Editorial

There is a football feast in store for all round ball nuts downunder in the not too distant future.

The Socceroos will host the FIFA World Stars in a friendly match to officially open the Olympic Stadium on June 12

What a treat it will be to see the likes of Jurgen Klinsman, Barthez, Dwight Yorke and Taribo West taking on the best Australia has to offer in Ned Zelic, Mark Bosnich, Harry Kewell and Paul Okon.

It is a great opportunity to see some of the best football talent in the world and for those of you lucky enough to be travelling down for the game, enjoy the spectacle.

You might even catch a glimpse of "Eye on Soccer's" very own star columnist Brent Read who has somehow managed to secure a press pass for the big night. Nice one Mr Read!

The Socceroos are also lined up to play English giants Manchester United in July.

Special mention this week to Taringa Rovers who won the President's Trophy at the weekend.

The Trophy is fought out between the Premier League's two leading clubs at the end of the first round of fixtures, with Taringa beating Lions 2-0,

Also, congratulations to Semi-Pro North big guns North Star who won the Intermediate Trophy after a nilall draw with Albany Creek.

North Star were awarded the trophy because they had more points at the end of the first round.

Turning to Premier League action, and the competition hotted up at the weekend with some memorable match-ups between the league's top side.

Lions indifferent form continued with a surprising 2-0 loss to Taringa Rovers.

The Ipswich Knights kept a firm grip on third with a hard-fought 3-2 win over the Wynnum Wolves and the Gold Coast is still creeping towards the top four after a 2-1 win against the Bundaberg Waves.

The way it was in Round 15

Some big matches between the league's leading teams during Round 15 saw some reshuffling at the top of the table.

At Underwood Park on Saturday evening, Rochedale extended their lead to four points after scoring a convincing 3-1 over Brisbane

Leading 2-1 at the break, Rochedale's third goal in the second period ended City's winning streak of recent weeks.

Steve Fitzsimmons scored for the home side and Matt Olley bagged a brace, while for the visitors, Nick Carloss found the back of the net.

The loss sees City drop out of the top four and even though the side is only one point behind 4th placed Taringa, minimising dropped points is the key to City winning back to back premiership according to coach Bobby Hamilton.

Hamilton said he was disappointed with the loss, especially in light of his side's recent good

"Sometimes you make a decision and sometimes it comes off and sometimes it doesn't and unfortunately for me and the team, it didn't come off on the weekend." he said.

"I changed the formation of the side and we went into the game with a certain approach and it just didn't work."

At Jack Speare Park, Taringa moved into the top four with a convincing win over Brisbane Lions.

After being the pacesetters for much of the season, Lions have hit a form slump and the 2-0 loss to Taringa was a mixture of "bad luck and bad play" according to Lions coach Miron Bleiberg.

Bleiberg believes that his side is paying the price for losing two key players in Darren Hillier and Steve Jackson to injury.

"The fact of the matter is that we simply did not play good enough, and while Taringa were happy to accept what I consider a couple of gift goals, they were also good enough to maintain their winning margin," he said.

"We used to score more goals than anyone and had the best goal difference in the league. but that's all gone by the wind now and we have to focus on getting our season back on track."

At Carmichael Park, the Ipswich Knights kept the pressure on the leaders with a hardfought 3-2 win over the Wynnum Wolves.

The Wolves always proved difficult opposition at home, but Ipswich managed to snatch a win, with a brace to the Knights John Clark the highlight of the match.

The Gold Coast continued their recent good form with a 2-1 win over the Bundaberg Waves in an entertaining game at the Thabeban Sports Complex.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Mt GRAVATT V TARINGA ROVERS

Taringa Rovers travel to Dittmer Park on Saturday evening confident of taking maximum points from host team Mt Gravatt.

Rovers scored a solid 2-0 win against second placed Brisbane Lions last week to move into the top four.

The team is on 25 points, one behind Lions and the Ipswich Knights, with Rochedale Rovers enjoying a handy four point lead at the top of the table.

At Jack Speare Park, Taringa got the better of Lions early in the match, scoring both goals within the first 20 minutes of the match.

Obviously delighted to get the three points, Taringa coach John Ogden said he was very pleased the quality of football displayed by his team.

"It was important for us to win the game as we had to ensure that we put ourselves in a position to have a chance at the title," Ogden said.

"We knew we had to keep in touch with Rochedale who have got a little break at the top of the table.

"We play them (Rochedale) in a couple of weeks so we have to make sure that we keep winning as we're quickly moving into the business end of the season."

