Editorial

The biggest event in soccer at the moment is happening half way across the world, and I for one am delighted with the standard of soccer and the level of coverage the World Cup is getting.

Not only is SBS committed to three live matches each day as well as replays, but every major network and every metropolitan newspaper is devoting plenty of air time and space to the world's biggest sporting event... and that's the way it should be! Not just because it's soccer that we're talking about, but because it is the world's biggest sporting event.

Unfortunately, a couple of things that have marred the superb coverage of France '98.

Most significant is the unnecessary violence off the field, which reports say, is primarily caused by English supporters.

In any case, the local and national media are to be congratulated on their current commitment to our game.

On the local scene, there's been more coaching movements in the Semi-Pro South division, with Souths United's Matt Carson stepping down from the top coaching position.

Matt tendered his resignation last week, with the decision really coming as no surprise to those following the competition.

Matt's coaching credentials preceed him and it would be a brave person to question his ability, however results indicate he wasn't getting the best out of his players.

Over the past couple of months, Souths were fast gaining the unenviable tag of "the draw specialists", and although they have been consistently stolen the odd point from some of the better sides in the competition, it hasn't been enough to take them into finals contention.

After so many frustrating results, I for one wasn't surprised to see Carson stand down from his position.

In his place is former Eastern Suburbs XXXX League coach Walter Oldenburg, who has been coaching the reserves at Souths this season.

The word from Wakerley Park is that Oldenburg will continue coaching both the first grade and reserve grade sides, and I wish him all the best in those endeavours.

Wynnum Wolves win again

Round 16 of the XXXX Premier League provided some extremely interesting results, with Wynnum once again at the centre of the week's big news.

In round 15 it was the mighty Brisbane Lions that fell victim to a tenacious Wolves outfit.

Last week, cross-town giants Rochedale Rovers were surprised when Nick Hadland scored what proved to be the winner for the Wolves six minutes into the second half.

Midfield dynamo Ben Wood made a surging run down the middle of the field before unselfishly unloading to an unmarked Hadland who coolly side-footed the winner past Rochedale keeper Elvis Guzic.

The win has taken Wynnum to 17 points on the ladder and has given the club an outside chance of making the finals.

Peter Tokesi has got the Wynnum lads firing on all cylinders and on recent form, must be considered a good bet of upstaging Taringa Rovers at Jack Speare Park.

Rochedale coach Peter Bannon said he was frustrated by the loss and pointed to his side's conversion rate as an area of concern.

Brisbane Lions returned to the winner's circle with a comprehensive 3-0 drubbing of arch-rivals Taringa Rovers.

Marc Brockwell scored a brace while Greg Di-Losa completed the rout.

The win has moved Lions to within one point of Taringa and coach Miron Bleiberg said the victory was the result of a desperate situation.

"We knew before the match that we could not afford any more losses if we were serious about the premiership," Bleiberg said.

"We didn't play great soccer and I was a little disappointed with the game from the football side of it.

"However, I believe that we are still in the race for the premiership which we regard very highly and a lot will hinge on the game against City this weekend."

League leaders Brisbane City ground their way to a 3-1 win over the Gold Coast at Nerang.

The match was locked at 1-1 at half-time, but City showed their class and secured the three points with two second half goals.

Chris Slater, Warren Cooley and Shane Haddow each netted a goal for City, while Troy Greenwood scored the Coast's only goal.

Kevin Meacock, Kasey Wehrman and Nick Seeley each scored for the Knights.

Ipswich have moved quietly into fifth (on goal difference) place on the league ladder and appear to have got their game together at the right end of the season.

In the final match of the round, Beenleigh won their third game of the season, defeating Mt Gravatt 3-2 at Chris Green Park; the Marc Lederhose penalty being the difference.

PREMIER PREVIEW - ROCHEDALE ROV v BEENLEIGH

Rochedale Rovers will be looking to get back into their winning stride this weekend against Beenleigh.

Rochedale's shock loss to Wynnum last week has put them 16 points behind runaway league leaders Brisbane City.

And while Rovers are still a chance of winning the premiership, coach Peter Bannon admitted his side were at long odds for the title.

"You never like giving in before its mathematically impossible, but in reality, it's a big ask," he said.

Bannon said last week's loss to Wynnum had been typical of many of Rochedale's games.

"We dominated the match for long periods but failed to convert our opportunities," he said.

"It was a combination of poor passing, poor crossing and generally poor decision-making.

"For the amount of possession that we had, we should be able to knock a couple of decent balls into the box.

"Too often the chances were squandered as the ball hit defenders or flew out behind the goal.

"It's very frustrating that the players work so hard to get themselves into a scoring position and then don't capitalise on those opportunities."

Beenleigh recorded their third win of the season last weekend when they downed Mt Gravatt 3-2.

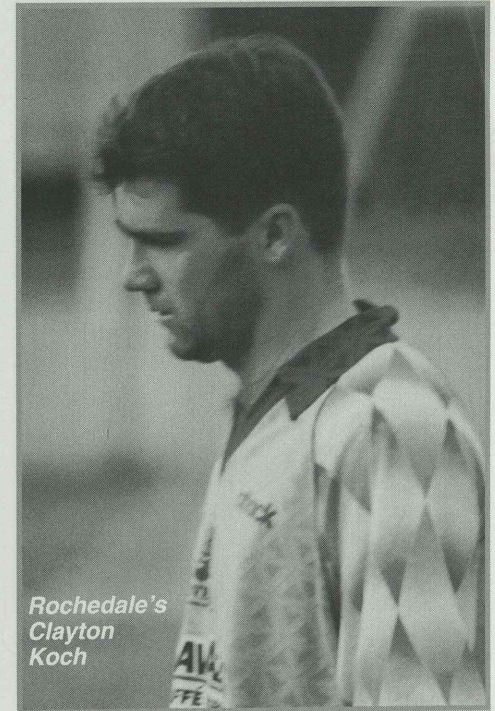

It was a game that Beenleigh was probably not expected to win, but the three points will be welcomed by many at Chris Green Park.

