge. For more information, call Peter Kelly at the QSF on (07) 3252 5327.

READ between the LINES

All the goss with Brent Read

What a difference a week can make in sport. Only last weekend, clubs such as Rochedale, Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions were flying high in the local competition.

But with the Queensland Cup into full swing, upsets were the name of the game. Rochedale slumped to second division leaders, Rocklea, Brisbane City lost to a Grange Thistle side in need of a victory and Brisbane Lions could only manage a point against Nerang.

All three sides can still force their way into the quarter finals, but you wouldn't be putting your hard earned dollars on it. The Cup always manages to throw up a few surprises.

The Cup results merely added to the surprises from earlier in the week with the announcement of the Queensland squad for the game against the Northern Territory.

The side threw up its normal number of expected selections and a few shocks as well. The omission of last year's captain Stein Grodum was probably the most glaring.

Having not spoken to Stein about his status concerning representative football, I can only gather he has retired from interstate football.

Players such as Stein, with a loyalty and commitment to the maroon jersey, are a rarity. If available, he deserves to be there.

On the other hand, the Brisbane Strikers didn't contribute as many players as would be expected. Only Steve Jackson, Graham Ross and Bradley Ditton were selected in the squad.

Last year's State Captain Stein Grodum (background) was left out of the play in this year's Queensland squad

The fact that the majority of the Strikers hadn't played for over a month probably swayed coach John Stewart's decision.

As you would expect, the side was dominated by players from the top three sides, with Rochedale managing the biggest contribution.

At this time of year, you can make a case for any number of players, but the strongest case is made on the football field.

A coach and selectors live and die by the team's results. If the team wins, you're the best coach in the World. If they lose, you're a dud.

The real test won't come until later in the series. The Northern Territory side is merely an entree for the main meal against the Soccerblues.

It's a shame the side will be playing so few games this year. The cancellation of the regular clash with Auckland has left a big gap in the schedule.

With the European Championships, there'll be some bleary-eyed sports fans around the country over the next month.

It's always good to see class football and the Championships should deliver plenty of that. As for finding a winner, it doesn't really matter. As long as the poms don't take the title, I don't mind. □

Eye On Soccer Match of the Week

ROCHEDALE ROVERS V BEENLEIGH

If going on recent form, you might think this match to be a dud. Both Rochedale and Beenleigh were very ordinary in last weekend's Queensland Cup matches.

But Cup football and League football are two totally different games and Rochedale and Beenleigh both have genuine Premiership aspirations at this point in time. A win for either side will take them that one step closer to reeling in leaders Brisbane City.

And there is another aspect to this match... the local derby aspect. These two sides have developed a fierce rivalry this year and you can be rest assured there will be no holding back this Saturday night.

Rochedale are just four points adrift of the competition leaders and must keep winning their home matches if they are to mount a serious challenge on Brisbane City.

Their Cup form was not good however, the Rovers succumbing to second division side Rocklea and the struggling Eastern Suburbs, and only managing a draw against Coalstars.

In those three matches the side scored one solitary goal. The Rovers midfield will have to create more chances for strikers Kieran Cooper and Andy Lees if they are to take the points.

Likewise, Beenleigh looked anything but finals aspirants in their Cup matches, suffering narrow defeats to Brisbane Lions and Nerang and being thrashed 4-0 by a Toowoomba side primarily comprised of second division players.

Again, the side's strikers did nothing to impress and the team failed to score once. Look for a much more concerted effort from Jarrod Austin and Brett Druery in Eye On Soccer's Match of the Week at Underwood Park, Rochedale, this Saturday night at 7pm.