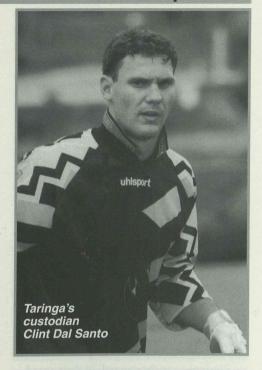

Mt Gravatt blew a one goal lead at half-time last week against Toowoomba Utd, the final 1-1 scoreline a disappointing result at home for John Stewart's team.

Even though Mt Gravatt will be primed for a big game this weekend, the in-form Taringa outfit might have too much muscle for the home side.

Ogden said he was expecting a hard physical match but was confident of a win.

"When we played Mt Gravatt earlier in the season we beat them four-two, but they were leading for a quite a while in the match," he said.

"We've got almost a full squad to choose from this week and I'm very confident we can get a good result."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Ipswich K'ts v Bundaberg Waves

The Ipswich Knights have the opportunity to move into second position the league ladder with a win against the Bundaberg Waves this Sunday.

Ipswich is currently on equal points with second placed Brisbane Lions, but with Lions playing the in-form Gold Coast City, outright second is beckoning the Knights.

Even though current form would suggest the Knights should dispose of the seventh-placed Bundaberg, Waves coach Tony Walmsley believes his side has the ability to take the points in this weekend's encounter.

"Despite losing last week to the Gold Coast, I actually quite enjoyed the game as the lads played pretty well and overall it was a high standard match," he said.

"Watching the match video midweek, it confirmed to me that we probably did enough to win the game but unfortunately missed chances cost us some points.

"I think we can turn things around this week and win against the Knights, but we're under no illusions as to the strength of their squad.

"Ipswich away is as tough an assignment as any road trip that we play and we know it's likely to be a pretty physical match at Eric Evans reserve."

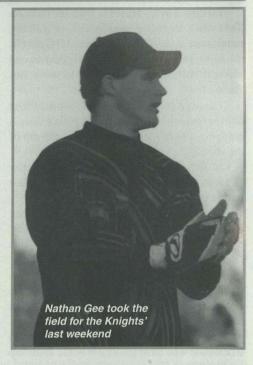

When the two teams met earlier in the season, the Knights got the three points, winning 1-0.

But the final scoreline was perhaps a little deceiving, with Walmsley admitting that the Knights were a much better side that day.

"They (Knights) absolutely demolished us in the second half of that game and they would have been disappointed if they hadn't won the game," he said.

"They're a very direct side in a football sense, with lots of balls played into the area and from a defensive perspective, that is something we are going to have to watch.

"Their attack is going to put our guys at the back under a fair bit of pressure, so we are going to have to be on our game."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Gold COAST CITY V BRISDANE LIONS

The match of the round sees second placed Brisbane Lions travel south to the sun, sand and surf of the coast, where they will meet the in-form Gold Coast City.

This should be a crackerjack game with both teams out to prove point.

After spending a great deal of the first half of the season on top of the league ladder, Lions have faltered in recent weeks and are among the pack fighting for a top four spot.

Last week's 2-0 loss to 4th placed Taringa Rovers was extremely disappointing for Lions coach Miron Bleiberg who believes his side is underperforming.

"The loss to me was a mixture of bad luck and bad play," Bleiberg said.

"We conceded an early goal and another by about the 20 minute mark and even though we had enough time to change things, we were unable to make any inroads.

"The fact of the matter is that we simply did not play good enough, and while Taringa were happy to accept what I consider a couple of gift goals, they were also good enough maintain their winning margin."

The Gold Coast continued their recent good form last week with a hard-fought 2-1 win against the Bundaberg Waves at the Thabeban Sports Complex.

The win has taken the Coast to within three points of a top four spot and has given them a real shot at some silverware.

Bleiberg is wary of the Coast going into this weekend's match, a team he has a lot of respect for.

"I believe that the Gold Coast are a very talented team and soccer-wise, are probably the form team of the competition," he said.

"I expect this match to be a very competitive and tense game and it certainly won't be easy but we are desperate to win and hopefully we can achieve our goals.

"We simply can't afford to lose any more points."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Brisbane City v Wynnum District

Brisbane City host the Wynnum Wolves at Spencer Park on Sunday in what is looming as a danger game for the home side.

After recording good results in previous weeks, City were outgunned by top of the table Rochedale Rovers last week at Underwood Park.

The 3-1 loss has set the City outfit back on its heels, with the side slipping out of the top

Brisbane City coach Bobby Hamilton said he had to accept some of the blame for the weekend's loss.

"Sometimes you make a decision and sometimes it comes off and sometimes it doesn't and unfortunately for me and the team, it didn't come off on the weekend," he said.

"I changed the formation of the side and we went into the game with a certain approach and it just didn't work.

"It was very disappointing to lose, especially given the way we had playing recent games."

Hamilton said it vital his side took maximum points from this game but was expecting a tough game from the visiting Wolves.