Bannon said despite the two sides being poles apart on the league ladder, he was expecting stiff opposition from Beenleigh.

"I'm sure they'll be fired up after their win last week and we need to get back on track with a win," Bannon said.

"I watched them play against Mt Gravatt last week and they did quite well."

The game is a local derby of sorts and should be quite exciting. Brad Ditton plays for the first time against his former club and if both teams play to the form guide, Rochedale will prove too strong.

PREMIER PREVIEW - MT GRAVATT v BUNDABERG

Mt Gravatt hosts Bundaberg Waves at Dittmer Park on Saturday evening, with both teams desperate for points.

Mt Gravatt is in 6th place on the league ladder on 17 points, while Bundaberg is four behind in 9th place.

With two-thirds of season over, both teams have some ground to make up on Rochedale Rovers and the Ipswich Knights who are currently vying for fourth spot on 25 points.

Mt Gravatt is following on the back of a disappointing 3-2 loss against the Knights last weekend.

However, according to new coach Danny Cox, there were some positives to take from the match.

"To be honest, I thought we played quite well and were perhaps a little unlucky not to get anything from the match," he said.

"We battled away but we're making it very difficult for ourselves by making fundamental errors.

"On the weekend, we found ourselves two-nil down after ten minutes and both goals were a result of silly defensive mistakes on our behalf."

Cox said he was expecting a tough game from Bundaberg and was hopeful of securing three vital league points.

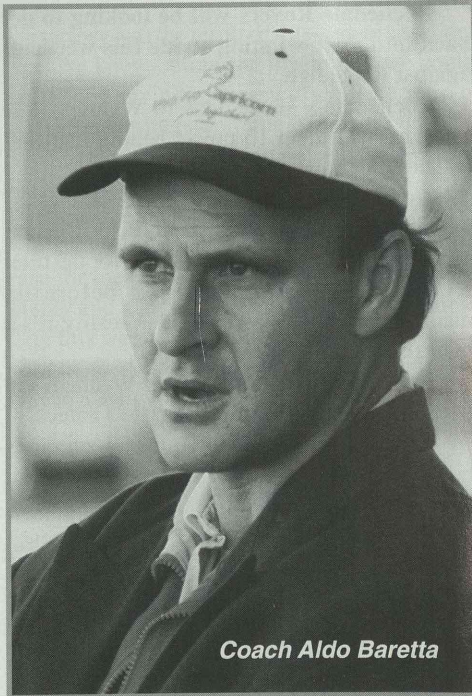

"They're (Bundy) a good side and I'm quite impressed with their style of play," he said.

"Even though we beat them 4-1 when we last met, I'm certainly not taking anything for granted.

"Wynnum's victory over Rochedale on the weekend and Lions the week before, proves that the competition is too unpredictable to start taking teams lightly."

Waves coach Aldo Baretta admitted that his side had not had "the best run of late", but was looking forward to a positive game against Mt Gravatt.

"We'll be approaching training this week in a positive frame of mind and will be working hard to improve in some areas," Aldo said.

PREMIER PREVIEW - TARINGA ROVERS v WYNNUM

Another good match on the weekend sees Taringa Rovers hosting the in-form Wynnum Wolves.

Wynnum has surged into equal 6th place on the league ladder after pulling off two upset victories against more fancied opposition in consecutive weeks.

The club's 2-0 win over Brisbane Lions in round 15 surprised many local fans.

But that surprise turned to amazement on the weekend as the Wolves served a 1-0 defeat up to fourth placed Rochedale.

New coach Peter Tokesi appears to be settling in well at Carmichael Park and the Wolves have a real chance of making it three "big" wins in a row against Taringa, a fact that is not lost on Rovers coach John Ogden.

"Wynnum are a fair side and they always put in a good effort and make it very difficult for opposing teams," he said.

"We're at home so I think that will be a positive for us and I'm confident, we can produce a solid performance."

Ogden said despite City's sizeable lead at the top of the table, he held out hope that the premiership was not a foregone conclusion.

"If we can win and Lions manage to beat City, it will make the competition a little more interesting," he said.

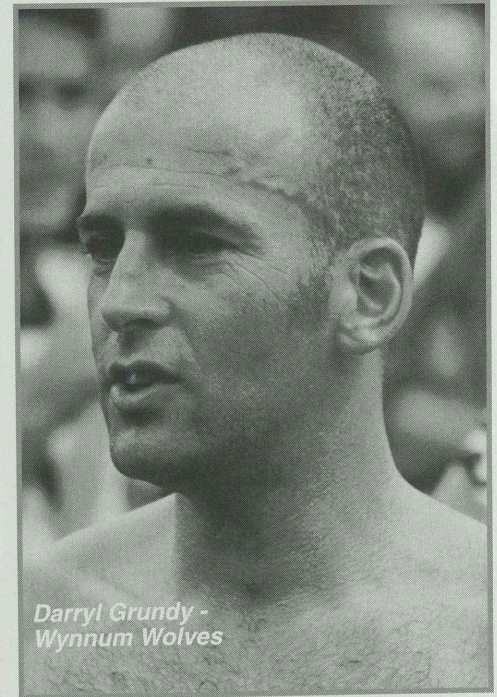

"We play City in a couple of weeks and a win then could open the whole league up again.

"But in reality, it's going to be very difficult and we've got to rely on them losing."

Ogden will be looking for an improved performance from his charges this weekend after they were soundly beaten 3-0 by Lions last weekend.

"Basically the three goals came from three defensive mistakes on our behalf and unfortunately Lions took full advantage of those errors," Ogden said.

"We created the goals and they put them away, and it was just one of those days when things didn't go our way."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Ipswich Knights v Gold Coast

The Ipswich Knights have an opportunity to move into the top four with a win over the Gold Coast on Sunday.

