President's Welcome

It was certainly good news that was reported last weekend that the Australian Government had agreed to advance the new Australian Soccer Association $15M towards the re-structure.

The fact that $9M comes by way of a grant and $6M as a long term loan should be easily manageable. Part of the responsibilities of the Frank Lowry team is to reformat the National Soccer League and it has been reported that the new Board are hopeful that this will be in place by October 2004.

It has also been reported that no decision has been made on the size of the league other than that it has been suggested that it could be 8, 10 or 12 teams.

Whatever the decision as to its structure, it is imperative that everyone who loves the game within Queensland does everything possible to ensure that the Strikers create a good impression at all home games and that our supporters turn up in large numbers.

Four of the most important elements this year will be to prove beyond doubt that we have a competitive side (both home and away), crowds of 5,000 at each home game, good administrative structure and a very good junior development program which will provide for the future.

We have started the season well and I am sure that most people are reasonably satisfied with 4 points out of 6 but it would be a fantastic achievement if we could manage 7 points out of 9 and a good victory over Perth Glory would set a great foundation for the remainder of the season.

I know from discussions after the game with other Board members that they were very impressed with the courage, commitment, enthusiasm and fitness levels of our players and this augers well for the remainder of the season.

It was realised that there were some teething problems with the new home ground facilities at our opening game and the Board and staff of the Strikers will work hard to continue to improve the levels of customer satisfaction.

Coach's Comment

A full seven days after they completed what we've all come to know as the three-peat, chances are you have all reached a point where you've seen and heard more than enough about the Brisbane Lions, (not to be confused with the Brisbane Premier League Club, Queensland Lions).

But I'm going to attempt to squeeze in my thoughts on the matter before you decide that enough really is enough.

Now, I'm quite certain that we are all very aware of the fact that the three-peat is one of the greatest footballing achievements that this country has ever seen, and for that the Lions have to be congratulated.

But the side to it that I have not been able to stop thinking about since last Saturday night is the motivational side.

Where does it come from? How do you maintain it after the first and second premierships? Is it different for each player? Are all questions that Leigh Matthews and his successful squad of players have been asked countless times by various journalists in recent times? With a bit of luck my curiosity will have at least been partially satisfied during the week, (I'm penning this on Monday), with what I've been able to see and hear on TV and Radio and read in the newspapers.

If that is the case, then I'll be sleeping a little easier at night, because as a player, and now a coach, I have the strong belief (as many do) that it is not the easiest task to achieve a high level of performance without true motivation. I'm sure my adversary this evening, Mich D'Avray, will be looking to provide his players with the necessary motivation required to win back to back N.S.L. Championships.

Whereas here at the Strikers we are working from the other end of the scale, to all intents and purposes, as we try to deal with the underdog tag which seems to be continually attached to us.

If both sets of players managers were to find the correct motivation to apply to their ability, then we are in for an evening of football entertainment, with hopefully the result we are all wishing for.

Before I sign off, I'd like to congratulate Peter Grierson on becoming the Brisbane Strikers Captain, as well as being awarded the player of the season trophy for the Brisbane Premier League. Pete was also the equal top scorer in the league (from midfield) and despite coming into the professional game here in Australia fairly late in his career, he is the epitome of a professional footballer.

Thanks for your support,
Stuart McLaren

From the Captains Desk

I'd like to welcome everyone to what should be a fantastic game tonight against last year's premiers and this year's favourite's, Perth Glory.

A couple of former Strikers boys, Wayne Shroj and Jade North will be lining up for Perth and I'd like to welcome them both back to Brisbane.

The Perth games usually produce plenty of goals and entertaining football and hopefully the same applies for tonight's game.

It's been great to get off to such a positive start to the season with the fantastic 3-1 win over Northern Spirit and there was plenty to take out of last week's 1-1 draw with Olympic, in which we created the better chances.

Playing at Perry Park this season is going to be a lot better for players and fans because of the atmosphere that can be created in the more compact stadium.

Even though we lost our Brazilian import, it was great to see we still had a Brazilian influence off the field with the Samba Band. Keep up the good work.

There is a lot of new faces in the Strikers camp this season. Luciano Trani, Stuey's Assistant, has been fantastic. He is very professional and hopefully this will rub off on the players.