Another loss this weekend would make City's goal of winning back-to-back premierships more difficult.

"They (Wolves) beat us two-nil earlier in the year so experience tells us what they are capable of," he said.

"We spoke a few weeks ago as a team about our ambitions of retaining the premierships and to do that, we have to minimise the amount of points lost.

"We'll be treating the Wolves with the same respect that we treated Rochedale with last weekend as you can't take anyone for granted in this competition."

Star striker Chris Slater, who has been on the City sidelines in recent weeks with a knee ligament injury resumed light training this week, which pleased Hamilton no end.

Slater, last season's leading goalscorer, is a big part of City's attack and his presence will be required as the side looks towards the finals.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Toowoomba Utd v Rochedale Rov

The match between Rochedale Rovers and Toowoomba Utd shapes as a "David and Goliath" battle at Gold Park on Sunday afternoon.

Rochedale are surging atop the league ladder, four points clear of their nearest rival while Toowoomba are struggling in the wooden spoon position, five points behind 9th placed Mt Gravatt.

Toowoomba have struggled to find the back of the net this season, with only 11 goals for in 15 outings.

This must be of great concern to coach Gary Scott as he searches for the right combination.

The side will be buoyed to some degree by the 1-1 draw with Mt Gravatt last week.

One-nil down at the break, the Toowoomba lads dug deep to net the equaliser in a close

This week against Rochedale in front of a parochial home crowd. Toowoomba has the opportunity pull off one of the big upsets of the season to date with a win over the all-conquering Rochedale Rovers.

However, current form would indicate that Rochedale will have too much fire-power for the home side.

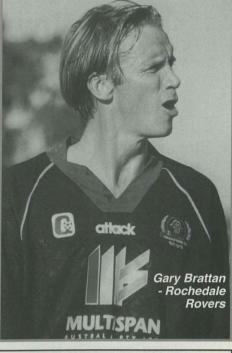

Rochedale have strung together some handy results of late and their 3-1 win over Brisbane City last weekend was testimony to just that.

Coach Peter Bannon would be pleased with the way things are going at present and confident of taking the three points this weekend.

Wins against Brisbane Lions and a resurgent Gold Coast City in the last month have demonstrated that Rochedale is the team to beat at the moment.

With class players like Brad Ditton, Steve Fitzsimmons, Matt Olley and Damian Harris all in good form, it is difficult to see Toowoomba snatching a draw, let alone the three points.

But the Premier League has already taken its toll on "favourites" this year and a win to Toowoomba would certainly make for a good headline in next week's edition.

BEFORE THE WHISTLE

With Jim Gilbert

Last weekend, just for a change, I took in some junior matches, and what a delightfully refreshing change to see how the kids just simply 'get on with the game'.

No deliberate fouls, no back chatting to referees or team mates, just a simple desire to play the game and endeavor to win.

The only contentious point that I noted, was the referees seeming inability to make decisions without consultation with the assistant, no matter how obvious the throw in - goal kick - corner was, the central referee automatically looked to his assistant.

Can't they make decisions in junior football? I should add I was talking under 13 - under 14 football here.

This next statement is usually the kiss of death, but have you noticed there is only four teams in all divisions still unbeaten, no names, just look at the points tables! Another one fell last week!

Incidentally, congratulations to three very prominent Semi Pro South clubs, who last year had great difficulty in fielding a competitive youth team, this year they have obviously done their homework and their recruiting in the off season and are fielding teams who are now quite competitive, particularly one who is having a magic run at the moment.

I have deliberately not mentioned names here, but the three clubs know exactly who they are because they all, at some stage or another, tried to withdraw their youth teams from competition. Well done all round.

Remaining on youth competition briefly, there was one youth match played in the South Division last weekend where one team was awarded three penalties during the match, all missed! I bet the players were cranky, incidentally it finished up a draw!

Amateur 1

It's getting exciting on the points table, we now have a distinct top four, a middle, and a very tight grouping at the bottom.

All matches are on Saturday this weekend with a couple of beauties in store, the Saturday afternoon ones pit Bayside against current surprise leaders Darra, home ground advantage point to a possibility of a draw, whilst Redcliffe City have high flying Brothers as their visitors, and this will be no easy match for the Bayside club, I'm going for the big upset win for the home team.

At night old foes North Pine and Annerley clash and if the visitors lose this one they will lose touch with the top four, the Dakabin team's surprise loss last week has now thrown the proverbial cat amongst the pigeons, a draw is a distinct possibility.

Eagles travel out to Samford with the home side still in with a distinct chance of a top four placing, points to remain in the Western Suburbs.

Margate make the long trip out to Bellbowrie where current form dictates the point will remain, whilst a most erratic Ipswich City host last start surprise winner South Star, if last week's results are anything to go by, points should be shared.