The Knights have been playing attractive football in recent weeks, football that is certainly worthy of a finals berth.

A win against the Coast would ensure the side, at the very worst, maintains its current position of equal fourth (Fifth on goal difference) with Rochedale.

Coach Mike Mulvey said he was content with his side's current position on the ladder.

"We're going okay at the moment but we're certainly not getting carried away with anything," he said.

"There's still a fair few games left this season and we're only just over half way.

"We just have to remain focused on the task at hand and go about our business.

"It really is a week by week thing for us and we'll be doing our best to pick up points this weekend against the Coast."

Last weekend, the Knights conquered the toughest away trip in the league, defeating the Bundaberg Waves 3-0 in Bundaberg.

Mulvey said he would be looking for more of the same from his players this weekend.

"We played some good football and deserved the three points," Mulvey said.

"We weathered their early onslaught and did enough to go into the break with a one-nil lead.

"It would be great to repeat that effort against the Gold Coast on Sunday.

"They've got some very good players and are making a good fist of it in their first season in the league.

The Knights opposition on the weekend, the Gold Coast, find themselves in equal 6th on the ladder on 17 points.

They were soundly beaten 3-1 by league leaders Brisbane City last weekend and desperately need some points to maintain contact with the top four.

A loss to the Knights would make it very difficult to secure a finals berth.

The club's 50th Birthday Bash is coming soon as well as a Blue's Night on June 27.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Bris City v Bris Lions

Spencer Park is the place to be on Sunday afternoon when league leaders Brisbane City host third placed Brisbane Lions in the match of round.

City's "purple patch" continued last week with a sound 3-1 win over the Gold Coast.

Coach Bobby Hamilton said while the match might not have proved a classic footballing spectacle, he was buoyed by the dogged determination of his players.

"It was tight game until the last ten minutes... they got a penalty when we were leading two-one, but fortunately for us Daniel Duke made a fantastic save," he said.

"If they would have scored, it could have been a completely different story.

"The players and I have spoken about what it takes to win a premiership and being able to grind out a tough win like the one on the weekend is very pleasing.

"It's all about consistency and that's what we're concentrating and at the moment; it's paying off for us.

Hamilton said the Lions match was important as it signalled the beginning of a tough four matches for the reigning champions.

"Over the next few weeks, we play Lions, Wynnum, Taringa and Rochedale," he said.

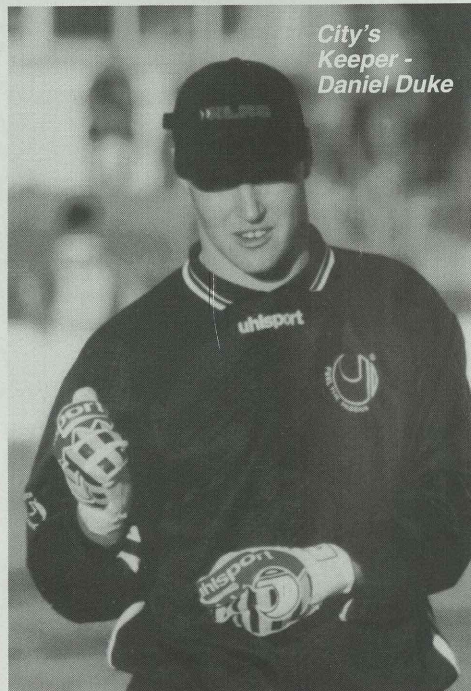

"If we can get some good results and get ourselves into a positive position by the end of that time, I think we will be difficult to catch.

"Lions have as good as squad as any in the league and when it comes to the crunch, they can cause problems for any team."

Lions coach Miron Bleiberg said he believed Lions had the responsibility of keeping the league alive this weekend.

"If City win, the competition could become very boring for the remainder of the season and for that reason, everybody should be hoping that Lions win," he said.

"I'm looking forward to the match as if we win, it will narrow the gap and maybe we can put some pressure on City."

To the Editor,

Unfortunately found myself on the sidelines on the weekend due to an injury, but not all was lost for the boys were playing at Perry Park. Here is me sulking around feeling sorry for myself, but everything was going to be alright, 'get to go to Perry Park, nice bar, nice ground, watch a good game.' What a let down! Bar wasn't going to open till 3 o'clock, that's alright I think to myself, I'll have a Coke, $1.60 for a coke!! no thanks, love, I'll wait till 3 o'clock.

3 o'clock rolls around, the bar isn't opening, but the canteen will serve beer at $3 a can. What a joke, the women had to march all the way around the back to use toilets that looked like they haven't been upgraded since they were built. Simply it was a disgrace, Perry Park is supposed to be the home of Qld Soccer, nice house just couldn't get in to use the amenities.

Just because we are amateur teams doesn't mean we should be treated like second rate soccer citizens. The people I feel most sorry for is the Margate club at the prices at which we were charged for beer they could have managed to keep Frank Farina in Qld.

To the people at Perry Park who seem that a function is a good excuse to lock people out six to seven hours before it starts because it is inconvenient for them, no wonder soccer is not the number one spectator sport in Qld.... Totally Dumbfounded. Peter Elliott, Red Hill

Peter, your letter has been forwarded on to the management of the licensed club. But I do know the beer price has not changed in over two years, be it in the canteen or at the bar. Ed.

Dear Sir,

The final of the National League should be showcase of Australian football. Unfortunately it did in fact show the nation what is probably the main thing that is wrong with our football code in this country. The behaviour of some of the so-called spectators before, during and after the match was appalling. Is it any wonder that we have difficulty attracting followers to our football code when we see this sort of behaviour, broadcast on every channel's prime time news?

As far as I am concerned, Soccer Australia would be justified in expelling the new champions from the League, until they can assure us all that they have their house in order. This may be harsh punishment for the many good people I am sure are associated with this club, but the members of the club have failed in their duty to act in the interests of the game.