All the players get along well and are working very hard at training. Everybody seems determined to do well and there is a very positive vibe at the club.

The existing players from last year's squad seem to be more relaxed under Stuey's guidance that last year and it seems to be paying dividends, with the likes of Josh Rose and David Pilic, who are playing with a lot more confidence.

I am also impressed with all the league debutants performances and believe they will grow in confidence.

I can also assure supporters that this team will no doubt improve with every fixture.

Enjoy the Game

From the BSSA

In recent weeks some of the BSSA members who have access to the BSSA e-mail list have participated in a very interesting, lively and sometimes heated discussion relating to print media coverage of our football code and to a lesser extent, the Strikers.

In a reply to an earlier BSSA editorial criticising the lack of positive media coverage relating to the launch of the current NSL season, journalist Ray Gatt of The Australian newspaper e-mailed a lengthy response, detailing as to what in his opinion are the shortcomings and failures of the NSL and the participating clubs.

Gatt's reply generated a great deal of comment and angst within our membership ranging from tacit acceptance of his diagnosis to what one member described as a "load of bs". Foremost in Gatt's assertions are that most NSL clubs fail to promote themselves, there is a general lack of direction within the NSL, no plan for the future, no sponsor or promotion, etc., etc. In the interest of unbiased reporting, we have published Gatt's reply to the editorial on the BSSA website www.go.to/bssa

Whilst realistically the BSSA has no argument with Gatt's assertions (and those of other journalists), we believe that he completely misses a very valuable point, the average supporter wants to read in the newspapers positive issues about football, the teams, the individual players and the coaches. For too long we have been subjected in this country to negative type reporting relative to our football code. It is time to redress the inequity with more balanced journalism! It is at least gratifying to know that locally, Courier-Mail (Rugby League) journalist Bernie Pramberg can write and focus on positive issues about Football and the Strikers.

The BSSA through the Free Kick and website ensures that you always have up to date, positive and accurate information about the Strikers. As expected, this is a demanding activity and new members to share the workload or promote or participate in new activities are more than welcome. If you consider you are ready for a challenge or just want to be a Strikers supporter, please complete the application form below.

BSSA monthly meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month. The next monthly meeting of the BSSA is October 18 commencing at 7 pm. The venue is Crosbys @ Albion.

Enjoy tonight's match.

From the Benches

The Brisbane Strikers good early season form, which see's the young, talented side underrated in it's opening two games, will have to be at their best for the visit of the Glory's boys.

They will have to build upon last weeks game against the side Perth defeated to take out last seasons championship Sydney Olympic, it they are to gain all three points in tonight's match.

The Strikers bouyd by their first up victory were quietly confident of securing its second win for the season and the first in front of their home crowd.

Coach McLaren named an unchanged starting line-up from the side that kick-started the new campaign with an emphatic victory on the road in the opening round.

With the only change coming on the substitutes bench, with the inclusion of recent signing Warren Moon, which allowed Daniel Dregger to retain his match fitness and touch, for the Youth side in the earlier match.

The signing of Moon from the Brisbane Premier League, bolsters an already impressive squad, with Stuart hoping that his latest acquisition's positive play and nose for goal will see him be the perfect cover for Matt McKay while he is away on Australian commitments.

Warren came on to replace Matt in the second half last week, giving him his first taste of National League Football.

The Sharks started the game the better of the two teams and could easily taken an early lead, had it not been for some wayward finishing.

The home side finally settled, and began creating chances of their own. Luke Morley was the thickness of the post away from making it 3 in 2 games, however the rebound was blazed over the bar.

With both teams having opportunities the teams went to the break still deadlocked.

Brisbane continued the pressure after the break and were rewarded a free kick for a foul on the nippy McKay, Which was duly dispatched into the top corner of the net by David Pilic from the subsequent kick. Olympic to their credit went looking for the equaliser, and a piece of individual brilliance from Olympic's Jim Bakis levelled the scores in the 63rd minute.

The remainder of the game, saw both sides have chances to win it, with the Strikers best chance resulting in a goal line clearance.