Amateur 2

This Division has a distinct top three at present, however there are many unplayed matches which will be caught up in a month's time.

This weekend matches commence on Friday night with Clairvaux's hosting of Logan City Kings, it could be another 'pointless' trip for the visitors.

Three matches on Saturday sees a gem of a match at Jimboomba with current leaders Park Ridge paying a visit, Jimboomba are unbeaten at home this season and that should continue this weekend, but it remains to be seen whether they can take all three points, I think they can, but it will be tough.

Goodna should also remain in touch with the top bracket after the visit of Pine Hills, the remaining day match is between two struggling sides Greenbank and Oxley, the visitors have had only one win on the road, so points to remain at Greenbank.

At night Bethania have Mooroondu as their guests, another case of two teams having distinctly erratic form of late, home win is my tip, whilst on Sunday Wilston make the trip up to Archerfield with the visitors desperate to get away from the relegation position, but Archerfield are appearing to string a few reasonable results together, could be another draw.

Amateur 3

Friday night should see Souths victorious over Moggill, whilst the Saturday games should see Annerley pick up three points at Dakabin, Easts will pick up a valuable three points at Bethania and Kingsridge will continue their climb with another maximum at Park Ridge.

It will be a battle royal between Woodridge and Margate, where I think it will be a win for the home side. The Sunday match should also be a win for Samford at Dunlop Park.

Amateur 4

As is usually the case in this Division the majority of matches are on Friday night with Lions to be too strong at home over Souths, University will keep the pressure on the top teams with a win at Slacks Creek, there will be a much much closer game between Acacia Ridge and Taringa where I fancy the hosts to get up, whilst Newmarket v Mt Gravatt shapes as a draw.

The Saturday match will have Ipswich defeating Capalaba and on Sunday The Gap will be a distinct 'no show' against rampant leaders Wynnum.

Amateur 5

Last weekend's battle of the top two finally saw an emergent winner with Mitchelton picking up maximum points at Spencer Park, on Friday night Mitchelton host Grange Thistle, and City will be hoping for a draw which is entirely possible given the goal scoring potential of both sides.

Also on Friday, Redlands will pick up a rare win at home over the Knights whilst Pine Rivers should also pick up a three pointer just down the road at Albany Creek. In another Friday match which has been brought forward, North Star will continue with their tenuous grip on fourth spot with a win over Souths. Saturday should see City victorious at Park Ridge whilst on Sunday, Redcliffe City will continue their climb with another win over Samford.

Amateur 6

Bottom markers Albany Creek picked up their first points last weekend in style, putting away double figures against shell shocked alone will tell whether it will be enough to see who will prop up the tables for the remainder of the season.

This weekend Brisbane City make the short trip across the road to Newmarket where I think the points will remain.

Taringa will pick up a maximum over Redlands it will be a very tense evening at Slacks Creek with University, who are only three points in front, as the visitors, incentive being fourth place, for that reason I think the home side will get up, remaining Friday match should see North Star pick up the points over Moggill.

On Saturday afternoon it will be a duel of the highest caliber at Bundamba with unbeaten Capalaba as the visitors, the title is at stake in this one if there is a winner, and due to the tenseness of the situation I feel strongly the points will be shared.

In the evening match despite Albany Creek's big win last week, I fear they will come down to earth in the match at Bulimba with Eagles to be victorious.

NORTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Newmarket wary of Creek

Newmarket coach Peter Carey refuses to take a "wounded" Albany Creek lightly this Saturday night, despite their opposition's fall from grace this season.

Albany Creek were among the frontrunners in the early stage of the season but the club has consistently dropped points over the past two months and slipped out of the top four.

Newmarket actually started Albany Creek's run of outs in round seven this season, ending their undefeated record with a 4-3 win at home.

Since then Albany Creek have failed to pick up a win, managing only three draws from their past five games.

"The wounded one is the one you have to watch," Carey said earlier this week. "We were the first side to beat them this year. We started their slide.

"We know what we have to do out there. If we can keep our intensity up we should go all right."

Newmarket were overrun by league leaders Easts at the weekend, conceding five goals in a disappointing second half to lose 5-1.

A 10-minute spell in which Easts scored four goals proved the difference as Newmarket missed a chance to overtake Albany Creek on the Semipro division one north table.

"We made a couple of defensive errors," Carey said. "We played quite well but that 10 minutes killed us.

"We'll be looking to get a little bit of stability in defence (against Albany Creek)."

Carey has ruled out making wholesale changes to his defence, which had been reasonably consistent up until the weekend.

"It was just a lapse of concentration which we can't afford," he said. "We don't have to change a real lot.

"We just have to toughen up at the back."

Rivers look to bounce back

Pine Rivers premiership charge has hit a hurdle with striker Dene Almond in doubt for Saturday night's vital game against North Star.