Regrettably, over many years, I have witnessed a similar attitude amongst some people in our Brisbane football competition, albeit on a smaller scale. I expect people to be proud of their heritage, but this chauvinistic behaviour is, in my view, absolutely unacceptable.

I wish that these 'gentlemen' would remember that it is a game that we are playing. Peter Eedy, Ashgrove

Peter, I think you have said it all... thanks for taking the time to write. Ed

Lessons learned from local derby Campbell to make changes

Capalaba coach Alan Prentice is confident his side will learn from last Saturday night's 2-2 draw with close neighbours Redlands.

In front of a massive 1500 people, Capalaba came out with all guns blazing to take a 2-0 lead into the break.

However, in a game of two halves, it was Redlands which took the ascendancy in the second stanza to level the match and escape with a valuable competition point.

"It was their Cup final," Prentice said. "All credit to them, because at half time they had a real job on their hands and they did it.

"Redlands are a different team when they play Capalaba. They always rise to the occasion and they love beating us. In these derby matches, form goes out the window.

"We always knew they would come out hard in the second half, so it wasn't a case of us becoming complacent, we just lost our way."

Prentice maintained his side would not drop the tempo against Souths United this weekend, and lose more valuable competition points.

"This weekend's match is one that we should win," Prentice said, "...but we were lucky to get away with a draw against them last time we met, so we'll be giving them plenty of respect.

"Last weekend we lost our shape a little in the second half, but we'll certainly be playing for the full 90 minutes this weekend."

Prentice said he was fully aware of Souths capabilities and their knack to poach a draw.

However the Capalaba coach said he would make sure their was no complacency in his side come kick-off time against Souths.

"At home there is no team in this competition that we can't beat and I'll be drumming that into the players at training this week," Prentice said.

Acacia Ridge's Frank Campbell has vowed to make several changes to his side, following a poor showing last weekend.

The Ridge went down 3-1 to Rocklea, however it wasn't the result that displeased Campbell but the manner in which his team lost.

"We threw it away," the Ridge coach said. "The only person in our team that I could praise for the entire game was our goalkeeper."

Campbell said he would be making at least three changes to his squad to meet Redlands this weekend, with Jarrod Williams certain to slot back into the side and two reserve graders also likely to get the call up.

"We had a few problems with our defence last weekend so I'll be looking at making a couple of changes there, and I'll also be mixing our forward line up a little," Campbell said.

The Ridge coach said he was after a much improved attitude from his players this weekend, after they squandered a 1-0 lead against Rocklea last week, with just 26 minutes remaining.

"The game was ours for the taking but it was clear our boys didn't want it as much as the Rocklea players did," Campbell said.

"We're running very hot and cold at the moment and I think it's time some of the lads had a change in attitude."

Despite last week's performance however, Campbell remained quietly confident about his side's chances, against a Redlands side that stole a draw against Capalaba last weekend.

"Redlands can't be taken lightly, especially after their result against Capalaba last weekend," Campbell said.

"They have quite a great deal of pace up front and they beat us in the first round, but we'll be treating this match as a six point game, and I think with the changes that will be made, we'll make a much better showing of things."

Inala rocket into finals contention Raiders out to stop Rocklea

Inala City have stormed into finals calculations following another big victory, this time over the struggling Souths United outfit.

Derek Crawford's side scored six goals to two in the win, which was highlighted by a 20 minute period during which they found the back of the net on four occasions.

The victory gave Inala another three valuable competition points, with several other key results going their way and allowing them to move into equal fourth on the table with Redlands.

And that should give them plenty of confidence for this weekend's match against Olympic, another side fighting for the top four.

The secret to Inala's recent rise to prominence appears to lie in some new faces.

Several players are reported to have switched back to Inala from the Ipswich Knights, after not finding themselves a regular spot in the XXXX League side.

Among these players is attacking midfielder Darren Spence, who has made a massive difference to Inala over the past three weeks.

The injection of new blood could not have come at a better time for Derek Crawford. The Inala coach has battled hard all year to reintroduce that fighting spirit which the club had become renowned for, and now he has several former club members back to help him.

Predictions around the southern ranks point to Inala giving the top three sides a real shake. Some coaches have even predicted Crawford's team to take the last finals spot, ahead of teams such as Olympic, Redlands and Acacia Ridge.

These predictions have made this weekend's game against Olympic all the more important, with Inala able to put a five point spread between the two sides if they win.

The Toowoomba Raiders are looking to put an end to Rocklea's title chase, when they host them this weekend at Willowburn's Bridge Street Oval.

Presently, Toowoomba are on a mammoth 40 points, 12 clear of second placed Rocklea, as the end of the second round approaches.

Victory for the Raiders this weekend, would put a 15 point spread between the two sides and almost put the Premiership title out of Rocklea's reach.

And this fact has not escaped Toowoomba coach Gary Scott's mind, as he prepares his side for the big match.

"We're well aware of the situation and we know that we can virtually end Rocklea's Premiership hopes with a win this weekend," Scott said.

"It really is a six point game as far as we're concerned, because if we win it we'll go 15 points clear of them, but if we lose, then we fall to within nine points of them and that lead would be gettable."

The Raiders were too good for Rocklea in the first round of the competition, downing them 2-0 at Dunn Road.

But Scott believes this weekend's match will be a totally different ball game, with so much at stake for the Rocklea outfit.

"They do have a lot to play for this weekend and they really put it too us in the first round," the Raiders coach said.

"They have a very good midfield and a couple of quality forwards, so there's no doubt they have the ability to win the match.

"But I believe our midfield will be too strong for them this weekend. We've got plenty of pace out wide and loads of experience in the middle of the park, so I'm confident we'll be able to maintain our unbeaten record."

Uni to bounce back after loss

The University of Queensland is hoping to bounce back to winning form after suffering one of the upsets of the year.

The students went down 2-1 to lowly Grange Thistle, a surprise result given University's recent run of good form.