Blanchy's Babble

Home Sweet Home

As the dust settled late last Saturday night and I went about my final duty for the day that of stowing the family and my gear for the trip back to the Peninsula. I asked my better half "What did you think" (trust me, her honesty can be brutal) "it felt like a home game" was the simple reply. Going by the feedback I received both on the night and since then, it is clear the vast majority of you, especially the ones who attended last week and were part of the "Strikers coming home party" enjoyed their "night at the Strikers" and if the noise generated by you, the fans, is anything to go by, Perry Park will once again be one of the most intimidating venues for opposition sides in the National Soccer League.

For game day to be successful a lot of behind the scenes planning and organising has to take place and for this the Brisbane Strikers Board and Staff members should be congratulated, for what they have achieved in a very short period of time. Equally as important to the success on game day are the loyal band of volunteers. I am proud to be a member of this group of hard working, enthusiastic individuals and families, whose commitment to the club and passion for the beautiful game are the only rewards necessary for a hard days night. (I know I babbled about this last issue, but the effort and the unbelievable job they did at the first home game, rated a second mention).

As you are sitting there thinking, "What can I do to help?" or "How do I get involved?" well in the case of most things about me, the answer is simple. Just give me a call or email the club and if you must, use the snail mail. Go on, take the first step to join me and others just like you to be part of the off-field team.

It has been an observation of mine that football fans are creatures of habit. (Are you in the same spot?)

This was confirmed while on my walk round, ground check (it was close to a hobble, by that stage I had blisters the size of poached eggs!) and to my astonishment I located a number of long time supporters and friends of mine sitting in the same spot they used to on the Northern Hill end, before the move away all those years ago. There was obviously some thought in the preparation for these folk, as they had remembered to pack the folding chairs. (I can't be sure if they were the same ones though, my memory is not what it used to be.)

Now what I saying? Ah Yes, its not often you get value for money in these times of brand name everything. Well, have I got a deal for you! How's $5.00 for a two year "Brisbane Strikers Social Club Membership". No it's not a typo, that's right, you get to be a Brisbane Strikers Social club member for the ridiculously low price of $5.00. But wait, there's more! (I have always wanted to do that). While you're on your way back from becoming a social member why not stop in at the BSSA stand near the main gate and become a Brisbane Strikers Supporters Association Member. You're a supporter and it's your club. That's the only motivation you should need to help build a strong happy club.

It has come to my attention that quite often people who go about their business quietly and efficiently, sometimes get overlooked when the credits are being handed out. So I would like to personally thank both Melissa and Peta for their wonderful match day contributions. Well done and thank you ladies.

The visit of Perth Glory always brings out the passion in Brisbane supporters, and tonight will be no different. Get into the spirit of the game and join in the vocal support led by the point guards of sound, the BSSA. The Glory is in the middle of an extended away trip campaign, while refurbishment takes place at Perth Oval. This could leave the pre-season favourites ripe for the picking by a hungry Strikers outfit.

In response to the numerous queries about the black arm bands worn by the players and coaching staff at the first home game, this was due to the passing of the long time Strikers supporter, Mrs Ann Knight, who lost her battle with illness on the eve of the Strikers return to Perry Park. Our condolences to the family on their loss.

Well I've babbled on so much this time, I've probably been continued, which means I am on another page now. See, I can be in two places at once so no matter what your place in the sun, all that's left to do is to settle in and enjoy the action.

Junior Development Report

It was a great pleasure to play my first national soccer league game at Perry Park.

The atmosphere was sensational, its a pity we didn't come away with the three points.

But, there was little time to reflect on the game as on Sunday the Brisbane Strikers conducted a coaching clinic/family day at Perry Park.

After a very testing game the night before it was a credit to all the players who turned up and put in a great effort from around 10 o'clock in the morning till nearly 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

It was a fantastic turn out with around 75 junior soccer players participating in a coaching clinic during the morning followed by a mini world cup in the afternoon.

I must admit the mini world cup was very exciting with the competition being very close and competitive.

It was also great to see the no fear approach by some of the younger players, serving it up to some of the older counter parts.

I definitely believe everyone involved had a great deal of fun, and hopefully everyone is here tonight cheering us on using their family pass!!!

I must once again thank all the players who turned up and gave up most of their day off, well done again guys! Special thanks to Luciano and Ray Bentley who helped organise and run the day.

Also to Jacqui, Geoff and Peta for all their tireless work in the food van and helping to organise and run the day.

A really great team effort! I hope everyone enjoys the game tonight it should be heaps of fun!!!