The former Premier League striker damaged his thigh at the weekend as Pine Rivers were beaten 2-0 by a resurgent The Gap, leaving them five points behind league leaders Easts.

Rivers trail second-placed North Star by three points and take a share of second spot with a win on Saturday.

Rivers coach John Rhule is likely to put strong defender Joel Hale on North Star dangerman Michael Brockwell and is considering moving attacking midfielder Craig Davey forward if Almond is ruled out.

The weekend's loss to The Gap was a major stumble for Pine Rivers, who were pressuring Easts.

They need to make up ground over the next couple of weeks or their premiership hopes will be put on the backburner for another year.

"Even when we beat them in the first round I thought it was only a matter of time before they sorted matters out," Rhule said of The Gap.

"They were just too good on paper. I reckon they'll be one of the sides that will keep winning games."

Pine Rivers had chances to go ahead early in the match at the weekend but failed to capitalise and slipped behind to a penalty before giving away an own goal.

North Star will be a tough proposition this weekend, with the competition's early leaders coming off a 0-0 draw at Albany Creek.

North Star seemed to have a stranglehold on the division but a loss to Easts two weeks ago and the weekend's draw has them trailing Easts by two points.

NORTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Easts benefit from QAS

Easts have become the latest Queensland soccer club to benefit from the Queensland Academy of Sport, with teenage midfielder Ian Bonato joining the league leaders.

Bonato has comfortably slotted into coach Frank Byrne's red-hot side and will play a major role as they look to cement top spot in what promises to be a physical game against Grange Thistle on Saturday night.

Easts have moved two points clear of North Star at the top of the Semipro division one north table thanks to a 5-1 win over Newmarket at the weekend.

Striker Mark Flemington, who has an incredible 22 goals this year including 16 in the league, was on target again with his second hattrick in three games.

In the past three games Flemington has scored eight times.

His scoring has been a huge bonus for Byrne, who has the side firing and ready to take out revenge on Grange Thistle, the only side to beat Easts this year.

Thistle weathered the Tigers storm when the two sides met in the first round and scored a game-winning goal on the break to upset Easts at Grange.

"It was a physical encounter last time the teams played. For 89 minutes we peppered their goal and couldn't score," Byrne said.

"We're hitting our straps lately. But we've let in six goals in the past three games which is not like us."

Easts have picked up five wins and a draw from their past six games but Thistle coach Paddy Higgins remains confident of his side repeating its first round win.

"I have any doubt in our players being able to beat them," Higgins said. "We just have to be committed and stick to our game plan."

Gap starting to get on a roll

The Gap's surging run of form faces another acid test this weekend with the Semipro division one north's form side to tackle Mitchelton at The Gap on Saturday night.

The Gap have won four of their past five games, moving out of the relegation zone and making a belated bid for a finals berth.

They stunned Pine Rivers at the weekend, fending off an early barrage and going on to win 2-0.

Ask any coach in the competition who the most improved team is and they'll almost certainly mention The Gap.

The club had no trouble scoring goals earlier in the year but their defence had more holes than your average deep fry basket.

That was cured with the signing of former Brisbane City sweeper Scott Elliott and The Gap are starting to hold firm at the back.

The forward line is still scoring goals at will and there is a real feeling in the league that The Gap are the side to watch as the season draws to a close.

Mitchelton have struggled all year and Strikers assistant Gary McDowall recently took over the coaching reins in an attempt to turn around their floundering fortunes.

McDowall has concentrated on lifting his players flagging enthusiasm since joining the club.

He has already tasted success, helping the side to a big win over Acacia Ridge in Cup competition.

"They seem to be going through the motions," McDowall said. "I've just got to lift their enthusiasm a bit.

"We've got to try and get a bit of respectability back. I said to them first of all we have to stop losing.

SOUTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Bulldogs out to make amends

Capalaba missed an ideal chance to close the gap on Rocklea at the top of the Semipro division one south table at the weekend, throwing away a two goal lead at Inala.

Coach Cameron Bell knows his young side threw away a golden opportunity to increase the pressure on Rocklea and realises the importance of Saturday nights game against Acacia Ridge.

Rocklea have the bye so Capalaba can close to within four points with a win against the Ridge, who are battling in last place in the division.

"On the weekend we knew Rocklea had already drawn and there was a big chance for us to gain some ground on them," Bell said.

"Tactically we got it right. We just stopped playing in the last 15 minutes. We didn't finish the job off."

Bell has an outstanding group of youngsters at his disposal this season, with striker Adam Bracy heading the list.

Bracy has been finding the back of the net on a regular basis for the club this year.

Bell has pieced the side together well and the Bulldogs are playing an entertaining brand of football after an off-season exodus of players.