"We just didn't play well," Uni coach Keith Officer said. "We weren't dominating the midfield and we didn't do the simple things."

Officer said Thistle's new midfield signing Sergio Pinto was the difference between the two sides in the end.

Pinto scored both of Thistle's goals and is proving to be a real bonus for Grange coach Paddy Higgins, who is still trying to get something out of this season.

Despite the loss however, Officer remains optimistic about his side's playoff chances.

"We're going through a tough time with many of the lads in exams," the Uni coach said.

"Exam time is always a difficult period for us because we don't get the usual numbers to training and the boys are not entirely focussed on the game come match day.

"I think it would be fair to say that just about everyone was playing five to ten percent below their best last weekend, and across the whole side that's a big drop in standard."

Officer was confident his side would be a lot fresher for the match against Pine Rivers.

Rivers have had several good wins in recent weeks and are coming off a 1-1 draw with Mitchy, and Officer is set to pay them all the respect they are due.

"They are a good side and you certainly can't afford to take them lightly," Officer said. "But we're playing them at home and we're also approaching the end of exams so I think the boys will be a lot fresher this weekend."

Mitchy - life without Scriggins

Semi-Pro North club Mitchelton are faced with the possibility of contesting the rest of the season without the services of former Queensland striker Lee Scriggins.

Scriggins has not been seen on the park for Mitchelton in recent weeks and is reported to be disillusioned with the standard of local referees.

The star striker, who has a reputation for showing no quarter during matches, has been sent from the field on several occasions already this season, and according to coach Iain Fagan isn't happy about it.

"There's been a couple of instances where he's been sent off and hasn't been able to come to terms with it," Fagan said.

"He feels as though he's getting picked on and to be honest, I don't blame him. I've seen some of the decisions that have gone against him and I can see how he would be feeling this way."

Fagan has had to put two younger players, Tommy York and Daniel Timms, up front to take the place of Scriggins, and the coach is not expecting he will have to make any changes to that combination just yet.

"I don't know if Lee will be back for us this year," Fagan said. "But the young guys have stepped up to the challenge and are doing a fantastic job, so I'm happy to continue with them at the moment."

Fagan said he was pleased with his side's performances over the past couple of weeks, with last weekend's 1-1 draw at Pine Rivers, emphasising a new found commitment within the club.

But the Mitchy coach is wary about this weekend's local derby match against Newmarket.

NORTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Creek in touch with top four

A 0-0 draw with top of the table Eastern Suburbs last weekend has kept Albany Creek in touch with the top four.

The Creek remain in fifth spot on the table, but last week's scoreless draw with the Tigers has sounded a major warning to the other clubs in the competition, and has given coach Justin Kilshaw plenty of hope for a top four finish.

"I thought the draw was a fair result in the end," Kilshaw said.

"We certainly had the three best chances of the game but luck didn't go our way on any of those occasions."

Kilshaw was particularly pleased with the performance of striker Trent Lawnton, who had two clear cut chances to score against the Semi-Pro North front runners.

"He's made a very good comeback from injury," Kilshaw said. "His workrate at the moment is phenomenal and I can see that it's also rubbing off onto the players around him."

Kilshaw said he was very pleased with the way his side has been travelling throughout the second round of the competition.

"I'm very happy with the way the boys have been going," the Albany Creek coach said.

"And the best thing about the way they've been going, is that it's been the same players, who struggled at the start of the season, who are winning matches for us at the moment."

Kilshaw said the biggest difference between the side now and the side at the start of the year, was a renewed feeling of self-belief amongst the players.

"They are certainly believing in themselves and they're sticking to the game plan that we set before each match," Kilshaw said.

The Creek coach agreed his side would have to be right on its game to defeat the in-form Gap.

Lady luck not with North Star

North Star's Michael McEvoy believes it is only a matter of time and luck before his side moves back into the winners circle.

The Stars have had a shocking second round, compounded last weekend by a 4-1 loss to The Gap.

However McEvoy refuses to concede his side's season is over just yet, although he does agree too many more losses would almost spell curtains for the club.

"We will be at desperation stage if we don't start winning soon," McEvoy said. "We need to string a few wins together or our season's over."

Surprisingly, despite the club's poor showing, particularly throughout the second round of the competition, McEvoy is not unhappy with his troops.

"We have had a shocking run but the boys are still working hard and they're playing quite well," the North Star coach said.

"The biggest thing is that they are playing without luck... and when the bounce of the ball doesn't go your way, there's not a great deal you can do about it.

"The attitude of the players is still first rate and I'm convinced when they have a few things go their way, the results will come."

And while many would think, this weekend's match against Grange Thistle could be the perfect opportunity for McEvoy's boys to change their fortunes, the North Star coach is not so sure.

"They had a huge win against Uni last weekend, so no doubt they'll be on a real high.

"We knocked them over 4-0 in the first round, so we have that result behind us, and I think if we can stick to our guns and keep working hard we should be able to grind out a favourable result," McEvoy said.

BEFORE THE WHISTLE

With Jim
Gilbert

Last Saturday night Redlands United celebrated their 80th anniversary with a gala day of activities culminating in the local derby against near neighbours Capalaba.

Redlands United was founded in 1918 with a mere handful of players compared to their current membership of in excess of 2,500 from Rooball to their over 35's!

The club waited till they were drawn at home against close rivals Capalaba to organise a huge day of activities which included junior fixtures and "non-fixtures", plenty of amusements for the ankle biters, including the jumping castle. A skydiver dropped in prior to the main match and such was his accuracy that he landed almost plum on the centre spot.

A fireworks display then took place with the main match then kicking off in front of, what would have to be the largest crowd that I have seen at a Semi Pro match in many, many years. At its peak I would estimate there would have been approximately 700 people in and around the grounds, this, quite naturally, included the many children that were there to participate in the many activities. It was great credit to Redlands committees, both past and present, with full credit also given to Capalaba for co-operating in adjusting kick off times and providing some of the junior teams as opposition in the under 8 (little legends) display matches.