"Being a young team they can perform but when it comes to shutting a game down, that comes with experience and they haven't got the experience," Bell said.

"In general I'm happy with the club process. Pre-season if our side finishes in the top four I would have been happy. But of late we have dropped silly points."

Capalaba will be without goalkeeper Craig Blackburn for Saturday's game and several future matches after he broke his leg recently against Olympic. A win against the Ridge would be an ideal preparation going into next weekend's game against Rocklea.

Souths to defend home record

Souths undefeated home record under coach Walter Oldenburg faces a stiff test on Saturday night against an in-form Inala.

Ironically it was a 6-2 loss last year to Inala which led to Oldenburg being hired by Souths.

The experienced coach and his club haven't looked back since, with Souths perched in third place on the Semipro division one south table, four points behind second-placed Capalaba with a game in hand.

Despite their lofty position on the league ladder, Oldenburg is under no illusions going into this weekend's game.

Inala have been one of the competition's form sides over the last month, with a win over Rocklea and a draw with Capalaba.

That amounts to four points picked up against the top two sides in the league.

Their next target is Souths and Oldenburg is on guard for what is traditionally a tough encounter.

"We seem to have a problem with Inala," Oldenburg said. "We haven't beaten them since I have been at Souths.

"They're a physical side. They play some tough football."

Striker James Figueora has chalked up 12 goals this year and is one of the leading forwards in the league and midfielder Ryan Bridge has been earmarked for bigger things by Oldenburg after a good season.

They are part of a young Souths side Oldenburg has in contention for a top two spot.

"We didn't play that well at the weekend," the Souths coach said of his side's 3-2 win over Redlands. "I am a bit disappointed with the blokes in recent weeks.

"We're conceding soft goals. If we play to our usual standard and don't concede the usual goals I think we can get a win."

SOUTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Vital game for strugglers

Whichever team loses Saturday night's Semipro division one south clash between Beenleigh and Redlands can kiss their finals hopes goodbye.

The game between two of the competition's battlers has a simple reward at the end for the winner - a chance to make the finals.

The loser is gone and can kiss the finals goodbye.

The two teams are coming off different weekends. Beenleigh reversed their recent form to score a 2-1 win at Olympic while Redlands lost their eighth game of the season, 3-2 at home against Souths United.

Despite that win, Beenleigh still trail fourthplaced Slacks Creek by five points and need to keep winning to put some pressure on the sides above them on the ladder.

Redlands have a double reason for winning. If they lose this weekend, they could slip into a share of last place if Acacia Ridge manage to upset Capalaba.

Both Redlands and Beenleigh are enduring alarming slumps that have seen them spiral out of finals contention and into the relegation zone.

Redlands has won only one of its past six games, losing the other five and slipping well off the pace in the south division.

Beenleigh have only managed one win from their past four games - on the weekend against Olympic.

That win could signal the start of a reversal in fortunes for the former Premier League club, who have found life in the Semipro division a bit more difficult than they probably expected.

But the signs are there that Beenleigh are beginning to find their feet and Redlands could pay the price this weekend.

Creek ready for top four battle

Slacks Creek coach Danny Docherty has his sights firmly fixed on a spot in the top four despite his side throwing away three points against Rocklea at the weekend.

The Creek were 2-0 up against the league leaders with 10 minutes remaining and should have iced the game.

But they missed some gilt-edged chances and paid for spurning their opportunities when Rocklea hit back with two goals to steal a point.

Docherty has guided the Creek back from a disappointing season last year to have the side on the cusp of a finals berth.

The former midfielder has turned things around with the help of some young talent and a touch of experience.

The likes of midfielder Davey Fischer and captain Ryan Wandschneider have played well all year as have experienced playmaker Effie Cassar and goalkeeper Darren Ryan.

Sweeper Sean Armstrong and his dog Tiny have also joined the club but injury has ruled the journeyman out for several weeks.

"We've just picked up a few new players this year," Docherty said. "It makes a difference."

Slacks Creek face Olympic on Saturday night, with Olympic coming off a 2-1 loss to Beenleigh at home.

The two sides are locked in a tight battle for the fourth and final play-off place, with Olympic trailing Slacks Creek by four points.

Docherty's side can open up an almost uncatchable seven point break on their weekend opponents if they win what promises to be an intense clash.

"Apparently they have a few players back as well," Docherty said of Olympic. "We're neck and neck with (third-placed) Souths but we need to keep winning.

Tammy top of referee tree

For the sake of Australian women's soccer, let's hope our only female referee at the upcoming women's World Cup, Tammy Ogston, heads home before the finals.

Because that will probably mean the Australian team has won a place in the big matches at the end of the tournament.

The further the Matildas go in the tournament, the less likely it is that Ogston will control a finals game.

It's a double-edged sword for the talented young FIFA referee.

While the hopes of a nation of soccer supporters barrack for the Matildas to win the World Cup, Ogston would like to referee some finals games and maybe a World Cup final.

For that to happen, the Matildas will have to hit some early hurdles.

Ogston has been refereeing for only five years yet she has already made her mark at international level.

She is one of only three international referees in Australia.

"I got in at the right time," an excited Ogston said earlier this week as she counted down the days to leaving for the United States, hosts of the third women's World Cup.

"I have been pushed along fairly quickly.

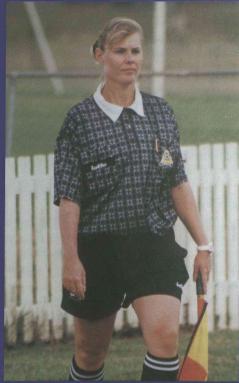

"I played for 10 years and then someone came down to the soccer club and said we're looking for female referees.

"I thought I'd give it a go and see what it's all about. I really enjoyed it when I started so I gave up playing and took up refereeing.

"I'd only been overseas once before becoming a referee and now all I seem to be doing is going overseas."

Tammy shares her passion for soccer and in particular refereeing with her husband, Premier League referee David Ogston.

The couple will be separated for up to four weeks when Tammy leaves for the States on June 14.

Tammy Ogston is World Cup bound - and can't wait to referee some of the world's top female players

It promises to be the experience of a lifetime.

Tammy admits the task of refereeing in front of big crowds on the international stage can be a bit daunting.

"Its quite frightening to go out in the middle in an international game," she said. "You can really let someone down if you make a (wrong) decision.

"But you can't really think about that."

The Matildas are one of the dark horses for the World Cup, with the likes of the USA and Norway among the early favourites.

But if they do get knocked out early, the Australian flavour still remains.

Tammy Ogston will be doing her best to keep the Aussie flag flying.

2000 Olympic Games

By now everyone in Australia will have received, courtesy of News Ltd, an information booklet and order form for tickets to any of the Olympic events.

Choices on offer include 639 sessions of sports and ceremonies over the entire 19 days of the Olympic Games.

Through the order form, tickets can be purchased for any event, anywhere, anytime, and if upon selection for a specific event and/or ceremony the demand for tickets exceeds supply, then these tickets will be allocated by random computer selection.

However it is not envisaged this would occur, except for opening and closing ceremonies. Most venues have more than enough seating to cover all eventualities of demand.

Did you know, that the availability of tickets for Australians is in the millions.

There are 1,700 individual events, more than 14 hours of sport, and an average session lasts more than two hours.

Any, or all, of the above pieces of trivia should be enough for you to want to rush out and order your tickets now.

Meanwhile the Olympic flame will be rekindled in Olympia Greece, the home of the ancient Olympic Games, on May 12, 2000.

A special note of interest for Queenslanders is that they will be among the first to see the torch relay.

The torch will leave Uluru via Mt Isa to the South-East corner of the state before travelling up the entire length of Queensland to Thursday Island and then on to the rest of Australia.

Approximately 2,000 torch bearers will be required to carry the torch throughout Queensland.

Women's Action

with Mike Mulvey

Last Monday the Matildas left the country on their way to the Word Cup. It promises to be a fantastic experience for all the girls and one they will never forget.

The whole squad has the opportunity to play in front of the biggest viewing audience ever for a women's sporting event.

Making the squad is a tremendous achievement. The aim now is to be in the starting 11 and stay there.

Belinda Kitching is there as Australia's number one goalkeeper. She has recovered from a recent foot operation and looks set to have a top tournament.

Belinda's ability with her feet sets her apart as a tremendous asset for the team in today's football, where the keeper acts as an 11th outfield player a lot of the time. Alicia Ferguson, one of the youngest players on tour at the age of 17, has the potential to be around for the next five World Cups.

I am sure both girls will do Australia proud and I am sure we will all be watching.

This week I have been fortunate to be on an invitational national coaching course in Canberra at the AIS.

The sharing of knowledge and ideas has been fantastic. A recurring saying all week has been "in my opinion". How true it is that this game of ours is all about opinions. Everybody has one.

The key thing is we all have the capacity to learn and increase our knowledge on the game. It is whether we are prepared to that matters. Possibly the person who doesn't want to modernise stands still.

Country to shine at state titles

The ever-improving standard of country women's soccer is set to be put to the test by the best Brisbane has to offer at the women's state titles later this month.

Brisbane have traditionally dominated the championships and state sides selected following its conclusion.

But in recent years the Country areas have started to hit back, with state sides basically half Brisbane players and half Country players.

The Country areas have also enjoyed success in recent championships, with Toowoomba winning last year's youth division.