I cannot speak highly enough of how impressed I and many other people I spoke to, were of the atmosphere generated by such a large and extremely enthusiastic crowd.

The main match fully lived up to expectations and with the conditions as cool as they were, the match was played at the proverbial "hundred miles an hour", but there was plenty of skill, and, due to their higher standing, it wasn't unduly unsurprising when the visitors took the lead and tended to dominate the first half to the extent that at half time the score was Capalaba 2 - Redlands 0.

What a contrast the second half was, Redlands came out full of fire, particularly determined to do well in front of the largest crowd they'll ever play in front of, and what a difference it made when they pulled one goal back and had Capalaba on the back foot. When they scored the equaliser, it was much to the relief of the very parochial crowd behind the goal. It was quite amazing that all four goals were scored at one end and this happened to be the clubhouse end, so you can imagine the vocal response that each of the four goals received.

It was a great night's entertainment, and again I congratulate all concerned on the activities. Meanwhile we are almost two thirds of the way through the season, lets see what the last third brings.

Semi Pro Div 1 North

On Saturday night Grange make the short trip round the corner to O'Callaghan Park where the hosts have slipped alarmingly of late, and are now only two wins in front of the Lanham Park club. Grange are on the improve, but this could well be the match that will turn the corner for the 'Stars, meanwhile "old foes" meet with The Gap visiting Albany Creek, and due to the defections of players between these two sides in recent years, they sometimes forget it's a match, not a battle. Both sides struggling to make an impression in the semi positions so a draw would not unduly surprise.

Newmarket, not having the best of times of late, visit an inconsistent Mitchelton, and it's a match where I think the points will remain at home, remaining match is between University and the ever improving Pine Rivers, and I wouldn't be unduly surprised if the Rivers popped up with a big win in this one.

Semi Pro Div 1 South

Only one match on Saturday night with the Toowoomba game having been shifted to Sunday afternoon due to the Under 12 Harry Linning activities taking place on their grounds.

The Saturday match is between Capalaba and Souths with the hosts having slipped to third and Souths now languish near the wrong end of the table, Capalaba should this one.

On Sunday, Acacia Ridge meet Redlands with both sides equal on points and only goal difference separating them, it has all the makings of a draw. Inala are in outright fourth and host Olympic, due to the change in fortunes of both sides, the points could well remain at Freeman Road whilst it would be an absolute gem of a match in Toowoomba with Rocklea as the visitors. Rocklea have now run into a bit of form and they could do with it in this game, and it is quite possible Toowoomba could drop points.

Amateur Div 1

Annerley now have a five point buffer at the top, and still with a match in hand, they face a slowly dropping Latrobe, points to remain at home, Darra have now commenced their climb up the table and they could well inflict another wound on Brothers United whilst Goodna also have picked up some good results of late are now struggling to get away from the bottom, visitors Southside Eagles will not be easy for them, this could well be a match for the Pools.

At night North Pine will have to pick up maximum points in their visit to Margate or they could be in danger of dropping right out of the top two, whilst in the other night match Moggill United similarly, to suffer another loss could see them drop out of the four completely, the hot and cold Redcliffe are their guests, and anything could happen in this one, but I err slightly towards a home win. In the only Sunday match South Star, another side having most inconsistent form of late, do battle with Bayside where a draw again is on the cards. Incidentally I feel for Bayside's Reserve grade, who last week scored four goals and yet still lost!

Amateur Div 2

All matches are on Saturday and are, quite naturally, in the Pools. It's getting incredibly tight in this division from second to eight positions, so any points dropped could have disastrous results come the end of the season. Two teams near the top in Ipswich City and Jimboomba meet and, with Ipswich enjoying the highest position they've experienced for many years, they certainly do not want to relinquish it in this one despite their visitors' lofty position. Park Ridge host Bethania with the Ridge having a disappointing season to date, this could be a match to repair a little morale, the improving Archerfield have Oxley as their guests, and even though Oxley have run into a good patch of form of late this will be one of the toughest matches they'll have all season, and if they can get away unscathed they'll be doing very well indeed.

Clairvaux have also started to string some decent results together and a win against Greenbank will boost their morale also, second placed Samford should pick up maximum points in their visit to a disappointing Kingsridge.

Amateur Div 3

A tight match at Meakin Park last week between the two leaders Logan City Kings and Mooroondu, 0-0 was the score which preserved the status quo, but both sides have a bye to come.

This week in the Saturday games Margate should take all three points at Bayside, Moggill will certainly know they have a match on their hands with leaders Logan City as their visitors, Kings to take the points and in the night match an even tighter game is in prospect between Samford and North Pine but with a semi spot in sight, I expect the Pines to get up at the whistle.

On Sunday Annerley should be untroubled over Oxley, similarly second placed Mooroondu should retain the pressure at the top with maximum over Park Ridge.

Amateur Div 4

Three matches on Friday should see wins for the Knights over a disappointing The Gap, pride is about the only thing at stake in the Newmarket v North Star match, points to remain at home but it will be much closer in the Capalaba v Lions match but the points still to remain with the hosts.

On Saturday Acacia Ridge will be relatively untroubled over a disjointed Albany Creek, Taringa similarly should retain pole position over Easts although this will be a bit tighter, whilst Slacks Creek should be one of the rare

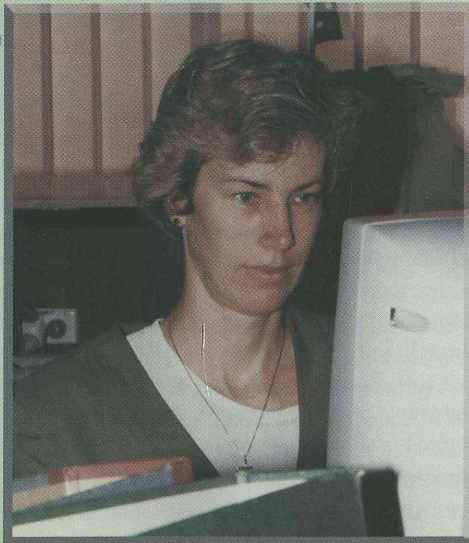

Milestone for QSF's Trish

QSF staff member Patricia Capell reached a remarkable milestone last week, with her 20th year of service to Queensland soccer.

Trish began with the QSF as a teenager in 1978 and hasn't looked back. In that time she has seen many aspects of the round ball code in Queensland change, not the least of which are the administrators running the game.

"When I began working for the QSF Bill Waddell was the President of the Federation," Trish said.

"He was soon followed by Ian Brusasco, before Wal Dann took over. Alan Vessey was the Secretary when I first started."

History shows that Alan Vessey moved on to become the General Manager of the QSF, before moving onto the ASF and then back to Perry Park, making Trish the longest serving employee at the QSF.

In such a long career, Trish said she has had plenty of highlights, but there are some that come to mind a little easier than others.

"The biggest one would have to be the 1981 Youth World Cup, because everything was handled by the QSF," Trish said.

"That would be closely followed by the World Masters Games in 1994, the 1993 Youth World Cup and of course last year's Grand Final win by the Strikers. That was a real buzz."

Ironically, for all of her involvement with soccer, Trish is first and foremost a rugby league fan, with cricket a close second.

Trish herself has played a lot of indoor cricket, but her big interest now, is marathon kayaking, where she has been known to race distances up to 100 kilometres.

But the QSF secretary said she has never grown tired of administering the round ball game.

"I enjoy my work at the QSF because I find anything to do with sport, enjoyable."

teams this weekend to pick up a win on the road at Mitchelton.

Amateur Div 5

Mt Gravatt are back to the winning ways last week and they should continue with all three points over Brisbane City on Friday night. In other Friday matches Souths should retain their push for a semi position with all three points over Albany Creek. Pine Rivers will not relish University's visit as I feel the hosts will have to crown their sorrows at the end. Leaders Wynnum will have a toughie at Bundamba where the hosts could pick up a point, but judging by recent form, I think not.

In the early Saturday evening match Grange, who are currently going through a very erratic second round, should retain all three points at Samford, whilst on Sunday Slacks Creek similarly should be a winner at Capalaba.

Amateur Div 6

Four matches scheduled for Friday with wins expected for Newmarket over North Star,

Redlands should be better than Beenleigh, but it will be a much tighter proposition at Richlands hosting the Knights, looks to be an away win to me. A top of the table clash in the remaining Friday night match between Capalaba and University. The hosts still have one of the few unbeaten tags in the competition, if it remains after this match is yet to be seen but judging by goals for and against, I think it will.

On Saturday Taringa should be untroubled with Easts but in the Sunday game Queensland Uni had better look to their laurels in their visit to Annerley, who picked up their first win of the season last week, can they make it two?

It seems Read Between the Lines prediction of Brisbane Lions demise may have been a little premature.

Lions played exceptionally well against Taringa Rovers on Saturday night, with former state player Michael Brockwell among the best.

Brocky has been missing in action for a couple of years but the blonde haired speedster looks to be back on track.

He showed glimpses of his best form against Taringa and is sure to be a gun player for Lions when the finals come around.

Coach Miron Bleiberg would have been ecstatic to see his side back among the winners.

As always another one of their best players was Queensland sweeper Steve Jackson.

Jacko hasn't been mentioned as a possible player for the Strikers next year but the wily veteran is as keen as ever to play in the national competition.

His form is still good enough to warrant a place. And last year's Clem Jones Gold medallist has a wealth of national league experience.

Jackson would be the perfect player to lead what is expected to be a youthful Strikers side in next year's competition.

Predictions of Rochedale's sudden push for league dominance may also have been a bit off the mark.

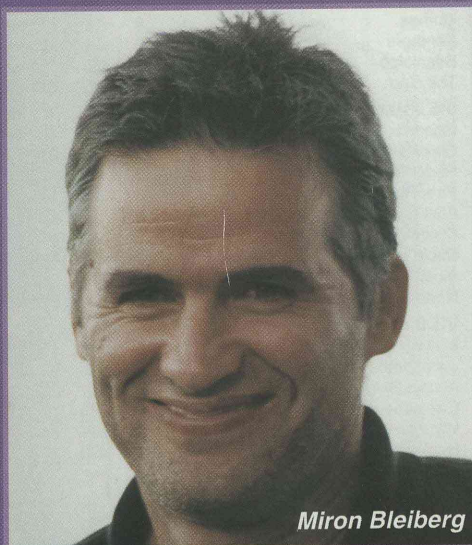

Wynnum hit another high in their topsy-turvy season with a tight win over Rochedale at home at the weekend.

Despite the result, Rochedale are still going to be one of the competitions forces come finals time.

This column ran into Clayton Koch late last week and the former national league striker looked to be in a positive frame of mind.

Koch is another player who has not been mentioned as a possible returnee to the national scene but there is no doubt the potent goalscorer still has a nose for goal.

He has been averaging more than a goal a game over the past five weeks and wouldn't be out of place in a Strikers jersey.

It seems we tend to forget some of the older players with top level experience when we are looking at a Strikers squad for next year.

Koch and Jackson are likely to be integral parts of their XXXX League sides for the remainder of this season.