Women's Soccer Queensland administrator Fay Dower said the Country sides were again expected to figure prominently at this year's championships, to be held at Kawana on the Sunshine Coast from June 12-14.

"It's good to see in the country areas the standard is improving," Dower said. "When we select squads for the national championships you usually find in the last couple of years 50/50 Country/Brisbane.

"They have certainly caught up."

The increasing strength of country soccer reflects the growth of the code in Queensland, with numbers escalating at a rapid rate.

Dower said the number of women playing soccer in the state had doubled in the last couple of years with the exposure the game was receiving at World Cup and Olympic level.

Toowoomba and Wide Bay are expected to lead the Country charge at the championships, which for the first time will feature an all-female refereeing team.

Women's World Cup referee Tammy Ogston will referee on the opening day of the titles.

Laugh a little.....

- 1. A bus station is where a bus stops. A train station is where a train stops. On my desk, I have a work station... GO FIGURE!
- 2.If Fed Ex and UPS were to merge, would they call it Fed UP?
- 3. I believe five out of four people have trouble with fractions.
- 4.If quitters never win, and winners never quit, what fool came up with, "Quit while you're ahead"?
- 5. Do Lipton employees take coffee breaks?
- 6. What hair color do they put on the driver's licenses of bald men?
- 7.I was thinking that women should put pictures of missing husbands on beer cans.
- 8.I was thinking about how people seem to read the Bible a whole lot more as they get older, then

- it dawned on me ... they were cramming for their final exams.
- 9.I thought about how mothers feed their babies with little tiny spoons and forks, so I wonder what Chinese mothers use. Perhaps, toothpicks.
- 10.Why do they put pictures of criminals up in the Post Office? What are we supposed to do... write to these men? Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the mailmen could look for them while they delivered the mail?
- 11. Never agree to plastic surgery if the doctor's office is full of portraits by Picasso.
- 12. How much deeper would oceans be if sponges didn't live there?
- 13. Why not modern Latin: VENI, VEDI, VISA I came, I saw,I shopped.
- 14. If it's true that we are here to help others, then what exactly are the OTHERS here for?
- 15. STRESSED spelled backwards is DESSERTS.

The competitiveness of the Premier League is not an anomaly on the Queensland Soccer landscape.

It seems the game in this state is going through a state of parity in all divisions.

Lets cast our eyes at the Semipro competitions to catch a glimpse of what makes this years competition at all levels one of the most interesting in recent memory.

In Semipro division one north, Easts have assumed top spot but they haven't shaken off the likes of North Star or Pine Rivers.

All three are former Premier League clubs who have enjoyed success at the higher level in the past decade.

Easts and North Star both won grand finals and look like fighting out a titanic battle over the next couple of months.

Speaking to Easts coach Frank Byrne, I was interested to hear his strikeforce is led by ace goalscorer Mark Flemington.

Flemmo is a Kieran Cooper-style forward. He doesn't exactly run himself into the ground. But the bloke knows where the goals are.

In fact, the fastest I ever saw Flemmo run was on an end of season trip at Mooloolaba when we played an Aussies v Poms game of beach cricket.

By the way, Flemmo was one of the worst cricketers I ever encountered, only shaded by the anonymous Pommie friend he brought along for the weekend and Mark "the English Chucka" Bennett.

Bennett's bowling action resembled a cross between Sri Lanka's controversial spinner Muttiah Muralitharan and an American baseball pitcher.

Needless to say us Aussies gave the Poms a bit of a touch-up, with Flemington and Bennett putting in shameful performances. But forget his cricketing skills. The big fella seems to be scoring a motza for Easts this year and he's helped them into top spot on the Semipro north ladder.

I also caught a glimpse of the North star side this week and couldn't help but notice former Premier League stars Michael Brockwell and Stu Collins among their ranks.

Collins is one of those players who never knows when to die. He just keeps on going. North Star's Eveready Man.

Brockwell is the type of gamebreaker every side needs. He can tear apart defences on his day and could slide into most Premier League clubs at the drop of a hat.

In Semipro division one south, things are a little different.

Leaders Rocklea and second-placed Capalaba are loaded with lesser names. But they are no less dangerous.

Rocklea looked all but certainties to win the competition at the halfway mark of the season but they've hit the wall.

Souths United are the other side threatening to come from the clouds and stun the leaders.

The major characteristic of those three sides is their talented young brigade. So it seems the leading sides in the Semipro divisions are going on different tangents.

Easts, North Star and Pine Rivers have a good smattering of experienced hard heads. Rocklea, Capalaba and Souths United are making waves with youth.

Usually you find a combination of the two proves the most successful. Whichever side finds that happy balance is likely to have an advantage as the season draws to a close.

It makes for an interesting contrast and should ensure the Champion of Champions Trophy an intriguing battle.

How They Fared... here and there