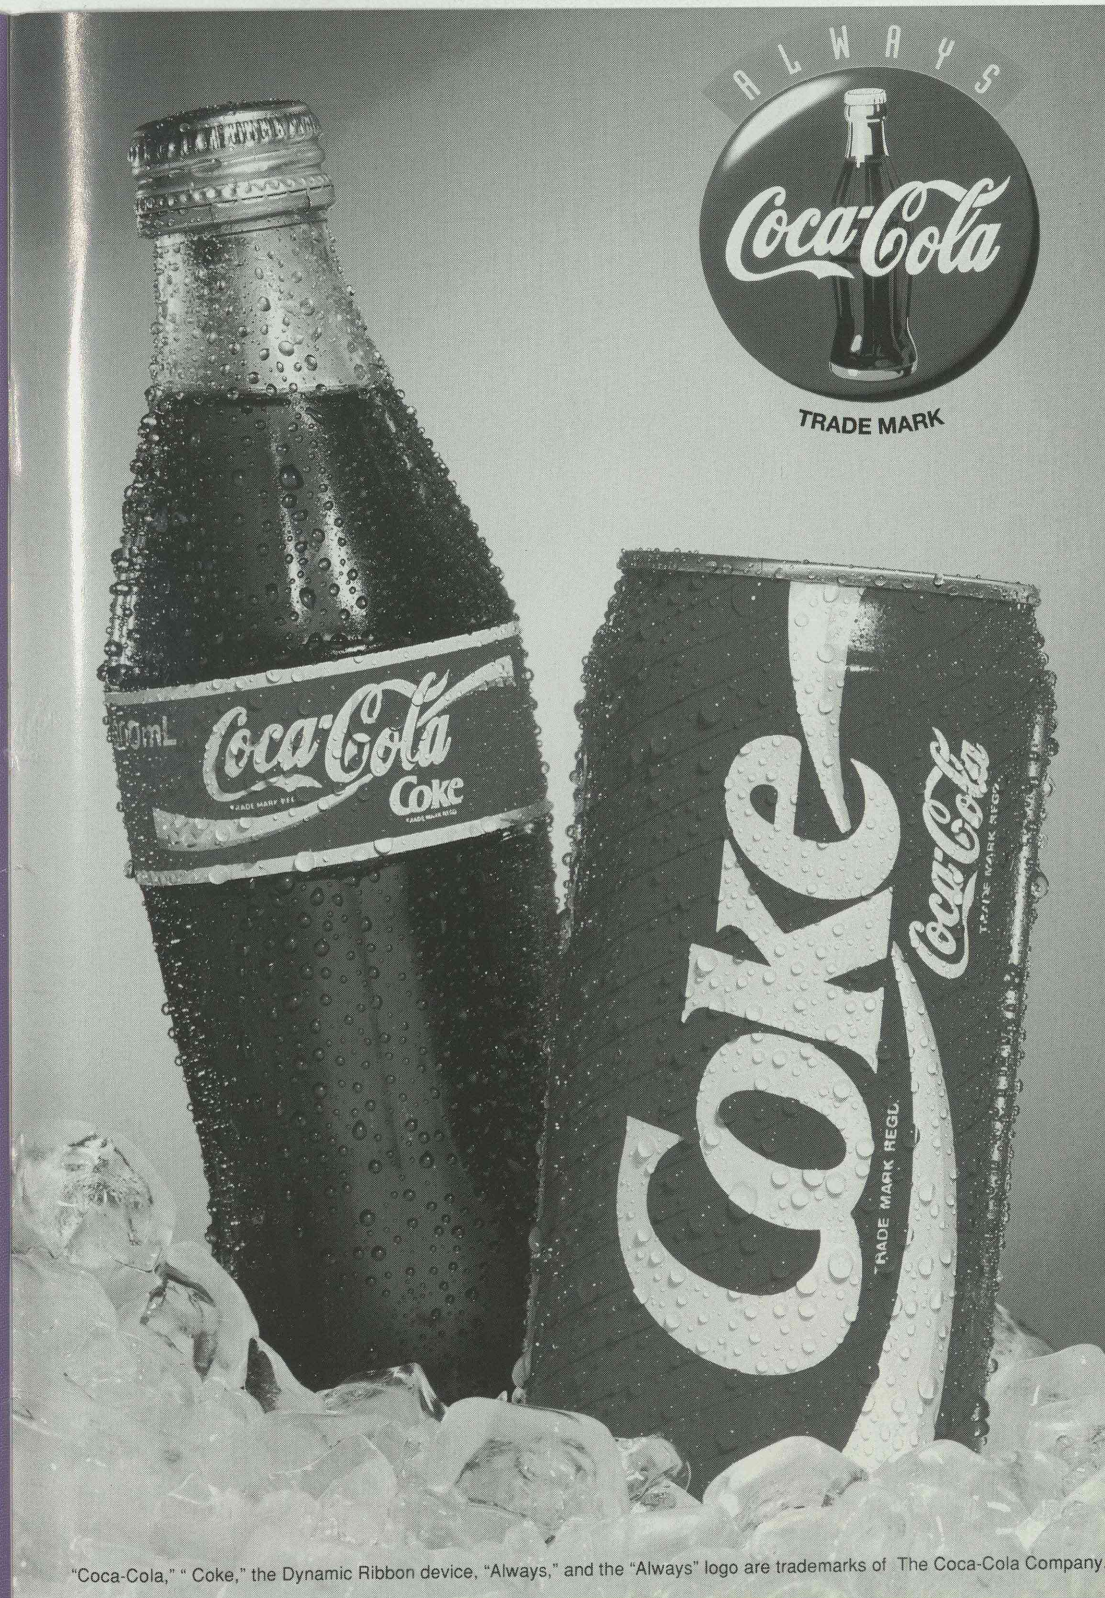

Expect to see both players giving a little bit extra as the season climaxes.

On other matters it seems there has been another coaching casualty in Brisbane with the resignation of Souths United coach, Matt Carson.

The club has been battling all season and were battered at the weekend by Inala which kept Souths with only one win all year.

Carson's replacement will be assistant coach, Walter Oldenberg. The former Eastern suburbs coach will have his hands full managing both squads for the remainder of the season.

Meanwhile in France, this column's prediction of Nigeria being among the favourites looks to be spot on.
